

Local Government (Financial Provisions) (Scotland) Act 1963

1963 CHAPTER 12

PART II

Valuation and Rating

10 Rateable value of industrial and freight transport lands and heritages.

- (1) As respects the year 1966-67 and subsequent years the rateable value of the industrial and freight transport lands and heritages to which section 45 of the ^{M1}Local Government (Scotland) Act 1929 applies shall, subject to the next following subsection, be the net annual value thereof as ascertained under . . . ^{F1}subsection (8) . . . ^{F1}of section 6 of the Act of 1956; and accordingly subsection (9) of that section shall, as respects those years, have effect as if the words “save as provided in section forty-five of the ^{M2}Local Government (Scotland) Act 1929” were omitted.
- (2) Notwithstanding anything in the foregoing subsection the Secretary of State may by order provide that in respect of the year 1966-67 and [^{F2}any subsequent years] the rateable value of the said lands and heritages shall be the amount produced by deducting from the net annual value thereof such percentage of that value as may be [^{F3}specified in the order]; but an order under this subsection shall not have effect unless approved by a resolution of the Commons House of Parliament.
- (3) In an order under the last foregoing subsection different provision may be made for lands and heritages in different rating areas.
- (4) As respects the year 1966-67 and subsequent years subsection (4) of section 47 of the ^{M3}Local Government (Scotland) Act 1929 (which confers upon certain occupiers of industrial lands and heritages the right to recover in each year from the owner of the lands and heritages a sum equal to three times the owner’s share of the rates payable in respect of the lands and heritages for that year) shall not have effect.

14 Provisions relating to agricultural lands and heritages.

(1) Notwithstanding anything in subsection (2) of section 7 of the Act of 1956 (which relates amongst other things to the definition of agricultural buildings)—

- (a) a building (other than a dwelling-house) which is occupied by any person, and is used solely in connection with agricultural operations carried on by that person on any agricultural land (other than the building) whether adjacent to the building or not, being agricultural land occupied by that person, and
- (b) any land occupied together with any such building and used solely in connection with the use of the building, shall be treated as respects the year 1963-64 and subsequent years as agricultural lands and heritages for the purposes of subsection (3) of the said section 7 (which provides that no agricultural lands and heritages shall be entered in the valuation roll).

(2) The foregoing subsection shall apply to a building occupied by or on behalf of an association to which this subsection applies and to any land occupied together therewith as it applies to a building occupied by a person and to any land occupied therewith, but with the following modifications:—

- (a) for the reference in paragraph (a) thereof to agricultural operations carried on by the person there shall be substituted a reference to such operations carried on by the association or any member thereof; and
- (b) for the reference in the said paragraph (a) to agricultural land occupied by the person there shall be substituted a reference to such land occupied by or on behalf of the association or by any member thereof.

(3) The last foregoing subsection applies to any association of not more than twenty persons who are jointly and severally liable for any debts of the association.

[^{F11}(4) In determining for the purposes of subsection (1) of this section whether a building used in any way is solely so used during any year, no account shall be taken of any time in that year during which it is used in any other way, if that time does not amount to a substantial part of that year.]

- (a) there is no evidence available as to lands and heritages in Scotland comparable to those which are the subject of the proceedings; or
- (b) such evidence as is available in that regard is not adequate to enable the committee or, as the case may be, the Lands Tribunal for Scotland to draw conclusions as to the rent at which the lands and heritages which are the subject of the proceedings might reasonably be expected to let from year to year in the circumstances mentioned in . . . ^{F15}6(8) of the Valuation and Rating (Scotland) Act 1956 (ascertainment of . . . ^{F15}values by reference to expected rent).
- (1B) The net annual value ascribed in the valuation list maintained under the General Rate Act 1967 to a hereditament in England and Wales shall, for the purposes of subsections (1) and (1A) above, be treated as equal to the rent at which the hereditament (as at the date as at which its net annual value was ascribed to it) might reasonably be expected to let from year to year if the tenant undertook to pay all usual tenants' rates and taxes and to bear the cost of the repairs and insurance and the other expenses, if any, necessary to maintain the hereditament in a state to command that rent.
- (1C) A valuation appeal committee or the Lands Tribunal for Scotland shall, in considering a hereditament in England and Wales by way of comparison in pursuance of this section, make such adjustment as is, in their opinion, necessary—
- (a) to its rent as established by the evidence, so as to take account of (amongst any other things) the date at which that rent became payable;
- (b) to its rent as established under subsection (1B) above, so as to take account of (amongst any other things) the date as at which, under that subsection, that rent is to be treated as payable.]
- (2) The Secretary of State may make regulations governing the procedure of the valuation appeal committees established under section ^{F16} of the ^{M6}Local Government (Scotland) Act 1975 and the procedure in appeals and complaints to such committees].
- ^{F17}(2AA) A valuation appeal committee, on the joint application of the assessor and an appellant or complainer made within such period as may be prescribed by regulations made by the Secretary of State, shall refer the appeal or complaint to the Lands Tribunal for Scotland for determination under section 1(3A) of the Lands Tribunal Act 1949.]
- ^{F18}(2A) The Secretary of State may make regulations ^{F19}as to]—
- (a) the circumstances and manner in which an appeal or complaint may be referred to the Lands Tribunal for Scotland in pursuance of subsection (3A) of section 1 of the ^{M7}Lands Tribunal Act 1949 (jurisdiction of the Tribunal to determine valuation cases referred to it); . . . ^{F20}
- (b) the consideration of the appeal or complaint by a valuation appeal committee in a case where the Tribunal have declined under subsection (3B) of that section to proceed to determine it.]
- ^{F21}(c) the giving by a valuation appeal committee of reasons for its decision not to refer to the Tribunal any appeal or complaint made to the committee; and
