Stand-by supply.

77. Notwithstanding anything in this or any other Act a person shall not be entitled to demand or continue to receive for the purposes of a stand-by supply only from the Company a supply of gas for any premises having a separate supply of gas or a supply (in use or ready for use for the purposes for which the stand-by supply of gas is required) of electricity steam or other form of energy unless he has agreed with the Company to pay to them such minimum annual sum as will give them a reasonable return on the capital expenditure incurred by them in providing such stand-by supply and will cover other standing charges incurred by them in order to meet the possible maximum demand for those premises and the sum so to be paid shall be determined in default of agreement by arbitration in manner provided by the Arbitration Act 1889 Provided that the minimum annual sum in the case of a stand-by supply of gas for domestic purposes shall not exceed twenty shillings.

supply to persons in debt for other premises.

78. If a person requiring a supply of gas from the Company has previously quitted premises at which gas was supplied to him by the Company without paying to them all gas charges and meter rent due from him to the Company they may refuse to furnish to him a supply of gas until he pays the same.

Consumer to give notice before removing.

79. At least twenty-four hours' notice shall be given to the Company by every gas consumer either personally at the office of the Company or in writing before he shall quit any premises supplied with gas by meter by the Company and in default of such notice the consumer so quitting shall be liable to pay to the Company the money accruing due in respect of such supply up to the next usual period for ascertaining the register of the meter on such premises or the date from which any subsequent occupier of such premises shall require the Company to supply gas to such premises whichever shall first occur Notice of the effect of this enactment shall be endorsed upon every demand note for gas charges payable to the Company.

Notice to discontinue supply of gas.

80. A notice to the Company from a consumer for the discontinuance of a supply of gas shall not be of any effect unless it be in writing signed by or on behalf of the consumer and be left at or sent by post to the office of the Company or delivered by the consumer personally at the office of the Company.

[20 & 21 GEO. 5.] South Yorkshire and Derbyshire Gas Act, 1930. [Ch. clxiii.]

81.—(1) In any case in which the Company are by virtue of any enactment relating to the undertaking authorised to cut off and discontinue the supply of gas to any premises in consequence of any default on the part of the occupier of the premises it shall be lawful for the Company without prejudice to any other remedy which may be lawfully available to them to disconnect at the meter the service pipe (whether belonging to the consumer or to the Company) and any person who shall re-connect such service pipe with the meter without the consent of the Company shall be deemed to commit an offence within the meaning of section 18 of the Gasworks Clauses Act 1847 :

A.D. 1930.
As to mode of cutting off supplies.

Provided that if and so soon as the matter complained of shall have been remedied nothing in this section shall prejudice or interfere with any rights vested in any person by virtue of section 11 of the Gasworks Clauses Act 1871.

(2) For the purposes of this section the Company (subject to the provisions of section 22 of the Gasworks Clauses Act 1871) shall have and may exercise the like powers of entry as are exerciseable under that section.

82. In any case in which the Company lawfully cut off a supply of gas by reason of any act omission or default of a consumer or any other person they may recover from the person to whom the supply was theretofore furnished or from any other person on account of whose act omission or default such supply was cut off (as the case may be) the reasonable expenses incurred by them in such cutting off in like manner as charges for gas are recoverable by the Company.

supplied conferred upon the Company by section 21 of the Gasworks Clauses Act 1871 shall extend to all premises in which there is any service pipe connected with the gas mains of the Company except where the occupier of the premises shall have applied in writing to the Company for the disconnection of the service pipe from the mains of the Company :

Provided that nothing contained in this section shall apply to any fittings or works belonging to the London and North Eastern Railway Company or the London Midland and Scottish Railway Company (each of which companies is in this proviso referred to as "the railway company") and laid or placed or intended to be laid or placed in any premises (not being a dwelling-house) of the railway company forming part of the railway premises of the railway company.

Relief from
supply.

85. Unless at the date of the demand for any such new or increased supply of gas as is hereinafter referred to the capacity of the distribution works of the Company is in the opinion of an arbitrator appointed as hereinafter provided insufficient to meet (with a reasonable margin) the requirements (as existing immediately before that date) of the consumers in the portion of the limits of supply for which such works have been provided (so far as such requirements could reasonably have been foreseen) the Company notwithstanding anything contained in any other enactment shall not be obliged to give for any purpose other than lighting or domestic use—

- (a) a new supply of gas for the premises of any person demanding such supply at any time after the appointed day; or
- (b) an increased supply of gas (other than an increased supply necessitated by any reduction of the declared calorific value of the gas);

where the giving of such new or increased supply would render necessary the laying of a new main or the making (as an alternative to the laying of a new main) of any enlargement or alteration of or addition to the distribution works of the Company. Provided that the foregoing provisions of this section shall not apply in any case in which the person demanding the new or increased supply

(in this section referred to as "the applicant") shall enter into a written contract with the Company— A.D. 1930.

