Clerk and Treasurer not to be the same Person.

X. And be it enacted, That it shall not be lawful for the Clerk of the said Court, or the Partner of such Clerk, or any Person in the Service or Employ of such Clerk or of his Partner, to act as Treasurer of the said Court, nor for the Treasurer of the said Court or the Partner of such Treasurer, or any Person in the Service or Employ of such Treasurer or of his Partner, to act as Clerk of the said Court; and if any Person shall accept both the Offices of Clerk and Treasurer of the said Court, or if any Person being the Partner of any such Clerk, or a Person in the Service or Employ of any such Clerk or of his Partner, shall accept the Office of Treasurer, or in any Manner officiate for the Treasurer, or being the Partner of any such Treasurer, or a Person in the Service or Employ of any such Treasurer or of his Partner, shall accept the Office of Clerk in the Execution of this Act, or shall in any Manner officiate for such Clerk, every such Person so offending shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay the Sum of Fifty Pounds to any Person who shall sue for the same in any of Her Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster by Action of Debt or on the Case.

Treasurer and Officers to give Security.

XI. And be it enacted, That the Treasurer, and also every Clerk, Bailiff, and Officer of the said Court, who shall receive any Monies in the Execution of their Duty, shall give Security for such Sum and in such Manner and Form as the Justices of the said County in Quarter Sessions assembled shall deem sufficient, and see Reason to direct, for the due Performance of their several Offices, and for the due Payment of all Monies received by them under this Act.

Duties of the Clerk and Bailiffs.

XII. And be it enacted, That the Clerk of the said Court shall issue all Summonses, Warrants, Precepts, and Writs of Execution, and register all Orders and Judgments of the said Court, and keep an Account of all such Summonses, Executions, and other Process of the Court, and shall take charge of and keep an Account of all Court Fees and Fines payable or paid into Court, and of all Suitors Money paid into and out of Court, and shall enter an Account of all such Fees, Fines, and Monies in a Book to be kept by him for the Purpose, which Book shall be open to the Inspection of all Persons on Payment of One Shilling for each such Inspection; and the Bailiffs of the said Court shall serve all such Summonses, and execute all such Orders, Warrants, Precepts, and Writs; and a List of the Names and Places of Abode of every Bailiff appointed to execute the Process of the Court shall be put up in a conspicuous Place in the Court and in the Clerk's Office.

Duties of Treasurer.

XIII. And be it enacted, That the Treasurer of the said Court shall from Time to Time, quarterly or oftener, audit and settle the Accounts of the said Clerk and other Officers of the said Court, and receive receive the Balance of such Monies as such Clerk and other Officers may have received under this Act belonging to the Suitors of the said Court, or applicable to the General Fund herein-after mentioned, and shall make all such Payments as it shall be requisite to make in accordance with the Provisions of this Act.

XIV. And be it enacted, That if any Person, having resigned or having been removed from the Office of Treasurer of the said Court, shall neglect within Twenty-one Days after Notice in Writing for such Person to account for and pay to the Treasurer of the said Court for the Time being, or to such Person as he shall appoint to receive the same, all such Sums of Money as shall remain in his Hands applicable to the Purposes of this Act, it shall be lawful for the Treasurer of the said Court for the Time being, by his Name and Description of Office, to sue for and recover the same from such Person, with full Costs, in any of Her Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, by Action of Debt, in which Action it shall be sufficient for such Treasurer to declare as for Money had and received to the Use of such Treasurer for the Purposes of this Act; and the Court in which the Action shall be brought may, at the Instance of either of the Parties, refer the Account in dispute, in a summary Manner, to be audited by any Officer of the Court or other fit Person, who may examine both Plaintiff and Defendant upon Oath (which Oath the said Referee shall have Power to administer); and upon the Report of the Referee, unless either of the Parties shall show good Cause to the contrary, the Court may make a Rule either for the Payment of such Sum as upon the Report shall appear to be due, or for staying the Proceedings in the Action, and upon such Terms and Conditions as to the Court shall appear reasonable, or the Court may order Judgment to be entered up by Confession for such Sum as upon the Report shall appear to be due.

Upon the Removal of any Treasurer, his Successor may sue for any Balance remaining in his Hands.

XV. And be it enacted, That in case of the Death of any Person during the Time that he shall hold the Office of Treasurer, or after he shall have resigned or been removed from such Office, the Treasurer for the Time being may, by his Name and Description of Office, sue for and recover from the Executors or Administrators of such Person deceased all such Sums of Money as shall have been remaining in his Hands applicable to the Purposes of this Act, by an Action of Debt in any of Her Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, in which Action it shall be sufficient for the Plaintiff to declare that the Deceased was indebted to the Plaintiff for Money had and received to his Use for the Purposes of this Act, whereby an Action hath accrued to the Plaintiff to demand and have the same from such Executors or Administrators; and in all such Actions the Defendants may plead in like Manner, and avail themselves of the like Matters of Defence, as in any Action founded upon simple Contracts of the Testator or Intestate; and the Court may refer the Account in dispute, and such Proceedings may thereupon be had as herein-before provided in case of Actions against the Treasurer during his Lifetime.

Court, shall be guilty of Extortion, or shall not duly pay or account for any Money levied by him under the Authority of this Act, it shall be lawful for the said Judge to make such Order for the Repayment of any Money extorted, or for the due Payment of any Money so levied as aforesaid, and for the Payment of such Damages and Costs to the Parties aggrieved as the Court shall think just; and in default of Payment of any Money so ordered to be paid by such Bailiff, within the Time specified for the Payment thereof in such Order, it shall be lawful for the Judge of the said Court, by Warrant under his Hand and Seal, to cause such Sum to be levied by Distress and Sale of the Goods of the Offender, together with the reasonable Charges of such Distress and Sale, and in default of such Distress to commit the Offender to any Common Gaol or Prison in the said County for any Period not exceeding Three Calendar Months.

Judge, Clerk, and Bailiffs to be paid Fees according to Schedule.

XVII. And be it enacted, That there shall be payable to the Judge of the said Court, and to the Clerk and Bailiffs thereof, on every Proceeding in the Court, such Fees as are set down in the Schedule to this Act annexed, or as shall be from Time to Time directed to be taken by the Justices of the said County in Quarter Sessions assembled, and none other; and a Table of such Fees shall be hung up in some conspicuous Place in such Court and in the Clerk's Office; and the Fees on every Proceeding shall be paid, in the first instance, by the Plaintiff or Party on whose Behalf the same shall be taken on or before such Proceeding; and the Fees upon Executions shall be paid into Court at the Time of the Issue of the Warrant of Execution, and shall be paid by the Clerk of the Court to the Bailiff upon the Return of the Warrant of Execution, and not before.

