fund.

(A) By payment to the fund throughout the prescribed period of such equal annual sums as will together amount to the moneys

for the repayment of which the sinking fund is formed A sinking fund so formed is herein-after called a non-accumulating sinking fund ; or

(B) By payment to the fund throughout the prescribed period of such equal annual sums as with accumulations at a rate not exceeding three per centum per annum will be sufficient to pay off within the prescribed period the moneys for the repayment of which such sinking fund is formed A sinking fund so formed is herein-after called an accumulating sinking fund.

(2) Every sum paid to a sinking fund and in the case of an accumulating sinking fund the interest on the investments of the sinking fund shall unless applied in repayment of the loan in respect of which the sinking fund is formed be immediately invested in statutory securities the Council being at liberty from time to time to vary and transpose such investments.

(3) In the case of a non-accumulating sinking fund the interest on the investments of the fund may be applied by the Council towards the equal annual payments to the fund.

(4) The Council may at any time apply the whole or any part of any sinking fund in or towards the discharge of the money for the repayment of which the fund is formed Provided that in the case of an accumulating sinking fund the Council shall pay into the fund each year and accumulate during the residue of the prescribed period a sum equal to the interest which would have been produced by such sinking fund or part thereof so applied if invested at the rate per centum per annum on which the annual payments to the sinking fund are based.

(5)—(A) If and so often as the income of an accumulating sinking fund is not equal to the income which would be derived from the amount invested if the same were invested at the rate per centum per annum on which the annual payments to the fund are based any deficiency shall be made good by the Council :

(B) If and so often as the income of an accumulating sinking fund is in excess of the income which would be derived from the amount invested if the same were invested at the rate per centum per annum on which the annual payments to the fund are based any such excess may be applied towards such annual payments.

(6) Any expenses connected with the formation maintenance investment application management or otherwise of any sinking fund under this Act shall be paid by the Council in addition to the payments provided for by this Act.

(7) If it appears to the Council at any time that the amount in the sinking fund with the future payments thereto in accordance with the provisions of this Act together with the accumulations thereon (in the case of an accumulating sinking fund) will probably not be sufficient to repay within the prescribed period the moneys for the repayment of which the sinking fund is formed it shall be the duty of the Council to make such increased payments to the sinking fund as will cause the sinking fund to be sufficient for that purpose. Provided always that if it appears to the Local Government Board that any such increase is necessary the Council shall increase the payments to such extent as the Board may direct.

(8) If the Council desire to accelerate the repayment of any loan they may increase the amounts payable to any sinking fund.

(9) If the amount in any sinking fund with the future payments thereto in accordance with the provisions of this Act together with the accumulations thereon (in the case of an accumulating sinking fund) will in the opinion of the Local Government Board be more than sufficient to repay within the prescribed period the moneys for the repayment of which the sinking fund is formed the Council may reduce the payments to be made to the sinking fund either temporarily or permanently to such amounts as will in the opinion of the Local Government Board be sufficient to repay within the prescribed period the moneys for the repayment of which the sinking fund is formed.

(10) If the amount in any sinking fund at any time together with the probable accumulations thereon (in the case of an accumulating sinking fund) will in the opinion of the Local Government Board be sufficient to repay the loan in respect of which it is formed within the prescribed period the Council may with the consent of that Board discontinue the annual payments to such sinking fund until the Local Government Board shall otherwise direct.

(11) Any surplus of any sinking fund remaining after the discharge of the whole of the moneys for the repayment of which it was formed shall be applied to such purpose as the Council with the consent of the Local Government Board may determine.

49. A person lending money to the Council under this Act shall not be bound to inquire as to the observance by the Council of any provision of this Act or be bound to see to the application or be answerable for any loss misapplication or non-application of the money lent or of any part thereof.

Protection of lender from inquiry.

50. The Council shall not be bound to see to the execution of any trust whether express implied or constructive to which any loan or security for loan given by them may be subject but the Council not to regard trusts.

A.D. 1899. receipt of the person in whose name any loan or security for loan stands in the register of mortgages of the Council shall be sufficient discharge to the Council in respect thereof notwithstanding any trusts to which such loan or security may be subject and whether or not the Council have had express or implied notice of any such trust or of any charge or incumbrance upon or transfer of such loan or security or any part thereof or interest thereon not entered in their register.

Appoint-
receiver.

51. The mortgagees of the Council by virtue of this Act may enforce the payment of arrears of interest or of principal or of principal and interest by the appointment of a receiver. In order to authorise the appointment of a receiver in respect of arrears of principal the amount owing to the mortgagees by whom the application for a receiver is made shall not be less than five hundred pounds in the whole.

re-borrow.