- (i) to receive and pay for a supply of gas of such minimum quantity and for such minimum period as the Company may reasonably require; or
- (ii) to make such payment or payments to the Company (in addition to any payments to be made from time to time for gas supplied to the applicant) as the Company may reasonably require

(according as the Company may in their discretion determine) in consideration of or by way of contribution towards the expenses to be incurred by the Company in laying such new main or making such enlargement alteration or addition as aforesaid and shall give such security for the payment of all moneys which may become due under the contract as the Company may reasonably demand. If any question shall arise under the provisions of this section between the Company and the applicant as to the sufficiency of the distribution works of the Company or as to whether such new or increased supply would necessitate the laying of a new main or the making of any such enlargement alteration or addition as aforesaid or as to the reasonableness of the minimum quantity or period or of the payments (in addition to payments for gas supplied) required by the Company or as to the nature or amount of the security demanded by the Company such question shall be referred to and determined by an arbitrator to be appointed (failing agreement between the Company and the applicant) by the Board of Trade on the application of either party after notice in writing to the other of them and the decision of such arbitrator shall be final and binding. In determining any such question as aforesaid the arbitrator shall have regard to the following among other considerations (that is to say):—

- (a) the total annual quantity of gas required by the applicant the maximum quantity required per hour and the hours of the day during which the Company may be called upon to supply gas to the applicant;
- (b) the capital expenditure which the Company would have to incur in the laying of a new main or the making of any enlargement or alteration

- (2) The plan required by section 9 of the Gasworks Clauses Act 1847 shall be accompanied by a section of the proposed works :
- (3) The Company shall not in the construction or maintenance of the works by this Act authorised or in the maintenance of any existing works of the Company without the previous consent in writing of the county council under the hand of their clerk raise lower or divert any such road nor shall the Company without such consent as aforesaid interfere with the structure of any bridge or approach repairable by or under the control of the county council but such consent shall not be unreasonably withheld :
- (4) In laying or constructing any mains pipes culverts or other works of the Company in along or across any such road bridge or approach the Company shall conform with all reasonable requirements of the county surveyor :
- (5) The surplus paving metalling or materials removed during the laying of mains pipes culverts or other works shall not be placed on the metalled portion of such road except subject to such conditions and directions as the county surveyor may reasonably require or give :
- (6) All surplus paving metalling or materials removed during the laying of the mains pipes culverts or other works in any such road bridge or approach and not required by the Company for the purpose of reinstating and making good the same may be used by the county council in the maintenance and repair of any such road in the county :
- (7) When the Company open or break up any such road bridge or approach they shall with all convenient speed complete the work for which the same shall be broken up and fill in and soundly ram in with filling matter approved by the county surveyor the ground so opened or broken up and if the county council so desire the work of reinstatement of the road surface shall be carried out by the workmen of the county council and in such case the Company shall pay to the county council in respect of such reinstatement such sums per lineal yard in the case of a slag road a road constructed of granite and a road constructed of tarmac respectively as may be agreed or failing agreement settled by arbitration as hereinafter provided and such sum or sums shall be payable by the Company to the county council on the completion of the work and shall be a debt recoverable by the county council from the Company : A.D. 1930.

- (8) All works shall be executed so as not to stop the traffic and except so far as in the reasonable opinion of the county surveyor is absolutely necessary so as not to impede or interfere with the traffic over or along any such road bridge or approach :
- (9) In lieu of keeping such roads bridges and approaches in repair as provided by section 10 of the Gasworks Clauses Act 1847 the Company shall repay to the county council all reasonable expenses of and incident to the maintenance and repair thereof for three months after the proper reinstatement thereof and for such further period if any (not being more than twelve months in the whole) during which there shall be any subsidence in the surface thereof caused by such works :
- (10) Nothing in this Act contained shall in any way limit or affect the powers of the county council to divert improve alter widen or reconstruct any such road or to remove alter widen or rebuild any such bridge or approach in alongside or near to which such mains pipes culverts or other works are laid in the same manner as they might have diverted improved removed altered widened reconstructed or rebuilt any such road bridge or approach if this Act had not been passed and in the event of any such road bridge or approach in alongside or near to which the mains pipes culverts or other works are laid being diverted improved removed altered widened reconstructed or rebuilt as aforesaid the Company shall within such reasonable time as the county surveyor may prescribe alter to such position as he may fix such mains pipes culverts or other works and replace the same to his reasonable satisfaction Provided that before such diversion improvement removal alteration widening reconstruction or rebuilding of any such road bridge or approach shall be commenced the county council shall (except in cases of emergency) give fourteen days' notice in writing to the Company of their intention to carry out such works and shall afford all reasonable facilities for temporarily carrying the mains pipes culverts or other works along such road or across or under the stream so as not to interrupt the continuous supply of gas Provided also that all expense reasonably incurred by the Company under the provisions of this subsection in altering the position of such mains pipes culverts or other works shall be repaid to them by the county council except as far as such expense is necessarily incurred consequent upon the removal alteration widening or rebuilding of any such bridge or approach Provided also that if in lieu of replacing any such mains pipes culverts or other works (in this proviso referred to as "apparatus") the Company shall elect to place apparatus of greater dimensions than the existing apparatus or (on account of the worn or defective condition of the existing apparatus) substituted apparatus of not greater dimensions than but in lieu of the existing apparatus the amount (hereinafter referred to as "the gross amount") which would but for this proviso be payable by the county council shall be reduced to an amount to be agreed between the county council and the Company or (failing such agreement) determined by arbitration such amount being (i) in the case of apparatus of such greater dimensions as aforesaid a sum bearing to the gross amount the proportion which the dimensions of the existing apparatus bear to such greater dimensions or (ii) in the case of substituted apparatus a sum bearing to the gross amount the proportion which the effective life of the existing apparatus bears to that of the substituted apparatus : A.D. 1930.