Treasurer and certain other Officers to receive Salaries.

XVIII. And be it enacted, That the Treasurer of the said Court, and all other Officers and Servants employed in or about the Court (exclusively of the Judge, Clerk, and Bailiffs), shall receive Salaries for their respective Services, such Salaries to be fixed from Time to Time by the Judge of the Court, and to be paid out of the General Fund herein-after mentioned.

Officers taking Fees beyond those allowed to be discharged.

XIX. And be it enacted, That if any Clerk, Bailiff, or other Officer employed under this Act shall exact or take any greater Fee or Reward whatsoever than such Fees as are or shall be appointed and allowed respectively as aforesaid, every such Person so offending shall, upon Proof thereof before the said Court, be for ever incapable of serving or being employed in any Office under this Act.

Treasurer to provide Court Houses, &c.

XX. And be it enacted, That the Treasurer of the said Court shall, as soon as conveniently may be, pay off and discharge the Costs and Expences attending the passing of this Act, and shall, under the Direction of the Justices of the said County in Quarter Sessions assembled, provide suitable Buildings, with all necessary Appurtenances, for holding the said Court therein, and for the Offices necessary for carrying on the Business of the said Court; and all Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments belonging to the said Court shall vest in the Treasurer for the Time being, and in his Successors in that Office, in Trust for the Purposes of this Act.

XXI. And be it enacted, That the Clerk of the said Court shall have the Care of the Court House and Offices, and shall appoint and have Power to dismiss the necessary Servants for taking charge of such Court House and Offices, and shall, with the Approbation of the Judge, make all necessary Contracts or otherwise provide for repairing and furnishing, and for cleaning, lighting, and warming the Court, Buildings, and Offices thereunto belonging, and for supplying the Court and Offices with Books and Stationery, and all other Necessaries for holding the Court, and the Expences thereby incurred shall be paid out of the said General Fund.

Clerk to have charge of the Court.

XXII. And be it enacted, That, for the Purposes of defraying the Expences of this Act, and providing any Buildings, Lands, or Hereditaments for the Purposes aforesaid, it shall be lawful for the said Treasurer to borrow and take up at Interest such Sums of Money as he shall find to be necessary, the Amount thereof and the Rate of Interest thereon in each Case being first allowed by the Justices of the said County in Quarter Sessions assembled; and the said Treasurer may enter into and execute such Securities as may be required for securing Repayment of the Sums borrowed, with Interest for the same, out of the General Fund herein-after mentioned, and shall enter in a Book to be kept for that Purpose the Names of the several Persons by whom any Sums shall be advanced for the Purposes aforesaid, in the Order in which each Sum shall be advanced, and every such Sum shall be paid off in the same Order.

Treasurer empowered to borrow Money.

XXIII. And be it enacted, That, for raising a Fund for paying off the Costs and Expences of this Act, and providing any Court House and Offices, and any Money borrowed for the Purposes aforesaid, and the Interest due in respect thereof, the Clerk of the said Court shall demand and receive from the Plaintiff in every Suit brought in the said Court a Sum of Money after the Rate of One Shilling in the Pound on the Amount of the Debt claimed, which Sum shall be paid in all Cases by the Plaintiff upon Suit brought in the Court; and the Clerk of the Court shall keep an Account of all the Sums so raised, and shall pay over the same to the Treasurer of the said Court; and the Amount thereof shall accumulate, and shall form a Fund to be called "The General Fund of the Totnes Court of Requests," and shall be applied, in the first place, in Payment of all Costs and Expences of preparing and passing this Act, and, subject thereto, in providing any Court House and Offices for the Purposes of this Act, defraying the Salaries and other Expences herein mentioned, and in Payment of the Money borrowed for the Purposes aforesaid and the Interest thereof, in such Manner as the Judge of the said Court shall direct.

General Fund.

XXIV. And be it enacted, That, after the Appointment of a Judge of the said Court under this Act, all Actions for the Recovery of Debts (except such as are herein-after mentioned), where the Sum sought to be recovered does not exceed the Sum of Fifteen Pounds, and is claimed from any Person residing, trading, or dealing within any of the several Parishes, Townships, or Places aforesaid, may lawfully be tried and decided by the Judge of the said Court: Provided always, that the said Judge shall not decide or determine any Action Jurisdiction of the Court.

Action in which the Title to any Lands or Hereditaments, or to any Tithe, Toll, Fair, Market, or Franchise, shall be in question, or arising out of or relating to any Will or Settlement.

Decisions to be according to Law.

XXV. And be it enacted, That all such Actions shall be determined according to the Laws and Statutes of England for the Time being, except in so far as such Laws and Statutes are altered or varied by this Act.

Demands not to be split.

XXVI. And be it enacted, That it shall not be lawful for any Plaintiff to divide any Cause of Action into Two or more Suits, for the Purpose of bringing the same within the Jurisdiction of the said Court; but any Plaintiff having Cause of Action above the Value of Fifteen Pounds, for which a Plaint might be entered under this Act if not above the Value of Fifteen Pounds, may abandon the Excess, and thereupon the Plaintiff shall, on proving his Case, recover to an Amount not exceeding Fifteen Pounds, and the Judgment of the Court upon such Plaint shall be in full Discharge of all Demands in respect of such Cause of Action.

Minors may sue for Wages.

XXVII. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Person under the Age of Twenty-one Years to prosecute any Suit in the said Court for any Sum not exceeding Fifteen Pounds, which may be due to him for Wages as a menial or other Servant, in the same Manner as if he were of full Age.

One of several Persons liable may be sued.

XXVIII. And be it enacted, That where any Plaintiff shall have any Demand recoverable under this Act against Two or more Persons jointly answerable, it shall be sufficient if One of such Persons be served with Process, and Judgment may lawfully be obtained and Execution issued against such Person, notwithstanding others jointly liable may not have been served or sued; reserving always to the Person against whom Execution may issue any Right which he may have to demand Contribution from any other Person jointly liable with him.

No Privilege allowed.

XXIX. And be it enacted, That no Privilege shall be allowed to any Person, to exempt him from the Jurisdiction of the said Court, on account of his being an Attorney or Solicitor of any of Her Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, or of any other Court.

Concurrent Jurisdiction of other Courts.

XXX. And be it enacted, That all Actions and Proceedings which before the passing of this Act might have been brought in any of Her Majesty's Courts at Westminster, or other Court whatsoever having any Jurisdiction within the Limits of the Court constituted by this Act, may still, notwithstanding this Act, be brought and determined in any such Court, at the Election of the Party suing or proceeding, in the same Manner as if this Act had not been passed.

