PART II.

FORMATION OF UNITED DISTRICT AND CONSTITUTION OF JOINT BOARD.

3. The constituent districts shall be formed into a united district to be called the Lindsey and Lincoln Joint Smallpox Hospital District for the purposes of the provision maintenance and management for the use of the inhabitants of the constituent districts of hospitals for the reception of cases of smallpox.

Formation of united district.

4. The joint board shall consist of five members ex-officio and twenty-six elective members and shall be called the Lindsey and Lincoln Joint Smallpox Hospital Board.

Constitution and name of joint board.

5.—(1) Subject to the provisions of this order the persons mentioned in column 2 of the first schedule to this order shall be ex-officio members of the joint board.

Members
 ex-officio of
 joint board.

(2) If any of the persons mentioned in column 2 of the first schedule to this order—

(a) is unwilling to act ex-officio as a member of the joint board; or

(b) is disqualified or becomes disqualified as a member of the joint board;

he shall send the clerk of the joint board an intimation in writing of his unwillingness to act or disqualification (as the case may be) and thereupon the deputy-mayor of the county borough of Lincoln or the vice-chairman of the district council unless he is disqualified for being a member of the joint board shall in substitution for the mayor or chairman become the member of the joint board who represents ex-officio that borough or district.

(3) If any person shall hold more than one of the offices described in column 2 of the first schedule to this order he shall (unless he is unwilling to act as or is disqualified for being a member of the joint board) inform the clerk of the joint board in writing of the name of the constituent district which he desires to represent ex-officio as a member of the joint board and the deputy-mayor or vice-chairman of the council of the constituent district not so selected (unless he is disqualified for being a member of the joint board) shall in substitution for the mayor or chairman thereupon become the member of the joint board who represents ex-officio that constituent district.

(4) Where in pursuance of this section the deputy-mayor of the county borough of Lincoln or the vice-chairman of any district council becomes ex-officio a member of the joint board he shall cease so to be a member when the mayor or chairman in substitution for whom he acts ex-officio as a member ceases to be mayor of the borough or chairman of the district council.

joint board.

6.—(1) The elective members of the joint board shall be elected by the constituent councils.

(2) The number of members of the joint board to be elected by each constituent council shall be the number opposite the name of the constituent council in column 3 of the first schedule to this order and that number of members of the joint board shall be chosen by the constituent council from among the members of the council.

First election of
joint board.

7.—(1) At meetings to be held by the constituent councils before the appointed day or on such later day as the Minister may direct each constituent council shall elect from among their members the number of members mentioned in column 3 of the first schedule to this order to represent the council on the joint board.

(2) The clerk of each of the constituent councils shall give or send to each member of the council not less than seven days' previous notice in writing of the meeting or the usual notice as provided by the standing orders of the council with reference to meetings and shall within seven days after the holding of the meeting notify in writing to the Minister the name address and occupation of each person elected by the constituent council as a member of the joint board.

(3) The persons elected in pursuance of this section as members of the joint board shall come into office on the appointed day.

Tenure of office of
members.

8.—(1) An elective member of the joint board shall continue in office until the expiration of the period for which he was elected a member of the joint board or until he dies or resigns or ceases to be a member of the constituent council by whom he was elected or otherwise becomes disqualified or until he becomes ex-officio a member of the joint board :

Provided that a member of the joint board shall not for the purposes of this order be deemed to have ceased to be a member of a constituent council by retirement if before the day of his retirement as a member of the council he has been re-elected a member thereof.

(2) Any elective member of the joint board who ceases to hold office by reason of the expiration of his period of office or by

 casual vacancies.

9.—(1) Any vacancy occurring among the elective members of the joint board by death resignation disqualification or otherwise shall be filled by the constituent council in whose representation the vacancy has occurred at a meeting to be held within six weeks after the occurrence of the vacancy or within such further period as the Minister may direct.

(2) The clerk of the constituent council shall forthwith notify in writing to the clerk of the joint board the name address and occupation of any person elected under this section to fill a casual vacancy.