- (11) If any difference shall arise between the county council and the Company under this section such difference shall be settled by an arbitrator to be appointed by the President of the Institution of Civil Engineers on the application of either party and subject thereto in accordance with the provisions of the Arbitration Act 1889.

91. In executing the works and exercising the powers by this Act authorised so far as they affect any road or bridge or the approaches thereto in the county of Derby vested in the county council of the administrative county of Derby (in this section called "the county council") the following provisions for the protection of the county council shall (unless otherwise agreed) apply and have effect (that is to say) :—

For protection of Derbyshire County Council.

- (1) All mains or pipes to be laid in or along any such road or in upon or across any such bridge shall be laid in such position in any such road or at the side thereof as the county council shall by writing under the hand of their surveyor (hereinafter referred to as "the county surveyor") reasonably direct and if under the metalled portion of the road at such depth not being more than three feet as the county surveyor may reasonably direct :
- (2) The surplus paving metalling or materials removed during the laying of any mains pipes or other works to be laid as aforesaid shall not be placed on the metalled portion of the road without the written consent of the county surveyor and subject to such conditions (other than a payment of money) and directions as he may reasonably require or give and all surplus paving metalling or materials removed during the laying of any such mains pipes or works and not required by the Company for the purpose of reinstating and making good the road or bridge may be used by the county council for the maintenance and repair of any other road in the county :

A.D. 1930.

- (3) The notice required by section 8 of the Gasworks Clauses Act 1847 shall (except for the laying connecting or repairing of consumers' service pipes as to which three days' notice shall be given) be not less than seven days instead of not less than three days :
- (4) Nothing in this Act contained shall authorise the Company to interfere with the structural part of any such bridge without the consent in writing of the county surveyor which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld :
- (5) Nothing in this Act contained shall interfere with the right of the county council to alter the level of or deviate or improve any such road or to remove alter widen or reconstruct any such bridge or approach in over or along which any mains pipes or works of the Company shall have been laid in the same manner as they might have altered deviated improved widened or reconstructed such road bridge or approach if this Act had not been passed and in the event of any such alteration deviation improvement removal widening or reconstruction being intended by the county council the Company shall with all convenient speed on receiving ten days' notice (or shorter in cases of emergency) in writing under the hand of the county surveyor so to do alter the position of any such mains pipes or works in such manner and to such extent as such notice may reasonably prescribe and replace the same to his satisfaction Provided that the county council shall afford all reasonable facilities to the Company for such alteration and for temporarily carrying or supporting such mains pipes or works along such road or across or under the same so as not to interrupt the continuous supply of gas or to diminish the pressure of such supply through such mains pipes or works Provided also that all expense incurred by the Company under this subsection shall be repaid to them by the county council except so far as such expense shall be incurred consequent upon the removal alteration widening or reconstruction of any such bridge or approach :

- (6) All works of the Company so far as they affect any such road or such bridge shall be so executed by the Company as not to stop the traffic and so far as reasonably practicable as not in any way to impede or interfere with the traffic on any such road or over any such bridge or the approaches thereto and the Company shall not open or break up at any one time a greater continuous length than one hundred yards of the metalled portion of any such road nor more than fifty yards where there is only sufficient room for one cart to pass nor in the latter case shall such openings or breakings up be carried out without leaving where reasonably practicable a clear space of one hundred yards between consecutive openings or breakings up unless with the consent of the county surveyor which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld Provided always that where reasonably practicable at least twelve feet of metalled road shall be kept clear for the use of the public : A.D. 1930.
- (7) The Company shall pay to the county council the reasonable expenses incurred by them in relation to the superintendence by the county council or their surveyor of any work to be done by the Company under the provisions of this Act so far as such work affects any such bridge or any road over the same :
- (8) The county council shall not be liable for or in respect of any damage or injury done to any work of the Company by reason of such work being laid at a depth below the surface of any road over any such bridge insufficient for its protection from injury arising from the use by the county council of any steam or other roller for the repair of the said road :
- (9) All expenses payable by the Company to the county council or by the county council to the Company under the provisions of this section shall be recoverable as a debt due from the Company to the county council or from the county council to the Company as the case may be :

A.D. 1930.

