c. 27. incorporated with this Act.

Harbour: And whereas it is expedient and necessary to continue the Operations for deepening and scouring the said Harbour and River authorized by the said recited Act, and to make and maintain new and additional Cuts, Canals, or Channels, Piers, Quays, Tidal Basins, Docks, and other Works and Accommodations in the said Harbour and River: And whereas it is also expedient to establish a separate Trust for the Management of the said Port and Harbour, and for carrying into effect the required Improvements thereon: But as these Purposes cannot be effected without the Authority of Parliament, May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the Provisions contained in "The Harbours, Docks, and Piers Clauses Act, 1847," with respect to the Construction of Warehouses, Wharfs, and other Conveniences, the Rates to be taken by the Trustees, the Collection and Recovery of Rates, the Appointment of Harbour Masters, Dock Masters, and Pier Masters, and their Duties, the discharging of Vessels, and Removal of the Goods, the Protection of the Harbour, Dock, and Pier, and the Vessels therein, from Fire or other Injury, the Appointment of Meters and Weighers, and their Duties, the Bye Laws to be made by the Undertakers, the Access to the special Act, and the saving of Rights, all in so far as is consistent with or not otherwise provided for or not altered or varied by this Act, shall be incorporated with and form Part of this Act.

Trustees appointed.

II. And be it enacted, That the Provost, Four Bailies, Dean of Guild, and Treasurer of the Royal Burgh of Inverness for the Time being, together with Five Shipowners and Five Merchant Traders, qualified and to be elected in manner after mentioned, shall be and they are hereby appointed Trustees and Commissioners for the Harbour and Port of Inverness, and for carrying into effect the Purposes of this Act.

Election of Trustees by Shipowners and Merchant Traders.

III. And be it enacted, That on the Third Monday of November in the present Year, and on the Third Monday of November in every subsequent Year, Meetings shall be held at some convenient Places within the Burgh, for the Purpose of having Trustees elected by the Shipowners and Merchant Traders qualified as after mentioned respectively, of which Meetings, and the Times and Places for holding the same, Intimation shall be given by an Advertisement signed by the Provost or Acting Chief Magistrate or Town Clerk of the Burgh, and inserted in at least One Newspaper published in Inverness, if any such there be, or if there shall be no such Newspaper then in One Newspaper published in Edinburgh, not less than Seven Days previous to the holding of the said Meetings respectively; and that at such Meetings Five Persons, Owners or part Owners of Vessels belonging to the Port of Inverness, qualified as after mentioned, shall be elected from among the Owners of such Vessels, and Five Merchant Traders, qualified as after mentioned, shall be elected from among the said Merchant Traders to be Trustees and Commissioners as aforesaid, by the Majority of the Votes of those present at such Meetings respectively, or, in case of an Equality, by the casting Vote of the Preses

Preses of the said respective Meetings, who shall have such casting Vote in addition to his Vote as a Member of the Meeting.

IV. And be it enacted, That of such Elections a Certificate signed by the Preses of the respective Meetings at which they shall have been made shall be transmitted to the Clerk of the Trustees, which Certificate shall be preserved by him as the Evidence of the Persons elected as aforesaid to act in the Execution of this Act.

Certificate of Election to be transmitted to the Clerk.

V. And be it enacted, That at the Meetings of Shipowners to be held in manner before mentioned every Person being an Owner of Shipping belonging to the Port of Inverness to the Extent of Twenty registered Tons or upwards, and none others, shall have a Voice or Vote at every such Meeting; and such Shipowners being so assembled shall elect a Preses and Clerk, and those present shall, if required, satisfy the said Preses or Clerk by the Production of the Register of a Vessel, or by the Certificate of the Collector or Comptroller of Customs for the Port of Inverness, that he is Owner of Shipping belonging to the Port of Inverness of Twenty registered Tons or upwards.

Qualification of Shipowners.

VI. And be it enacted, That at the Meetings of Merchant Traders to be held in manner before mentioned every Person, being an Owner or Occupier of Lands, Houses, or other Heritages, who, as an Individual, or in conjunction with any other Person or Persons as a Company, is assessed under any Act of Parliament on a Rental of not less than Twenty Pounds Sterling, and who shall at the Time be resident within the Parliamentary Boundaries thereof, shall have a Vote at every such Meeting; and such Merchant Traders, being so assembled, shall elect a Preses and Clerk, and those present shall, if required, satisfy the said Preses or Clerk, by the Production of a Receipt or Certificate from the Collector of such Assessment, of his Qualification.

Qualification of Merchant Traders.

VII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, and until the first Election of Trustees shall have been completed in manner before and after mentioned, the Provost, Bailies, Dean of Guild, and Treasurer of the Burgh shall be and they are hereby appointed Trustees to act in the Execution of this Act, and may appoint ad interim a Clerk to officiate until the first Meeting of Trustees after such first Election.

Magistrates to act until other Trustees are elected.

VIII. And be it enacted, That any Person voting at any such Meeting of Shipowners or Merchant Traders respectively, or subsequently acting as a Trustee in the Execution of this Act, not having the fore-said Qualifications, shall forfeit the Sum of Twenty Pounds, to be recovered and applied as herein-after mentioned; and if any Shipowner or Merchant Trader duly elected a Trustee shall afterwards part with or lose his Qualification, then he shall ipso facto cease to be a Trustee.

Penalty for acting as Trustee without having Qualification.

IX. And be it enacted, That the Election of Trustees in virtue of this Act shall be completed in One Day between the Hours of Ten o'Clock in the Forenoon and Two o'Clock in the Afternoon.

Elections to be completed in One Day.

X. And

Vacancies may be supplied.

X. And be it enacted, That in the event of the Death, Refusal to act or Resignation of any of the Trustees to be elected as aforesaid, or in the event of any of them becoming disqualified as aforesaid, it shall and may be lawful to and for the Trustees in Office at the Time, if they shall think it necessary, to elect in his or their Stead some other Person or Persons, qualified as aforesaid; and the Person or Persons so to be appointed to supply a Vacancy or Vacancies shall have the same Powers and Authority as if he or they had been originally elected at the immediately preceding annual Election, and shall remain in Office until the next annual Election.

Trustees to be elected by Shipowners annually.

XI. And be it enacted, That the first Trustees elected by the Shipowners as aforesaid shall remain in Office until the Third Monday of November One thousand eight hundred and forty-eight, when they shall go out of Office, and their Places shall be supplied by Five other Trustees to be elected by the said Shipowners on the Third Monday of November One thousand eight hundred and forty-eight, and on the Third Monday of November annually thereafter the Ship Owners Trustees then in Office shall go out of Office, and there shall be an Election of Five Shipowners Trustees to supply the Places of those who shall go out of Office for that Year.

Trustees to be elected by Merchant Traders
annually.

XII. And be it enacted, That the first Trustees elected by the Merchant Traders as aforesaid shall remain in Office till the Third Monday of November One thousand eight hundred and forty-eight, when they shall go out of Office, and their Places shall be supplied by other Trustees to be elected by the said Merchant Traders on the said Third Monday of November One thousand eight hundred and forty-eight, and on the Third Monday of November annually thereafter the Merchants Traders Trustees then in Office shall go out of Office, and there shall be an Election of Merchant Traders Trustees to supply the Places of those who shall go out of Office for that Year.

No Elector to have more than One Vote, and Penalty for voting irregularly.

XIII. And be it enacted, That no Elector shall have more than One Vote at the said Elections of Trustees; and if any Person or Persons shall give more than One Vote, or shall vote without being duly qualified according to the Provisions of this Act, every Person so offending shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay the Sum of Five Pounds Sterling, to be applied to the Purposes of the said Harbour.

Magistrates not to be Shipowners or Merchant Traders
Trustees.

XIV. And be it enacted, That no Person who shall hold the Office of Provost, Bailie, Dean of Guild, or Treasurer of the Burgh at the Time of any such Election of Trustees under this Act shall be elected a Shipowners or Merchant Traders Trustee; and if any Trustee chosen at such Election shall during the Time for which he shall have been so chosen be elected to and accept of any of the said Offices he shall thereupon cease to be a Shipowners or Merchant Traders Trustee, and his Place shall be filled up in the same Manner as other Vacancies may be filled up as herein-before mentioned.

Trustees
acting for the Time to execute Act.

XV. And be it enacted, That although the Persons qualified to vote at the Elections of Trustees as aforesaid shall at any Time fail, neglect, or refuse to make due and proper Elections of Trustees at the Periods appointed, appointed, such Failure, Neglect, or Refusal shall not stop or prevent the Execution of this Act by the other Trustees, nor shall the Nonelection, Death, Nonacceptance, Resignation, Disqualification, or Refusal to act of any of the Trustees stop or prevent the other Trustees from acting in the Execution of the Powers committed to the Trustees under this Act, until the Place of such Trustees is filled up by a new Election or Appointment: Provided always, that in all Cases the Trustees duly appointed and elected, and acting for the Time, shall have full Power to execute the Purposes of this Act.

XVI. And be it enacted, That any Trustee going out of Office in virtue of the Provisions of this Act may nevertheless be re-elected or reappointed as a Trustee under this Act. Trustees may be re-elected.

