

CHAPTER lxxxii.

An Act to extend the powers of the Didcot Newbury and Southampton Railway Company and for other purposes. [16th July 1885.]

A.D. 1885.

WHEREAS by the Didcot Newbury and Southampton Junction Railway Act 1873 the Didcot Newbury and Southampton Railway Company (hereinafter called "the Company") were incorporated and authorised to make and maintain certain railways and works in the counties of Berks and Southampton with power to raise six hundred thousand pounds by shares and two hundred thousand pounds by borrowing on mortgage or by the creation and issue of debenture stock and by subsequent Acts the Company were authorised to make additional railways to raise further sums of money and to exercise other powers in relation to their undertaking :

And whereas by the Didcot Newbury and Southampton Junction Railway Act 1882 (hereinafter called "the Act of 1882") the Company were authorised to make and maintain an extension of their authorised railway from Burghclere to Southampton in the county of Southampton and to Aldermaston in the county of Berks :

And whereas it is expedient that the respective times limited by the Act of 1882 for the exercise of the powers of the Company for the compulsory purchase of lands and for the completion of the railways and works by that Act authorised should be extended to the extent and effect in this Act mentioned :

And whereas the purposes of this Act cannot be effected without the authority of Parliament :

May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted and be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons in this present Parliament assembled and by the authority of the same (as follows) :—

[Ch. lxxxi.] Didcot, Newbury, and Southampton [48 & 49 VICT.]
Railway (Extension of Time) Act, 1885.

A.D. 1885.
Short title.

1. This Act may be cited for all purposes as the Didcot Newbury and Southampton Railway (Extension of Time) Act 1885.

Incorporation of Part II. of Railways Clauses Act, 1863.

2. Part II. of the Railways Clauses Act 1863 (relating to extension of time) is incorporated with and forms part of this Act.

Extension of time for compulsory purchase of lands.

3. The powers granted to the Company by the Act of 1882 for the compulsory purchase of the lands referred to in the schedule to this Act for the purposes of the railways and works by that Act authorised are hereby extended and shall continue in force until the expiration of two years from the tenth day of August one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five :

Provided nevertheless that for the protection of Anna Maria Martha Knowlys or her successor in title proprietor of lands in the parish of Millbrook and county of Southampton the Company shall within twelve months after the passing of this Act and not later serve her with notice to treat for the portion of such lands if any required to be taken for the purposes of the Company.

Extension of time for completion of railways.

4. The time limited by the Act of 1882 for the completion of the railways and works thereby authorised other than Railway No. 4 and the junction between Railway No. 1 and the London and South-western Railway Company's main line at or near the Alton Branch Railway shall be and the same is hereby extended and enlarged and shall continue in force until the expiration of three years from the tenth day of August one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five and that period shall for all purposes be deemed to be the period originally limited by the Act of 1882 for the completion of such railways and works.

Limitation of period for completion of works.

5. If the railways and works shall not be completed within the extended period limited by this Act then on the expiration of such period the powers by the Act of 1882 and by this Act granted to the Company for making and completing the railways and works or otherwise in relation thereto shall cease to be exercised except as to so much thereof as is then completed.

Restriction as to houses of labouring classes.

6. (1.) The Company shall not under the extended powers by this Act granted purchase or acquire in any city borough or other urban sanitary district or any parish or part of a parish not being within an urban sanitary district ten or more houses which after the passing of this Act have been or on the fifteenth day of December last were occupied either wholly or partially by persons belonging to the labouring class as tenants or lodgers unless and until :

(a) They shall have obtained the approval of the Local Government Board to a scheme for providing new dwellings for such number of persons as were residing in such houses on the fifteenth day of December last or for such number of persons as the Local Government Board shall after inquiry deem necessary having regard to the number of persons on or after that date residing in such houses and working within one mile therefrom and to the amount of vacant suitable accommodation in the immediate neighbourhood of such houses or to the place of employment of such persons and to all the circumstances of the case; and

(b) They shall have given security to the satisfaction of the Local Government Board for the carrying out of the scheme.

(2.) The approval of the Local Government Board to any scheme under this section may be given either absolutely or conditionally and after the Local Government Board have approved of any such scheme they may from time to time approve either absolutely or conditionally of any modifications in the scheme.