(10) If the Company shall execute any works contrary to the provisions of this section section 11 of the Gasworks Clauses Act 1847 shall (mutatis mutandis) apply to such offence. If otherwise than in proceedings under section 11 or section 12 of the said Act any difference arises between the county council and the Company touching this section or anything to be done or not to be done thereunder or the giving or withholding of any consent or the conditions of giving the same or any direction such difference shall be settled by arbitration by an engineer to be agreed upon between the county council and the Company and failing agreement to be appointed by the President of the Institution of Civil Engineers on the application of either party and the Arbitration Act 1889 shall apply to any such arbitration :

(11) The agreement dated the twenty-seventh October one thousand nine hundred and eight made between the county council and Henry Ellison and relating to the opening and breaking up of county bridge roads and bridges is annulled without prejudice to anything done or suffered thereunder.

For protection of Sheffield
Gas Company.

92. Notwithstanding anything in this Act the Company shall not supply gas within or for use within or break up any streets or roads or exercise any other powers within the limits of supply of the Sheffield Gas Company as defined in the Second Schedule of the Sheffield Gas (Consolidation) Act 1929 except with the consent of that Company.

incurred by the railway company of and in connection with the employment by them during the construction repair or renewal of the authorised works over under or across the railway or other property of the railway company of a sufficient number of inspectors signalmen or watchmen to be appointed by the railway company for watching and protecting the said railway and the conduct of the traffic thereon with reference to and during the construction repair or renewal of the authorised works and for preventing as far as may be all interference obstruction danger and accident from any of the operations or from the acts or defaults of the Company or their contractors or any person or persons in the employ of the Company or their contractors :

- (8) If at any time it is found necessary in order to enable the railway company to carry out any alterations widenings or extensions of their existing railway or works that the position of the authorised works shall be altered the Company shall on receiving not less than one month's notice in writing from the said engineer so to do at the Company's own cost and with all reasonable dispatch alter the position of the same in accordance with plans sections and specifications previously submitted by the Company to and reasonably approved by the railway company or their engineer so far as may be reasonably necessary to enable the railway company to carry out such alterations widenings or extensions and the provisions of this section shall apply to the authorised works in their altered position :
- (9) Any additional expense which the railway company may reasonably incur in widening altering reconstructing repairing or maintaining their railway or other works by reason of the existence of the works of the Company upon across over or under the same shall be paid by the Company :
- (10) Any difference arising between the Company and the railway company respecting any of the matters referred to in this section shall be referred to and determined by an arbitrator to be agreed upon by the railway company and the Company or failing agreement to be appointed at the request of either party after notice in writing to the other by the President of the Institution of Civil Engineers and subject as aforesaid the provisions of the Arbitration Act 1889 shall apply to any such reference.

A.D. 1930.

PART VII.

HEAT UNIT BASIS FOR GAS SUPPLY.

96. For the purposes of this Act the number of therms supplied by the Company to any consumer shall be ascertained from time to time by multiplying the number of British thermal units comprised in the declared calorific value of the gas by the number of cubic feet thereof registered by that consumer's meter and dividing the resulting sum by one hundred thousand.

Measure of therms supplied.

97. Until such time as the Company shall become entitled as provided by this Act to supply gas of a different calorific value the calorific value of the gas supplied by the Company shall be four hundred and seventy-five British thermal units.

Calorific value of gas.

98. If at any time after the appointed day the Company desire to supply gas of a different calorific value from that which they are then supplying the Company shall by advertisement in the London Gazette and by notice in writing to the Board of Trade and to the county council and to each of the local authorities whose county or districts are within or partly within the limits of supply and to each consumer of gas supplied by the Company declare their intention to supply at the expiration of three months from the date of such notice or at such later date as may be specified in such notice gas of such different calorific value as may be declared in such advertisement and notice and the calorific value as so declared by the Company shall thereafter be the declared calorific value for the purposes of this Act unless and until varied by subsequent declaration under the provisions of this Act.

Declaration of calorific value.

A.D. 1930.
Adjustment of consumer's appliances.

99. If and so often as the Company shall declare their intention to supply gas of a different calorific value from the calorific value which they are supplying at the date of such declaration the Company shall effect any readjustment or replacement of consumers' appliances which may be required in consequence of such alteration of calorific value and so that the gas supplied can be burned in such appliances with safety and efficiency except in the case of a consumer who objects to such readjustment or replacement. On each such occasion the Company shall carry out such readjustments and replacements as they are by this section required to effect within six months from the date when they commence to effect the same and without charge to the consumer.

Pressure of gas.

