York Gas Act, 1936.

[Ch. cii.]

CHAPTER cii.

An Act to confer upon the York Gas Company powers with reference to the making of provision for supplies of gas in certain cases and for other purposes. A.D. 1936.
[31st July 1936.]

WHEREAS the York Gas Company (hereinafter referred to as "the Company") were originally incorporated under the name of "the York United Gas Light Company" by an Act passed in the seventh and eighth years of the reign of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria intituled "An Act for uniting the York Gas Light Company and the York Union Gas Light Company and for more effectually lighting with gas the City of York and the suburbs and vicinity thereof in the County of York": 7 & 8 Vict.
c. lxxiv.

And whereas by the York Gas (Consolidation) Act 1912 all the prior Acts of the Company were repealed and the Company were continued incorporated under their present name of "the York Gas Company" and the provisions of all such prior Acts were consolidated and amended: 2 & 3 Geo. 5.
c. lxxi.

And whereas the limits of supply of the Company comprise the city and county borough of York and certain parishes and places in the east north and west ridings of Yorkshire adjoining or in the neighbourhood of the said city and county borough:

And whereas the local authorities for the purposes of the Housing Acts of areas wholly or partly within — the limits of supply of the Company (including the lord mayor aldermen and citizens of the city of York who carry on an undertaking for the supply of electricity) have provided and are in process of providing or will hereafter be called upon to provide housing accommodation for the working classes and in so doing have expended or will require to expend large sums of money raised on the security of the rates leviable by them or on their precept to which the Company contribute as ratepayers :

24 & 25
Geo. 5. c. 28.

And whereas with a view to securing to the tenants of houses provided by local authorities under the Housing Acts a freedom of choice which had been denied to them by such authorities in certain cases as to the form of heat light power or energy to be supplied to or used in such houses it was enacted by section 27 of the Gas Undertakings Act 1934 that the councils of counties county boroughs and urban and rural districts should not insert or procure to be inserted in any instrument in connection with the sale or letting of any premises which they own or in which they have any interest and which are situate within the authorised limits of supply of any statutory gas undertakers not being a local authority a provision restricting the right of any owner or occupier of the premises to take a supply of gas from those undertakers :

And whereas the said lord mayor aldermen and citizens are in a position to supply electricity to those of their tenants who may require such a supply and with that object in view it is their general practice to instal in the houses erected by them and in the course of such erection the necessary wiring for a supply of electricity :

And whereas it is expedient in order to give full and due effect to the object with which the provisions hereinbefore referred to of the said Act of 1934 were enacted that provision for a supply of gas in buildings erected by local authorities within the limits of supply of the Company and the several parts of such buildings should be made in the course of such erection but in the case of certain of such buildings the Company have been denied the necessary facilities for that purpose by the local authority responsible for the erection thereof :

And whereas it is expedient that the provisions contained in this Act relating to the granting to the
