and Interest of all Persons in the said Lands, and that the said Company should be incorporated, and that certain Provisions and Regulations should be made with respect to the said Cemetery, and the Conveyance of Bodies thereto; but the same cannot be effected without the Authority of Parliament: May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same:

I. That the Words "the Company" shall throughout this Act "Company," mean the said Company hereby incorporated.

II. That the Company shall be a Body Corporate under the Name of "The London Necropolis and National Mausoleum Company," and shall have a Common Seal, and the Estates and Effects of the said Corporation shall be the Fund out of which the Contracts, Engagements, and Liabilities of the said Corporation shall from Time to Time be provided for and satisfied.

III. That it shall be lawful for the Company to purchase, compulsorily or by Agreement, and hold the whole or any Part of the Lands and Property mentioned and described in the First Schedule to this Act annexed, and to make, establish, and maintain thereon, or on any Part thereof, a Cemetery, with all necessary Chapels, Vaults, Catacombs, Porches, Colonnades, and other Erections, and to lay out and embellish the same with all such Walks, Paths, Avenues, Roads, Trees, and Plantations as the Company may deem necessary.

IV. That the Powers of the Company for the compulsory Purchase or taking of Lands shall not be exercised after the Expiration of Five Years from the passing of this Act.

V. That the Cemetery shall be enclosed by Walls, Iron Railings, or substantial Wooden Fences of the Height of Eight Feet at the least.

VI. That it shall be lawful for the Company, for the Purpose of enclosing the Cemetery, to stop up such of the Roads or Highways and Watercourses which pass through or over the said Lands and Property mentioned and described in the First Schedule to this Act, as in the same Schedule and in the said Plans are distinguished by the Numbers 84, 124, 222, 338, and 356, and to alter and divert such of the Roads or Highways and Watercourses as in the same Schedule and Plans are distinguished by the Numbers 129, 164, 164a, 170, 171, 177, 186a, 205, 256, and 335, and to set out any other Roads or Highways which may appear to them more convenient: Provided,

Company
required to make and maintain certain Footpaths.

VII. That the Company shall, if required so to do by Order under the Hands of any Two Justices of the Peace of the County of Surrey, made after Notice given to the Company, make and for ever maintain and keep in repair Carriage Roads in the Line or Direction shown on the said Plans in a Red Colour, between the Points from A to C, from C to D, from I to K, and from G to H, and make and for ever maintain and keep in repair Footpaths in the Line or Direction shown on the said Plans in a Red Colour, between the Points from C to B, from C to R, and from E to F, respectively, as shown on the said Plans; and, subject to the Exception herein-after contained, such Carriage Roads and Footpaths shall be public Highways, and such Carriage Roads shall be of the Width of Twenty Feet at the least, and such Footpaths shall be of the Width of Ten Feet at the least; and the Company shall inclose the said Footpath from C to R, when made, with Fences, and shall be at liberty to exclude the Public from the Use thereof between the Hours of Ten o'Clock in the Evening and Five o'Clock in the Morning, between the Twenty-fifth Day of March and the Twenty-ninth Day of September, and between the Hours of Nine in the Evening and Six in the Morning during the rest of the Year; and if any Person shall wilfully stray from such last-mentioned Footpath into the Cemetery, he shall forfeit to the Company for every such Offence a Sum not exceeding Forty Shillings.

10 & 11 Vict.
c. 65. incorporated with this Act.

VIII. That "The Cemeteries Clauses Act, 1847," and "The Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845," except the Clauses with respect to Lands acquired by the Promoters of the Undertaking under the Provisions of this Act, but which shall not be required for the Purposes thereof, shall be incorporated with and form Part of this Act.

IX. That

The London Necropolis and National Mausoleum Act, 1852.

IX. That the Company shall make Byelaws, Rules, and Regulations from Time to Time, as to the Reception of Bodies by the Company, and the decent and orderly Care of such Bodies by the Company until they shall have been interred, and as to the Depth and Formation of Graves and Places of Interment in the Cemetery, and as to the decent and solemn Interment of all Bodies therein, and generally as to all Matters connected with the good and decent Order of the Reception, Care, and Interment by the Company, of Corpses in the Cemetery, and with the good Order of the Cemetery and the convenient Exercise of the Rights of Interment therein: Provided always, that no Corpse shall be buried in any Grave in the Cemetery not being a Vault or Catacomb without at least Fifty-four Inches of Soil being left between the ordinary Surface of the Cemetery and the upper Side of the Coffin: Provided also, that after the Interment of a Corpse in any Grave in the Cemetery no other Corpse shall be interred therein for the Space of Ten Years, except at the Request in Writing of some Relative of the Person who shall have been last interred therein, which Request shall be registered in the Books of the Company: Provided also, that no such Byelaw, Rule, or Regulation shall have any Effect until the same shall have been approved by One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

Company to make Bye-laws.