100. The minimum pressure of gas supplied by the Company shall in any main or in any pipe laid between the main and the meter having an internal diameter of two inches or upwards be such as will balance a column of water not less than two inches in height :

Provided always that—

- (a) whenever the declared calorific value is less than three hundred and fifty British thermal units the minimum pressure of the gas supplied by the Company in any such main or pipe as aforesaid shall be such as will balance a column of water not less than two and a half inches in height; and
- (b) whenever the declared calorific value is less than three hundred British thermal units the minimum pressure of gas supplied by the Company in any such main or pipe shall be such as will balance a column of water of such height not being less than three inches as shall be prescribed by the gas referees.

As to application of Act of 1920.

101. The following sections or parts of sections of the Act of 1920 as amended by the Act of 1929 shall apply to the Company as if the provisions of this Part and of Part VIII (Provisions as to price and profits) of this Act were an order made under section 6 of the Act of 1929 in relation to the Company (namely):— A.D. 1930.

- Subsection (7) of section 1 (Power to substitute new basis of charges);
- Subsection (1) of section 2 (Composition and pressure of gas to be supplied);
- Section 4 (Appointment of gas referees and examiners);
- Section 5 (Power to prescribe tests);
- Section 6 (Appeals to chief gas examiner);
- Subsections (3) and (4) of section 7 (Remuneration and expenses of gas referees);
- Section 8 (Penalties for failure to comply with prescription of gas referees);
- Section 9 (Forfeiture for deficient calorific value &c.);
- Section 11 (Fees for examination of meters);
- Section 12 (Application of ss. 5 and 6 of 4 Edw. VII. c. 28);
- Section 13 (Meters to be stamped);
- Section 15 (Accounts and returns);
- Section 16 (Power to make rules);
- Section 18 (Definitions); and
- Section 20 (Expenses of local authorities).

Save as aforesaid the provisions of the Act of 1920 (other than section 10 of that Act) shall not apply to the Company.

PART VIII.

PROVISIONS AS TO PRICE AND PROFITS.

102.—(1) Except as by this Act provided the profits of the Company to be divided amongst the holders of ordinary stock in any year shall not exceed the following rate (which is in this Act referred to as “the standard rate of dividend”) that is to say the rate of six pounds in respect of every one hundred pounds of such stock and so in proportion for any fraction of one hundred pounds. Profits of Company limited.

[Ch. clxiii.] *South Yorkshire and [20 & 21 GEO. 5.]
Derbyshire Gas Act, 1930.*

A.D. 1930.

(2) In respect of every one hundred pounds actually paid up of so much of the additional capital as may be issued as preference capital the rate of dividend shall not exceed seven pounds and so in proportion for any fraction of one hundred pounds.

Standard price.

103. The standard price in respect of gas supplied by the Company to consumers by meter shall be twelve pence per therm.

Differential price.

104. The price charged by the Company for gas supplied by them to consumers by meter within the parishes or townships of Whitwell Elmton Clown Staveley and Barlborough in the county of Derby and the parishes of Harthill and Woodhall Thorpe Salvin and Todwick in the west riding of the county of York may exceed by not more than three pence the price per therm at the same time charged for gas so supplied within the other parts of the limits of supply but any sum so charged in excess shall not be taken into account for the purposes of the section of this Act of which the marginal note is "Dividend dependent on price charged."

Dividend dependent on price charged.

105. The Company may increase or reduce the price charged by them for gas above or below the standard price subject to a reduction or increase in the standard rate of dividend on the ordinary stock of the Company as follows :—

(1) In respect of any half-year during any part of which the price charged by the Company shall have been above the price of twelve decimal four pence per therm the dividend payable by the Company in respect of that half-year shall not exceed a dividend at a rate per centum per annum less than the standard rate of dividend by three shillings in respect of each one-fifth of a penny or part thereof by which the highest price charged by the Company in that half-year exceeds the said price of twelve decimal four pence :

(2) And in respect of any half-year during the whole of which the price charged by the Company shall have been below the standard price the dividend payable by the Company in respect of such half-year may be a dividend at a rate per centum per annum exceeding the standard rate of dividend by three shillings in respect of each one-fifth of a penny by which the highest price charged by the Company in that half-year is less than the standard price : A.D. 1930.

Provided that if the rate of dividend payable in any half-year is less than the standard rate of dividend the Company or the directors (as the case may be) may declare and pay a dividend at a rate in excess of the rate of dividend so payable (but not in excess of the standard rate of dividend) if they also transfer forthwith to the profit and loss (net revenue) account from the reserve fund a sum equal to the amount by which the total dividend paid exceeds the total dividend which would but for this proviso be payable.

106.—(1) If at any time after the expiration of three years from the date of the passing of this Act it is shown to the satisfaction of the Board of Trade— Revision of standard price.