No Proceeding to be removed where XXXI. And be it enacted, That no Plaint entered in the said Court, nor any Proceeding therein, shall be removed into any Superior Court, where the Debt claimed shall not exceed Five Pounds, except where where the Complaint made is of the Extortion or Misconduct of a Bailiff of the said Court acting under colour or pretence of Process of the said Court.

the Debt does not exceed 5*l*.

XXXII. And be it enacted, That no Plaint entered in the said Court, nor any Proceeding therein, shall be removed into any Superior Court, except by Leave of a Judge of One of the Superior Courts at Westminster; and on granting such Leave it shall be lawful for any such Judge, by an Order in Writing under his Hand, to stay all Proceedings in the Court hereby created, upon such Terms as to giving Security for the Costs incurred therein, and for the Costs which may be incurred in any Action to be brought in the Superior Courts for the same Matter, or otherwise, as such Judge shall direct, which Security may be taken by way of Recognizance or otherwise, as such Judge shall think fit.

No Proceeding to be removed except by Order of a Judge of the Superior Courts.

XXXIII. And be it enacted, That the Judge of the said Court shall be the sole Judge to determine all Actions brought in the said Court, and all Questions of Fact and Law relating thereto, except where the Amount claimed shall exceed Five Pounds, and either of the Parties shall require a Jury to be summoned as herein-after mentioned.

Judge to determine all Causes not exceeding 5*l*.

XXXIV. And be it enacted, That, in all Actions where the Sum sought to be recovered shall exceed Five Pounds, it shall be lawful for the Plaintiff or Defendant to require a Jury to be summoned to try the Action, and in every such Case a Jury shall be summoned according to the Provisions herein-after contained: Provided always, that the Party requiring a Jury shall give Notice to the Clerk of the said Court that he requires a Jury to be summoned, Five clear Days at least prior to the holding of the Court at which the said Cause shall be to be tried; and the said Clerk shall cause such Notice to be communicated to the other Party to the said Action, either by Post, or by causing the same to be delivered at his usual Place of Business or Residence.

In Actions for Sums exceeding 5*l*. either Party may require a Jury.

XXXV. And be it enacted, That every Party requiring any Jury to be summoned shall, at the Time of giving the said Notice, and before he shall be entitled to have such Jury summoned, pay to the Clerk of the Court such Sum of Money as the Judge shall, by any General Order of the Court, direct, towards the Payment of the Expences of the Jury and of summoning the same, and such Sum shall be considered as Costs in the Cause: Provided always, that each Juror shall not receive less in respect of each Day's Attendance than the Sum of Five Shillings; and if the Sum of Money paid by the Party requiring a Jury shall not be sufficient for that Purpose the Deficiency shall be made up out of the General Fund of the Court.

Parties requiring Juries to make a Deposit.

XXXVI. And be it enacted, That the Sheriff of the said County shall cause to be delivered to the Clerk of the said Court a List of Persons qualified to serve as Jurors in the Courts of Sessions of the Peace for the said County, residing within the several Parishes, Townships, and Places aforesaid, and the said Clerk shall cause to be summoned in rotation so many of the Persons named in the said List as shall be needed, in the Opinion of the Judge, to attend the Court at a Time and Place to be mentioned in the Summons, and shall administer or cause to be administered to such of them as shall be impaneled to try any Cause an Oath to do Justice between the several Parties according to the best of their Skill and Ability; and the Persons so summoned shall attend at the same Court at the Time mentioned in such Summons, and in default of such Attendance shall forfeit such Sum of Money as the Judge of the said Court shall direct, not exceeding the Sum of Forty Shillings for every such Default; and either of the Parties to any such Cause shall be entitled to his lawful Challenge against any of the said Jurors, in like Manner as he would be entitled in any Superior Court: Provided always, that no Person shall be liable to be summoned as such Juror, unless his usual Place of Residence is situate within Ten Miles of the Place in which the said Court shall be holden.

Number of Jurors.

XXXVII. And be it enacted, That at the opening of the Court, and so from Time to Time as Occasion shall require, a certain Number of Jurors, not more than Five nor less than Three, in the Discretion of the Judge, shall be impanelled and sworn to give their Verdicts in such Causes as shall be brought before them in the said Court.

Process of the Court to be under Seal.

XXXVIII. And be it enacted, That there shall be made a Seal of the said Court, and all Summonses and other Process issuing out of the Court shall be sealed or stamped with such Seal; and every Person who shall forge the Seal or any Process of the said Court, or who shall attempt to serve or enforce any such forged Process, knowing the same to be forged, or to take the Body or Goods of any Person maliciously, under any false Colour or Pretence of the Process of the said Court, shall be guilty of Felony.

Suits to be by Plaintiff.

XXXIX. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Person who now hath or hereafter shall have any Cause of Action, over which the said Court has Jurisdiction under this Act, against any Person residing, trading, or dealing within any of the several Parishes, Townships, or Places aforesaid, to enter in the Office of the Clerk of the said Court a Plaintiff in Writing, stating the Parties to and the Substance of the Action intended to be brought, and thereupon a Summons shall be issued under the Seal of the Court, which shall be in Substance according to the Form in the Schedule to this Act annexed, and shall be served on the Defendant Fourteen Days before the Day on which the Court shall be holden at which the Cause shall be tried; and Delivery of such Summons to the Defendant, or Delivery thereof to his Wife or Servant, or any Inmate at his usual Place of Abode, trading, or dealing, shall be deemed good Service; and every such Summons shall be read over or explained at the Time of the Service thereof to the Defendant or other Person on whom the same shall be served as aforesaid: Provided always, that before entering any Plaintiff as aforesaid it shall be lawful for the Clerk of the Court to require Proof that a Copy of the Bill or Account, for the Recovery of the Amount of which the Plaintiff is so to be entered, has been duly delivered to the Party from whom the same is claimed, or at his last usual Place of Abode.

XL. And be it enacted, That no such Summons shall be issued unless the Plaintiff shall, at the Time of entering his Plaint, deposit with the Clerk of the Court, for every Claim not exceeding Twenty Shillings, the Sum of One Shilling, and for every Claim exceeding Twenty Shillings One Twentieth Part thereof, omitting any Sum less than Sixpence in estimating such Twentieth Part; and if upon the Day of the Return of any such Summons, or at any Continuation or Adjournment of the Court or of the Cause for which the Summons shall have been issued, the Plaintiff shall not appear, either in Person or by some other Person on his Behalf, or appearing shall not make Proof of his Demand to the Satisfaction of the Court, it shall be lawful for the Judge to award to the Defendant a Part or the Whole of such Deposit Money by way of Costs and Satisfaction for his Trouble and Attendance, with such further Sum as the Judge in his Discretion shall think fit, and to order and compel the Plaintiff to pay such further Sum by such Ways and Means as any Debt ordered to be paid by the Court can be recovered; and so much of the said Deposit Money as shall not be awarded to the Defendant shall be returned, on Demand, to the Plaintiff.

