

ANNO QUARTO

GULIELMI IV. REGIS.

Cap. xxxi.

An Act for improving and maintaining certain Roads in the Counties of Montgomery, Merioneth, Salop,
and Denbigh. [22d May 1834.]

WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Fifty-third Year of the Reign of King George the Third, intituled An Act for 53 G. 3. c. 186.
repairing and improving certain Roads in the Counties of Montgomery, Merioneth, and Salop, and other Roads therein mentioned: And whereas it is expedient that the Term and Powers of the said recited Act should be extended and enlarged: And whereas an Act was passed in the First Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled An Act for more effectually repairing 1 G. 4. c. 45.
and improving the Road from the Town of Pool in the County of Montgomery, through Oswestry in the County of Salop, to Wrexham in the County of Denbigh, and several other Roads therein mentioned in the said Counties and in the County of Merioneth, and for making several new Branches of Roads to communicate with the said Roads in the Counties of Salop, Montgomery, and Denbigh: And whereas by an Act passed in the Seventh Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty King King George the Fourth, intituled An Act for building a Bridge over the 7 G. 4. c. 62.
River Virniew near Llanymynech, and making Roads and Embankments and Approaches thereto, in the several Counties of Montgomery, Salop, and Denbigh, on the Road leading from Liverpool to Carmarthen, and for several other Purposes, it was enacted, that when and so soon as the several Roads and Approaches to the Bridge by such Act authorized to be erected should have been formed and completed, such Roads and Approaches should be placed and should thenceforth remain under the Care and Management of the Trustees acting in the Execution of the said recited Act of the First Year of the Reign of King George the Fourth, and should be repaired by them as other Roads within their Care and Management, except so much of such Roads and Approaches as the several Counties in such Act mentioned, or any of them, might by Law be liable to repair: And whereas it is expedient that certain Portions of the Roads described in the said Act of the First Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, and also the Roads and Approaches to the Bridge which by the said Act of the Seventh Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty King George the Fourth were placed under the Care and Management of the Trustees acting in the Execution of the said Act of the First Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty, should cease to be under the Control of such Trustees, and that the same should be placed under the Control of the Trustees to be appointed for carrying into execution this Act: And whereas it is also expedient that Power should be given to make the several Improvements in the several Roads herein-after described, and that the Tolls granted by the said recited Act of the Fifty-third Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Third and by the said recited Act of the First Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, so far as the same relate to the Roads proposed to be placed under the Control of the Trustees to be appointed for carrying into execution this Act, should be increased or altered: And whereas it is also expedient that the said recited Act of the Fifty-third Year of the Reign of King George the Third should be repealed, and that other Powers and Provisions should be granted and made instead thereof: And whereas the beneficial Objects herein-before mentioned cannot be effected without the Authority of Parliament: May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in Parliament assembled, That from and after the Fourth Monday next after the passing of this Act the said recited Act of the Fifty-third Year of the Reign of King George the Third shall be and the same is hereby declared to be repealed.

Recited Act of 53 G. 3. c. 186. repealed.

Trustees under the Acts of 1G. 4. and 7 G. 4. discharged from the Repair of the several Roads herein mentioned, and Repair thereof to be undertaken by the Trustees under this Act.

II. And be it further enacted, That from and after the Commencement of this Act the Trustees acting in the Execution of the said recited Act of the First Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, and also the Trustees acting in the Execution of the said recited Act of the Seventh Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty King George the Fourth, shall abandon and cease to exercise a Control over and shall be fully discharged from the future Repair of the Roads herein-after mentioned; (that is to say,) the Road from Berriew to Castell Caereinion, over Pontsycarth alias Pontsycod, to the Turnpike Road from Myfod to Llanfair at or near Henniarth; the Road leading from the present Turnpike Road from Berriew towards Castell Caereinion to the Village of Manafon, by the Village of Llanwyddelan and the Addfa, to the Turnpike Road passing by Cefncoch over the Berwydd and Rhosfawr near Rhydybiswel to near

Trustees of the Fourth District.

Trustees

Trustees for carrying into execution this Act within the Fourth District of the said Roads.

