any

any Deviation from the Line or Direction of the said Railway as delineated on the Maps or Plans thereof deposited with the Clerks of the Peace for the Counties of Surrey and Kent, any thing in this Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

XIV. And whereas it is expedient that a Right of Way along the Banks of the said Grand Surrey Canal should be reserved to the said Company of Proprietors of the said Canal, their Successors and other the Person and Persons by them from Time to Time authorized, with or without Horses, Cattle, Waggon, Carts, or Carriages, and in order thereto that Two other Bridges or Arches should be erected on the North-west and South-east Sides of the said Canal, and in the Line of the said Railway, and immediately adjoining the Bridge to be erected by the said Railway Company across the said Canal; be it therefore enacted, That the said Railway Company shall and they are hereby required at their own Expence to erect, and at all Times thereafter to maintain and keep in good Repair, Two good and substantial Bridges or Arches over the Land or Banks belonging to the said Company of Proprietors of the said Grand Surrey Canal on the North-west and South-east Sides of the said Canal, and upon the Line of the said Railway, and immediately adjoining the said Bridge to be erected by the said Railway Company across the said Canal and present Towing Paths, each of such Bridges or Arches over the said Land or Banks not to be less than Eighteen Feet in the Span from the Springing of such Arches, and not less than Fourteen Feet in Height in the Clear from the Road to the Crown of such Arches, so as to leave a sufficient Space for the Passage of Waggon, Carts, and Carriages under the same; and the said Right of Way and the Space under the said last-mentioned Arches shall belong exclusively and is hereby reserved to the said Company of Proprietors of the said Grand Surrey Canal, their Successors and other the Person or Persons by them from Time to Time authorized; and the said Bridges or Arches, as well over the said Canal as over the said Lands or Banks, and the said Piers, Abutments, and Tunnels, shall be constructed, as regards their Positions, Forms, and Dimensions, to the Satisfaction of the Engineer or Superintendent for the Time being of the said Company of Proprietors of the said Grand Surrey Canal.

Company to erect Bridges or Arches on the North-west and South-east Side of the Canal.

XV. And be it further enacted, That in carrying the said Railway over the said Grand Surrey Canal the said Railway Company shall, and they are hereby required at their own Expence to build and make, and at all Times thereafter to maintain and keep in perfect Repair, a good and substantial Bridge over the said Canal and the Towing Path on each Side thereof, of the respective Widths herein-after mentioned, with proper Approaches, such Bridge to consist of Two Arches to spring from a Pier which the said Railway Company shall be at liberty and they are hereby required to erect in the Centre of the present Waterway of the said Canal, and the Soffits of each of the said Arches shall be at least Fourteen Feet above the Top-water Level of the said Canal, and the said Towing Paths shall not either of them be less than One Foot above such Level, and the Span of each of the said Arches between the Piers or Abutments thereof shall not be less than Twenty-five Feet in the Clear, so as to include the said Canal and Towing Paths without Contraction or Deviation, either horizontally or vertically, allowing Twenty Feet for the clear Width of the Waterway under each Arch, and Five Feet for the Width of each of