X. That in case the Company shall wilfully commit any Breach of such Byelaws, Rules, and Regulations, they shall forfeit to Her Majesty for each Offence the Sum of Fifty Pounds: Provided always, that no Proceedings for the Recovery of such Penalty shall be taken without the Consent of Her Majesty's Attorney General.

Penalty for Breach of Byelaws.

XI. That no Interment shall take place in the Cemetery until Byelaws, Rules, and Regulations for carrying out the Objects hereinbefore mentioned shall have been approved by One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

No Interments till Byelaws approved of by Secretary of State.

XII. That the Lords Lieutenant of Middlesex and Surrey, the Lord Bishop of London, the Lord Bishop of Winchester, the Lord Mayor of London, and the Chief Commissioner of Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, shall severally have Power to visit and inspect the Cemetery at all Times, to see that the System of Interment at the Cemetery is in accordance with a due Regard to Decorum and Public Health, and to report thereon when necessary to One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

Visitors of the Cemetery.

XIII. That no Part of the Cemetery shall be erected or made within Three hundred Yards of any House of the annual Value of Fifty Pounds, or having a Plantation or ornamental Garden or Pleasure Pleasure Ground occupied therewith, except with the Consent of the Owner, Lessee, and Occupier thereof in Writing.

Owner of inclosed Lands may require Compensation in Land.

XIV. That in case the Owner of any of the inclosed Lands comprised in the First Schedule to this Act, which shall be held in Fee Simple or by Copy of Court Roll, shall require the Company to give him Compensation in Land, the Company shall be bound to give to such Owner, in Exchange for such inclosed Lands, an equal Quantity of the open or Common Lands comprised in the said Schedule, which shall have been purchased by them under the Authority of this Act, and, if required by such Owner so to do, to erect for such Owner on the Land so to be given to him in Exchange as aforesaid Brick Buildings of similar Extent and of a similar Character to the Buildings now standing on such inclosed Lands; and shall pay unto such Owner, by way of Equality of Exchange, a Compensation in Money, to be fixed in manner provided by the "Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845," with respect to the Purchase of Lands otherwise than by Agreement, and such Compensation shall be applied in manner provided by the same Act with respect to the Purchase Money or Compensation payable in respect of Lands; and such Person or Persons shall not be entitled to require the Company to deduce any other Title to the Land to be so given in Exchange than such Title as they may have obtained in respect of the same; and the Deed of Exchange may be in the Form set forth in the Second Schedule to this Act.

Holders or reputed Owners of Lands for Ten Years prior to the passing of this Act to be deemed Owners.

XV. And whereas many of the Persons mentioned in the First Schedule to this Act as the Owners or reputed Owners of the Lands therein described have no other Title to such Lands than such as they may have acquired by Possession, and it is expedient that such of the said Persons as have had Possession of the said Lands for Ten Years and upwards prior to the passing of this Act should be deemed to be Owners of the said Lands: Be it enacted, That all Persons mentioned in the Schedule to this Act as Owners or reputed Owners of Lands who have held such Lands adversely for Ten Years and upwards prior to the passing of this Act, shall be deemed to be the Owners of such Lands for all the Purposes of this Act and the said "Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845," in such and the same Manner as if they had respectively held the same adversely for a Period sufficient to bar all other Estates and Interests therein; saving nevertheless to all other Persons such Estates and Interests as they may have in such Lands, but so that such Estates and Interests shall be subject to the compulsory Powers of Purchase herein contained.

Company not to erect Buildings

XVI. That the Company shall not, without the Sanction and Authority of Parliament, sell any Lands which they may acquire under under the Authority of this Act, and shall not erect or cause or permit or suffer to be erected on such Lands any Buildings, other than such as may be required for the Purposes of this Act or the Residence of the Officers and Servants of the Company.

other than those required for Purposes of Act.