Clerk not to issue Summons until Deposit is made.

XLI. And be it enacted, That on the Trial of any such Cause no Evidence shall be given by the Plaintiff of any Demand or Cause of Action, except such as shall have been stated in the Summons hereby directed to be given.

No Evidence to be given of any Matter not stated in the Summons.

XLII. And be it declared and enacted, That all Defendants in the said Court shall be allowed to set off any Debt or Demand claimed to be due to them from the Plaintiff, or to set up by way of Defence and to claim and have the Benefit of any Statute of Limitations, or any Discharge under any Statute relating to Bankrupts or Insolvent Debtors: Provided always, that no such Defence shall be admitted, unless Notice thereof in Writing shall have been given to the Clerk of the Court, or left at his Office, Five Days at least previous to the hearing of the Cause; and the Clerk shall communicate the same to the Plaintiff by the Post, or by causing the same to be delivered at his usual Place of Abode or Business.

Notice to be given of special Defences.

XLIII. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Defendant in any such Action at any Time, not being less than Five clear Days before the Day appointed for the Trial thereof, to pay into Court such Sum of Money as he shall think a full Satisfaction for the Demand of the Plaintiff, together with the Costs incurred by the Plaintiff up to the Time of such Payment; and Notice of such Payment shall be communicated by the Clerk of the Court to the Plaintiff by Post, or by sending the same to his usual Place of Abode or Business; and the said Sum of Money shall be paid to the Plaintiff, and all Proceedings in the Action shall be stayed, unless the Plaintiff shall, within Three Days after the Receipt of Notice of such Payment, signify to the Clerk of the Court his Intention to proceed for the Remainder of the Demand claimed, and in such Case the Action shall proceed as if the Plaint had originally been entered for such Remainder only: Provided always, that if the Plaintiff shall recover no further Sum in the Action than shall so have been paid into Court, such such Plaintiff shall pay to the Defendant all the Costs incurred by him in the said Action after such Payment, and such Costs shall be settled by the Court, and shall be recovered by the Defendant by such Ways and Means as any Debt ordered to be paid by the said Court can be recovered.

Defendant may pay Money into Court.

Parties and Witnesses to be examined on Oath.

XLIV. And be it enacted, That on the Hearing or Trial of any Action the Parties thereto, and all Persons whomsoever competent in Law to give Evidence, may be examined upon Oath touching the Matters in question; and before any Party or Witness shall be so examined the Judge shall administer or cause to be administered an Oath or Affirmation to such Party or Witness accordingly.

False Evidence to be punished as Perjury.

XLV. And be it enacted, That every Person who, in any Examination upon Oath or solemn Affirmation before the Judge of the said Court, shall wilfully and corruptly give false Evidence, shall be liable to the Penalties for Perjury.

Summonses to Witnesses.

XLVI. And be it enacted, That either of the Parties to the Suit may obtain at the Office of the Clerk of the Court Summonses to Witnesses, with or without a Clause requiring the Production of Books, Papers, and Writings in their Possession or Control, and in any such Summons any Number of Names may be inserted.

Penalty on Witnesses within the Jurisdiction making Default to be recoverable in the Court.

XLVII. And be it enacted, That every Person resident within any of the several Parishes, Townships, or Places aforesaid, on whom any such Summons shall have been served, either personally or by leaving the same at his usual Place of Abode, trading, or dealing, and to whom Payment or Tender of Payment of his Expences, on such Scale of Allowance as shall be from Time to Time settled by the Judge, shall at the same Time have been made, and who shall refuse or neglect without sufficient Cause to appear or produce any Books, Papers, or Writings required by such Summons to be produced, and also every Person in Court, so resident as aforesaid, called upon to give Evidence, who shall refuse to be sworn and give Evidence, shall forfeit and pay such Fine, not exceeding Five Pounds, as the Judge shall set on him, and such Fine shall be recoverable in the said Court.

Penalty on Witnesses beyond the Jurisdiction making Default to be levied as other Penalties.

XLVIII. And be it enacted, That every Person, not resident in any of the Parishes, Townships, or Places aforesaid, on whom any such Summons shall have been served in manner aforesaid, and to whom Payment or Tender of Payment of his reasonable Expences shall at the same Time have been made, and who shall refuse or neglect, without sufficient Cause, to appear or produce any Books, Papers, or Writings required by such Summons to be produced, and also every Person in Court, not resident within any of the several Parishes, Townships, or Places aforesaid, who shall be called upon to give Evidence, and shall refuse to be sworn and give Evidence, shall forfeit and pay any Sum not exceeding Five Pounds, to be recovered as any Fine or Penalty for which no special Provision is made by this Act is hereby directed to be recovered, and to be paid to the Clerk of the said Court; provided that no Person shall be compellable to attend as a Witness in the said Court who shall be resident at a greater Distance than Twenty Miles from the Place where the same is holden.
Distance

XLIX. And be it enacted, That the Whole or any Part of every such Fine, in the Discretion of the Judge, after deducting the Costs, shall be applicable towards indemnifying the Party injured by such Refusal or Neglect, and the Remainder thereof shall go to the General Fund of the Court.

Application of the Penalties.

L. And be it enacted, That on the Day named in the Summons the Plaintiff shall appear, in the Court held at the Place mentioned in such Summons, in Person or by some Person on his Behalf, and thereupon the Defendant shall be required, by himself or by some Person on his Behalf, to answer such Plaint; and on Answer being made in Court the Court shall proceed in a summary Way to try the Cause, and give Judgment, without further Pleading or formal Joinder of Issue.

Proceedings on hearing the Plaint.

LI. And be it enacted, That if on the Day named in the Summons the Defendant shall not appear as aforesaid, nor sufficiently excuse his Absence, or shall neglect to answer, the Judge may, upon due Proof of the Service of the Summons, proceed to the Hearing or Trial of the Cause on the Part of the Plaintiff only, and the Order, Verdict, or Judgment thereupon shall be as valid as if both Parties had attended: Provided always, that the Judge may in any such Case, at the next or following Court, set aside any Judgment so given as last aforesaid, and the Execution thereupon, under such Terms as he may think fit to impose, upon sufficient Cause shown to him for that Purpose, and grant a new Trial or Re-hearing of the Cause, upon the Defendant paying the Costs of the first Trial or Hearing, and giving such Security for the Costs of the new Trial or Re-hearing as to the Judge shall seem meet.

Proceedings if Defendant does not appear.

LII. And be it enacted, That if it shall appear to the Judge, at the Time appointed for the Hearing or Trial of any Cause, that the Defendant is unable to attend the Court from any reasonable Cause, the Trial or Hearing of the Cause shall be adjourned to the next or following Court.