Power to elect additional Trustees.

V. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Trustees of the respective Districts of Roads in this Act mentioned, at the First Meeting of such Trustees to be held for the Execution of this Act, to elect any Number of Persons, not exceeding Six in the whole within each District, to be Trustees for the Purposes of this Act within such District, in addition to the Trustees herein named; and such additional Trustees so elected, and being duly qualified, shall have the same Powers and Authorities for carrying into execution this Act within their respective Districts as if they had been herein named.

First Meeting of the Trustees.

VI. And be it further enacted, That the Trustees for carrying into execution this Act within the said First District shall hold their First Meeting at the public Rooms in the Town of Newtown, or at some other convenient Place in the Neighbourhood of the said District, on the First Friday in the First Month next after the passing of this Act; and the Trustees for carrying into execution this Act within the said Second District shall hold their First Meeting at the Town Hall in the Town of Pool, or at some other convenient Place in the Neighbourhood of the said District, on the First Saturday in the First Month next after the passing of this Act; and the Trustees for carrying into execution this Act within the said Third District shall hold their First Meeting at the Guildhall in the Town of Llanfyllyn, or at some other convenient Place in the Neighbourhood of the said District, on the Second Tuesday in the First Month next after the passing of this Act; and the Trustees for carrying into execution this Act within the said Fourth District shall hold their First Meeting at the Town Hall in the Town of Machynlleth, or at some other convenient Place in the Neighbourhood of the said District, on the First Tuesday in the First Month next after the passing of this Act, or as soon afterwards as conveniently may be; and the said several Meetings shall respectively be held between the Hours of Eleven of the Clock in the Forenoon and Three of the Clock in the Afternoon; and the said Trustees shall and may then and from Time to Time afterwards adjourn to and meet at such Times and Places within the said respective Districts, or in the Neighbourhood thereof respectively, as the Majority of the Trustees present at such respective Meetings shall think proper and appoint.

Branches and Diversions of Road may be made.

VII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Trustees of the said respective Districts of Roads to make the several Branches, Diversions, and Improvements of Road herein-before mentioned, within their respective Districts, of such Width as they may think proper not exceeding Fifty Feet, together with such Footpaths, Causeways, Embankments, Bridges, Arches, Culverts, Ditches, Drains, and Fences on the Line of such Branches, Diversions, and Improvements as they may think expedient, and for the Purposes aforesaid (subject nevertheless to the several Provisions and Restrictions contained in this Act and in the various Acts for regulating Turnpike Roads in England,) to take or use any Lands, making or tendering

Satisfaction

Satisfaction to the Owners thereof and Persons interested therein for the Value thereof, or for the Damage sustained by them in the Execution of this Act; and it shall also be lawful for the said Trustees, and for their Surveyors and Workmen, from Time to Time to enter upon any Lands upon, in, over, or through which such Branches, Diversions, or Improvements of Road, or such Footpaths, Causeways, Embankments, Bridges, Arches, Culverts, Ditches, Drains, or Fences are intended to be made or pass, and also upon, in, over, or through any adjoining Lands, and to stake out the same in such Manner as the said Trustees shall think expedient, without being deemed Trespassers, and without being subject to any Penalty or Punishment for entering or continuing upon such Lands for any of the Purposes of this Act; and if any Person shall remove, destroy, or injure any of the Stakes or other Marks used for any of the Purposes aforesaid, he shall forfeit and pay any Sum not exceeding Five Pounds for every such Offence.

VIII. And whereas Maps or Plans describing the said Branches, Diversions, and Improvements of Road by this Act authorized to be made, and the Lands upon, in, over, or through which the same respectively are intended to be carried, together with Books of Reference thereto, containing the Names of the Owners and Occupiers of such Lands, have been deposited in the Offices of the Clerks of the Peace for the several Counties of Montgomery and Merioneth; be it therefore enacted, That the said Maps or Plans and Books of Reference shall remain in the Custody of the said Clerks of the Peace respectively, to the end that all Persons may at all seasonable Times have Liberty to inspect the same, and to take Copies thereof or Extracts therefrom, paying to the Clerk of the Peace in whose Custody the Map or Plan or Book of Reference so inspected or referred to shall be the Sum of One Shilling for every such Inspection, and at the Rate of Sixpence for every One hundred Words of such Copies or Extracts; and the said Maps or Plans and Books of Reference, or either of them, or any Copy thereof respectively, or of any Part thereof respectively, certified by the Clerk of the Peace for the Time being in whose Custody the same shall be, or by his Deputy, to be a true Copy, shall be and is hereby declared to be good Evidence in all Courts of Law and elsewhere.