XVII. And be it enacted, That the Trustees shall hold an annual General Meeting within the Town Hall of Inverness, or some other convenient Place within the said Bounds, within Ten Days after the Completion of the said Elections, or as soon thereafter as conveniently may be, and shall then and there appoint a proper Person to be their Clerk during Pleasure, and otherwise proceed to carry the Powers committed to them by this Act into execution, and shall also hold a General Meeting on the Third Wednesday of every Month in each Year at the Place above mentioned, or at some other convenient Place to be fixed by them, with Power to adjourn such Meetings to such other Time and Place as to them, or to the Majority of them, at such first or adjourned Meetings, shall seem meet, such Place or Places being always within the said Bounds; and all Acts, Matters, and Things hereby required to be done by the Trustees at any General Meeting shall and may be done by the Majority of them assembled at any such general or adjourned Meeting, the whole Number present at any Meeting not being less than Five, who are hereby declared to be a Quorum; and at all Meetings of the Trustees the Provost or Senior Magistrate of the Burgh of Inverness present for the Time shall preside, and in his Absence the Trustees present at such Meeting shall elect their Preses for the Time, and the Preses shall, in case of an Equality of Votes, have a casting or decisive Vote besides his Vote as a Member of the Meeting; and if it shall so happen that a sufficient Number of Trustees shall not appear at any such general or adjourned Meeting, then the Trustees or Trustee present, or the Clerk to the Trustees, shall from Time to Time as often as such Case shall happen, adjourn such Meeting to some other Day within Eight Days from the Day on which such Adjournment shall be made; and at all such Meetings the Trustees shall pay their own Expences. Meetings of Trustees and Appointment of Trustees.

XVIII. And be it enacted, That the Trustees shall at the Time of appointing their Clerk fix the Amount of Salary and Remuneration to be paid to him, and the Clerk so appointed shall have Power to act and execute all the Duties imposed upon him by this Act, or which shall be prescribed by such Rules and Regulations as may be established in virtue of the Powers hereby granted. Trustees to fix Salary and prescribe Duties of the Clerk.

XIX. And be it enacted, That it shall be in the Power of any Two of the Trustees to require the Clerk to call a Special Meeting at any Special Meetings of Trustees.
[Local.] 32 U Time,

Time, and the Clerk shall be obliged thereupon to give Intimation of the Time and Place of such Special Meeting to the whole Trustees, by a written Notice addressed to them through the Post Office at least Three Days previous to such Meeting: Provided always, that in Cases of Emergency the Clerk may call a Meeting on One Hour's Notice given to the said Trustees in Writing, stating the Object of the said Meeting; but no Business shall be done at any such Meeting other than the Business of Emergency for which the Meeting may be called.

Meetings to be intimated by the Clerk.

XX. And be it enacted, That Intimation shall be given by the Clerk of all Meetings and adjourned Meetings by printed or written Notices sent through the Post Office to the Trustees under such Regulations as shall from Time to Time be directed by them.

Appointment of Committees.

XXI. And be it enacted, That the Trustees shall have Power and they are hereby authorized from Time to Time to appoint Committees of their Number consisting of not less than Three, with Power to execute any of the Purposes of this Act which it may be deemed expedient to commit to their Charge.

Trustees not to hold Office, nor be concerned in any Contract under this Act.

XXII. And be it enacted, That no Trustee shall hold any Place or Office of Emolument under this Act, either as a Principal or Deputy, nor be directly or indirectly concerned in any Contract under this Act; and any Trustee offending shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay a Sum not exceeding Fifty Pounds, and over and above such Penalty any such Contract shall be null and void.

Trustees not to act where they are personally concerned.

XXIII. And be it enacted, That no Trustee shall vote or otherwise act as a Trustee in any Case wherein he shall be personally concerned, directly or indirectly; and any Trustee offending shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay a Sum not exceeding Twenty Pounds.

Trustees may act as Justices of the Peace.

XXIV. And be it enacted, That all such Trustees as are Justices of the Peace or Magistrates may act as such in the Execution of this Act, notwithstanding their being Trustees, except in Cases where they may be personally interested.

Minute Books to be kept.

XXV. And be it enacted, That the Trustees shall direct a Minute Book or other Book to be provided and kept by their Clerk, in which true and regular Entries shall be made of the Names of the Trustees who shall attend the Meetings, and of all their Orders and Proceedings, and such Orders and Proceedings so entered shall be signed by the Chairman or Preses of the Meeting; and all such Entries, being so signed, and also the Book herein-after directed to be kept for registering the Assignations or other Conveyances which may be granted by virtue of this Act, shall be admitted as Evidence of the Acts, Matters, and Things therein contained in all Courts whatsoever, relating to any thing done in pursuance of this Act; and every such Minute Book or other Book shall at all reasonable Times be open to the Inspection of the Trustees; and if the Clerk or Person having the Custody thereof shall not permit the Trustees to inspect such Book or Books, such Clerk or Person shall forfeit and pay the Sum of Twenty Pounds for every such Offence.

XXVI. And

XXVI. And be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Trustees, at their first or any subsequent Meeting to be held under and in virtue of this Act, to appoint a Collector, Treasurer, Engineer, Harbour Master, Berth Master, Bulk Master, and such other Officers as they shall judge necessary to be employed under them for carrying this Act into execution, and from Time to Time, as they shall see fit, to remove such Collector, Treasurer, Engineer, Harbour Master, Berth Master, Bulk Master, and other Officers, or any of them, and also the Clerk to be appointed in manner herein-before provided, and to appoint others in their Stead, and to allow and pay such reasonable Fees or Salaries to them as to the Trustees shall appear to be just and proper.

Appointment of Officers.

XXVII. And be it enacted, That the Clerk, Harbour Master, Collector, Treasurer, and other Officers to be appointed as aforesaid shall keep fair and regular Books and Accounts of all Monies received under the Authority of this Act, which Books and Accounts shall be open to the Trustees at all Times when they shall demand Inspection of the same, and shall dispose of such Monies in such Manner as the Trustees shall direct.

Officers to keep Books and Accounts.

XXVIII. And be it enacted, That neither the Person who shall hold the Office of Clerk, nor the Partner of such Clerk, nor any Person in the Service or Employ of such Clerk or of his Partner, shall be eligible to be Treasurer or Collector; and neither the Person who shall be the Treasurer or Collector, nor any Person in the Service or Employ of such Treasurer or Collector or of his Partner, shall be eligible to be Clerk; nor shall the Collector be Treasurer, but the Harbour Master may be Collector; and if any Person offend in any of the following Cases he shall forfeit One hundred Pounds; (that is to say,)

Offices of Clerk, Treasurer, and Collector to be separate.

If any Person accept both the Office of Clerk and Treasurer or Collector:

Penalty.

If any Person, being the Partner of such Clerk, or in the Service or Employ of such Clerk or of his Partner, accept the Office of Treasurer or Collector, or act as Deputy of the Treasurer or Collector, or in any Manner officiate for the Treasurer or Collector:

If any Person, being the Treasurer or Collector, or the Partner of such Treasurer or Collector, or in the Service or Employ of such Treasurer or Collector or of his Partner, accept the Office of Clerk, or act as Deputy of such Clerk, or in any Manner officiate for such Clerk:

If any such Clerk or Treasurer or Collector hold any Place of Profit or Trust under the Commissioners other than that of Clerk, Treasurer, or Collector (as the Case may be):

And any Person may sue for such Penalty before the Sheriff of the County of Inverness or the Court of Session, and shall on Recovery thereof be entitled to full Costs of Suit.

XXIX. And be it enacted, That if any such Clerk, Treasurer, or Collector, or other Officer employed by the Trustees, exact, take, or accept, on account of any thing done by virtue of his Office, or in relation to the Functions of the Trustees, any Fee or Reward whatsoever,

Penalty on Officer taking Fees other than those allowed.

soever, other than the Salaries, Rewards, or Allowances fixed by the Trustees, or be in anywise concerned or interested in any Bargain or Contract made by the Trustees, he shall be dismissed from his Office or Employment, and be incapable of being afterwards employed by the Trustees.

Trustees to take Security from certain Officers.

XXX. And be it enacted, That the Trustees shall take from all Officers in their Employ intrusted with the Receipt or Disbursement of Money sufficient Security for the due Execution of their respective Offices, and for answering and paying, as shall from Time to Time be required, all Sums of Money which shall be by them respectively received, and also for their giving and making respectively true Accounts in Writing, from Time to Time when required, of all Monies by them respectively received or collected for the Purposes of this Act, and when, of whom, and for what the same were so received or collected.

Officers to account.

XXXI. And be it enacted, That every Officer appointed or employed by virtue of this Act shall from Time to Time when required by the Trustees make out and deliver to them, or any Person appointed by them for that Purpose, a true and perfect Account in Writing under his Hand of all Monies received by him on behalf of the Trustees; and such Account shall state how, and to whom, and for what Purpose such Monies have been disposed of; and, together with such Account, such Officer shall deliver the Vouchers and Receipts for such Payments; and every such Officer shall pay to the Trustees, or to any Person appointed by them to receive the same, all Monies which shall appear to be owing by him upon the Balance of such Accounts.

Remedy against Officers failing to account.

