

[56 & 57 VICT.] Garve and Ullapool Railway [Ch. ccxviii.]
(Abandonment) Act, 1893.

CHAPTER ccxviii.

An Act to provide for the abandonment of the undertaking authorised by the Garve and Ullapool Railway Act 1890. A.D. 1893.
[24th August 1893.]

WHEREAS by the Garve and Ullapool Railway Act 1890 the Garve and Ullapool Railway Company (herein-after called "the Company") were incorporated and authorised to construct a railway from near the Garve Station of the Highland Railway to Ullapool and it was provided that the capital of the Company should be two hundred and forty thousand pounds in twenty-four thousand shares of ten pounds each: 53 & 54 Vict. c. ccxxxiii.

And whereas negotiations took place between the directors of the Company and the Treasury with respect to the grant of a subsidy in aid of the construction of the said railway:

And whereas the Treasury have not assented to grant the subsidy or pecuniary aid for the construction of the said railway and it is impossible in those circumstances that the undertaking can be carried out:

And whereas no part of the capital of the Company has been issued and none of the powers of the said Act with respect to the purchase of lands have been exercised and it is expedient that provision should be made under which the undertaking may be abandoned and the money deposited in respect thereof released:

And whereas the purposes of this Act cannot be effected without the authority of Parliament:

May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted and be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons in this present Parliament assembled and by the authority of the same as follows:—

1. This Act may be cited as the Garve and Ullapool Railway (Abandonment) Act 1893. Short title.