10. Such of the provisions of section 46 of the Local Government Act 1894 and section 10 of the Local Government Act 1929 as relate to disqualification for being elected or being a member of the council of a district other than a borough and to absence from meetings of any such council shall with the necessary modifications extend to disqualification for being elected or being a member of the joint board and to absence from meetings of the joint board.

Disqualification for membership of joint board and absence from meetings.

11.—(1) The first meeting of the joint board shall be held at such time and at such place as may be fixed by the Minister.

Meetings of
 joint board.

(2) Subsequent meetings of the joint board shall be held at such times and places as the joint board may appoint and at all meetings of the joint board seven members shall constitute a quorum.

(3) An extraordinary meeting shall be summoned by the clerk of the joint board when a requisition for that purpose is addressed to him by the chairman or any three members of the joint board.

(4) The requisition shall be in writing and no business other than that specified in the requisition shall be transacted at the extraordinary meeting.

(5) Notices of all meetings of the joint board shall be delivered or sent by post so as to reach the last known place of abode or business of each member of the joint board three clear days before the day of meeting or at such earlier time as the joint board may direct.

12. The joint board shall from time to time appoint one of their number to be chairman for one year at all meetings at which he is present :

Provided that a chairman so appointed shall unless he resigns his office of chairman or member of the joint board or ceases to be qualified or becomes disqualified as such a member continue in office until his successor is appointed.

13.—(1) The joint board may appoint committees composed of their members for the exercise of any powers which in the opinion of the joint board can be properly exercised by committees but the acts of every such committee shall unless otherwise directed by the joint board be submitted to the joint board for approval:

Provided that a committee so appointed shall not be authorised to borrow money or to issue any precept for contributions or to enter into any contract.

(2) The provisions of part four of the first schedule to the Local Government Act 1894 so far as those provisions are applicable shall extend to any committee appointed in pursuance of this section.

PART III.

POWERS AND DUTIES OF THE JOINT BOARD.

Application of enactments.

14.—(1) For the purposes of the provision maintenance and management of hospitals for the reception of cases of smallpox the joint board shall exercise and perform and be subject to all the powers duties and liabilities of an urban authority under the enactments mentioned in the second schedule to this order and those enactments shall extend to the joint board with such modifications as may be necessary to make them applicable to the purposes of this order to the joint board and to the united district:

Provided that section 258 of the Public Health Act 1875 as applied by this section shall be modified by the insertion in that section after the words "local authority" of the words "or joint board" and after the words "such authority" of the words "or joint board."

(2) Nothing in this order shall affect the powers of a constituent council under any enactment applied to the joint board by this section except so far as the powers duties or liabilities under the enactment are within the purposes for which the joint board are formed as described in subsection (1) of this section.

Order.*

Common fund of
joint board.

19.—(1) All the expenses incurred by the joint board shall be defrayed out of a common fund to which all the receipts of the joint board (including the sums payable to them in respect of the cost of maintenance in their hospitals of patients) shall be carried.

(2) So far as the common fund is not provided by the receipts referred to in subsection (1) of this section precepts shall be issued by the joint board in respect of each half-year to each constituent council requiring them to pay a contribution to the common fund of the joint board.

(3) The contribution of each of the constituent councils to the common fund of the joint board shall be based on the proportion which the population of the constituent district bears to the aggregate of the populations of all the constituent districts.

(4) For the purposes of this section the population of a constituent district shall be ascertained from the report of the Registrar-General on the census last taken which may be published before the issue of the precept.

Calculation and payment of charges for patients.

20.—(1) The charges to be made by the joint board to the constituent councils during any half-year in respect of patients maintained in the hospital during that half-year shall be a charge per day calculated to the nearest penny and derived in the manner indicated in this section from the average daily amount of expenditure of the joint board during the half-year divided by the average number of patients in the hospital on each day of the half-year.

(2) Within three weeks after the close of each half-year the joint board shall calculate the average daily amount of the expenditure charged in their accounts for that half-year and the average number of patients in the hospital on each day of the half-year :

Provided that establishment expenses of the hospital including—

- (a) loan charges and the expenses of the purchase or hire of land;
- (b) the provision alteration or repair of buildings or the provision or repair of furniture and fittings; and
- (c) the salaries remuneration and rations of officers and servants not being temporary nurses;

shall be excluded from the calculation of the average daily amount of the expenditure.

