by the Corporation as consideration on payment off or redemption by the Corporation of any mortgage bond debenture debenture stock annuity rentcharge rent or other statutory security granted by the Corporation.

A.D. 1882.

6. (1.) All Corporation stock for the time being issued and the dividends thereon shall be and the same are by virtue of this Act charged indifferently on the whole revenues of the Corporation from time to time arising from the land undertakings and other property for the time being of the Corporation and on the borough fund and borough rate and on the district fund and general district rate and on all other funds and rates established and leviable by the Corporation as a municipal body for municipal purposes or as a sanitary authority for sanitary purposes.

Charge of Corporation stock.

(2.) The dividends for the time being payable on all Corporation stock shall rank equally with the interest on all other securities of the Corporation at any time after the passing of this Act created or granted in pursuance of any statutory borrowing power and the same dividends and interest shall subject to all charges existing at the passing of this Act be the first charge on the revenues and rates aforesaid and on the revenues of the funds aforesaid (all which revenues and rates are comprised in the term the Corporation revenues when hereafter used in this Act).

Loans Fund.

7. For payment of dividends on all Corporation stock and for redemption and extinction or purchase and extinction of all Corporation stock there shall be established and formed a fund called the Tynemouth Corporation Consolidated Loans Fund (in this Act referred to as the loans fund).

Establishment of Consolidated Loans Fund.

8. (1.) In each year the Corporation shall pay into the loans fund a sum or sums equal to the aggregate amount of all dividends payable in that year on the several portions of Corporation stock issued in exercise of the respective statutory borrowing powers of the Corporation and remaining outstanding.

Contributions to loans fund for dividends.

(2.) They shall provide the sum or sums aforesaid by contributions from the several Corporation revenues if any specifically made liable to provide the same by or under any Act of Parliament or by any resolution of the Corporation having reference to those respective statutory borrowing powers and if as regards any statutory borrowing power there is no such specific liability then from the several Corporation revenues out of which interest would have been payable on money borrowed by the Corporation under that power if

A.D. 1882. — that money had been raised and remained secured otherwise than by Corporation stock and in default thereof or subject thereto they shall provide the same out of the borough fund and borough rate or out of the district fund and general district rate as the Corporation having regard to the provisions of this Act and to the objects for which the statutory borrowing power was exercised may consider equitable.

(3.) The amounts of those several contributions (subject to any payment in reduction thereof authorised by this Act) shall be the sums ascertained to be required in that behalf by apportionment of that aggregate amount of dividends among those several Corporation revenues according to the amount of stock the dividends whereon are properly payable thereout respectively.

Contributions to
loans fund
for extinction of stock.

9. (1.) In each year the Corporation shall pay into the loans fund a sum or sums equal to the aggregate amount of all sums payable in that year for redemption and extinction or purchase and extinction of the several portions of Corporation stock issued in exercise of the respective statutory borrowing powers of the Corporation and remaining outstanding.

(2.) They shall provide the sum or sums last aforesaid by contributions from the several Corporation revenues if any specifically made liable to provide the same by or under any Act of Parliament or by any resolution of the Corporation having reference to those respective statutory borrowing powers and if as regards any statutory borrowing power there is no such specific liability then from the several Corporation revenues out of which any yearly or other sums would have been payable towards a sinking fund for discharge or towards payment off by instalments appropriations annual repayments or otherwise of money borrowed by the Corporation under that power if that money had been raised and remained secured otherwise than by Corporation stock and in default thereof or subject thereto out of the borough fund and borough rate or out of the district fund and general district rate as the Corporation having regard to the provisions of this Act and to the objects for which the statutory borrowing power was exercised may consider equitable.

(3.) The amounts of those several contributions (subject to any payment in reduction thereof authorised by this Act) shall be such amounts as with accumulations at the rate of three pounds ten shillings per centum per annum shall be from time to time calculated to be sufficient to purchase at its nominal amount the portion of stock towards the extinction whereof those contributions are payable within the periods following (that is to say) :—

(A) In case of money raised or to be raised under any statutory borrowing power existing at the passing of this Act within sixty years from the time of the first raising of money represented by the portion of stock to be extinguished or any part thereof and in the case of stock issued for the purpose of redeeming annuities or rentcharges the creation of such annuities and rentcharges shall be construed to be the raising of the money represented by such stock; and

(B) In case of money to be raised under any statutory borrowing power not existing at the passing of this Act within such period as the Act or Provisional Order or Departmental Order or sanction authorising the raising of that money shall prescribe for the payment off thereof.