Plans and Books of Reference to remain with the Clerks of the Peace, and be open to Inspection.

IX. And be it further enacted, That the said Trustees in making the Branches, Diversions, or Improvements of Road by this Act authorized, within their respective Districts, shall have full Power and Authority to deviate from the Line delineated on the Plans deposited with the Clerks of the Peace as herein-before mentioned: Provided always, that no such Deviation shall extend to a greater Distance than One hundred Yards from the Lines so delineated upon the said Plans; without the Consent in Writing of the Party upon, in, over, or through whose Lands such Deviation beyond the Distance of One hundred Yards shall be proposed to be made.

Trustees may deviate from Plan to an Extent not exceeding 100 Yards.

X. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That the Powers and Authorities by this Act granted for making the said Branches, Diversions, and Improvements of Road shall not authorize the said Trustees to pull down, or to take, use, or injure any Dwelling House or other Building, or to take, use, or injure any Curtilage, Orchard, Garden, Yard, Park, Paddock, Lawn, Shrubbery, Plantation, planted Walk, or Avenue to a House, or any enclosed Ground planted and set apart as a Nursery for Trees, or any Part thereof respectively, (except such as are mentioned in the Schedule to this Act annexed,) without the Consent in Writing of the Owners and Occupiers thereof respectively first had and obtained.

Dwelling Houses, &c. not to be taken without Consent.

Unintentional Errors in Act or Plans or Books of Reference not to prevent Execution of Act.

XI. Provided nevertheless, and be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Trustees of the said respective Districts of Road to make such Branches, Diversions, and Improvements of Road in the Line or Course, and upon, in, over, or through the Lands delineated on the said Maps or Plans, although such Line or Course, or such Lands or any of them, or the Situation of such Lands respectively, or the Names of the Owners or of the Occupiers thereof respectively, may happen to be omitted, mis-stated, or erroneously described in this Act, or in the Schedule thereto, or in the said Plans or Books of Reference, if it shall be made to appear to any Two or more Justices of the Peace for the County, Division, or Place within which such Lands shall be situate, or the Cause of Dispute shall arise, and be certified by Writing under their Hands, that such Omission, Misstatement, or erroneous Description apparently proceeded from Mistake; and the Certificate of the said Justices shall be deposited with and shall remain in the Custody of the Clerk of the Peace for the Time being of such County, Division, or Place.

Limiting Period for purchasing Property.

XII. And be it further enacted, That if the Trustees of the said respective Districts of Roads shall not within the Space of Three Years next after the Commencement of this Act agree for or cause to be valued and shall pay for the Lands which they are by this Act authorized to take, the Powers by this Act or by any other Act granted in relation to the taking of Lands for the Purposes of Turnpike Roads shall, so far as relates to the Lands herein-before authorized to be taken for the Purposes of this Act, cease and be utterly void, unless with the Consent of the Owners and Occupiers of such Lands, any thing in this Act or in any such Act as aforesaid contained to the contrary thereof notwithstanding.