(a) that the costs and charges of and incidental to the production and supply of gas have substantially altered from circumstances beyond the control of or which could not reasonably have been avoided by the Company; or

(b) that the costs and charges of and incidental to the production and supply of gas would have been substantially reduced if the Company had availed themselves of circumstances reasonably within their control; or

(c) that there has been a material alteration in the relative quantities of gas purchased in bulk and gas manufactured by the Company; or

(d) that there has been an increase or decrease in—

(i) the rate of interest which the Company are obliged to pay on capital raised or money borrowed for the purposes of the undertaking; or

(ii) the cost to the Company of providing works plant or apparatus for the supply of gas; or

(iii) the annual output of the undertaking;

the said Board may if they think fit on the application of the Company or of the local authority make an order varying the standard price either by way of increase or

A.D. 1930. — decrease and on the making of any such order this Act shall have effect as if the standard price fixed by such order were substituted for the standard price prescribed by this Act.

(2) The standard price fixed by any order made by the Board of Trade under this section may from time to time be revised by orders made by the said Board in the like circumstances on the like application and with the like consequences as in the case of an order under subsection (1) of this section.

(3) Before making any order under this section the Board of Trade shall require the Company to give public notice in the London Gazette and in such other manner as the said Board may consider best adapted for informing persons affected of the application for an order and of the standard price proposed and as to the manner in which and time within which objections may be made and shall where they think it expedient to do so cause an inquiry to be held. The notice to be given under this section shall include notice to the local authority.

(4) In this section the expression "local authority" has the meaning assigned to that expression by the Act of 1920 and includes in addition any rural district council.

Application of excess of profits over standard rate of dividend.

107. If the clear profits of the Company in any year or half-year amount to a larger sum than is sufficient to pay the dividend on preference capital and the authorised rate on the ordinary stock of the Company the excess shall be carried forward to the credit of the profit and loss (net revenue) account for the next following year or half-year. Provided that the sum so carried forward shall not exceed the total of the following amounts:—

(a) the amount required by the Company for paying any dividend on preference capital (if any) or ordinary capital or interest on moneys borrowed for the purposes of the undertaking which the Company are entitled or required to pay but have not paid in respect of the year or half-year preceding such following year or half-year;

(b) an amount equal to the total sum which will be required for paying one year's dividend on

In these regulations "the directors" means the directors of the Company "the trustees" and "the secretary" respectively mean the trustees appointed under and the secretary of any scheme for the time being in force enabling the employees of the Company or any of them to participate in the profits of the Company "appointor" means any person entitled to make a nomination under clause 2 of this Part of this schedule "stock" means stock of the Company "deposits" means and includes any bonus to which the appointor may be entitled under the co-partnership rules and any accumulation of dividends and interest savings and other sums of money of an appointor credited to his account or due to him under any such scheme or in the books of the Company "nominee" means any person or persons named in a nomination made under this schedule "beneficiary" means and includes any nominee entitled under a nomination made under this schedule and any person entitled under clause 7 of this Part of this schedule to be registered as holder of any stock or to be paid any deposits and any references to the "value" of stock shall be deemed to refer to the market price of stock of the same class at the date on which the value of the stock is required to be determined or if there is no such market price then the fair value of such stock at that date to be determined by the Company's auditors.

Disposal of stock and deposits by nomination.

2. Subject to and in accordance with the regulations set forth in Part II of this schedule any person holding in his own right any stock under any such scheme as aforesaid or having any bonus accumulation of dividends and interest savings or other sums of money left in the hands of or deposited with the Company under any such scheme may if he be of the age of sixteen years or upwards nominate any person or persons who on the death of the appointor shall subject to the provisions of this schedule be entitled to be registered as holder of any stock and to be paid any deposits to which the appointor shall be entitled at his death to the extent of a total value of not exceeding one hundred pounds.

Revocation of nominations.

3.—(1) Any nomination made under the provisions of this schedule may be revoked in manner mentioned in Part II of this schedule but shall not be revocable or variable by the will of the appointor or any codicil thereto.

[20 & 21 GEO. 5.] South Yorkshire and Derbyshire Gas Act, 1930. [Ch. clxiii.]

(2) The marriage of an appointor shall operate as a revocation of any nomination made by him before such marriage. A.D. 1930.

(3) The death of a nominee in the lifetime of the appointor by whom he has been nominated shall operate as a revocation of the nomination to the extent to which the same relates to the deceased nominee.

4. After the expiration of one month from the death of an appointor who has made a nomination in force at his death the directors or the trustees (as the case may require) shall subject to the provisions of this schedule give effect to such nomination and shall in accordance with the directions of the nomination but subject to the extent mentioned in clause 2 of this Part of this schedule register the nominee as holder of the stock and pay to the nominee the deposits to which the appointor was entitled at his death or as the case may be the portion of the stock and deposits comprised in the nomination. Provided that if the directors or trustees receive notice of any claim of a creditor of the deceased appointor before the expiration of one month from his death they shall retain the whole amount of the stock or deposits comprised in the nomination or a sufficient amount thereof to satisfy the claim (whichever amount shall be the less) until the said claim has been satisfied disproved or withdrawn. Proceedings on death of appointor.