(4.) The Corporation shall from time to time by investment on statutory securities of the sums paid into the loans fund in respect of those several contributions or of proper parts thereof and by like investment of the interest and annual proceeds arising from those securities make and maintain such accumulations as are in this section referred to.

(5.) But if the extinction of any portion of Corporation stock or any part thereof is accelerated by the application to such extinction of any part of the loans fund required by this Act to be applied to the making and maintenance of those accumulations then a sum or sums equal to the dividends on the stock so extinguished shall thenceforth in every year during the residue of the period expressly or by implication limited for the continuance of any loan by or under the statutory borrowing power in exercise whereof that portion of stock is issued be paid into the loans fund out of the Corporation revenues chargeable with payment of the dividends on that portion of stock.

10. (1.) The Corporation shall from time to time in order to raise the amounts of the several contributions of the two kinds aforesaid out of the several Corporation revenues do all such acts exercise all such powers collect all such money and make and levy all such rates as they lawfully can or ought to do exercise collect make and levy for the purposes of or in relation to the respective statutory borrowing powers in exercise whereof the several portions of Corporation stock are issued.

Raising of contributions to
loans fund.

(2.) If by reason of any limit of a rate or for any other reason there is a deficiency on any Corporation revenue in respect of any required contribution the Corporation shall advance the amount of the deficiency out of the borough fund and borough rate or district fund and general district rate as the Corporation having regard to

[Ch. ccxxxix.] Tynemouth Corporation Loans [45 & 46 VICT.]
Act, 1882.

A.D. 1882. — the provisions of this Act and the objects for which the statutory borrowing power was exercised may consider equitable.

(3.) The amount so advanced shall be a debt due from the Corporation revenue on which the deficiency existed to the fund or rate out of which the advance is made and interest shall be payable thereon at the rate of three pounds ten shillings per centum per annum until repayment and the same debt and interest shall as soon as in the judgment of the Corporation reasonably may be raised and paid out of the Corporation revenue on which the deficiency existed.

Payment of sale money rents &c. to loans fund.

11. (1.) The Corporation shall pay into the loans fund and shall carry to the proper separate account forming part of the general account of the loans fund all such money being capital or in the nature of capital and not being otherwise wholly or in part appropriated or made applicable by law or by valid contract as shall from time to time arise from any sale lease or other disposition of land or other property of the Corporation on the revenues whereof any Corporation stock is charged.

(2.) The Corporation shall pay into the loans fund and shall carry to the proper separate account forming part of the general account of the loans fund the rents and profits of any land and any other property of the Corporation acquired by them for the purposes of any undertaking or purpose for or in respect of which any statutory borrowing power is exercised by them by the issue of stock and not otherwise wholly or in part appropriated or made applicable by law or by valid contract.

(3.) The Corporation before making any payment into the loans fund under this section may deduct from the money or the rents and profits to which this section applies any costs and expenses properly incurred by the Corporation in or about any sale lease or other disposition or the collection and receipt of any rents and profits.

Application
of loans fund.

12. The Corporation shall from time to time apply the loans fund first in paying the dividends on all Corporation stock and next in redeeming Corporation redeemable stock according to the terms of issue and purchasing for extinction Corporation redeemable or irredeemable stock.

Purchase of
stock.

13. (1.) The Corporation shall not be bound to purchase for extinction any Corporation irredeemable stock unless they can do so at or below par that is to say at a price not higher than the nominal amount thereof.

(2.) If any portion of Corporation irredeemable stock is not wholly extinguished within the period expressly or by implication limited in that behalf by this Act then after that period the dividends on that portion of stock while unextinguished shall be paid out of the interest and annual proceeds of such money and securities forming part of the loans fund as are properly applicable to the extinction of that portion of stock and except as far as at any time a deficiency of the loans fund in that behalf exists no further money shall be paid into the loans fund in respect of those dividends out of the Corporation revenues liable to contribute to the loans fund in respect of those dividends.