XVII. And whereas Henry Allen Wedgwood of Tenby in the County of Pembroke is or claims to be seised in Fee Simple of or entitled to a Capital Messuage or Mansion House, with the Closes and Parcels of Land thereunto belonging, called "The Hermitage," situate at Woking aforesaid, and near to the Site of the proposed Cemetery: And whereas the Formation of the said Cemetery on the proposed Site will be greatly injurious to the said Mansion House and Lands as a private Residence, and the said Mansion House and Lands can be conveniently used by the Company for the Purposes of and connected with the said Cemetery: And whereas it is desirable that the Company should be authorized to purchase the said Mansion House and Lands, and the said Henry Allen Wedgwood is willing that such Power should be conferred upon them: Be it therefore enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Company, and they are hereby required, immediately after the passing of this Act, or within such extended Period as has been agreed upon between the Company and the said Henry Allen Wedgwood, his Heirs or Assigns, to purchase from, and the said Henry Allen Wedgwood, his Heirs and Assigns, is and are hereby required to sell to the Company the said Mansion House and Lands called "The Hermitage," and all Rights of Way, Rights of Common, and other Rights thereunto belonging, upon such Terms and Conditions, and subject to such Stipulations and Agreements, as have already been agreed upon between the Company and the said Henry Allen Wedgwood in reference to the said Mansion House and Lands, and the other Property of the said Henry Allen Wedgwood which will be required for or affected by the Formation of the said Cemetery.

Company to purchase House and Lands belonging to Henry Allen Wedgwood.

XVIII. That the Company shall from Time to Time, as they in their Discretion shall deem fit, fix and order the Fees and Charges to be paid on the Interment of any Body in the Cemetery, save and except the Fees herein-after appointed to be paid to Incumbents: Provided always, that the Scale of such Fees and Charges for the Interment of Bodies in the unconsecrated Portion of the Cemetery shall be the same as the Scale of such Fees and Charges for Interment in the consecrated Portion of the Cemetery; and such Fees and Charges shall not exceed the Sums following; (that is to say,)

Company to fix Fees and Charges for Interments within a certain Limit.

For the Reception, Transmission, and Interment of each Body which shall be buried at the Expense of any Union or Parish, including the Conveyance and Return of Two Friends or Attendants, and the Funeral Services at the Cemetery, Fourteen Shillings:

[Local.]

For

The London Necropolis and National Mausoleum Act, 1852.

For the Reception, Transmission, and Interment of each other Body in the open Ground, and in a single Grave, and for the Funeral Services at the Cemetery, the Sum of Fifteen Shillings; and a further Sum for such Transmission not exceeding the Rate paid to the London and South-western Railway Company under the Provisions of this Act :

For the Reception, Transmission, and Interment of the First Body in every single or separate Grave to be held in perpetuity, the same not to be re-opened within the Period of Seven Years from the last Interment (except for Members of the same Family), and with Liberty to erect Head and Foot Stones, and for the Funeral Services at the Cemetery, One Pound Ten Shillings; and a further Sum for such Transmission not exceeding the Rate paid to the London and South-western Railway Company under the Provisions of this Act :

For re-opening such last-mentioned Grave, and for the Reception and Interment of each other Body therein, and for the Funeral Services at the Cemetery, One Pound; and a further Sum for such Transmission not exceeding the Rate paid to the London and South-western Railway Company under the Provisions of this Act.

Fees payable to Incumbents in certain Cases.

XIX. That to compensate Incumbents for Loss of Fees the Company shall, upon the Interment of every Body within the consecrated Part of the Cemetery, which shall have been removed for the Purpose of such Interment from any Parish or Ecclesiastical District or Division of a Parish, pay unto the Incumbent for the Time being of the Church or Chapel of the Parish or Ecclesiastical District or Division from which such Body shall be so removed (save where such Body is buried at the Expense of any Union or Parish), the Sum of Six Shillings and Twopence; and where such Body is buried at the Expense of any Union or Parish, a Sum not exceeding One Shilling; and no Incumbent shall be entitled to any Payment, save as herein provided, in respect of any Interment under this Act, or in respect of the Removal of any Body previously interred in any other Burial Ground; and the Company shall be entitled to demand and receive in respect of each Body buried in the Cemetery, in addition to the Fees and Charges herein-before authorized to be taken by the Company, the Amount which the Company shall have paid or be liable to pay to any Incumbent under this present Provision.