XXXII. And be it enacted, That if any such Officer fail to render such Accounts, or to produce and deliver up all the Vouchers and the Receipts relating to the same, in his Possession or Power, or to pay the Balance thereof, when thereunto required, or if for Three Days after being thereunto required he shall fail to deliver up to the Trustees, or to any Person appointed by them to receive the same, all Papers and Writings, Property, Effects, Matters, and Things, in his Possession or Power, relating to the Execution of this Act, or belonging to the Trustees, then, on Complaint thereof being made to any Magistrate acting within the Jurisdiction where such Officer may be found, such Magistrate shall summon such Officer to appear before any Two or more Magistrates, at a Time and Place to be set forth in such Summons, to answer to such Charge; and upon the Appearance of such Officer, or in his Absence, upon Proof that such Summons was personally served upon such Officer, or left at his last known Residence or Place of Abode, such Magistrates may hear and determine the Matter in a summary Way, and may adjust and declare the Balance owing by such Officer; and if it appear, either upon Confession of such Officer, or upon Evidence, or upon Inspection of the Account, that any Monies of the Trustees are in the Hands of such Officer, or owing by him to the Trustees, such Magistrates may order such Officer to pay the same forthwith, and if he shall fail to pay the Amount it shall be lawful for such Magistrates to grant a Warrant to levy the same by Distress,

Distress, or in default thereof to commit the Offender to Gaol, there to remain without Bail for any Time not exceeding Three Months; and in any of the following Cases, (that is to say,)

If such Officer do not appear before such Magistrates at the Time appointed; or

If such Officer appear, but fail to make out such Account in Writing; or

If such Officer refuse to produce and deliver to the Magistrates the several Vouchers and Receipts relating to such Account in his Possession or Power; or

If such Officer refuse to deliver up any Books, Papers, or Writings, Property, Effects, Matters, or Things, relating to the Execution of this Act, or belonging to the Trustees, in his Possession or Power,

Such Magistrates may lawfully commit such Offender to Gaol; and in every such Case of Commitment the Prisoner shall remain in Custody without Bail until he has made out and delivered such Accounts, and delivered up the Vouchers and Receipts, if any, relating thereto, in his Possession or Power, and have delivered up such Books, Papers, Writings, Property, Effects, Matters and Things, if any, in his Possession or Power: Provided always, that if any of the Trustees, or their Treasurer or Collector acting in their Behalf, shall make Oath that he has good Reason to believe and does believe that it is the Intention of such Officer to abscond, it shall be lawful to the Magistrate before whom the Complaint is made, instead of issuing his Summons, to issue his Warrant for bringing such Officer before Two or more Magistrates as aforesaid, but no Person executing such Warrant shall keep such Officer in Custody longer than Twelve Hours without bringing him before Two Magistrates to answer to the Charge as herein-before directed.

XXXIII. And be it enacted, That no such Proceeding against or Dealing with any such Officer as aforesaid shall deprive the Trustees of any Remedy which they might otherwise have against any Cautioner or Surety of such Officer.

Proceedings against Officers, not to discharge Sureties.

XXXIV. And be it enacted, That the Trustees shall cause Books to be prepared and kept by the Harbour Master or Collector, or such other Person as they shall appoint, wherein shall be entered an Account of the whole Monies which shall be levied and paid by virtue of this Act, and in what Manner the same have been applied; and such Books shall be balanced and docketed by a Quorum of the said Trustees yearly, Fourteen Days at least before the Third Monday of November, and the first Balance shall be struck in the Year One thousand eight hundred and forty-eight, from which a Statement of the Receipts and Disbursements for the preceding Year shall be made out and printed, and circulated among the Shipowners and Merchant Traders, being Electors under this Act, on or before the last Day of December, and so on thereafter annually; and a Copy of the said Statement shall be lodged in the Hands of the Town Clerk, where it shall remain for Six Weeks, during which Time it shall be open to public Inspection without Fee or Reward.

Accounts to be kept by Trustees.

Appointment of Auditor.

XXXV. And be it enacted, That the Sheriff shall annually appoint an Auditor for the Purpose of auditing the Accounts of the Trustees under this Act; and in case the Office of such Auditor shall, before such Accounts are audited by him, become vacant by Death or from any other Cause, the Sheriff shall from Time to Time appoint an Auditor to supply such Vacancy.

Duty of Auditor.

XXXVI. And be it enacted, That it shall be the Duty of such Auditor annually to audit the Accounts of the Trustees, and to receive the Accounts required to be prepared by them along with the Vouchers thereof, and to examine the same.

Power of Auditor.

XXXVII. And be it enacted, That for the above Purposes such Auditor shall examine the said Accounts at any Time during Fourteen Days previous to the Third Monday of November, and shall either make a special Report on the said Accounts, or simply confirm the same.

Delivery of Accounts to Auditor.

XXXVIII. And be it enacted, That the Trustees shall deliver to such Auditor the said Accounts, together with their Books and Vouchers, Fourteen Days at the least before the Third Monday of November.

Remuneration of Auditor.

XXXIX. And be it enacted, That the Remuneration of such Auditor for each such annual Audit shall not exceed the Rate of Two Pounds Two Shillings per Day, nor the Sum of Ten Pounds Ten Shillings in the whole, and the same shall be paid to him by the Trustees.

Annual Account to be transmitted to the Sheriff Clerk.

XL. And be it enacted, That the Trustees shall every Year cause an annual Account in abstract to be prepared, showing the total Receipt and Expenditure of all Funds levied by virtue of this Act for the Year ending Fourteen Days before the Third Monday of November or some other convenient Day in each Year, under the several distinct Heads of Receipt and Expenditure, with a Statement of the Balance of such Account, duly audited and certified by the Clerk to the Trustees, and shall transmit a Copy of the said Account, free of Charge, to the Sheriff Clerk for the County of Inverness, on or before the Thirty-first Day of January then next, which Account shall be open to the Inspection of the Public at all seasonable Hours, on Payment of One Shilling for every such Inspection: Provided always, that if the Trustees shall omit to prepare and transmit such Account as aforesaid they shall forfeit for every such Omission the Sum of Twenty Pounds.

Pilots may be licensed.

XLI. And be it enacted, That it shall be in the Power of the Trustees and they are hereby authorized to license, appoint, and regulate a sufficient Number of Persons who shall be certified to be fully qualified as Pilots for the Harbour, and also for conducting Vessels out of and into the River Ness, and to fix the Rate of Pilotage to be paid to the said Pilots, and to remove and displace them at pleasure; and if any Person shall act as a Pilot within the Limits of the Harbour without being licensed and appointed as aforesaid, every Person so offending shall forfeit and pay for each Offence a Penalty not exceeding Twenty Pounds: Provided always, that nothing herein herein contained shall be deemed or construed to exempt the said Port and Harbour of Inverness from the Provisions of any general Act relating to Pilots which may hereafter pass during the present or any future Session of Parliament.

XLII. And whereas a considerable Debt is claimed by the Magistrates and Town Council of the Burgh of Inverness for Advances made by them for improving and extending the Harbour, Piers, and Quays thereof: And whereas the said Magistrates and Town Council, as representing the Community of the said Burgh, have Right by Royal Charter to the said Port, Harbour, and Piers, and have for Time immemorial been in use to levy Harbour and other Dues, Tolls, and Rates within the Precincts of the Harbour, exclusive of the Rates authorized to be levied by the said recited Act, which Dues, Tolls, and Rates so levied in virtue of Royal Charter and Use and Wont have formed Part of the general Revenues of the Burgh, and have been applied indiscriminately to the Purposes of the Burgh, and which Revenues have been relied on by Creditors and others who have treated and transacted with the Magistrates and Council of the said Burgh for the Time being: And whereas it has been agreed that the Amount of the said Debt shall be fixed and held to be Three thousand Pounds as at the Date of the passing of this Act, and it is just and reasonable that the said Sum should be secured and created a Burden upon the Revenue of the Harbour; be it enacted, That the said Sum of Three thousand Pounds, with the Interest which may accrue thereon from and after the passing of this Act, is and shall be a Debt affecting the Harbour, Port, and Piers, and the Rates and Duties leviabie thereat, in virtue of this Act or otherwise.

Debt to Magistrates and Council secured on Harbour
Revenues.

XLIII. And whereas in the Year One thousand eight hundred and sixteen it was arranged that the Sum of Three hundred and thirty-two Pounds per Annum should be paid to the said Magistrates and Town Council, as representing the Community of the said Burgh, as a Compensation for or in lieu of their Rights and Interest in the said Harbour, Port, and Piers as aforesaid, and it is just and reasonable that the said Arrangement should be continued and confirmed by this Act; be it enacted, That the said Sum of Three hundred and thirty-two Pounds per Annum is and shall be a Debt and Burden affecting the Harbour, Port, and Piers, and the Rates and Duties leviabie thereat, in virtue of this Act or otherwise, and that from and after the passing of this Act the whole Rights and Interest of the said Magistrates and Town Council, and the Community of the said Burgh, shall be and are hereby vested in the Trustees appointed by this Act.

Compensation to Magistrates
and Council also secured on Harbour Revenues.