Part of old Road may be discontinued after Diversions are made.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That when and so soon as the said Branches, Diversions, or Improvements of Road shall have been made and completed fit for the passage of Horses, Cattle, and Carriages, so much and such Parts of the present Lines of Road within the respective Districts herein-before mentioned as shall have been substituted by such Branches, Diversions, or Improvements shall cease to be Turnpike Roads, and to be maintained as such by the Trustees for executing this Act; and such Parts of the Lines of Road so ceasing to be Turnpike Road, as in the Judgment of the said Trustees within their respective Districts shall be useless and unnecessary to the Public, shall be discontinued as public Highways, and shall and may be stopped up by the said Trustees within their respective Districts, subject to the Provisions and Directions of an Act passed in the Third Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled An Act to amend the General Laws now in being for regulating Turnpike Roads in that Part of Great Britain called England; and so much of the Land constituting any former Road so stopped up as aforesaid, for which Rent is now paid or payable to the Owner thereof, shall be restored and given up to such Owner; and so much of such Land as shall have been purchased by the Trustees acting in the Execution of the said recited Acts, or any of them, shall and may be sold by the Trustees for carrying into execution this Act, for the Benefit of their respective Trusts, in the Manner and subject to the Provisions and Directions in that Behalf contained in the said Act of the Third Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty; and so much of such Land as shall neither have been purchased by the Trustees for executing the said recited Acts, nor for which Rent is now paid or payable as herein-before mentioned, shall vest in the respective Owners of the adjoining Lands in manner following, (that is to say,) One Moiety thereof in the Owner of the Land on the one Side, and the Remainder in the Owner of the Land on the other Side thereof.

3 G. 4 c. 126.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Trustees of the said respective Districts to continue all or any of the Toll Gates, Toll Bars, Toll Houses, and Weighing Machines now erected within such respective Districts, and also to erect or build others in lieu thereof or in addition thereto within such Districts when and where and as they shall judge necessary, and also from Time to Time to alter or to take down and to re-construct or to discontinue and remove such Toll Gates, Toll Bars, Toll Houses, or Weighing Machines, or any of them, as they the said Trustees shall think proper: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall extend to empower the Trustees for putting this Act into execution to erect any Turnpike or Toll House between the Town of Pool and the Junction of the Berriew Road with the Road leading to Kilkerwydd Bridge, nor between Heniarth and the Town of Llanfair.

Power to continue existing Toll Gates, &c. and to erect additional Gates.

Toll Gates not to be erected in certain Places.

XV. And whereas some of the Toll Houses situate within the said Districts of Roads may, when the new Lines are completed, become useless and unnecessary, and of little or no Value, unless the same can be sold standing and as Dwelling Houses; be it therefore enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Trustees, within their respective Districts, to sell and dispose of any Toll House standing on or adjoining any of the present Roads comprised in this Act which shall become useless, unnecessary, and no longer required for the Purposes of the said Roads, together with the Outhouses, Gardens, and Appurtenances thereto belonging, in the same Manner and under the same Regulations as by Law any Land not wanted or becoming useless or unnecessary for the Purposes of the said Roads may be sold, any thing in the General Laws now in being for regulating Turnpike Roads in England to the contrary notwithstanding.

Trustees may sell useless Toll Houses.

XVI. And be it further enacted, That the said Trustees within their respective Districts shall and they are hereby required to continue or to erect upon each and every Branch of Road comprised within such Districts One or more Toll Gate or Toll Gates or Toll Bar or Toll Bars, and to demand and take thereat the Tolls by this Toll Gates to be erected on each Branch of Road.

Act

Act granted, subject to the Provisions and Directions of this Act, and of the various Acts for regulating Turnpike Roads in England; and no Money arising from any of the Tolls by this Act authorized to be taken shall be applied in or towards the Repair of any Branch Road upon which there shall not be some Toll Gate or Toll Bar at the Time standing; and no more of the Money arising by virtue of this Act shall be laid out or expended on any of the said Branch Roads than shall be actually raised or received upon or in respect of such Branch Road, nor shall any more Money be laid out upon any of the said Districts than shall be actually raised or received within such Districts respectively; any thing in this Act contained to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding.

Present Tolls
to be taken until 1st May 1835.

XVII. And be it further enacted, That notwithstanding the Repeal of the said recited Act of the Fifty-third Year of the Reign of King George the Third, the several Tolls granted by the said recited Act shall be continued to be demanded, paid, and received at the several Toll Gates or Toll Bars on the several Roads comprised in this Act until Twelve of the Clock at Noon on the First Day of May One thousand eight hundred and thirty-five.

Tolls to be taken after 1st May 1835.