If Defendant unable to attend, Cause may be adjourned.

LIII. And be it enacted, That the Judge may in any Case make Orders for granting Time to the Plaintiff or Defendant to proceed in the Prosecution or Defence of the Suit.

Judge may give Time.

LIV. And be it enacted, That the Judge of the Court shall have Power from Time to Time, as he shall see fit, subject to the Approval of any Two Judges of the Superior Courts at Westminster, to make Rules for regulating the Practice of the said Court, and to frame Forms for every Proceeding in the Court for which he shall think it necessary that a Form be provided, and to alter any of such Rules or Forms and of the Forms given in the Schedule to this Act.

Judge to make Rules and frame Forms of Procedure.

Power of Commitment for Contempt.

LV. And be it enacted, That if any Person shall wilfully insult the Judge or any Juror or Officer of the said Court for the Time being, during their Sitting or Attendance in Court, or in going to or returning from the Court, or shall wilfully interrupt the Proceedings of the Court, it shall be lawful for any Bailiff or Officer of the Court, with or without the Assistance of any other Person, by the Order of the Judge, to take such Offender into Custody; and the Judge may impose upon any such Offender a Fine not exceeding Five Pounds.

Fines how to be levied and accounted for.

LVI. And be it enacted, That any Fine imposed by the Court under the Authority of this Act may be levied by the same Process as any Debt recovered in the said Court, and shall be accounted for as herein provided.

New Trials
may be granted in certain Cases.

LVII. And be it enacted, That all Causes brought before a Jury under the Provisions of this Act shall be decided by the Verdict of the Jury so impaneled and sworn, and Judgment shall be given accordingly, except it shall appear to the Judge that a wrong Verdict shall have been returned in consequence of some Error or Mistake on the Part of the said Jury, in which Case it shall be lawful for the Judge, on the Application of either Party to the Action, to order a new Trial to be had in any such Cause, and in the meantime to stay the Proceedings thereon: Provided always, that if a Verdict be given for the same Party in a Second Trial, such Verdict shall be final, and no new Trial shall in any Case be granted after an absolute Order issued for Execution: Provided also, that no new Trial shall be granted in any Case unless the Party applying for the same shall, prior to the same being granted, pay the Costs of the first Trial; and give such Security as shall be approved by the Judge for the Costs of such new Trial, or, being a Defendant in such Action, for the Debt found by the Verdict on such former Trial, as well as for the Costs of such new Trial.

Costs to
Event of the Action.

LVIII. And be it enacted, That all the Costs of or attending any Action in the said Court not herein otherwise provided for shall abide the Event of the Action, except such Costs as shall be occasioned by the Default or for the Convenience of any Party, and such last-mentioned Costs shall be paid by or apportioned between the Parties in such Manner as the Judge shall think fit.

No Barrister,
&c. to act as Advocate.

LIX. And be it enacted, That no Barrister, Attorney, or other Person shall be entitled of right to be heard to argue any Question as Counsel or Advocate for any other Person in any Proceeding in the said Court; and no Person, not being an Attorney admitted in one of Her Majesty's Superior Courts at Westminster, shall be entitled to have or recover any Sum of Money for appearing or acting on behalf of any other Person in the said Court; and no Attorney shall be entitled to have or recover any thing therefor, unless the Sum recovered shall be more than Forty Shillings, or to have or recover more than Six Shillings and Eight-pence, unless the Sum recovered shall shall be more than Five Pounds, or more than Ten Shillings and Sixpence in any Case: Provided always, that the Expence of employing any Attorney or other Advocate, either by the Plaintiff or Defendant, shall not be considered as Costs in the Cause, unless the Judge shall so order.

LX. And be it enacted, That the said Judge may make Orders directing at what Time or Times and in what Proportions any Sum of Money and Costs, recovered by Judgment of the said Court, shall be paid, and, at the Request of the Party entitled to the same, may order such Sum to be paid into Court; and whenever the Court shall have given a Judgment or made an Order for the Payment of Money, it shall be lawful for the Judge immediately, or, in case of Default or Failure of Payment thereof, at the Times and in the Manner thereby directed, and either during the Sitting of the Court or at any other Time, to award Execution either against the Body or against the Goods and Chattels of the Party against whom such Order shall be made; and thereupon the Judge shall, at the Request of the Party prosecuting such Order, and either during the Sitting of the Court or at any other Time, issue a Warrant of Execution under the Seal of the Court to One of the Bailiffs of the Court, who, by virtue of such Warrant, is hereby empowered to take the Body of the Defendant in Execution, or to levy, by Distress and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of such Party within the Jurisdiction of the Court, such Sum of Money and Costs as shall be so ordered.

Court may award Execution against Body or Goods.

LXI. And be it enacted, That if the Court shall have made any Order for Payment of any Sum by Instalments, Execution upon such Order shall not issue against the Party until after Default in Payment of some Instalment according to such Order; and it shall then be lawful for the Judge to issue Execution, or successive Executions, for the whole or such Portions of the said Sum of Money and Costs then remaining unpaid as he shall think fit.

Execution where Payment to be made by Instalments.

LXII. And be it enacted, That the Provisions contained in an Act of Parliament passed in the Second Year of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act for abolishing Arrest on Mesne Process in Civil Actions, except in certain Cases; for extending the Remedies of Creditors against the Property of Debtors; and for amending the Law for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors in England, relating to any Writ of Fieri facias to be sued out of any Inferior Court, and to the Removal into any One of Her Majesty's Superior Courts of Record at Westminster of any Judgment, Rule, or Order of any Inferior Court of Record, in which, at the Time of the passing of that Act, a Barrister of not less than Seven Years standing should act as Judge, Assessor, or Assistant on the Trial of Causes, and to the Force and Effect of any such Judgment, Rule, or Order when so removed, shall, notwithstanding any thing herein contained, be applicable to Executions against Goods, Chattels, and Personal Estate issued by the Court by this Act established; and such Provisions shall also be applicable to the Removal into any one of the said Superior Courts of Record of Judgments, Rules, and Orders of the said Court for the Payment of Money exceeding the Sum of Five Pounds, and to the Provisions of 1 & 2 Vict. c. 110. to be applicable to Executions under this Act.

the Force and Effect of such Judgments, Rules, and Orders when so removed, in as full and ample a Manner as if the said Court had been an Inferior Court of Record in which, at the Time of the passing of the said recited Act, a Barrister of not less than Seven Years standing had acted as Judge, Assessor, or Assistant in the Trial of Causes.

Power to suspend Execution in certain Cases.