A.D. 1882.

(3.) But in that case the Corporation shall continue to pay into the loans fund the yearly sum theretofore required to be provided for extinction of that portion of stock until the securities forming part of the loans fund applicable to that extinction are of sufficient value to enable the Corporation to purchase therewith for extinction the unextinguished part of that portion of stock.

(4.) In case at any time after the expiration of the period limited as aforesaid the Local Government Board are of opinion that the Corporation can without material loss regard being had to the price of issue of the portion of Corporation irredeemable stock which ought to be extinguished within that period and to the rate of dividend payable thereon purchase that portion of stock for extinction then the Local Government Board may if they think fit order the purchase for extinction of that portion of stock or of any part thereof.

(5.) In case at any time during any period limited for the continuance of any loan by or under the statutory borrowing power in exercise whereof any portion of Corporation irredeemable stock is issued the Local Government Board are of opinion that regard being had to the market value of Corporation irredeemable stock the provision made for the purchase and extinction of any portion of such stock within the prescribed period is insufficient the Local Government Board may from time to time by order direct that the contributions to be made to the loans fund for the purchase and extinction of that portion of stock in accordance with the provisions of this Act shall be increased by such amount as shall be specified in the order so as to provide that the Corporation shall purchase and extinguish or shall be in a position to purchase and extinguish that portion of Corporation stock within the period limited for its continuance under the provisions of this Act.

14. All Corporation redeemable stock redeemed by the Corporation and all Corporation redeemable or irredeemable stock purchased loans fund.

15. (1.) As parts of the general account of the loans fund the Corporation shall keep separate accounts relative to—

(a) Each undertaking or purpose for or in respect of which any statutory borrowing power is exercised by them by the issue of stock; and

(b) Each statutory borrowing power so exercised.

(2.) Those separate accounts shall distinguish and show—

(c) The portions of Corporation stock for the time being unextinguished and chargeable to each undertaking or purpose and respectively attributable to the exercise of the several statutory borrowing powers if more than one relating to that undertaking or purpose; and

(d) The amounts of those several portions of Corporation stock redeemed or purchased by means of the loans fund and cancelled and extinguished.

(3.) Those separate accounts shall further distinguish and show in relation to each undertaking or purpose—

(e) All money being capital or in the nature of capital arising from any sale lease or other disposition of land or other property of the Corporation paid into the loans fund and in the judgment of the Corporation properly attributable to that undertaking or purpose and the securities on which that money or any part thereof is from time to time invested; and

(f) All money from time to time received as interest and annual proceeds of the last-mentioned money and securities; and

(g) All money from time to time received as rents and profits of any land and other property of the Corporation so as aforesaid acquired and not otherwise appropriated or made applicable; and

(h) All money and securities transferred to the loans fund as having formed part of a sinking fund and all money from time to time received as interest and annual proceeds of the last-mentioned money and securities or of securities wherein the same interest and annual proceeds are from time to time invested by way of accumulation; and

(j) All money paid into the loans fund as contributions from the Corporation revenues in respect of dividends on the several portions of Corporation stock chargeable to that undertaking or purpose; and Act, 1882.

(k) All money paid into the loans fund as contributions from the Corporation revenues in respect of redemption and extinction or purchase and extinction of those several portions of Corporation stock.

A.D. 1882.

16. (1.) Where any money is standing on a separate account in the loans fund being money paid into the loans fund as rents and profits of the land and other property of the Corporation or being money paid into the loans fund as interest on cash balances received by the Corporation or being other money paid into the loans fund but not being capital or in the nature of capital and not being required by this Act to be applied to the making and maintenance of such accumulations as are prescribed by this Act the Corporation may deal with the same as in this section provided.

Application of income in reduction of contributions.

(2.) Where any money is standing on a separate account in the loans fund being money required by this Act to be applied to the making and maintenance of such accumulations as are prescribed by this Act the Corporation after providing for the making and maintenance of those accumulations may if they think fit from time to time invest that money or any part thereof in statutory securities and deal with the interest and annual proceeds of those securities as in this section provided.