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That from and after Twelve of the Clock at Noon on the said First Day of May it shall and may be lawful for the said Trustees within their respective Districts, or for any Person to be appointed Collector of the Tolls to be taken by virtue of this Act, to demand and take any Tolls not exceeding the following; that is to say,

Power to Trustees to vacate existing Leases of Tolls.

XXV. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Trustees, within their respective Districts, at any of their Meetings to be held within One Calendar Month next after the passing of this Act, or at any Adjournment thereof, to declare and order that all Demises, Leases, and Agreements for Leases of the Tolls granted by the Act of the Fifty-third Year of the Reign of King George the Third, hereby repealed, and by the Acts of the First and Seventh Years of the Reign of King George the Fourth, herein recited, so far as respects such of the Roads comprised in such Two last-mentioned Acts as are by this Act transferred to and placed under the Control of the Trustees for carrying into execution this Act as herein-before mentioned, and of the several Toll Houses, Buildings, and Appurtenances thereto belonging, shall cease and be void from and after the Fifth Day next after the Day on which such Meeting shall be held; and from and after the Time mentioned in the said Declaration and Order all such Demises, Leases, and Agreements shall cease and be void to all Intents and Purposes, except as to the Right of the said Trustees, within their respective Districts (which in all Cases is hereby reserved), to receive and to recover Payment of all Rent and Arrears of Rent, and of all other Sums due and to become due thereon; and such Trustees shall and they are hereby required to make a fair and just Compensation and Satisfaction to the respective Lessees of the said Tolls for any Loss or Damage which they shall sustain by the Determination of such Demises, Leases, and Agreements before the Expiration of the Time for which they were originally granted or made, such Compensation and Satisfaction to be paid at such Times and in such Proportions as shall be agreed upon between the said Trustees and such Lessees respectively: Provided always, that in case such Compensation or Satisfaction shall not be paid within Seven Days next after the same shall have become due to any such Lessee, and shall have been demanded of the Clerk or Treasurer to such Trustees, or in case such Trustees and any such Lessee shall not agree upon the Amount of such Compensation or Satisfaction, the same may be recovered by such Lessee by Action of Debt or on the Case in any of His Majesty's Superior Courts of Record: Provided also, that nothing herein contained shall prevent such Trustees from entering into any new or other Agreement with any of the present Lessees of the Tolls for such additional Rent in respect of the Tolls by this Act granted, for the unexpired Term of any existing Demise, Lease, or Agreement, as they shall think reasonable.

Trustees, &c. declared competent

XXVI. And whereas by the said Act passed in the Third Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled An Act

Act to amend the General Laws now in being for regulating Turnpike Roads in that Part of Great Britain called England, it is enacted, that the Trustees and Commissioners of Turnpike Roads may sue and be sued in the Name or Names of any of such Trustees or Commissioners, or of their Clerk or Clerks for the Time being: And whereas Doubts have arisen whether such Trustees, Commissioners, or Clerks are competent to give Evidence in Actions or Suits in which they may be Plaintiffs or Defendants; be it therefore enacted, That no Trustee or Clerk acting under the Authority of this Act shall be deemed incompetent to give Evidence, or shall be disqualified from giving Evidence, in any Action or Suit by reason of his being Plaintiff or Defendant in such Action or Suit.

Actions, &c.
3 G. 4. c. 126.