- (a) the name and address of the patient;
- (b) the number of days in the half-year during which the patient was an inmate of the hospital;
- (c) the charge per day in respect of the patient calculated in accordance with the foregoing provisions of this section;
- (d) the charge for the half-year being the charge per day multiplied by the number of days in the half-year during which the patient was an inmate of the hospital;
- (e) a deduction in respect of any sum recovered by the joint board from or repaid to the joint board by or for the patient; and
- (f) the net sum claimed by the joint board as due for the maintenance of the patient from the constituent council.

(4) For the purposes of this section the day on which a patient entered the hospital and the day on which he was discharged therefrom shall both be included as days on which the patient was an inmate of the hospital.

21. The amount shown to be due from a constituent council by the account prepared by the clerk of the joint board under the preceding section of this order shall be paid by that constituent council and shall be included as a separate item of any precept which the joint board may issue to the constituent council under section 284 of the Public Health Act 1875 and in case of default shall be recovered in the manner authorised by that section.

Inclusion in precepts of charges for patients.

22. All orders for payments from the common fund of the joint board shall be signed by at least two members of the joint board and shall be countersigned by the clerk of the joint board or in his absence or inability by such other officer as the joint board for the purpose may authorise.

Orders for payments.

23. The accounts of the joint board shall at all reasonable times be open to inspection and transcription free of charge by any member of a constituent council or by any officer of a constituent council authorised by that council for that purpose.

Inspection of accounts.

24. A copy of the abstract of the accounts of the joint board and of any report to the joint board made by the district auditor shall be sent by the joint board to each constituent council as soon as may be after the completion of the audit.

PART V.

SUPPLEMENTARY.

25.—(1) If at any time—

- (a) any new district is formed which comprises the whole or any part of a constituent district or the boundaries of a constituent district are otherwise altered;
- (b) a constituent district is created or included in a municipal borough; or
- (c) any alteration is made in the law affecting the united district or the joint board or a constituent district or constituent council in matters touching their relation to the united district or the joint board;

the Minister may on the application of the joint board or any constituent council by order provide for the adaptation of this order to the altered circumstances.

(2) If on an application made by the joint board or any constituent council it shall appear to the Minister that the population of any constituent district has so increased as to render the representation of the council of that district on the joint board inadequate the Minister may by order provide for the appointment of additional members of the joint board by that council.

(3) Every order under this section shall be published by the joint board in such manner as the Minister may direct.

Settlement of differences.

26. Subject to the provisions of this order any difference arising under this order shall be referred to arbitration in the manner provided by the Public Health Act 1875 and the provisions of that Act relating to arbitrations shall apply with the necessary modifications as if the joint board or a constituent council (as the case may be) were a party within the meaning of those provisions.

Inquiries and expenses.

27.—(1) The Minister may direct any inquiries to be held by his inspectors which he may deem necessary for the purposes of this order and those inspectors shall for the purposes of any inquiry have all such powers as they have for the purposes of inquiries directed by the Minister under the Public Health Act 1875.

(2) Where the Minister causes any such inquiry to be held the costs incurred by the Minister in relation to that inquiry (including such reasonable sum not exceeding five guineas a day as the Minister may determine for the services of any inspector or officer of the Minister engaged in the inquiry) shall

 joint board.

(1) article IV of the order of 1916 shall be amended by the substitution of the words “ nine elective members ” for the words “ eight elective members ” ; and

(2) the schedule to this order shall be substituted for the schedule to the order of 1916 and that order shall have effect accordingly.

4. The provisions of article VIII of the order of 1916 shall apply to the first election by the Merton and Morden council of the additional elective member to represent that council on the joint board as if the election related to the filling of a vacancy occurring at the date of the Act of Parliament confirming this order.

First election of additional member.

5. If on an application made by the joint board or a constituent authority it shall appear to the Minister that the rateable value of a constituent district has so increased as to render the representation of the council of that district on the joint board inadequate the Minister may by order provide for the appointment of additional members of the joint board by such council.

Power of Minister to increase representation of constituent authority.