(3.) The Corporation may if they think fit from time to time apply the money described in paragraph (1) of this section and the last-mentioned interest and annual proceeds to either of the purposes following or to both of those purposes in such proportions as the Corporation from time to time may consider equitable and expedient (that is to say):—

(a) In reduction of such contributions out of the Corporation revenues as are payable into the loans fund in respect of dividends on the portions of Corporation stock comprised in the separate account on which the money or interest and annual proceeds is or are standing;

(b) In reduction of such contributions out of the Corporation revenues as are payable into the loans fund for redemption and extinction or purchase and extinction of those portions of stock.

17. For the purposes of any contribution or account under this Act the Corporation if they think fit having regard to all the circumstances of the case and subject to the terms on which any loan of the Corporation was contracted or any Corporation stock was issued may from time to time determine and declare on which of the Corporation revenues any loan of the Corporation or any portion of Corporation stock is or shall be deemed to be primarily or Where any mortgage bond debenture debenture stock annuity rentcharge or other statutory security granted or created before or after the passing of this Act by the Corporation under any statutory borrowing power or other power is outstanding or payable and the Corporation have power with the consent of the holder of that statutory security or otherwise to pay off the amount thereby secured or represented or to redeem the same they may pay off or redeem the statutory security accordingly with money raised by Corporation stock or they may with the consent of the holder thereof issue Corporation stock in substitution for the statutory security.

(2.) The Corporation may create and issue Corporation stock to such amount as may be requisite for purposes of this section and that stock shall be deemed to be created and issued and any money raised thereby shall be deemed to be raised by virtue of the statutory borrowing power or other power under which the statutory security was granted and any money so raised shall be applied in payment off or redemption of the statutory security.

(3.) In every such case of payment off redemption or substitution the Corporation shall pay and transfer into the loans fund the whole or a proportionate part (as the case may require) of any money and securities forming part of any sinking fund applicable to the discharge of the statutory security.

8 & 9 Vict.
c. 18.

(4.) Where the holder of the statutory security is one of the persons described in section seven of the Lands Clauses Consolidation Act 1845 and by that Act enabled to sell land thereunder that person may consent to payment or redemption of or substitution for the money secured or represented by that security and may accept money for giving that consent as if the person so consenting were the absolute owner of that security and that person is hereby indemnified for so doing and his receipt shall be a good discharge for the same.

(5.) Money received by the holder of any statutory security as authorised by this section and Corporation stock issued to him in substitution for any statutory security shall be subject to the same trusts powers testamentary and other dispositions provisions and incumbrances as the money secured or represented by the statutory security was subject to immediately before the payment off redemption or substitution and every testamentary or other disposition shall take effect with reference to the whole or a proportionate part of the money or stock received or substituted as the case may be.

A.D. 1882.

Effect on borrowing Powers.

19. On the issue of any portion of Corporation stock the statutory borrowing power in exercise whereof that stock is issued shall be affected as follows (namely):—

Extinction or suspension
power.

(a) If the stock is issued for the whole term limited for the continuance of any loan or for the continuance of payment of or in respect of any mortgage bond debenture debenture stock annuity rentcharge rent or other statutory security granted by the Corporation under that statutory borrowing power then that power to the extent of the money raised by that stock shall be and the same is by virtue of this Act extinguished; but

(b) If the stock is issued for part only of that term then so much of the money raised by that stock as has not been paid off out of the loans fund may be reborrowed by the Corporation for the residue of that term or any part thereof and so from time to time.

Application of Money raised.

20. Money raised by Corporation stock shall be applied for purposes for which money raisable under the statutory borrowing power in exercise whereof the stock is issued ought by law to be applied and not otherwise.

General
application
of money
ration stock.

21. (1.) The Corporation may from time invest temporarily on statutory securities (other than stock certificates to bearer) money raised by Corporation stock but not for the time being applied to or required for the undertaking or purpose for which it is raised and shall from time pay the interest and annual proceeds of those securities into the loans fund.

Transfer in books.