XXVII. And in order that the Securities of the Creditors to whom any Principal Sums and Arrears of Interest are now due and owing on the Credit of the said recited Acts may not be prejudiced by any of the Provisions in this Act contained, be it therefore enacted, That the whole of the Tolls or Revenues to arise or be produced on the several old Roads comprised in this Act shall remain and continue and be subject to, and charged and chargeable with, the whole of the Principal Sums of Money borrowed on such Roads respectively by virtue of the said recited Acts, and of all Arrears of Interest thereon, in such and the same Manner, and with such and the same Powers and Remedies for recovering and receiving the same respectively, as if the several Sums of Money had been borrowed on the Credit of the Tolls by this Act granted on the said several Roads: Provided always, that the several Principal Sums now due and owing on the Credit of the Tolls granted by the said recited Act of the Fifty-third Year of the Reign of King George the Third upon the said Road leading from Pool to Newton and Llanllwchaiarn Church, and the Interest thereon, and all Arrears of such Interest, shall be charged on the Tolls by this Act granted upon such Road in the Proportions and Manner following; that is to say, the Sum of Three thousand Pounds shall be and the same is hereby charged exclusively on the Tolls and Revenues arising or to be produced on such Part of the said Road as is situate between the Pool and the Rhiew Bridge, and the Remainder thereof on such Parts of the said Road as are situate between the Rhiew Bridge and Newton and Llanllwchaiarn Church; and for the Purpose of making such Apportionment it shall be lawful for the said Trustees, with the Consent of the Persons entitled to such Principal Sums, to call in and cancel the several Mortgages or other Securities granted for securing the same, and to grant others in lieu thereof in the Manner and Proportions herein-before mentioned; and the several Principal Sums now due and owing on the Credit of the Tolls granted upon the Road from Newton to Llanfair, and from Llanfair to Llanllugan, and the Interest thereon, and all Arrears of such Interest, shall be charged on the Tolls granted by this Act upon such Road in the Proportions and Manner following; that is to say, the Sum of One thousand Pounds shall be and the same is hereby charged exclusively on the Tolls and Revenues arising or to be produced on such Part of the said Road as is situate between Newtown and the New Mills Bridge, and the Remainder thereof on

This Act not to prejudice

such Parts of the said Road as is situate between the New Mills Bridge and Llanfair, and between Llainfair and Cefncoch: Provided also, that the whole of the several Principal Sums now due and owing on the Credit of the Tolls granted by the said recited Act of the Fifty-third Year of the Reign of King George the Third upon the said Road from Newtown to Abergwydol, and the Interest thereon, and all Arrears of such Interest, shall be and the same are hereby charged exclusively upon such Part of the said Road as is situate between Newtown and the Junction of the Parishes of Carno and Llanbrynmair, and is by this Act placed under the Care and Management of the Trustees for carrying into execution this Act within the First District of the said Roads: Provided nevertheless, that it shall be lawful for the Trustees for carrying into execution this Act within the Fourth District of the said Roads, and they are hereby required, so long as such last-mentioned Principal Sums or any Part thereof shall remain due and owing, to pay to the said Trustees of the First District One Moiety of all the Tolls which shall be taken and received upon such Part of the said Road as is situated between the Junction of the Parishes of Carno and Llanbrynmair and Abergwydol, and also One Moiety of all the Tolls which shall be taken and received at the Toll Gate now standing on the Road branching out of the said Road at Talerddig; and such Payment shall free and discharge the Trustees of the said Fourth District from the Liability to pay any Portion of the several Principal Sums now due and owing on the Credit of the Tolls granted by the said recited Act of the Fifty-third Year of the Reign of King George the Third upon such Road, and of the Interest thereon, and of all Arrears of such Interest.

Apportioning Debt due on Roads com-prized in Act of 1 G. 4.

XXVIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That for the Purpose of apportioning the several Principal Sums now due on the Credit of the Tolls granted by the said recited Act of the First Year of the Reign of King George the Fourth between such Portions of the Roads comprised in the said Act as are hereby placed under the Control of the Trustees acting in the Execution of this Act, and the Roads which shall remain under the Control of the Trustees acting in the Execution of the said recited Act of the First Year of the Reign of King George the Fourth, it shall be lawful for such last-mentioned Trustees, with the Consent of the Persons entitled to such Principal Sums, to call in and cancel the several Mortgages or other Securities granted for securing the same, and to grant others in lieu thereof, upon such Portions of the said Roads as they shall think proper, provided that such new Mortgages or Securities shall be granted upon the Credit of the Tolls to be taken upon such Roads in the Proportions herein-after mentioned; that is to say, the Sum of Four thousand one hundred and forty-eight Pounds and Three Shillings shall be charged exclusively on such Part of the said Roads as is situate between Pool and Llanymynech; the Sum of Eight hundred Pounds shall be charged exclusively upon that Part of the Road from Newtown to Machynlleth which commences at the Junction of the Parishes of Carno and Llanbrynmair, and which passes down the Afon Yale Valley to the Turnpike Road leading from Pool to Machynlleth,