5. Where the directors or trustees have registered stock in the name of or paid deposits to a nominee in ignorance of a marriage of the deceased appointor contracted after the nomination the registration shall be deemed to have been lawfully made and the receipt of the nominee shall be a valid discharge for any sum so paid and neither the directors nor the trustees shall be under any liability to any other person claiming such stock or deposits. Legality of acts done in ignorance of marriage of appointor.

6. In the event of the directors or trustees being restricted under the provisions of this schedule from giving effect to any nomination made by a deceased appointor and in force at his death relating to both stock and deposits to the whole extent thereof they shall primarily give effect thereto to the extent to which it relates to stock. Nominations to take effect as regards stock in priority to deposits.

7.—(i) If any appointor shall die without having made any nomination under this schedule in force at his death and the total value of the stock and deposits to which he is entitled at his death does not exceed one hundred pounds and probate of the will of the appointor or letters of administration to his estate are not produced within such time (not being less than one month after his death) as the directors think reasonable then at the expiration of such time the directors or the trustees (as the case Disposal in case of no nomination.

A.D. 1930. may require) shall subject to the provisions of this Part of this schedule register the stock in the names of and pay the deposits to—

- (a) the widow (if any) of the deceased appointor;
- (b) if there be no widow the person or persons entitled in distribution to the residuary estate of the appointor in accordance with the provisions of section 46 (1) (ii) to (v) inclusive of the Administration of Estates Act 1925 and in default of any such person to the Solicitor for the Affairs of His Majesty's Treasury;
- (c) in any event if the directors think fit any person who has paid the funeral expenses of the appointor up to such amount not exceeding the total amount of such expenses as the directors shall deem it reasonable to allow:

Provided that in every case where the deceased appointor has left no widow and the persons entitled under the said Administration of Estates Act 1925 are more than two the directors may if they think fit sell the stock and distribute the proceeds (after deducting the proper expenses of such sale and distribution) among such persons in the shares in which they are entitled under the said Act and for the purposes of such sale the directors may by a resolution authorise the secretary to execute the transfer of the stock to the purchaser or the purchasers thereof:

Provided also that if the directors or trustees receive notice of any claim of a creditor of the deceased appointor before the expiration of one month from the death of the appointor they shall retain the whole amount of the stock or deposits of the deceased appointor in their hands or a sufficient amount thereof to satisfy the claim (whichever amount shall be the less) until the said claim has been satisfied disproved or withdrawn.

(ii) The provisions of this clause shall also apply in the case of the death of any appointor being entitled at his death to stock or deposits of a total value not exceeding one hundred pounds who has made a nomination in force at his death where such nomination relates to a portion only of the stock and deposits to which he is entitled at his death but in such case the provisions of this clause shall extend only to the portion of the stock or deposits to which the nomination does not relate.

(iii) Any registration of stock or payment of deposits or the proceeds of any sale made either (a) under the foregoing provisions of this clause in the name of or to any person who at the time appears to the directors to be entitled to such stock deposits or proceeds under such provisions or (b) under the provisions of clause 9 or clause 10 of this Part of this schedule in the name of or to any person on behalf of or for the benefit of or as trustee for any person who at the time appears to the directors to be so entitled as aforesaid and any sale of stock to a bona fide purchaser made by the directors under the provisions of this clause shall be valid and effectual against any demand made upon the Company or the directors or the trustees by any other person. Provided nevertheless that the legal personal representative or representatives of the deceased appointor shall have a remedy for the recovery of such stock deposits or proceeds against the person in whose name the same shall have been registered or to whom the same shall have been paid but nothing in this proviso shall confer upon any person any such remedy against a bona fide purchaser of such stock or against the widow of a deceased appointor or shall confer upon any person on behalf of or for the benefit of or in trust for whom the stock deposits or proceeds have been so registered or paid any such remedy against the person in whose name or to whom the same have been registered or paid.

A.D. 1930.

8. In any case where under the provisions of this schedule any beneficiary would be entitled to be registered as the holder of any amount of stock of less than one pound or of any amount of stock exceeding one pound but including a fractional part of one pound it shall be lawful for the directors in lieu of registering such beneficiary as holder of such amount of stock of less than one pound or (as the case may be) such fractional part of one pound of stock to pay to him a sum in cash equal to the value of such amount or fractional part on the date of the death of the appointor in whose name the stock was previously registered and the trustees shall if so required by the directors forthwith repay such sum to the directors out of any moneys in their hands and such amount of stock or fractional part of one pound of stock shall forthwith be registered in the names of the trustees.

Provisions as to small amounts of stock.