LXIII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That if it shall at any Time appear to the Satisfaction of the Judge, by the Oath or Affirmation of any Person, or otherwise, that any Defendant is unable from Sickness or unavoidable Accident to pay the Debt recovered against him, or any Instalment thereof ordered to be paid as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for the Judge, in his Discretion, to suspend or stay any Judgment, Order, or Execution made or issued in such Action for such Period as the Judge shall think fit, and so from Time to Time until it shall appear by the like Proof that such Defendant is able to pay such Debt or Instalment.

For what Time Imprisonment shall be.

LXIV. And be it enacted, That every Person who shall be taken in Execution upon any such Warrant shall be committed to the Custody of the Sheriff of the County of Devon, or to any Common Gaol or Prison, and shall remain in Custody for such Time from the Day of his Commitment to Prison as shall be mentioned in the Warrant, not exceeding Twenty Days, or until he shall perform and obey the Order of the Court, or be discharged by due Course of Law: Provided always, that if any Person shall be committed or detained under more than One Warrant, he shall not remain in Custody under any Number of such Warrants longer than Forty Days at any one Time.

Treasurer to pay Allowance to Prisoners.

LXV. And be it enacted, That the Treasurer of the said Court shall allow and pay, out of the General Fund of the said Court, such reasonable Sums as the Justices of the said County shall from Time to Time determine to be fit and proper for keeping and maintaining in Prison the Persons committed to Prison under any such Warrants as aforesaid.

Judge may allow Maintenance to sick or poor Prisoners.

LXVI. And be it enacted, That if it shall appear to the Judge of the said Court, on Application being made to him, that Relief and Maintenance are necessary for the Support of any One or more of the Prisoners who, from Sickness or some other Cause, are then unable to maintain themselves, the Judge shall order the Treasurer of the Court to allow and pay out of the Funds of the Court to every such Prisoner such Sum of Money, not exceeding Sixpence per Day, as shall appear to the Judge to be necessary for his Relief.

Regulating the Sale of Goods taken in Execution.

LXVII. And be it enacted, That no Sale of any Goods which shall be taken in Execution as aforesaid shall take place until after the End of Eight Days at least next following the Day on which such Goods shall have been so taken, unless upon Request in Writing under the Hand of the Party whose Goods shall have been taken; and until such Sale the Goods shall be deposited by the Bailiff in some fit Place to be appointed by the Clerk of the Court; and it shall be lawful for the Judge from Time to Time, as he shall think proper, proper, to appoint such and so many Sworn Brokers and Appraisers, for the Purpose of selling or valuing any Goods, Chattels, or Effects taken in Execution under this Act, as shall appear to him to be necessary, and to direct Security to be taken from each of them, for such Sum and in such Manner as he shall think fit, for the faithful Performance of their Duties without Injury or Oppression, and the Judge may dismiss any Broker or Appraiser so appointed.

LXVIII. And be it enacted, That every such Execution and Sale shall be taken to be within all the Provisions of an Act passed in the Eighth Year of the Reign of King George the Fourth, intituled An Act for extending the Provisions of an Act made in the Fifty-seventh Year of King George the Third, for regulating the Costs of certain Distresses.

Distresses to be within the Provisions of 7 & 8 G. 4. c. 17.

LXIX. And be it enacted, That if there shall be Cross Judgments between the Parties, Execution shall be taken out by that Party only who shall have obtained Judgment for the larger Sum, and for so much only as shall remain after deducting the smaller Sum, and Satisfaction to the Extent of the smaller Sum shall be entered, as well as Satisfaction on the Judgment for the smaller Sum, and if both Sums shall be equal, Satisfaction shall be entered upon both Judgments.

Cross Judgments.

LXX. And be it enacted, That if any Bailiff of the said Court, to whom a Warrant of Execution shall be directed against the Body or Goods of any Person according to the Provisions of this Act, shall not find such Person, or sufficient Goods and Chattels belonging to him, within the Jurisdiction of the Court, it shall be lawful for such Bailiff to apply to any Justice of the Peace acting for the County or Place in which such Person or his Goods and Chattels shall be out of the Jurisdiction of the said Court; and upon such Officer producing to such Justice such Warrant, and making Oath (which Oath such Justice is hereby empowered to administer) that the same has been duly issued out of the said Court, and that the Person or Goods and Chattels (as the Case may be) of such Person is or are not to be found within the Jurisdiction of the said Court, but is or are believed by such Officer to be within the County or Place where such Justice acts, such Justice shall sign his Name on the Back of such Warrant, and thereupon such Bailiff shall have Power to take the Body or Goods and Chattels of such Person (as the Case may be), wheresoever the same shall be found within such County or Place, and deal therewith in like Manner as if the same had been taken within the Jurisdiction of the said Court; and all Constables and other Peace Officers are hereby required to be aiding within their respective Jurisdictions in the Execution of the Warrant so indorsed as aforesaid.

How Executions may be had out of the Jurisdiction.

LXXI. And be it enacted, That upon every Warrant of Execution awarded against the Body, or against the Goods and Chattels of any Person whomsoever, the Clerk of the Court shall cause to be indorsed the Sum of Money and Costs adjudged; and if the Party against whom such Execution shall be awarded shall, before an actual Sale of the Goods and Chattels, or before he is apprehended, or before the Expiration of the Term of his Imprisonment, as herein mentioned, pay or cause to be paid or tendered unto the Clerk of the said Court such Sum of Money as aforesaid, or such Part thereof as the Plaintiff shall agree to accept in full of his Debt, together with the Fees herein directed to be paid, the Execution shall be superseded, and the Body or Goods and Chattels of the said Party shall be discharged and set at liberty.

Execution to be superseded on Payment of Debt and Costs.

Claims as to Goods taken in Execution not exceeding 15*l.*, by Residents, to be adjusted in this Court.

LXXII. And be it enacted, That if any Claim shall be made in respect of any Goods or Chattels taken or intended to be taken in Execution under any Process of the said Court, or in respect of the Proceeds or Value thereof, by any Person not being the Party against whom such Process shall have issued, and if the Claim so made shall not exceed the Sum of Fifteen Pounds, it shall be lawful for the Judge of the Court, upon Application of the Officer charged with the Execution of such Process, as well before as after any Action brought against such Officer, to summon before the said Court as well the Party issuing such Process as the Party making such Claim, if resident, trading, or dealing within any of the several Parishes, Townships, or Places aforesaid, and thereupon to adjudicate upon such Claim, and to make such Order between the Parties in respect thereof, and of the Costs of the Proceedings, as to the Judge shall seem fit, and to enforce such Order in like Manner as any Order made in any Suit brought in such Court.

Claims as to Goods taken in Execution exceeding 15*l.*, or by Non-Residents, to be adjusted in the Superior Courts.