XLIV. And in order to improve and extend the Harbour, Piers, and Quays thereof, and afford additional Harbour Accommodation to the Public and Shipping, be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Trustees and they are hereby authorized, by themselves or their Deputies, Agents, Servants, Workmen, and others, to continue the Operations authorized by the said recited Act to be made in and upon the Harbour, Port, and River, and to erect, make, and construct additional Piers, Breast Works, Landing Places, and Quays, and also to

Trustees to Plan.

XLV. And whereas a Plan and Sections showing the Situation and Line of the Docks, Basins, Cuts, Channels, and Canals, Piers and Breastworks, and other Works connected therewith, intended to be made in virtue of this Act, together with a Book of Reference thereto containing the Names of the Owners, Lessees, and Occupiers of the Lands in which the same are situated, were deposited in the Month of November One thousand eight hundred and forty-six with the Town Clerk of Inverness and with the Sheriff Clerk of the County of Inverness: And whereas certain Objections having been raised to the said Plan and Sections by the Lords Commissioners appointed for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral, and by other Parties, it was found necessary to make another Plan and other Sections, which were deposited with the said Town Clerk and Sheriff Clerk in the Month of April One thousand eight hundred and forty-seven, with a Book of Reference thereto; be it enacted, That the said last-mentioned Plan and Sections and Book of Reference shall remain with and be kept by the said Clerks respectively; and all Persons interested in any Manner in such Lands shall have Liberty at all seasonable Times to inspect and take Extracts from or Copies of the same, on paying to the said Town Clerk or Sheriff Clerk for such Inspection the Sum of One Shilling, and for Copies or Extracts from the said Book of Reference after the Rate of Sixpence for every One hundred Words; and the said last-mentioned Plan and Sections and Book of Reference, or true Copies thereof respectively, or Extracts therefrom of so much as relates to any Matter which shall be in question under this Act, shall be and are hereby declared to be good Evidence in all Courts of Law or elsewhere.

XLVI. And

XLVI. And be it enacted, That for the Purposes of this Act "The Lands Clauses Consolidation (Scotland) Act, 1845," so far as not hereby varied or otherwise provided for, shall be incorporated with and form Part of this Act.

8 & 9 Vict.
c. 19. incorporated with this Act.

XLVII. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Trustees, according to the Provisions herein and in the said Lands Clauses Consolidation Act contained, at such Time and in such Manner as they may deem proper, to take and use and to construct and complete the Works and Improvements hereby authorized to be made and constructed in and upon the Lands and other Heritages described on the said last-mentioned Plan, although such Lands and other Heritages, or any of them, or the Situation thereof respectively, or the Names of the Owners, Lessees, or Occupiers thereof respectively, may happen to be omitted, mis-stated, or erroneously described in the said Book of Reference, if it shall appear to any Two or more Justices of the Peace or to the Sheriff of the County of Inverness (in case of Dispute about the same), and be certified by Writing under the Hand of either of them, that such Omission, Mis-statement, or erroneous Description appears to them to have proceeded from Mistake; and the Certificate of the said Justices or of the said Sheriff shall be deposited with and remain in the Custody of the Sheriff Clerk of the said County.

Errors in deposited Plan, &c.
may be corrected by Justices, who shall certify the same.

XLVIII. And be it enacted, That the Trustees in constructing the said Works and Improvements shall have full Power and Authority to deviate from the Situation and Line thereof as delineated on the said last-mentioned Plan: Provided always, that no such Deviation shall extend, except towards the River, to a greater Distance than One hundred Yards from the Line of such Works so delineated upon the said last-mentioned Plan, nor shall such Deviation extend into the Lands or Property of any Person whose Name is not mentioned in the said Book of Reference, unless with the Consent of the Person whose Lands may be affected by such Deviation, or unless the Name of such Person shall have been omitted by Mistake, and the Fact that such Omission proceeded from Mistake shall have been certified in manner herein-before provided for in Cases of unintentional Errors in the Book of Reference.

Power to deviate in Construction of Works.

XLIX. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Trustees from Time to Time to make Bargains for Materials to be furnished for the Works, and, when it shall appear to be proper, to enter into Contracts in Writing with and give Directions to proper Workmen for the Performance and due Execution of the Works which shall from Time to Time be directed by the Trustees to be done and performed by virtue and in pursuance of this Act; every such Contract in Writing specifying the several Works to be done, the Prices to be paid for the same, and the Time when or within which the said Works are to be completed, and the Forfeitures or Penalties to be borne or suffered for the Nonperformance thereof; and in all Cases where any pecuniary Penalties shall be recovered from any Contractor the same shall be paid to the Treasurer of the Trustees, and be applied to the Purposes of this Act, and to no other Use or Purpose whatever.

Trustees may contract for Materials,
&c.

Sheds, &c. to be erected.

L. And be it enacted, That the Trustees shall be and they are hereby authorized and empowered to erect and construct in and upon the Harbour such and so many Sheds for the Reception, Deposition, and Protection of the Goods, Wares, or Merchandize loading or unloading thereat, and also such and so many Storehouses, Lofts for Sails and other Riggings, and other Erections for the Accommodation of the Trade of the said Port, as may from Time to Time appear to them necessary and expedient, and to remove the same when deemed proper, and erect and construct others in their Stead.

Trustees incorporated,
and Property vested in them.

LI. And be it enacted, That the Right and Property of and in all Buildings and Erections, and the Materials thereof, and of and in all the Pier Heads, Jetties, Docks, Lights, Lighthouses, Works, Quays, Wharfs, Ways, embanked Ground, and Walls, built, made, established, purchased, or acquired under or by virtue of this Act, and of and in all and every the Materials, Implements, Tools, Goods, Matters, and Things provided or had for the Purposes of this Act, shall be and the same are hereby vested in the Trustees, and their Successors in Office, as a Body Politic and Corporate, by the Style and Name of "The Trustees of the Harbour of Inverness," and the Trustees shall by that Name have perpetual Succession and a Common Seal, and sue and be sued; and it shall be lawful for them, and they are hereby required, from Time to Time to sell and dispose of all or any of the said Materials or other Articles and Things, or any Part of the same respectively, and also to sell, or feu or let on Lease, such Part of the Lands or other Heritable Property so vested in them as aforesaid as it shall not be necessary to retain for the proper Purposes of a Harbour by public Sale, at such fair and reasonable upset Prices, Feu Duties, or Annual Rents as they shall fix and determine, the Day of such public Sale or Sales being previously advertised by Handbills circulated through the Town of Inverness, and in some One Newspaper printed and circulated therein, if any such there be, Three several Times, Ten Days at least before such public Sale; but providing and declaring, that in case no Offerer shall appear for the same, or for any Part or Portion thereof, then it shall be in the Power of the Trustees to adjourn from Time to Time the Sale, as to the whole or as to the Part or Portion not disposed of, for such Period not less than Ten Days as they may deem proper, providing such Adjournment be advertised by Handbills, and Twice in such Newspapers as aforesaid at least Ten Days before the Day of Sale; and the whole Sums to be received by the Trustees for the said Properties, either heritable or movable, after deducting the necessary Expences attending such Sales, shall be applied towards the Purposes of this Act, and to no other Uses or Purposes whatever.

Trustees
may sue and be sued.

LII. And be it enacted, That the Trustees may sue and be sued in the Name of any One of their Number, or in the Name of their Clerk or Treasurer; and no Action or Suit which may be so brought, commenced, or prosecuted by or against the Trustees, by virtue or on account of this Act, shall cease or abate by the Death, Suspension, or Removal of such Trustee, Clerk, or Treasurer, but any Trustee, or the Clerk or Treasurer for the Time being, shall be the Party suing or defending such Suit or Action: Provided always, that every Trustee,
Clerk,

Clerk, or Treasurer in whose Name any such Suit or Action shall be commenced, prosecuted, or defended in pursuance of this Act shall be reimbursed, out of the Monies, Rates, and Duties to be raised in virtue hereof, all such Damages, Charges, and Expences as such Party may be put to or become chargeable with by reason of the being so made Pursuer or Defender therein.

LIII. And be it enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act it shall and may be lawful for the Trustees, and for such Person or Persons as they shall from Time to Time appoint and authorize, or to whom the Right of exacting and levying the said Dues and Rates may be set or leased, as herein-after mentioned, to demand, exact, levy, collect, receive, and take of and from the Owner or Owners, Agents or Managers of any Owner or Owners, Master, or other Person having the Charge of every Vessel coming into or going out of the Harbour, or landing or taking on board any Goods or Passengers, or touching at or taking the Advantage or Benefit of the Harbour or any Part thereof, the Rates and Duties specified in Part Second of the Schedule hereunto annexed, and of and from the Importers, Exporters, and Shippers, Consignees, Owners, or Agents for the Owners of all Goods, Wares, Merchandize, and Commodities whatsoever which shall be imported into or exported from the Harbour, or which may be shipped from or landed within the Harbour or any Part thereof, the Rates and Duties specified in the First Part of the said Schedule, as the same shall be bulked and ascertained by the sworn Bulkmaster aforesaid, and which Rates and Duties shall include all Rates, Dues, and Duties of every Kind heretofore leviable by the Magistrates and Town Council at the said Port and Harbour, in virtue of the said recited Act, Royal Charter, Grant, or otherwise: Provided always, that Anchorage Dues shall not be leviable on Vessels taking or using the Caledonian Canal: Provided also, that Shore Dues shall not be leviable for the Carriages, Carts, and Articles carried bonâ fide by the Kessock Ferry Boats which shall by the Influence of the Tide or Stress of Weather be driven to the Quays or Wharfs belonging to the said Port and Harbour, but in such Cases the said Boats shall be exempted from Payment of Anchorage Dues; and such Carriages, Carts, and Articles shall be landed at the said Quays or Wharfs free from all Shore Dues.