Company may enter into Contracts for making Cemetery, planting,

XX. That the Company may contract or agree with any Person or Persons for making or completing the said Cemetery, and for planting, levelling, and laying out the same, and for inclosing the same with Walls, Fences, Pales, and Palisades, and for providing proper Materials for all or any of the Purposes aforesaid, and for doing all or any any of the Works hereby authorized, or any Part or Parts thereof respectively; and the Company may take such Security for the Performance of any such Contract as to them shall seem necessary. levelling, fencing, &c.

XXI. And whereas the most convenient Mode of Transit from the Metropolis to the Cemetery would be by means of the London and South-western Railway, and it is requisite that such Provision be made with reference to the Use of the Railway for the Purposes of the Company as may enable the London and South-western Railway Company to prevent any Annoyance to the Public, or any Hindrance to or other Interference with the ordinary or general Traffic on that Railway: Be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Company to contract with the London and South-western Railway Company and their Successors, for the carrying of Bodies in properly constructed Carriages to the said Cemetery, and for the Conveyance and Return of Mourners and Attendants, at such Prices and Charges and for such Term of Years as may be agreed upon; and every Contract so entered into by the said Railway Company shall be binding on such Company, anything to the contrary in any Act or Special Act of the same Company notwithstanding; and during the Term of such Contract such Railway Company shall carry the Bodies to be removed to the Cemetery, and the Mourners and Attendants of the Funerals, at the Rate of Charge specified in such Contract: Provided always, that this Act or anything therein contained, or any such Contract, shall not affect the said Railway Company with respect to any Charges other than the Charges to be made by them in pursuance of such Contract: Provided also, that such Charges for the Conveyance of Bodies from either of the Metropolitan Stations of the said Railway Company at Waterloo and Nine Elms to the Cemetery, and for the Conveyance of Mourners and Attendants from either of the said Metropolitan Stations to the Cemetery and back, shall not in any of the following Cases exceed the Sums following; (that is to say,)

For the Use and Haulage of the Carriage, according to the Number of Corpses therein, reckoned after the Rates following; to wit,

For each Corpse of the Pauper Class, Two Shillings and Sixpence:

For each Corpse of the Artizan Class, Five Shillings:

For each other Corpse, One Pound:

For the Conveyance by ordinary Trains to and from the Cemetery of the Mourners actually attending the Funerals, and all necessary Attendants thereon, but not exceeding Six Persons for any One Funeral:

First Class, each Person, Six Shillings:

Second Class, each Person, Three Shillings and Sixpence:

Third Class, each Person, Two Shillings:

Provided

Power for the Company

Company to contract for the Carriage of the Dead.

The London Necropolis and National Mausoleum Act, 1852.

Provided also, that if the Charge for the Use and Haulage of the said Carriage would not, according to the Number of Corpses therein, amount to One Pound, then the Charge for such Use and Haulage shall, without respect to the Number of Corpses therein, be any Sum not exceeding One Pound.

Restriction
as to Charges not to apply to special Trains.

XXII. Provided also, That if the Cemetery Company shall require the said Railway Company to convey any Corpse, Attendants, or Mourners by any Train other than an ordinary Train of the Railway Company, or a Train employed by the said Railway Company in conveying Corpses to the Cemetery under any Agreement entered into as aforesaid, such Train shall be deemed a special or extra Train, and the said Restriction as to the Charges to be made by the said Railway Company shall not extend thereto.

Power for the Companies to agree for Station Accommodation.

XXIII. That it shall be lawful for the said London and South-western Railway Company and their Successors, and they are hereby authorized, to enter into an Agreement with the Company to appropriate such convenient and suitable Pieces or Parcels of Land or Buildings, Arches, or other Erections belonging to the said Railway Company, situate at or under or near the Waterloo Station in the Parish of Lambeth, and at the Nine Elms Station in the said Parish or in the Parish of Battersea, both in the said County of Surrey, or adjoining their said Line at Woking in the said County of Surrey, or elsewhere, as may be mutually agreed on, for the Deposit, Reception, Occupation, and Use of Corpses, Mourners, and Attendants, and for the Reception of Hearses and Carriages preparatory to Conveyance to and on their Arrival at the Cemetery, such further Buildings as may be necessary; and all Erections, Works, and Conveniences requisite for any of the Purposes of the Company, or rendered necessary or expedient for any of the Purposes of the said London and South-western Railway Company by reason of the Use of the Railway for any of the Purposes of the Company, shall be erected and built, made, maintained, and repaired, under the Superintendence and to the Satisfaction of the Engineer of the said London and South-western Railway Company, but at the Expense of the Company.