LXXIII. And be it enacted, That if the Amount of the Claim made as aforesaid shall exceed the Sum of Fifteen Pounds, or if the Party making such Claim shall not be residing, trading, or dealing within any of the Parishes, Townships, or Places aforesaid, it shall be lawful for such Officer, if any Action shall have been brought in any of Her Majesty's Superior Courts at Westminster, to apply to such Court or to One of the Judges of such Court, and if no such Action shall have been brought then to apply to any One of Her Majesty's Superior Courts, or to any Judge thereof; and upon such Application being so made such Court or Judge shall use all the Powers for the Adjustment of such Claim, and for the Relief and Protection of such Officer, as on the Application of any Sheriff or other Officer in the Case of Process issuing out of such Court by virtue of an Act passed in a Session holden in the First and Second Years of the Reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled An Act to enable Courts of Law to give Relief against adverse Claims made upon Persons having no Interest in the Subject of such Claims: Provided always, that if it shall appear to such last-mentioned Court, that the Value of the Goods or Chattels claimed as aforesaid, or of the Rights of the Party making any Claim in respect thereof, do not exceed the Sum of Fifteen Pounds, and that the Party making such Claim was at the Time of making the same residing, trading, or dealing within any of the Parishes, Townships, or Places aforesaid, the Court to which such Application as aforesaid shall be made, or any Judge thereof, may order the Party so claiming to pay the Costs of all Proceedings had as aforesaid in the Superior Court.

1 & 2 W. 4.
c. 58.

LXXIV. And

LXXIV. And be it enacted, That the Clerk of the said Court shall cause a Note of all Plaints and Summonses, and of all Orders, and of all Judgments and Executions, and Returns thereto, and of all Fines, and of all other Proceedings of the Court, to be fairly entered from Time to Time in a Book, which shall be kept at his Office, and the Clerk shall sign his Name at the Bottom of every Page of such Book; and Entries so signed, or a Copy thereof, purporting to be signed and certified as a true Copy by the said Clerk, shall at all Times be admitted in all Courts as Evidence of such Entries, and of the Proceeding referred to by such Entries, without further Proof.

Minutes of Proceedings to be kept.

LXXV. And be it enacted, That the Justices of the said County, in Quarter Sessions assembled, shall from Time to Time make such Rules as to them shall seem meet for securing the Balances and other Sums of Money belonging to the Suitors of the Court in the Hands of any Officers thereof, and for the due accounting for and Application of all such Balances and other Sums of Money, and also for keeping and auditing the Accounts of the Court, and shall direct such Sums to be paid out of the General Fund of the Court for the Expence of auditing such Accounts as to them shall seem proper.

Justices to direct how the Accounts shall be kept.

LXXVI. And be it enacted, That the Clerk of the Court shall, in the Month of January in each Year, make out a correct List of all Sums of Money which shall have been paid into Court, and which shall have remained unclaimed for the Space of Twelve Calendar Months before the making out of such List, specifying the Names of the Parties who paid such Sums, and also the Names of the Parties for whom or on whose Account the same were so paid into Court, and such List shall be put up and remain in some conspicuous Part of the Court; and no Person shall be entitled to claim any Monies which may have remained in Court unclaimed for the Space of Six Years, but all such Monies shall be applicable as Part of the General Fund of the Court.

List to be made out of unclaimed Money.

LXXVII. And be it enacted, That the Clerk and Treasurer of the said Court shall from Time to Time, as often as they respectively shall be required so to do by the Judge, deliver to him a full Account in Writing of the Fees and Monies received by them respectively under the Authority of this Act, and a like Account of all Fines paid to the Court under this Act, after deducting the reasonable Expences of levying the same, and any Allowance which the Judge may have made out of any such Fine in pursuance of the Powers herein-after contained, and a like Account of the Monies paid into and received out of Court by the Defendants and Plaintiffs, under any Orders or Decrees of the Court, or under any Levy made under Process of the Court, and of the Balance then remaining in Court belonging to the Plaintiffs or Defendants in the said Court.

Account of Fees and Monies to be rendered to the Judge when required.

LXXVIII. And be it enacted, That the said Clerk and Treasurer shall also, on or before the Thirty-first Day of January in every Year, deliver

Annual Account to be transmitted to the Clerk of the Peace, and laid before the Quarter Sessions.

Fees may be diminished if Produce excessive.

Penalties to be recovered before a Justice and levied by Distress.

In default of Security the Offender may be detained till Return of the Warrant of Distress.

In default of Distress Offender may be committed.

deliver into the Office of the Clerk of the Peace of the said County a like Account, verified by a Declaration of the Accuracy thereof, made before some Justice of the said County, of all such Fees, Fines, and Monies as aforesaid, after making such Deductions as aforesaid, which shall have been received or paid into Court between the First Day of January and the Thirty-first Day of December of the preceding Year; and such last-mentioned Account shall be laid before the Justices of the said County in Quarter Sessions assembled at the First Sessions after the said Thirty-first Day of January, and shall be examined by them; and in case it shall be found that the General Fund is more than sufficient for defraying all Charges upon it, or if the Fees hereby given to the Judge or the Clerk or Bailiffs of the Court shall appear to be more than sufficient, it shall be lawful for such Justices to lessen the Amount of the Sum of Money to be paid for raising the said General Fund, and the Fees to be taken in the Court, in such Manner as to them shall seem fit; and it shall be lawful for the said Justices, in case such Fund or Fees, or any of them, shall be found to be insufficient for the respective Purposes to which the same are applicable, again to increase such Sums of Money or Fees, so that the said Sums of Money, or the Scale of Fees given in the Schedule to this Act, be not in any Case exceeded.

LXXIX. And be it enacted, That all Penalties, Forfeitures, and Fines by this Act inflicted or authorized to be imposed (the Manner of recovering and applying whereof is not hereby otherwise particularly directed) shall, upon Proof before any Justice or Justices of the Peace having Jurisdiction within the County or Place where the Offender shall reside or be, or the Offence shall be committed, either by the Confession of the Party offending or by the Oath of any credible Witness, be levied, together with the Costs attending the Summons and Conviction, by Distress and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of the Party offending, by Warrant under the Hand of any such Justice, and the Overplus (if any), after such Penalties, Forfeitures, and Fines, and the Charges of such Distress and Sale, are deducted, shall be returned, upon Demand, unto the Owner of such Goods and Chattels, LXXX. And be it enacted, That if any such Penalties, Forfeitures, and Fines respectively shall not be paid forthwith upon Conviction, it shall be lawful for such Justice to order the Offender so convicted to be detained in safe Custody until Return can be conveniently made to such Warrant of Distress, unless such Offender shall give sufficient Security, to the Satisfaction of such Justice, for his Appearance before him on such Day as shall be appointed for the Return of such Warrant of Distress, such Day not being more than Eight Days from the Time of taking any such Security, and which Security such Justice is hereby empowered to take by way of Recognizance or otherwise, as to him shall seem fit, LXXXI. And be it enacted, That if upon Return of such Warrant it shall appear that no sufficient Distress can be had thereupon, or in case it shall appear to the Satisfaction of such Justice, either by the Confession