Rates and Duties to be levied.

LIV. And whereas the Commissioners for making and maintaining the Caledonian Canal have laid out large Sums of Money in constructing and improving the Quays, Wharfs, Landing Places, and Locks below Muirton Locks: And whereas Differences have existed between the said Magistrates and Town Council and the said Commissioners as to the Right of the said Magistrates and Town Council to levy Shore Dues in those Parts of the Canal, which Differences were referred to the Arbitration of the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury and to the Board of Trade, and have been adjusted upon certain Terms; be it enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners, and for such Person or Persons as they shall from Time to Time appoint and authorize, or to whom the Right of exacting and levying the Dues and Rates may be set or leased, as herein-after mentioned, Commissioners of the Caledonian Canal to levy Rates on Vessels using the Canal.

mentioned, to demand, exact, levy, collect, receive, and take of and from the Owner or Owners, Agents or Managers of any Owner or Owners, Master, or other Person having the Charge of every Vessel coming into or using any Part of the Caledonian Canal below the said Muirton Locks, or landing or taking on board any Goods or Passengers, or touching at or taking advantage thereof, the Rates and Duties specified in the Second and Fourth Parts of the said Schedule, and of and from the Importers, Exporters, and Shippers, Consignees, Owners, or Agents for the Owners of all Goods, Wares, Merchandize, and Commodities whatsoever which shall be imported into or exported from such Part of the said Canal, or which may be shipped from or landed at any Place within or at the same, the Rates and Duties specified in the First Part of the said Schedule; and in exacting, levying, and recovering such Dues, Rates, and Duties the said Commissioners shall possess, exercise, and enjoy the same Powers, Privileges, and Authorities as are vested in the Trustees for exacting, levying, and recovering the Dues, Rates, and Duties to which they are under this Act entitled: Provided nevertheless, that it shall not be lawful for the said Commissioners to reduce any of such Dues, Rates, and Duties below corresponding Dues, Rates, and Duties which may for the Time being be levied by the Trustees: Provided also, that none of the Provisions of this Act, nor any of the Powers or Rights conferred thereby on the Trustees, shall be held to apply to or in any way affect Vessels, Goods, or Merchandize passing through the said Canal or any Part thereof above Muirton Locks, nor to any Goods or Merchandize landed or shipped at any Part of the said Canal situated above the said Muirton Locks.

One Moiety of Dues to be paid over to Trustees.

LV. And be it enacted, That the said Commissioners shall pay over annually on the Thirtieth Day of September to the Trustees One Moiety of all the Dues, Rates, and Duties which may be levied and taken by the said Commissioners under or by virtue of this Act, free from all the Costs of Collection, but deducting Five Pounds per Centum from the said Moiety to meet a Proportion of the Expences necessary for Repairs; and proper Accounts shall be kept by the said Commissioners of all such Dues, Rates, and Duties, which Accounts shall be open to the Inspection of the Trustees, their Agents or Clerk.

Masters and Owners to produce Registers.

LVI. And be it enacted, That the Masters and Owners of all Vessels trading to and from the Harbour and Precincts, and liable to the Payment of Rates and Duties by this Act imposed, shall be and they are hereby required to produce to the Trustees, or to the Collector or other Officer appointed by them, the Registers of their respective Vessels, in order to ascertain the Tonnage thereof; or otherwise they shall permit and suffer the said Vessels to be measured by the Trustees, or by such Person as they shall from Time to Time appoint for that Purpose, such Measurement to be made according to the Directions of any Act for the Time being in force for ascertaining the Tonnage of British Vessels; and the said Owners and Masters shall pay the Rates and Duties according to such Register or Measurement, besides the Expence of the Measurement; and every Owner or Master aforesaid who

who shall refuse to produce the Register of his Vessel, or to allow the same to be measured as aforesaid, shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay to the Trustees a Sum, at their Discretion, not exceeding Five Pounds.

LVII. And be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Trustees to let on Lease to the highest Bidder, at public Roup or Sale for that Purpose appointed, and duly advertised in some Newspaper usually circulated in Inverness at least twice not less than Fourteen Days before such Roup or Sale, all or any of the Rates and Duties aforesaid, for any Term or Space not exceeding Three Years; and in case of all or any of the said Rates and Duties being so let, the Tenants or Lessees thereof shall have the same Powers and Privileges as to levying, collecting, and recovering the said Rates and Duties as are by this Act conferred on the Trustees. Power to lease Rates.

LVIII. And be it enacted, That the Trustees, or any Seven or more of them, may, at any of their General or Special Meetings as aforesaid, and they are hereby authorized and empowered so to do, when and so often and for such Periods of Time as they may see proper, with the Consent of the Creditors thereon, to reduce the Rates and Duties hereby imposed to a less Rate or Rates, or to omit levying such of the said Rates, or any Part or Parts thereof, and to advance or revive the same again, according to what may appear to them to be for the Interest and Advantage of the Trade and Shipping, provided due Notice of the Purpose of such Meeting shall be given to all the acting Trustees by Circulars addressed to each, and sent through the Post Office at least Ten Days before the said Meeting is held: Provided always, that the said Rates and Duties, when so advanced or revived, shall not exceed the Rates and Duties herein-before granted, and that the said Rates and Duties shall be so fixed as that the same shall be taken from all Persons alike, under the same or similar Circumstances. Power of Trustees to reduce Rates.

LIX. And be it enacted, That every Vessel and Boat belonging to or employed in the Service of, or seized or detained on behalf of Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, and every Vessel in the Service of the Customs or Excise or Post Office, and all Officers or Persons employed therein respectively, or in the Service or Employ of the Admiralty or Ordnance, shall have free Use of the said Harbour and Port, and all Anchorages, Piers, Landing Places, Quays, Docks, Basins, Cuts, Canals, Channels, Cranes, and other Works, without any Dues, Charge, or Rate whatsoever being made for the same, and without any Dues, Toll, or Rate being payable for any Baggage belonging to such Officers or Persons aforesaid, and nothing in this or in the recited Act contained shall confer any Power or Control over any of the said Vessels or Boats, their Officers or Crews: Provided always, that if any Person shall claim and take the Benefit of any such Exemption as aforesaid, without being entitled thereto, every such Person shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay the Sum of Ten Pounds. Exemption of Vessels in Her Majesty's Service.

Works below
High-water Mark not to be executed without the Consent of the Lords of the Admiralty.

LX. And be it enacted, That it shall not be lawful for the Trustees to construct below High-water Mark at ordinary Spring Tides any Pier, Landing Place, Quay, Dock, Basin, Cut, Canal, Channel, or other Work hereby authorized to be made, without the previous Consent of the Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral aforesaid, for the Time being, to be signified in Writing under the Hand of the Secretary of the Admiralty, and then only according to such Plan and under such Restrictions and Regulations as the said Lord High Admiral, or the said Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral, may approve of, such Approval being signified as last aforesaid; and where any Pier, Landing Place, Quay, Dock, Basin, Cut, Canal, Channel, or other Work shall have been constructed, it shall not be lawful for the Trustees at any Time to alter or extend the same, without obtaining previously to making any such Alteration or Extension the like Consent or Approval; and if any such Pier, Landing Place, Quay, Dock, Basin, Cut, Canal, Channel, or other Work shall be commenced or completed contrary to the Provisions of this Act, it shall be lawful for the said Lord High Admiral, or the said Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral, to abate and remove and fill up the same, and to restore the Site thereof to its former Condition, at the Cost and Charge of the Trustees, and the Amount thereof shall be a Debt due to the Crown, and be recoverable accordingly.

River Ness not to be diverted.

LXI. And be it enacted, That, notwithstanding any thing in this Act contained, it shall not be lawful for the Trustees to divert in any Manner the River Ness; but it shall be lawful for the Trustees to improve the said River by widening and deepening the Channel thereof, and by rounding off any Turns which appear to be too sudden, so that the general Course of the River as now existing be not disturbed; and such widening, deepening, and rounding off shall be executed in such Manner as the Lord High Admiral, or the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral, shall by Writing under the Hand of the Secretary of the Admiralty approve of.

Works
abandoned may be removed by the Admiralty.

LXII. And be it enacted, That if any Work to be constructed by the Trustees across any tidal Water or navigable River, or if any Portion of the Works hereby authorized which affect any such Water or River, or Access thereto, shall be abandoned by the Trustees, it shall be lawful for the Lord High Admiral, or the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral, to abate, fill up, and remove the same, or such Part or Parts thereof as he or they may at any Time or Times deem fit and proper, and to restore the Site thereof to its former Condition, at the Cost and Charge of the Trustees, and the Amount thereof shall be a Debt due from the Trustees to the Crown, and be recoverable accordingly.

Goods to be
from Piers.