26. (1.) If and where the resolution for creation of any portion of Corporation stock makes the same transferable in books and not by deed the provisions of this section shall apply and have effect but not otherwise. A.D. 1882.

(2.) The Corporation or the registrar shall keep books wherein transfers of Corporation stock so transferable shall be entered (in this Act referred to as the Corporation stock transfer books).

(3.) Every such entry shall be conceived in proper words for the purpose of transfer and shall be signed by the party making the transfer or if he is absent by his agent thereunto lawfully authorised in writing under his hand attested by a witness.

(4.) Where the Bank of England are the registrar they may if they think fit require that the agent be so authorised by power of attorney under the hand and seal of the party making the transfer attested by two or more credible witnesses.

(5.) The person to whom a transfer is made may if he thinks fit underwrite his acceptance thereof.

(6.) Except as otherwise provided by some other Act of Parliament and subject to the provisions of this Act respecting any portion of Corporation stock which the resolution for creation thereof makes transferable by deed and not in books no mode of transferring Corporation stock other than that prescribed in this section shall be good in law.

27. (1.) If and where the resolution for creation of any portion of Corporation stock makes the same transferable by deed and not in books the provisions of this section shall apply and have effect but not otherwise. Transfer by deed.

(2.) Every transfer of Corporation stock so transferable shall be by deed.

(3.) The deed of transfer shall relate only to the transfer and shall not contain any recital trust power or proviso whatsoever.

(4.) The deed of transfer when duly executed shall be delivered to and kept by the Corporation or the registrar and the Corporation or the registrar shall enter a memorial thereof in a book to be called the register of transfers of Corporation stock and shall indorse on the deed of transfer a notice of that entry.

(5.) The Corporation or the registrar shall on demand and on delivery up of the old stock certificate or proof satisfactory to the Corporation of its absence deliver a new stock certificate to the purchaser or shall at the option of the purchaser make an indorsement of the transfer on the existing stock certificate which indorsement being signed by direction of the Corporation or by the registrar shall be equivalent to a new stock certificate.

(6.) Until the deed of transfer has been so delivered to the Corporation or the registrar the Corporation or the registrar shall not

28. (1.) The Corporation or the registrar before allowing any transfer of stock may if the circumstances of the case appear to them or him to make it expedient require evidence of the title of any person claiming a right to make the transfer.

(2.) That evidence shall be a statutory declaration of one or more competent persons or of such other nature as the Corporation or the registrar with the approval of the Corporation may require.

Closing of transfer books.

29. (1.) The Corporation or the registrar with the approval of the Corporation may as regards any portion of Corporation stock close the Corporation stock transfer books or the register of transfers of Corporation stock (as the case may be) on any day in the month next before that in which dividends on that portion of Corporation stock are payable but so that the books be not at any time kept closed for more than fifteen days.

(2.) The persons who on the day of such closing are inscribed as Corporation stockholders shall, as between them and their transferees of Corporation stock be entitled to the dividend next payable thereon.

Stamp duty on transfers.

30. Unless the Corporation have compounded for stamp duty all stock issued by the Corporation shall notwithstanding anything in any resolution of the Corporation be transferable by deed and not in books; and every deed of transfer of stock transferable by deed shall be duly stamped and the consideration shall be truly stated therein.

Transmission.

Transmission on death.

31. (1.) The interest in Corporation stock of a stockholder dying shall be transferable by his executors or administrators notwithstanding any specific bequest thereof.

(2.) The Corporation or the registrar shall not be required to allow any executors or administrators to transfer any stock until the probate of the will of or the letters of administration to the deceased has or have been left with the Corporation or the registrar for registration and may require all the executors who have proved the will or all the administrators as the case may be to join in the transfer.

Transmission on marriage &c.

32. (1.) If the interest in any Corporation stock has become transmitted in consequence of the bankruptcy of a stockholder or the marriage of a female stockholder or by any lawful means other than a transfer in books or by deed or than the death of a stockholder that transmission shall be authenticated by a statutory declaration of one or more competent persons or in such other manner as the Corporation or the registrar require.

A.D. 1882.

(2.) The declaration shall state the manner in which and the party to whom the stock has been transmitted and shall be left with the Corporation or the registrar.