Machynlleth, near Pont or Dwymyn; the Sum of One thousand one hundred and eighty-two Pounds and Ten Shillings shall be charged exclusively on the Road leading from the present Turnpike Road from Berriew towards Castell Caereinion to the Village of Manafon, by the Village of Llanwyddelan and the Addfa, to the Turnpike Road passing by Cefencoch over the Berwydd and Rhosfawr, near Rhydybisweld, to near Talerddig Turnpike Gate; and the Sum of Nine hundred and seventy-two Pounds exclusively on the Road from Berriew, by Castell Caereinion, over Pontsycarth alias Pontsycoed, to the Turnpike Road from Myfod to Llanfair at or near Heniarth; and the Sum of One hundred and twenty Pounds shall be charged exclusively upon the Road from Llangedwyn Bridge, to unite with the Road from Pont Llanerchymris to Llanfyllin; and the Remainder thereof on such Part of the said Roads as shall continue under the Control of the Trustees acting in the Execution of the said recited Act of the First Year of the Reign of King George the Fourth; and such last-mentioned Trustees shall for ever thereafter be discharged from the Payment of any Part of the said several Principal Sums of Four thousand one hundred and forty-eight Pounds and Three Shillings, Eight hundred Pounds, One thousand one hundred and eighty-two Pounds and Ten Shillings, and One hundred and twenty Pounds, and of all Interest to become due thereon, any thing in this Act or in the said recited Act of the First Year of the Reign of King George the Fourth to the contrary notwithstanding.

XXIX. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Trustees, within their respective Districts, to borrow of the Commissioners for carrying into execution an Act passed in the Third Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled An Act to amend Two Acts of the Fifty-seventh Year of His late Majesty and the First Year of His present Majesty, for authorizing the Issue of Exchequer Bills and the Advance of Money for carrying on Public Works and Fisheries, and Employment of the Poor, and to authorize a further Issue of Exchequer Bills for the Purposes of the said Acts, such Sums of Money as such Trustees respectively may deem expedient for the Purposes of this Act, within such respective Districts, on Mortgage or Assignment of the Tolls granted by, and of the Toll Gates, Toll Bars, and Toll Houses (with their Appurtenances) erected under the Authority of this Act within such Districts.

Trustees empowered to borrow Money of the Exchequer Loan Commissioners on the Credit of this Act.
3 G. 4. c. 86.

XXX. And be it further enacted, That every Mortgage or Assignment which shall be given or made by the said Trustees to the said Commissioners for the Issue of Exchequer Bills, under the Authority of this Act, shall have Priority of all other Mortgages or Securities given or made by the said Trustees in the Execution of this Act, any thing in the several Acts herein recited relating to the said Roads, or in this Act, or in any Mortgage or Security given or made by such Trustees, to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding.

Exchequer Loan Commissioners to have Priority over other Securities granted by the Trustees.

XXXI. And

No Priority of Mortgages except to Exchequer
Loan Commissioners.

XXXI. And be it further enacted, That no Preference (except as herein-before provided with respect to Loans granted by the Commissioners for the Issue of Exchequer Bills, and also except such Preference as any Person may now have and enjoy by virtue of the Mortgage or Assignment which may have been granted to him for securing the Repayment of any Money which he may have advanced on the Credit of the Tolls granted by the said recited Acts of the Fifty-third Year of the Reign of King George the Third and the First and Seventh Years of the Reign of King George the Fourth,) shall be given to any Person, or to any Assignee of any Person, who has heretofore advanced any Money on the Credit of the Tolls granted by the said recited Acts, over any of the other Persons who may have advanced any Money upon the Credit of the Tolls granted by the said recited Acts, or any of them, and no Preference shall be given to any Person, or to any Assignee of any Person, who shall hereafter advance any Money on the Credit of the Tolls granted by this Act, over any of the other Persons who may advance any Money on the Credit of the Tolls granted by this Act, by reason of the Priority of Date of the Mortgage or Assignment or other Security for the same, but such Persons respectively, and their respective Assignees, shall (in proportion to the Sums in such Mortgages or Assignments mentioned) be Creditors under this Act, within the respective Districts upon which such Sums shall be charged, in equal Degree one with another, and without any Preference.

