

ANNO DECIMO QUINTO

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ.

Cap. xxviii.

An Act for establishing a Market and for providing a Market House and Slaughter-houses at Aberdare in the County of Glamorgan.

[28th May 1852.]

HEREAS a Market is now held in the Town of Aberdare in the County of Glamorgan, in a Market House which was erected some Years since by certain private Individuals, but the Accommodation which the said Market House affords is very inadequate to supply the present increasing Demands of the said Town and its Neighbourhood; and it is expedient that the said Market should be removed: And whereas the Erection of a Market House in the said Town, and the Establishment of a Cattle Market and of Slaughterhouses in connexion therewith, upon certain Land belonging to the Trustees of the Marquis of Bute, would be attended with great public Advantage: And whereas the several Persons after named, together with others, have formed themselves into a Company for the Purpose of effecting such last-mentioned Objects; but this cannot be done without the Authority of Parliament: May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords [Local.]