(3.) Every scheme under this section shall contain provisions prescribing the time within which it shall be carried out and shall require the new dwellings proposed to be provided under the scheme to be completed fit for occupation before the persons residing in the houses in respect of which the scheme is made are displaced:

Provided that the Local Government Board may dispense with the last-mentioned requirement subject to such conditions if any as they may see fit.

(4.) Any conditions subject to which the Local Government Board may have approved of any scheme under this section or of any modifications of any scheme or subject to which they may have dispensed with the above-mentioned requirement shall be enforceable by a writ of mandamus to be obtained by the Local Government Board out of the Queen's Bench Division of the High Court of Justice.

(5.) If the Company acquire or appropriate any house or houses under the extended powers by this Act granted in contravention of the foregoing provisions or displace or cause to be displaced the persons residing in any house or houses in contravention of the requirements of the scheme they shall be liable to a penalty of five hundred pounds in respect of every such house which penalty shall be recoverable by the Local Government Board by action in the High Court of Justice and shall be carried to and form part of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom: Provided that the Court may if it think fit reduce such penalty.

Railway (Extension of Time) Act, 1885.

A.D. 1885.

(6.) For the purpose of carrying out any scheme under this section the Company may appropriate any lands for the time being belonging to them or which they have power to acquire and may purchase such further lands as they may require and for the purpose of any such purchase sections 176 and 297 of the Public Health Act 1875 shall be incorporated with this Act and shall apply to the purchase of lands by the Company for the purposes of any scheme under this section in the same manner in all respects as if the Company were a local authority within the meaning of the Public Health Act 1875 and the scheme were one of the purposes of that Act.

(7.) The Company may on any lands belonging to them or purchased or acquired under this section or any Provisional Order issued in pursuance of this section erect such dwellings for persons of the labouring class as may be necessary for the purpose of any scheme under this section and may sell demise or let or otherwise dispose of such dwellings and any lands purchased or acquired as aforesaid and may apply for the purposes of this section to which capital is properly applicable or any of such purposes any moneys which they may be authorised to raise or apply for the general purposes of their undertaking :

Provided that all lands on which any buildings have been erected or provided by the Company in pursuance of any scheme under this section shall for a period of twenty-five years from the passing of this Act be appropriated for the purpose of dwellings and every conveyance demise or lease of such lands and buildings shall be endorsed with notice of this enactment :

Provided also that the Local Government Board may at any time dispense with all or any of the requirements of this sub-section subject to such conditions if any as they may see fit.

(8.) So much of section 157 of the Public Health Act 1875 as provides that the provisions of that section and of sections 155 and 156 of the same Act shall not apply to buildings belonging to any railway company and used for the purposes of such railway under any Act of Parliament shall not apply to buildings erected or provided by the Company for the purpose of any scheme under this section.

(9.) The Local Government Board may direct any inquiries to be held by their inspectors which they may deem necessary in relation to any scheme under this section and for giving effect to any of the provisions of this section and the inspectors of the Local Government Board shall for the purposes of any such inquiry have all such powers as they have for the purposes of inquiries directed by that Board under the Public Health Act 1875.

(10.) The Company shall pay to the Local Government Board a sum to be fixed by that Board in respect of the preparation and issue of any Provisional Order in pursuance of this section and any expenses incurred by that Board in relation to any inquiries under this section including the expenses of any witnesses summoned by the inspector and a sum to be fixed by that Board not exceeding three guineas a day for the services of such inspector.

A.D. 1885.

(11.) For the purposes of this section the expression "labouring class" includes mechanics artizans labourers and others working for wages hawkers costermongers persons not working for wages but working at some trade or handicraft without employing others except members of their own family and persons other than domestic servants whose income does not exceed an average of thirty shillings a week and the families of any such persons who may be residing with them.

7. Nothing in this Act contained shall exempt the Company or the railway from the provisions of any general Act relating to railways or the better and more impartial audit of the accounts of railway companies now in force or which may hereafter pass during this or any future session of Parliament or from any future revision or alteration under the authority of Parliament of the maximum rates of fares and charges or the rates for small parcels authorised to be taken by the Company.

Provision as to general
Railway Acts.

8. All costs charges and expenses of and incident to the preparing for obtaining and passing of this Act or otherwise in relation thereto shall be paid by the Company.