LXIII. And be it enacted, That the Trustees, or any Officer or Person employed by them in virtue of this Act, shall have Power and they are hereby authorized, if they shall see Cause, to remove all such Goods, Wares, Merchandize, Commodities, or other Matters or Things, and

and also all such Horses and Live Stock, as shall be allowed to remain on the said Piers or Quays, and to carry the same to any Warehouse, Yard, or other Place of Safety, to be there detained and kept till Payment of the Charges incurred by such Removal, Keeping, and Detention, together with the Rates and Duties herein-before authorized to be levied on the said Goods, Wares, Merchandize, Commodities, Horses, and Live Stock aforesaid.

LXIV. And be it enacted, That the whole of the Rates and Duties and other Monies levied or recovered by the Trustees under the Authority of this Act shall be applied by them in manner following; videlicet, in the first place, towards Payment of all the Expences connected with the preparing, procuring, and passing of this Act; in the second place, towards Payment of the annual Interest of the Monies due to the said Magistrates and Town Council as aforesaid, and the Monies to be borrowed under the Authority of this Act, for the Purposes of the Harbour, on the Credit of the aforesaid Rates and Duties, in manner herein provided; in the third place, in the Payment of the Sum payable to the said Magistrates and Town Council in name of Compensation as aforesaid; in the fourth place, towards the Expence of enlarging, improving, and deepening the Harbour and other Works connected therewith, and of carrying through and finishing the other Improvements to be executed by the Trustees under this Act, in virtue of the Powers hereby committed to them, and keeping and maintaining in good Order and sufficient Repair, watching, protecting, and lighting the Piers, Quays, and Jetties and other Works in and about the Harbour; and lastly, towards the Formation of a Sinking Fund for the gradual Payment of the Money borrowed for the Purposes of the Port and Harbour.

Application of Rates.

LXV. And be it enacted; That it shall be lawful for the Trustees, when they shall judge it necessary, to borrow and take up from Time to Time at Interest any Sum of Money, not exceeding the Sum of Twenty thousand Pounds in the whole, on the Credit of the said Rates and Duties and other Revenue and Property of the said Harbour, and to grant, assign, and set over the several Rates and Duties granted by this Act, together with the said Works and other Properties connected with the Harbour, to any Person or Persons whomsoever who shall be willing to advance and lend Money thereon, for securing Repayment of the same, with Interest, respectively, which Sum shall to the Extent of Nineteen thousand Pounds be exclusively applied to the Construction and Completion of the said new Cuts, Channels, or Canals, Tidal Basins, Docks, Piers, and other Works, and the Expences attending the same, and towards the Extension and Improvement of the other Works of the said Harbour: Provided always, that it shall be in the Power of the Trustees, as often as any Part of the Debt so contracted as aforesaid shall be repaid to the Creditors having Right thereto, and demanding the same, to borrow such Sum as may be necessary to replace the Sum so repaid, but so that the total Sum borrowed and owing shall not exceed in all the said Sum of Twenty thousand Pounds, exclusive of the Debt due to the said Magistrates and Town Council as aforesaid; all which Assignments to the Persons lending Money as aforesaid shall be made and granted under the borrow Money.

Hands

Hands of the Trustees, or any Five or more of them, in Form or to the Effect following; (that is to say,)

‘BY virtue of an Act of Parliament made [here describe this Act]
 ‘ we of the Trustees of the said Harbour, in consi‘ deration of the Sum of advanced and paid
 ‘ by do hereby sell, assign, and make over ‘ to the said his [or her] Heirs, Executors,
 ‘ and Assigns, the aforesaid Harbour, and Works connected therewith,
 ‘ and all and sundry the Rates and Duties payable to the said Trustees ‘ in virtue of the said Act of Parliament, and all our Right, Title, and ‘ Interest of, in, and to the same, to be held by the said
 ‘ and his aforesaid until the Sum of
 ‘ with the legal Interest thereof, shall be fully satisfied and paid.
 ‘ In witness whereof, &c.’

And all Persons to whom such Assignments shall be made shall be equally entitled one with the other to their Proportion of the said Rates and Duties and Property thereby assigned, according to the respective Sums in such Assignments mentioned to be advanced, without any Preference by reason of Priority in Date of any such Assignments, or on any other Account; and a Copy of every such Assignment shall within Twenty-one Days from the Date thereof be entered in a Book to be kept by the Clerk to the Trustees, which Book shall and may be perused at all seasonable Times by any of the Trustees or Creditors of the Harbour under this Act, and any other Persons interested therein, without Fee or Reward; and the Persons to whom any such Assignment shall be made as aforesaid, or who shall be entitled to the Money due thereon, shall and may from Time to Time transfer their Right or Interest therein to any Person by an Instrument in Writing under their Hands, duly stamped, and in the Form or to the Effect following:

‘I of in consideration of the Sum of ‘ paid by C. D. of do hereby transfer the Assign‘ ment made by the Trustees of the Harbour of Inverness to me, ‘ bearing Date the Day of
 ‘ and all Interest now due and to become due thereon, and all my ‘ Right and Property therein, to the said C. D., his Heirs, Exe‘ cutors, and Assignees.
 ‘ In witness whereof, &c.’

And such Transfer may be indorsed upon the principal Assignment, or on a Paper apart, and the Person to whom such Transfer shall be made may make another such Transfer thereof in Writing as aforesaid; and every such Transfer, being duly stamped, shall within Twenty-one Days after the Date thereof be produced to the Clerk to the Trustees, who shall enter the same in like Manner as the original Assignment in the Book to be kept by him for that Purpose; and every such Entry made of such Transfer shall from thenceforth entitle such Assignee, his Heirs, Executors, and Assignees, to the full Benefit of the original Assignment, and it shall not from thenceforth be in the Power of any Person to whom any Transfer shall have been originally granted to make void, release, or discharge the same, or any Money thereby due, or any Part thereof.

LXVI. And

LXVI. And be it enacted, That if the Trustees shall by virtue of this Act borrow any Sum or Sums of Money at a Rate of Interest less than Five Pounds per Centum per Annum, it shall be lawful for them to express in the Assignment hereby directed to be granted for the same the Rate agreed on, and also that the Lender or Lenders shall at any Time, upon giving Six Months previous Notice, be entitled to the Repayment of the Sum so lent, at any Term of Whitsunday or Martinmas, or, failing such Repayment, to Interest for the same at the Rate of Five Pounds per Centum per Annum from the Expiry of Six Months after Notice so given.

Rate of Interest may be expressed in Assignments.

LXVII. And be it enacted, That the Trustees shall not be personally liable for the Repayment of any Money, or Interest thereof, by reason of having signed the said Securities, but such Securities shall be held as granted on the sole Credit and Security of the Harbour and other Works, Rates, and Duties; nor shall any Trustee be held personally liable upon any Pretext for the Payment of any Sum which he shall not have bound himself to pay personally as an Individual, independently of his Office as a Trustee under this Act.

Trustees not to be personally liable.

LXVIII. And be it enacted, That in case any Person or Banking Company shall agree to allow the Trustees a Credit to the Extent of the Sum which they are authorized to borrow as aforesaid, or any Part thereof, on a Cash Account, according to the Usage of Bankers in Scotland, it shall be lawful for the Trustees to accept of such Credit, and act upon the same for such Sum or any Part thereof; and the Trustees are hereby authorized and empowered to assign, by an Instrument in Writing duly stamped, the Rates and Duties or other Revenues of the Harbour, and the Harbour and Works, in security of such Cash Account, to such Person or Banking Company who shall agree to allow the same; but so that the whole Sum due and owing by the Trustees upon such Cash Account, and for Money borrowed under this Act, shall never, when taken together, exceed the Sum of Twenty thousand Pounds, exclusive of the Debt due to the said Magistrates and Town Council as aforesaid.

Trustees may open Cash Accounts, and assign Rates in security thereof.

LXIX. And be it enacted, That so soon as the Works authorized by this Act are completed a Sum not exceeding Five Pounds per Centum of the Monies which shall then be due and owing of the Sums now due, and the Monies borrowed under the Powers given by this Act, if the Trustees shall deem it expedient, shall, out of the Rates and Duties to be received by them, be set apart yearly as a Sinking Fund, to be applied in the Repayment of the Sums of Money borrowed and owing by the Trustees as aforesaid.

Sinking Fund.

LXX. And be it enacted, That the Trustees shall erect such and so many Cranes and Weighing Machines upon the Works of the Harbour as may be requisite for the loading, unloading, and weighing of such Goods, Wares, and Merchandize as may be imported at and exported from the Harbour, and to provide all such Weights and Measures as may be necessary for weighing and measuring the said Goods, Wares, and Merchandize; and the Trustees are hereby authorized to levy Cranes and Weighing Machines to be put up.

and receive, for the Use of such Cranes and Weighing Machines, of the Owners, Agents, or other Persons having the Charge of such Goods, Wares, and Merchandize, such reasonable Rates and Duties as they shall think proper.

Penalty on throwing Ballast into Harbour.