9. Where any beneficiary is under the age of sixteen years and it is proved to the satisfaction of the directors that funds are needed for the maintenance education or benefit of such infant the directors or the trustees (as the case may require) may notwithstanding any other provisions of this Part of this schedule register the stock and pay the deposits to which the beneficiary is entitled or any part thereof in the name of or to any person who may satisfy the directors that he will apply any money so paid to him or received by him from the sale of or as dividend bonus or otherwise on such stock for the maintenance education or benefit of such beneficiary and the receipt of such person shall be a good discharge to the directors and trustees for any sums so paid.

Provisions as to beneficiaries under sixteen.

10. Where any beneficiary is under the age of sixteen years it shall be lawful for the directors by resolution to appoint any person whom they think fit to act as a trustee for such beneficiary and thereupon the directors or the trustees (as the case may require) shall notwithstanding any other provisions of this Part of this schedule register the stock and pay the deposits to which Directors may appoint trustee for beneficiary under sixteen.

[Ch. clxiii.] South Yorkshire and Derbyshire Gas Act, 1930. [20 & 21 GEO. 5.]

A.D. 1930. — the infant beneficiary is entitled or any part thereof in the name of or to such person and such person shall so far as is necessary apply the deposits and any dividends bonuses or interest on the stock or deposits or shall sell the stock or any part thereof and apply the proceeds of such sale for the maintenance education or benefit of the beneficiary and the receipt of such person shall be a good discharge to the directors and trustees for any sums so paid. Provided always that if and when the beneficiary attains the age of sixteen years the person so appointed shall transfer or pay to the beneficiary any stock deposits dividends bonuses interest or proceeds of sale then held by such person on behalf of the beneficiary.

Power to infant beneficiaries over sixteen.

11.—(1) When any beneficiary is an infant but over the age of sixteen years it shall be lawful for the infant to sell and transfer any stock registered in his name to the Company or the trustees at the value thereof.

(2) The receipt of any beneficiary who has attained the age of sixteen years shall be a good discharge for any sum paid to him under any of the provisions of this schedule notwithstanding that such beneficiary has not attained the age of twenty-one years.

Estate duty payable in certain cases.

12.—(1) If the principal value of the estate in respect of which estate duty is payable of any deceased appointor exceeds one hundred pounds any stock or deposits to which he is entitled at his death shall be liable to estate duty as part of the property on which that duty is charged and the directors before dealing with or disposing of the same under the provisions of this schedule may require a statutory declaration by a beneficiary that such principal value does not exceed one hundred pounds.

(2) Nothing in this clause shall render the directors or the trustees accountable for the payment of the estate duty in respect of any stock deposits or other moneys which they have registered paid over distributed or otherwise disposed of in accordance with the provisions of this schedule.

As to stock and deposits exceeding one hundred pounds.

13. Notwithstanding anything in this schedule if the total value of the stock and deposits to which the appointor was entitled at his death exceeds one hundred pounds the directors and/or the trustees shall before registering stock in the name of or making any payment to any person other than the legal personal representative or representatives of the deceased appointor to an extent greater than three-fourths of the total value of such stock and deposits require production of a certificate from the Commissioners of Inland Revenue of the payment of the estate duty and a duly stamped receipt for the succession or legacy duty payable in respect of the stock and deposits or a certificate from the said commissioners stating that no such duty is payable thereon and the commissioners shall give such certificate on receipt of payment of the duty or satisfactory proof that such duty has been paid or that no such duty is payable as the case may be.

PART II.

A.D. 1930.

REGULATIONS AS TO NOMINATIONS.

1. A nomination shall be in writing in the form prescribed by the directors and shall be signed by the appointor in the presence of a witness.

2. A nomination may be revoked by the appointor by a subsequent nomination made and registered in accordance with these regulations or by writing under his hand signed in the presence of a witness.

3. A nomination or a revocation shall be sent by post to or left at the office of the secretary during the lifetime of the appointor.

4. A nomination or a revocation when received by the secretary shall be registered by him forthwith and the receipt thereof shall be acknowledged but the secretary may refuse to register a nomination or a revocation which does not comply with these regulations.

5. A nomination or a revocation which does not comply with these regulations or has not been received by the secretary shall not have any validity or effect.

6. A nomination may relate to the whole of the stock and deposits to which the appointor may be entitled or to part only thereof.

7. Except where otherwise stated a nomination shall be deemed to extend to all stock and deposits to which the appointor is entitled at the time of his decease up to a total value not exceeding one hundred pounds but an appointor may in a nomination expressly exclude any part of such stock or deposits from the operation of such nomination.

8. A nomination may be in favour of one person or of several persons and in the latter case may subject as hereinafter mentioned direct that on the death of the appointor the stock shall be registered in the name of and the deposits shall be paid to one or more of the nominees or that the nominees shall be registered as owners of the stock and shall take the deposits respectively in specified shares or may give directions to both effects Provided that it shall not be lawful for a nomination to direct that stock shall be registered in the names of more than two persons as joint holders.

9. No person who witnesses the signature of an appointor to a nomination shall take any benefit under such nomination.