Confession of the Offender or otherwise, that he hath not, within the Jurisdiction of such Justice, sufficient Goods and Chattels whereon to levy all such Penalties and Forfeitures, Costs and Charges, such Justice may, at his Discretion, without issuing any Warrant of Distress, commit the Offender to the Common Gaol or House of Correction of the County, Riding, Hundred, or Place where such Offender shall live or reside, there to remain for any Time not exceeding Three Calendar Months, unless such Penalties, Forfeitures, and Fines, and all reasonable Charges attending the Recovery thereof, shall be sooner paid and satisfied.

LXXXII. And be it enacted, That the Monies arising from any such Penalties, Forfeitures, and Fines as aforesaid, when paid and levied, shall (if not by this Act directed to be otherwise applied) be from Time to Time paid to the Clerk of this Court, and shall be applied in aid of the General Fund thereof.

Penalties to go into the General Fund.

LXXXIII. And be it enacted, That in all Cases in which by this Act any Penalty or Forfeiture is made recoverable before a Justice of the Peace, it shall be lawful for such Justice to summon before him the Party complained against, and on such Summons to hear and determine the Matter of such Complaint, and on Proof of the Offence to convict the Offender, and to adjudge him to pay the Penalty or Forfeiture incurred, and to proceed to recover the same, although no Information in Writing shall have been exhibited before him; and all such Proceedings by Summons without Information in Writing shall be as valid and effectual to all Intents and Purposes as if an Information in Writing had been exhibited.

Justices may proceed by Summons in the Recovery of Penalties.

LXXXIV. And be it enacted, That in all Cases where any Conviction shall be had for any Offence committed against this Act the Form of Conviction may be in the Words or to the Effect following; (that is to say,)

Form of Conviction.

‘ to wit. } BE it remembered, That on this Day of ‘ convicted before in the Year of our Lord A.B. is ‘ for the County of Devon of Her Majesty’s Justices of the Peace ‘ appointed under an Act passed in the Year of the Reign of Her ‘ Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled [here insert the Title of this Act],
 ‘ of having [state the Offence]; and I [or we] the said
 ‘ do adjudge him [her, or them,] the said to ‘ forfeit and pay for the same the Sum of or to be ‘ committed to for the Space of ‘ Given under my Hand and Seal [or our Hands and Seals], the ‘ Day and Year aforesaid.’

LXXXV. And be it enacted, That where any Distress shall be made for any Sum of Money to be levied by virtue of this Act, the Distress itself shall not be deemed unlawful, nor the Party making the same be deemed a Trespasser, on account of any Defect or Want of Form in the Information, Summons, Conviction, Warrant of Distress, or other Proceedings relating thereto, nor shall the Distress not to be unlawful for Want of Form.

Party distraining be deemed a Trespasser ab initio on account of any Irregularity which shall be afterwards committed by the Party so distraining, but the Person aggrieved by such Irregularity may recover full Satisfaction for the special Damage in an Action upon the Case.

Plaintiff not to recover after Tender of Amends.

LXXXVI. And be it enacted, That no Plaintiff shall recover in any Action against any Person for any thing done in pursuance of this Act if Tender of sufficient Amends shall have been made before such Action brought, or if, after Action brought, a sufficient Sum of Money shall have been paid into Court, with Costs, by or on behalf of the Defendant.

Saving of Rights.

LXXXVII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That nothing herein contained shall extend to prejudice, make void, alter, or otherwise affect any of the Rights, Franchises, Privileges, and Jurisdictions of the Lords for the Time being of the several Baronies and Manors within the Jurisdiction of the said Court, and the several Courts to such Baronies and Manors appertaining, but that all the said Rights, Franchises, Privileges, and Jurisdictions shall be and remain of the same Force and Authority to all Intents and Purposes as if this Act had not been passed.

This Act to cease on the passing of any general Act.

LXXXVIII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That at the Expiration of Six Calendar Months next after any general Act shall be passed for the Recovery of Small Debts, and the Operation of which general Act shall be inconsistent with the Powers given by this Act as to the said several Parishes, Townships, and Places in this Act mentioned, every thing in this Act which shall give to the said Court or Judge any local or separate Jurisdiction shall cease and determine, and no Judge or Officer of the said Court shall be deemed to be entitled to any Compensation for the Loss of his Office by reason of the passing of such general Act.

Property belonging to the Court to be transferred according to the Provisions of any such general Act.

LXXXIX. And be it enacted, That in case any such general Act as last aforesaid shall be passed, the Treasurer for the Time being acting in the Execution of this Act shall, with all convenient Speed after the passing thereof, cause any Messuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments which may at that Time be the Property of the said Court to be sold, by public Auction or private Contract, for the best Price in Money that can be reasonably gotten for the same; and the Money arising from such Sale, together with any Money or Securities for Money, or other Property of any Description, then in the Hands or under the Control of the said Court or Treasurer, shall be applied, under the Direction of the said Court, in paying and discharging all Claims and Demands to which such Money or Securities may be liable, and the Surplus thereof shall, at or before the Expiration of Six Calendar Months from the passing of such Act, be paid or transferred to such Persons and in such Manner as by any such Act shall be directed; and in case any Messuages, Lands, or Hereditaments shall not have been sold within the said Six Calendar Months, then the same shall, at the Expiration of that Period, cease to be the Property of the said Court, and shall belong to and absolutely vest in the Persons who under or by virtue of any such general Act as aforesaid shall be entitled to the same, or to the Proceeds arising from the Sale thereof.

XC. And be it enacted, That in the Construction of this Act the Word "Person" shall be taken to include Corporation; and that Words importing the Singular Number shall be taken to include the Plural Number, and Words importing the Plural Number shall be taken to include the Singular Number; and Words importing the Masculine Gender shall apply to Females as well as Males; unless in any of the Cases aforesaid there be something in the Subject or Context repugnant to such Construction. Interpretation Clause.

XCI. And be it enacted, That this Act may be altered or repealed during the present Session of Parliament, either by an Act passed for the express Purpose of altering or repealing the same, or by an Act of which the Provisions shall be inconsistent with the Provisions herein contained. Act may be altered during the present Session.

XCII. And be it enacted, That this Act shall be deemed to be a Public Act, and shall be judicially taken notice of as such. Public Act.