LXXI. And be it enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act it shall not be lawful for any Person to throw or empty any Ballast, Dirt, Ashes, Rubbish, Shingle, Stones, or any other Thing into the Harbour or Entrances thereto, or to dig or take away any Ballast, Shingle, Stones, or other Things from within the same, without Leave of the Trustees in Writing, under a Penalty not exceeding Twenty Pounds for every such Offence, over and above the Expence of repairing the Damages; and if any Person shall cast out or deposit any Ballast out of any Ship or Vessel upon any of the Quays, Piers, or Works, or in any other Place about the Harbour, except where it shall be pointed out to him by the Harbour Master or Berth Master, such Person shall be obliged immediately to cause the same to be carried off, on pain of forfeiting for every such Offence a Sum not exceeding Five Pounds Sterling, over and above the Expence of removing the same.

Vessels not taking Pilots to pay Pilotage.

LXXII. And be it enacted, That all Masters of Vessels inward bound, of such Tonnage as are by Law required to take Pilots, who shall refuse to take or receive a licensed Pilot, shall be liable to pay the full Pilotage in respect of each Vessel, which shall be recoverable summarily; and it shall be in the Power of the Trustees to award to Pilots who may have rendered extraordinary Assistance to any Vessel bound for or departing from the Harbour such Compensation as may appear to them to be just, to be paid by the Owner or Owners of such Vessels.

Penalty for wilfully injuring Works.

LXXIII. And be it enacted, That if any Person shall from and after the passing of this Act demolish, cut, break, or in any way destroy any of the Piers, Jetties, Quays, or other Works in or belonging to the Harbour, or any Rope or other Thing by which any Vessel lying in the Harbour, or at the Piers, Quays, Breasts, or other Works thereof, shall be moored or fastened, such Person, or if the same be done by any Vessel or Vessels, the Owner or Owners or the Master or Masters of such Vessel or Vessels, shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay a Sum not exceeding Twenty Pounds, besides making good the Damages thereby occasioned.

Disorderly Persons at Harbour may be apprehended.

LXXIV. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Officers to be appointed by the Trustees, and for any Messenger at Arms, Sheriff Officer, Peace Officer, Town Officer, Police Officer, or other Person, to apprehend, and detain till they can be regularly conveyed before a Magistrate, all and every Vagrant, Idler, or disorderly Person who may haunt about the Harbour, Piers, Quays, Wharfs, and other Works connected therewith, without lawful Business, and to seize, secure, and detain, till such Seizure can be regularly reported to a Magistrate, all Ropes, Copper, Iron, Lead, and other Articles of Marine Stores used in the Repair of Ships, and all Goods, Wares, and Merchandize, which may be found in the Custody of such Vagrant, Idler, Idler, or disorderly Person; and if it shall appear that any of such Articles have not been fairly come by, it shall be lawful for the Sheriff, or any Justice of the Peace, or for any Magistrate, to order such Goods to be restored to the proper Owner thereof, or, in case such Owner cannot be found, to confiscate the same in aid of the Rates and Duties leviable by this Act, and punish the Person in whose Custody the same may have been found by Imprisonment in the Gaol of Inverness, or in some other legal Place of Confinement within the County of Inverness, for any Time not exceeding One Month.

LXXV. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Sheriff, Justice of the Peace, or Magistrate to detain such Vagrant Idler, and disorderly Person in any Gaol, Watch-house, or other Place of Security therein, to be detained for Examination for any Space not exceeding Twenty-four Hours, or, as a Punishment, to commit such Offender to any such Gaol, Police Office, Watch-house, or other Place of Security for any Space not exceeding Three Days.

Punishment of Persons

hended.

LXXVI. And whereas Persons guilty of Offences against this Act may be transient Persons, unknown to the Harbour Master, Collector of Duties, or other Officers and Persons acting in reference to the Harbour under the Authority of this Act; be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the said Harbour and Shore Master or Collector of Duties or other Officers respectively to seize and detain any such unknown Person guilty of any Offence against this Act, and convey him to the Police Office of the Burgh of Inverness, to be dealt with as herein-after directed.

Transient Offenders.

LXXVII. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Sheriff or any Two or more Justices of the Peace to appoint such Persons as shall be nominated for that Purpose by the Trustees to be Special Constables and Watchmen within the Harbour and Precincts, and within One Mile of the same; and every Person so appointed shall be sworn in by the Magistrates, Sheriff, or Justices of the Peace duly to execute the Office of a Constable within the Limits aforesaid, and when so sworn in shall have the same Powers, Protections, and Privileges within the Limits aforesaid, and shall be subject to the same Liabilities, as Constables have or are subject to by the Law of Scotland.

Harbour
Constables to be appointed.

LXXVIII. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Trustees to dismiss or suspend any such Constable for Neglect of Duty, and no Person so dismissed or suspended shall be re-appointed except with the Consent of the Trustees.

Trustees
may suspend or dismiss Constables.

LXXIX. And be it enacted, That any Person who shall assault, resist, or obstruct any Constable, Watchman, or other Person in the Execution of any Duty which he is authorized by this Act to perform, or shall aid or incite any Person so to assault, resist, or obstruct, shall for every such Offence forfeit a Sum not exceeding Five Pounds; or, in the Discretion of the Magistrate before whom he is convicted, may be imprisoned for any Term not exceeding Two Months.

Penalty for assaulting Officers.

LXXX. And

Penalty for obstructing Officers.

LXXX. And be it enacted, That any Person who shall obstruct or aid in obstructing any Constable or other Person having Instructions from the Trustees or the Harbour Master from entering into or being in any Vessel within the Harbour, for the Purpose of searching for or extinguishing any Fire, Candles, or Light in or suspected to be in such Vessel, contrary to the Provisions of this Act, or to the Provisions of "The Harbours, Docks, and Piers Clauses Act, 1847," so far as the same is incorporated herewith, or of any Bye Laws made in pursuance thereof, or for the Purpose of discovering any Theft or Embezzlement suspected to have been committed therein, or of quelling any Disturbance, or for any Purpose authorized by this Act, or any Bye Law made in pursuance thereof, shall for every such Offence forfeit a Sum not exceeding Five Pounds.

Penalty for giving spirituous Liquors to Watchmen on Duty.

LXXXI. And be it enacted, That any Person who shall knowingly give, furnish, or supply any Policeman, Watchman, or Constable with any spirituous or intoxicating Liquor during his Period of Duty, or who shall entice him away from his Duty, or attempt to do so, shall for every such Offence forfeit a Sum not exceeding Five Pounds.

Trustees may contract for lighting Harbour.

LXXXII. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Trustees to contract and agree with any Person or Company to light the Harbour and other Works with Gas, Oil, or otherwise, and to supply the Harbour and other Works with Water for the Use of the Shipping resorting to and using the Harbour and other Works, as they shall think necessary and proper: Provided always, that no Vessel using the Harbour shall be obliged to take Water from the Trustees.

Beacons may be erected.

LXXXIII. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Trustees to erect Beacons for the Guidance of Vessels, of such Character, and to be exhibited in such Mode, and to lay down Buoys of such Description, and in such Situation, within the Limits of the Harbour, as shall from Time to Time be prescribed by the Commissioners of Northern Lighthouses in Writing signified under the Hand of their Secretary for the Time being.

Lights, Beacons, &c. not to be exhibited without Consent of Northern Lights Commissioners.

LXXXIV. And be it enacted, That it shall not be lawful for the Trustees to exhibit or alter, or to permit to be exhibited or altered, any Light, Beacon, or Seamark, without the Sanction in Writing of the Commissioners of Northern Lighthouses signified under the Hand of their Secretary first obtained in that Behalf; and if any such Light, Beacon, or Seamark shall be exhibited or altered with such Sanction as aforesaid, the same shall be of such Power, Description, and Character, and shall be from Time to Time discontinued or altered, as the said Commissioners shall from Time to Time direct by due Notice to the Trustees.

Bye Laws.

LXXXV. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Trustees to make such Bye Laws as they shall think fit for regulating the Police of the Harbour, and the Times and Manner in which the Police Officers shall perform their Duties.

LXXXVI. And

LXXXVI. And be it enacted, That no Bye Law which shall be made by the Trustees under the Authority of this Act, or of any Act incorporated therewith, shall be valid or binding, unless the same be sanctioned by the Sheriff; and it shall be incumbent on the Sheriff, on the Request of the Trustees, to inquire into any Bye Laws which may be tendered to him for that Purpose, and to sanction or disallow the same as he shall think meet: Provided always, that no such Bye Laws shall be confirmed unless Notice of the Intention to apply for a Confirmation of the same shall have been given in One or more Newspapers of the County of Inverness, or, if no Newspaper be published in the said County, of the County of Edinburgh, One Month at least before the hearing of such Application; and any Person aggrieved by any such Bye Law, on giving Notice of the Nature of his Objection to the Trustees Ten Days before the hearing of such Application, may, by himself or his Agent, be heard thereon, but not so as to allow more than One Party or his Agent to be heard on the same Objection, unless with the Consent of the Sheriff.

Bye Laws to be sanctioned by Sheriff.

LXXXVII. And be it enacted, That the Production of a written or printed Copy of such Bye Laws, authenticated by the Signature of Three of the Trustees, shall be Evidence of the Existence and of the due making of such Bye Laws in all Prosecutions under the same; and with respect to the Proof of the Publication thereof it shall be sufficient that painted Boards containing a Copy thereof were affixed or continued in the Manner by this Act directed; and in case of any such Boards being afterwards destroyed or obliterated it shall be sufficient to prove that such Board was replaced or restored as soon as conveniently might be, unless Proof be adduced by the Party complained against that such painted Boards did not contain a Copy of the Bye Law under which he shall be prosecuted, or that Boards were not affixed or continued to be affixed as required by this Act.