Contracts between the Company and the Railway Company to be sent to Secretary of State.

XXIV. That a Copy of any Contract in Writing which shall be made pursuant to this Act between the Company and the said London and South-western Railway Company, shall be forthwith sent by the Company to One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

Use of Railway by Company to be subject to

XXV. Provided always, That the Use, for any of the Purposes of the Company, of the London and South-western Railway and the Works and Conveniences thereof, and of all Engines and Carriages on the Railway,

Consent.

XXVII. That if the Company shall remove, pull down, or render impassable the Foot Bridge called "Hang-dog Bridge," mentioned in the Schedule to this Act as belonging to the Basingstoke Canal Company, the Company shall previously thereto, at their own Expense and in a substantial and workmanlike Manner, erect another good and sufficient Bridge of at least equal Dimensions, and as convenient in all respects as the said Foot Bridge, and of good and sound Materials, to the Satisfaction in all Things of the Surveyor of the said Canal Company for the Time being, and at such Place as shall be approved of by him; and the Company shall, at their own Expense, obtain the Consents of all Surveyors of Highways and other Persons which may be necessary for effecting the Purposes aforesaid, and shall and will indemnify and save harmless the said Canal Company from all Loss, Costs, Charges, and Expenses whatsoever to which they shall or may be or become liable by reason of the said Bridge being removed, pulled down, or rendered impassable, or of any Damage being done to the said Bridge, or the Approaches to or from the same, by any of the Works or Operations of the Company, in case the same shall not be removed.

Another Bridge to be substituted for Hang-dog Bridge, if interfered with.

The London Necropolis and National Mausoleum Act, 1852.

Short Title. XXVIII. That in citing this Act in Acts of Parliament and in legal Instruments it shall be sufficient to use the Expression "The London Necropolis and National Mausoleum Act, 1852."

Company not to be dissolved without the Sanction of Parliament. XXIX. That, notwithstanding the Provisions in that Behalf contained in the said recited Deed of Settlement, the Company shall not be dissolved without the Sanction and Authority of Parliament.

Saving Provisions for Government of Company contained in the Deed of Settlement. XXX. That nothing herein contained shall extend to relieve or discharge the Subscribers to the Company from any Responsibility, Contract, Duty, or Obligation which they may now or at any Time hereafter be subject or liable to among themselves respectively, or, save as aforesaid, to interfere with the Constitution, Operations, and internal Government of the Company under the said recited Deed of Settlement, or to alter the Provisions of such Deed further or otherwise than as the same may be inconsistent with the Provisions of this Act.

Not to affect existing Agreements with Parties by Provisional Trustees of Company. XXXI. Provided always, That nothing in this Act contained shall deprive any Party or Parties of any legal or equitable Rights, Interests, or Claims to which such Party or Parties may be entitled by virtue of any Agreement or Agreements entered into by any Person or Persons for the Time being acting as Provisional Trustees for the Company before the complete Registration thereof; and any such Person or Persons so acting as such Provisional Trustee or Trustees shall be held to have acted on behalf of the Company hereby incorporated, and as if the Seal of the Company had been affixed to such Agreement or Agreements at the Date or Dates thereof respectively: Provided nevertheless, that nothing in any such Agreement or Agreements contained shall bind or enable the Company to transfer or convey away any Portion of the Land comprised in the First Schedule of this Act to any Party or Parties claiming under such Agreement or Agreements, but that any Claim or Claims with reference to any such Land shall be treated as a Question of pecuniary Compensation or Damages only.

Cemetery to be subject to any General Act. XXXII. That the Cemetery shall be subject to any General Act which shall hereafter be passed in relation to Metropolitan Interments.

Expenses of Act. XXXIII. That the Expenses of and attending the Formation of the Company, and the soliciting and passing this Act, and preparatory and incidental thereto, shall be paid by the Company.