52. If the Council pay off any moneys borrowed by them under this Act otherwise than by instalments or by means of a sinking fund or out of the proceeds of the sale of land or other property or out of fines or premiums on leases or out of other moneys received on capital account not being borrowed moneys they may re-borrow the same but all moneys so re-borrowed shall be repaid within the prescribed period and shall be deemed to form the same loan as the moneys originally borrowed and the obligations of the Council with respect to the repayment of the loan and to the provision to be made for such repayment shall not be diminished by reason of such re-borrowing.

return to Local Government Board.

53.—(1) The clerk shall within twenty-one days after the thirty-first day of March in each year during which any sum is required to be paid as an instalment or annual payment or to be appropriated or to be paid to a sinking fund in pursuance of the provisions of this Act transmit to the Local Government Board a return in such form as may be prescribed by that Board and verified by statutory declaration if so required by them showing for the year next preceding the making of such return or for such other period as the Board may prescribe the amounts which have been paid as instalments or annual payments and the amounts which have been appropriated and the amounts which have been paid to or invested or applied for the purpose of the sinking fund and the description of the securities upon which any investment has been made and the purposes to which any portion of the sinking fund or investment of the sum accumulated by way of compound interest has been applied during the same period and the total amount (if any) remaining invested at the end of the year and in the event of any wilful default in making such return the clerk shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding twenty pounds to be recovered by action on behalf of the Crown in the High Court. A.D. 1899.

(2) If it appear to the Local Government Board by that return or otherwise that the Council have failed to pay any instalment or annual payment required to be paid or to appropriate any sum required to be appropriated or to set apart any sum required by this Act for any sinking fund or have applied any portion of any sinking fund to any purpose other than those authorised the Local Government Board may by order direct that the sum in such order mentioned not exceeding double the amount in respect of which default shall have been made shall be paid or applied as in such order mentioned and any such order shall be enforceable by writ of Mandamus to be obtained by the Local Government Board out of the High Court.

54. All moneys borrowed by the Council under the powers of this Act shall be applied only to the purposes for which they are authorised to be borrowed and to which capital is properly applicable. Application of money borrowed.

55. The proceeds of the sale of any lands acquired by the Council under the powers of this Act and the fines and premiums received by the Council on the lease of any such lands shall be distinguished as capital in the accounts of the Council and shall be applied in discharge of any moneys borrowed by the Council under the powers of this Act but shall not be applied to the payments of instalments or to payments into the sinking fund except to such extent and upon such terms as may be approved by the Local Government Board and borrowed money discharged by the application of such proceeds shall not be re-borrowed. Proceeds of sale of surplus lands.

56. The Council shall apply all money received by them in respect of their gas undertaking except money borrowed and money derived from the sale of surplus lands or other moneys received on capital account as follows (that is to say) :— Application of revenue.

First In payment of the working and establishment expenses and cost of maintenance of their gas undertaking ;

Secondly In payment of the interest on the mortgage debt if any of the Company until redemption ;

Thirdly In payment of the interest on moneys borrowed by the Council for the purposes of their gas undertaking ;

Fourthly In providing the requisite appropriations instalments or sinking fund payments in respect of moneys borrowed by the Council for the purposes of their gas undertaking and in respect of the mortgage debt if any of the Company ;

A.D. 1899.

Fifthly In extending improving and constructing (if the Council think fit) any works for the purposes of their gas undertaking ;

Sixthly In providing a reserve fund (if the Council think fit) by setting aside such money as they think reasonable and investing the same and the resulting income thereof in statutory securities and accumulating the same at compound interest until the fund so formed amounts to one-fifth of the aggregate capital expenditure for the time being upon the gas undertaking of the Council which fund shall be applicable to answer any deficiency at any time happening in the income of the Council from their gas undertaking or to meet any extraordinary claim or demand at any time arising against the Council in respect of that undertaking and so that if that fund be at any time reduced it may thereafter be again restored to the prescribed limit and so from time to time as often as such reduction happens Provided that resort may be had to the reserve fund under the foregoing provisions although such fund may not at the time have reached or may have been reduced below the full amount of one-fifth of the said aggregate capital expenditure :

And the Council shall carry to the district fund so much of any balance remaining in any year of the income of their gas undertaking (including the interest on the reserve fund when such fund amounts to one-fifth of the said aggregate capital expenditure) as may in the opinion of the Council not be required for carrying on their gas undertaking and paying the current expenses connected therewith.

As to deficiency in receipts.

57. Any deficiency in the revenue of the Council on account of their gas undertaking shall be made good out of the general district rate made next or next but one after each such deficiency is ascertained.