Bye Laws to be Evidence.

LXXXVIII. And be it enacted, That any Person who shall destroy, pull down, injure, or deface any Board on which any Bye Law relating to the Harbour, or any Rate to be taken under this Act, shall be painted, shall for every such Offence forfeit a Sum not exceeding Five Pounds.

Penalty for defacing Boards.

LXXXIX. And for the Purpose of providing for the Recovery of Damages, Penalties, or Forfeitures imposed by this Act, or by any Bye Law made in pursuance thereof, be it enacted, That any such Damages, Penalties, or Forfeitures may be recovered by summary Proceeding upon Complaint made by the Trustees or their Clerk before the Sheriff, if the Amount claimed shall exceed Five Pounds, but if the same shall not exceed Five Pounds then before the Sheriff or the Magistrates of Inverness; and on the Complaint being made to any such Sheriff or Magistrates he shall issue a Summons requiring the Party complained against to appear on a Day and at a Time and Place to be named in such Summons; and every such Summons shall be served on the Party complained against either in Person or by leaving the same with some Inmate at his usual Place of Abode; and either upon the Appearance or upon the Default to appear of such Party it shall be lawful for the Sheriff or Magistrate to Recovery of Damages and Penalties.

proceed

proceed to the hearing of the Complaint according to the Amount claimed, and that although no Information in Writing shall have been exhibited before them; and upon Proof of the Offence, either by the Confession of the Party complained against, or upon Oath of One credible Witness or more, it shall be lawful for such Sheriff or Magistrate to commit the Offender, and upon such Conviction to adjudge the Offender to pay the Damages, Penalty, or Forfeiture incurred, as well as such Costs attending the Conviction, as such Sheriff or Magistrate shall think fit.

Penalty and Costs to be levied by Pounding and Sale.

XC. And be it enacted, That if forthwith upon any such Adjudication as aforesaid the Amount of the Damages, Penalty, or Forfeiture, and of such Costs as aforesaid, be not paid, the Amount thereof, together with the Costs of the further Proceedings, shall be levied by Pounding and Sale, and the Sheriff or Magistrate shall issue his Warrant for the same accordingly.

Offenders may be detained.

XCI. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for such Sheriff or Magistrate to order any Offender so convicted as aforesaid to be detained and kept in safe Custody until a Return can be conveniently made to the Warrant of Pounding and Sale to be issued for levying such Damages, Penalty, or Forfeiture, and Costs, unless the Offender gives sufficient Security, by way of Recognizance or otherwise, to the Satisfaction of the Sheriff or Magistrate, for his Appearance before him on the Day appointed for such Return, such Day not being more than Eight Days from the Time of taking such Security; but if before issuing such Warrant of Pounding it shall appear to the Sheriff or Magistrate, by the Admission of the Offender or otherwise, that no sufficient Goods or Effects can be had whereon to levy such Damages, Penalty, or Forfeiture, and Costs, he may, if he thinks fit, refrain from issuing such Warrant of Pounding and Sale, and in such Case, or if such Warrant shall have been issued, and upon the Return thereof such Insufficiency as aforesaid shall be made to appear to the Sheriff or Magistrate, then such Sheriff or Magistrate shall by Warrant cause such Offender to be committed to Gaol, there to remain without Bail for any Term not exceeding Three Months, unless such Damages, Penalty, or Forfeiture, and Costs, be sooner paid and satisfied.

Goods to be sold, and Surplus returned to Owner.

XCII. And be it enacted, That where in this Act any Sum of Money, whether of the Nature of Damages, Penalty, or otherwise, is directed to be levied by Pounding and Sale, such Sum of Money shall be levied by Pounding and Sale of the Goods and Effects of the Party liable to pay the same; and the Overplus arising from the Sale of such Goods and Effects, after satisfying such Sum of Money, and the Expences of the Pounding and Sale, shall be returned, on Demand, to the Party whose Goods shall have been pinded.

Appeal to Sheriff.

XCIII. And be it enacted, That in all Cases which shall come before any Sheriff Substitute or any of the Magistrates of Inverness under this Act it shall be competent for any of the Parties thereto, within Seven Days after a final Judgment shall have been pronounced by such Sheriff Substitute or Magistrate, to appeal against the

the same to the Sheriff, by lodging a Minute of Appeal with the Sheriff Clerk of the County, or his Depute; and the Decision of such Sheriff in the Matter of such Appeal shall be final, and not subject to Review by Appeal, Advocation, Suspension, Reduction, or otherwise.

XCIV. And be it enacted, That no such Appeal to the Sheriff shall be held as entered unless Four Days Notice in Writing of such Appeal, stating the Nature and Grounds thereof, be given to the Party against whom the Appeal shall be brought, and unless the Appellant forthwith after such Notice enter into Recognizances, with One or more sufficient Sureties, before the said Sheriff Clerk, conditioned duly to prosecute such Appeal, and to abide the Orders of the Sheriff therein; and the Sufficiency of the Sureties shall be judged of and determined by the Sheriff Clerk.

Notice of Appeal.

XCV. And be it enacted, That the Sheriff shall in all Cases proceed to hear and determine such Appeals in a summary Way, and may, if he think fit, mitigate any Penalty or Forfeiture, or may confirm or quash the Adjudication, and order any Money paid by the Appellant, or levied by Pounding and Sale of his Goods, to be returned to him, and may also order such further Satisfaction to be made to the Party injured as he may judge reasonable, and may also make such Order concerning the Costs, both of the Adjudication and of the Appeal, as he may think reasonable.

Sheriff to decide in Appeals.

XCVI. And be it enacted, That a Person shall not be deemed incompetent to give Evidence in any Case which shall be heard and determined relative to this Act by reason or on account of such Person acting under the Authority of this Act; and any Person who shall refuse to appear, or appearing shall refuse to give Evidence, after being thereunto duly cited in regard to any Matter or Thing under this Act, shall for every such Offence forfeit a Sum not exceeding Five Pounds.

Officers may be Witnesses.

XCVII. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Officers, Watchmen, and other Persons in the Service of the Trustees to seize and detain Persons guilty of any Offence against this Act, and to convey them before the Sheriff or any of the Magistrates, without any other Warrant than this Act for so doing; and such Sheriff or Magistrate is hereby empowered to proceed to the Conviction or Acquittal of such Offender.

Offenders may be detained, and taken before Sheriff or Magistrates.

XCVIII. And be it enacted, That all Fines, Forfeitures, and Penalties imposed by or under the Authority of this Act, or by any Bye Law, Rule, or Order to be made in pursuance thereof, shall when levied be paid over to the Trustees or the Treasurer of the Harbour, to be applied for the Purposes of this Act.

Application of Fines.

XCIX. And be it enacted, That all and every the Powers, Provisions, Authorities, Regulations, Matters, and Things whatsoever contained in the said recited Act, save and except such Parts thereof as are by this Act varied, altered, or repealed, shall, in so far as regards the said Port and Harbour, remain in full Force and Effect as if this Act had Recited Act to remain in force.

had not been passed, and the Trustees are hereby empowered and authorized to continue and carry into effect the Works, Operations, and Improvements authorized by the said recited Act, as fully and freely in every respect as if such Works, Operations, and Improvements had been carried on in manner therein specified.

Abolishing Exemption in favour of Freemen Burgesses.

C. And whereas by the Practice and Usage of the Burgh of Inverness Freemen Burgesses of the Burgh have only paid One Half of Shore and Anchorage Dues, and it is right that such Practice and Usage should cease; be it enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act the said Practice and Usage shall for ever hereafter be done away with and abolished.

Saving Rights of Proprietor of Kessock Ferry.

CI. Saving always to the Proprietor of the Ferry of Kessock, his Heirs and Successors, all such Right, Title, Interest, and Claim of, in, to, or out of the said Ferry as he had before the passing of this Act, or could or might have had or enjoyed in case this Act had not been passed.

Interpretation of Act.

CII. And be it enacted, That in this Act, and any Act incorporated herewith, the following Words and Expressions, in addition to those incorporated from the said "Harbours, Docks, and Piers Clauses Act, 1847," shall have the several Meanings hereby assigned to them, unless there be something in the Subject or Context repugnant to such Construction; (that is to say,)

The Words "Magistrate" and "Magistrates of Inverness" shall mean and include the Provost and Bailies, and the Officer appointed by the Town Council of Inverness to discharge the Duties of Dean of Guild in the Dean of Guild Court of the Burgh, or any of them:

The Words "County" and "Burgh" shall mean the County of Inverness and Burgh of Inverness respectively:

The Expression "the Trustees" shall mean the Trustees hereby appointed and incorporated for carrying this Act into execution:

The Word "Bulkmaster" shall mean and include Meters or Weighers:

The Word "Shoremaster" shall mean and include Harbour Masters.

Public Act.

CIII. And be it enacted, That this Act shall be a Public Act, and shall be judicially taken notice of as such.

The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Act refers.
