

CHAPTER lxxvi.

An Act to enable the Secretary of State for the War Department to purchase certain Lands in or near Dublin for the Improvement of the Wellington and Beggars Bush Barracks at Dublin respectively.

A.D. 1892.

[20th June 1892.]

WHEREAS it is expedient for the purpose of enlarging the Wellington and Beggars Bush Barracks at Dublin and of making better precautions for the health and efficiency of Her Majesty's military forces that the Secretary of State for the War Department (hereinafter called the Secretary of State) should be empowered to purchase the lands hereinafter described under the provisions contained in that behalf in the Barracks Act, 1890 :

And whereas plans of the lands to be purchased have been signed in duplicate by the Honourable William St. John Fremantle Brodrick, the Chairman of the Committee of the House of Commons, to whom the Bill for this Act was referred, and one copy of such plans has been deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons and the other copy with the Town Clerk of the City of Dublin :

And whereas the Secretary of State has, with reference to the purchase of the said lands, caused such notices to be served and such local inquiries to be held as are required by the provisions of the Barracks Act, 1890, and after those inquiries he is satisfied that the lands should be taken :

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :—

1. The Secretary of State may purchase under the provisions contained in the Barracks Act, 1890, and the Acts incorporated therewith, the following lands, namely :—

Power to purchase land under provisions of Barracks Act, 1890.

[Price 3d.]