Sinking Fund.

XXXII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Trustees within their respective Districts, and they are hereby empowered, from Time to Time, from and after the First Day of May One thousand eight hundred and thirty-five, to direct the Sum of Five Pounds per Centum upon the net Income received upon the said Roads, after Payment of the Interest accruing upon the several Principal Monies now due, and of every further Sum to be borrowed upon the Credit of the Tolls, within the said several Districts, to be paid out of the said Tolls, in order to form a Sinking Fund for the gradual Payment of the said Monies; and the said Monies so received shall from Time to Time be laid out and invested, in the Names of any Three or more of the Trustees of the respective Districts, in Government or Parliamentary Securities, and from Time to Time be applied in Payment of an equal Amount of the Principal Monies remaining due upon the Credit of the Tolls within such District.

Application of Monies arising within the several Districts.

XXXIII. And be it further enacted, That all the Money which shall be received under or by virtue of this Act, within the several Districts of the said Roads, shall be applied by the respective Trustees of such Districts in manner following; (that is to say,) in the first place, and in preference to all other Disbursements whatever, in paying and discharging the proportionate Parts herein-after mentioned of the Costs, Charges, and Expences incurred in preparing, applying for, and obtaining this Act, or otherwise incident thereto, with lawful Interest for any Money which may have been or which shall be advanced within such Districts respectively for the Payment of such

Costs,

Costs, Charges, and Expences, from the Time the same shall have been advanced to the Time of the same being repaid; in the next place, in paying and discharging the Interest which is now due or which may from Time to Time become due on the Credit of the said Acts of the Fifty-third Year of the Reign of King George the Third and of the First Year of the Reign of King George the Fourth, upon the several Roads within such respective Districts; in the next place, in paying and discharging the Interest of any Money which may hereafter be borrowed on the Credit of the Tolls by this Act granted within such Districts respectively; in the next place, in paying the said Amount of Five Pounds per Centum upon the Income of the Roads within such respective Districts, for the Formation of the Sinking Fund herein-before mentioned; in the next place, in defraying the Expences of maintaining in repair the Roads within such respective Districts, and in making and maintaining in repair the several Improvements of Road by this Act authorized to be made within the same; in the next place, in repaying the Principal Sums secured on the Credit of the said Acts of the Fifty-third Year of the Reign of King George the Third and of the First Year of the Reign of King George the Fourth, upon the several Roads within such Districts; and lastly, in repaying any Principal Sums which may be borrowed on the Credit of the Tolls by this Act granted within such Districts.

XXXIV. And be it further enacted, That no Money received by virtue of this Act shall be laid out in paving, repairing, or cleansing any Town or Street through which any of the said Roads may pass. No Money to be laid out in repairing Streets.

XXXV. And be it further enacted, That the Trustees of the said several Districts shall pay the Costs, Charges, and Expences in preparing, applying for, and obtaining this Act, or otherwise incident thereto, out of the first Money which shall come to their Hands respectively, in such Proportions as the whole Amount of Tolls received upon each of such Districts shall bear to the gross Amount of Tolls received upon the whole of the Roads comprised in this Act. Expences of Act.

XXXVI. And be it further enacted, That where in this Act any Word shall be used importing the Singular Number or the Masculine Gender only, such Word shall be construed to include several Matters as well as one Matter, several Persons as well as one Person, and Females as well as Males, and a Body or Bodies Politic, Corporate, or Collegiate, Corporation or Corporations Aggregate or Sole, as well as Individuals; and where the Word "Lands" shall be used the same shall be construed to include Tenements and Hereditaments; unless in any of the Cases aforesaid it be otherwise specially provided, or there be something in the Subject or Context repugnant to such Construction. Rules for Construction of certain Expressions in Act.

XXXVII. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall commence on the Fourth Monday next after the passing thereof, and Term of Act [Local.] 9 Y shall