(3.) If the transmission is in consequence of the marriage of a female stockholder the declaration shall if the Corporation or the registrar so require set forth a copy of the register of the marriage or other particulars of the celebration thereof and declare the identity of the wife with the holder of the stock.

(4.) The name of the person entitled under the transmission shall be entered in the Corporation stock register.

(5.) Until the transmission has been so authenticated the Corporation or the registrar shall not be affected thereby and no person claiming by virtue thereof shall be entitled to receive any dividend on the stock.

Dividends.

33. The Corporation may pay by the registrar the dividends on Corporation stock.

Payment of dividends.

34. The Corporation or the registrar shall not be required to allow any executors or administrators to receive any dividend on Corporation stock held by their testator or intestate until the probate of the will or the letters of administration has or have been left with the Corporation or the registrar for registration.

Dividends to executors &c.

35. The Corporation or the registrar before allowing the receipt of any dividend on any Corporation stock may if the circumstances of the case appear to them or him to make it expedient require evidence of the title of any person claiming a right to receive the dividend and that evidence shall be a statutory declaration of competent persons or of such other nature as the Corporation or the registrar may require.

Evidence of title.

36. Where more persons than one are registered as joint holders of any Corporation stock any one of them may give an effectual receipt for any dividend thereon unless notice to the contrary has been given to the Corporation or the registrar by any other of them.

Dividends to joint holders.

37. Where Corporation stock is standing in the name of an infant or person of unsound mind jointly with any person or persons not under legal disability a letter of attorney for receipt of the dividends

NOTICE TO HOLDERS OF TYNEMOUTH CORPORATION STOCK
(£3 10s. PER CENT.)

TRANSMISSION OF DIVIDEND WARRANTS BY POST.

Dividends upon the above-named stock may be transmitted through the post to the stockholder in sole accounts and to any one of the stockholders in joint accounts at their risk upon a form of request being duly filled up and forwarded to the ACCOUNTANT-GENERAL, BANK OF ENGLAND. (Forms are obtainable at the BANK OF ENGLAND, and at any of its branches.)

N.B.—This arrangement does not apply to stockholders whose addresses are beyond the United Kingdom.

Persons receiving dividends under letter of attorney cannot have the warrants for such dividends sent to them by post.

A separate form must be used for each separate holding of stock.

When forwarding a form of request, care should be taken to state the number of overdue dividends, if any.

Dividends are payable on [1st January, 1st April, 1st July, and 1st October].

When the [1st] happens on a Sunday, the dividends are not payable until the [2nd].

Forms of request may be delivered at the Bank at any date, either by hand or through the post; but when received between the day on which the balance for a dividend is struck and the day on which the dividend is payable, the warrants for such next dividend will be forwarded as soon as possible, but the Bank will not guarantee their being posted on the day before the dividend is payable.

For the dividend payable [1st January] the balance is struck on or about the	[1st December].

„	[1st April]	„	„
„	[1st July]	„	„
„	[1st October]	„	„

Warrants for overdue dividends will be forwarded as promptly as possible, but not necessarily by return of post.

Any change of address of the stockholder in sole accounts, or of the nominee in joint accounts, should be notified at once to the Accountant-General. When any such notification reaches the Bank less than a fortnight before the next dividend is due, there may be a delay of a few days in the delivery of the warrant for such next dividend.

In the absence of any notification to the contrary, it will be taken for granted that dividend warrants have duly reached their destinations. When they are not received on the correct day, notice should be given to the Accountant-General without delay.

As postal dividend warrants are made payable to order, they must be indorsed; they are crossed in blank, and consequently are only payable on

A.D. 1882. presentation by a banker. (The Bank will not undertake to cross postal dividend warrants with the names of particular bankers.)

Instructions to transmit warrants by post remain in force, although the stock may have been added to, or a part sold.

Stockholders selling stock by attorney, if they wish to continue to receive their dividends through the post, should instruct their bankers, or brokers, to obtain letters of attorney for sale only.

All communications with reference to postal dividend warrants should be addressed to the Accountant-General, Bank of England, and the postage should be prepaid.
