Marginal Citations

M3 1936 c. 50.

Construction, maintenance and operation of sewers, etc.

- 1 (1) For the purpose of exercising their functions under the enactments mentioned in section 37 (1) of this Act, the Greater London Council may construct a public sewer—
- (a) in, under or over any street, or in or under any cellar or vault below any street;
  - (b) in, on or over any land not forming part of a street; and
  - (c) in, under or over the bed, banks or shores of the River Thames.
- (2) Where the Greater London Council propose in the exercise of their powers under this paragraph to construct a sewer which will cross or interfere with any watercourse or works vested in, or under the control of, a land drainage authority other than the Council or the council of a London borough or county district, they shall before adopting plans for the construction of the sewer give notice of their proposals to that authority; and if that authority within twenty-eight days of the giving of the notice to them serve on the Greater London Council notice of objection to the proposals, the Council shall not proceed with the proposals unless all objections so made are withdrawn or the Minister after a local inquiry has approved the proposals with or without modification.
- (3) [<sup>F28</sup>Section 29(1) of the Land Drainage Act 1976] (which requires the consent of a river authority to the erection, alteration or repair of structures in, over or under watercourses) shall not apply to any work executed under this paragraph.
- (4) The foregoing provisions of this paragraph shall not be construed as exempting the Council from compliance with any relevant requirement imposed by or by virtue of section 279 or any other provision of Part XII of the <sup>M4</sup>Public Health Act 1936 or by or by virtue of the <sup>M5</sup>Public Utilities Street Works Act 1950.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/02/1991.Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the London Government Act 1963. (See end of Document for details)

- (5) Except where notice has to be given by the Greater London Council in pursuance of sub-paragraph (2) of this paragraph or of any requirement mentioned in sub-paragraph (4) thereof, no notice need be given by them of any exercise of the powers conferred by this paragraph.

Textual Amendments

- 2 (1) Where any sewer or part of a sewage disposal works vested in the Greater London Council interrupts or will interrupt communications between any premises and any other land or between several parts of the same premises, the Greater London Council may construct such bridges, arches, roads, passages or culverts as they think appropriate for restoring or preserving those communications or may instead pay such compensation to the owners and occupiers of the premises affected as may be agreed with them or as may be just.
- (2) Without prejudice to any duty imposed on them by any other enactment, any bridges, arches, roads, passages or culverts constructed in pursuance of this paragraph shall be maintained by the Greater London Council.
- 3 No works under or over the main navigable channel of the River Lee shall be executed by the Greater London Council in pursuance of the enactments mentioned in section 37 (1) of this Act or in pursuance of this Part of this Schedule, unless—
- in the case of any work under the navigation, the top of the work is at least twelve feet below high water, Trinity standard, and
  - in the case of any work over any part of the navigation, the soffit of the work is at least eight feet six inches above high water, Trinity standard, with a clear span over the river, inclusive of the towing path thereof, of at least fifty-four feet:
- Provided that the British Waterways Board, upon the application of the Greater London Council, may allow a variation of the said dimensions or any of them.
- 4 (1) Notwithstanding anything in sections 30, 31 and 331 of the <sup>M6</sup>Public Health Act 1936, the Greater London Council—
- may cause storm water to be discharged from any sewer or pumping station for the time being vested in them into Channelsea river or Abbey creek or both, at any point in the London borough numbered 17 in Part I of Schedule 1 to this Act south of the bridge carrying Abbey road over that river or, as the case may be, that creek; and
  - may permit any storm water discharged under this paragraph into the said river or creek to flow thence into Bow Creek and thence into the River Thames:

Status: Point in time view as at 01/02/1991.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the London Government Act 1963. (See end of Document for details)

Provided that the Greater London Council—

- (i) shall cause the storm water to be discharged only at such times and in such manner as may be necessary to prevent the flooding of places and premises within the sewerage area of the Greater London Council; and
  - (ii) shall take all steps to avoid, so far as practicable, the creation of any nuisance in Channelsea river or Abbey creek by reason of the exercise of the powers of the Council under this paragraph.
- (2) The Greater London Council shall, at the request of the British Waterways Board, cause to be removed at the expense of the Council, by dredging or otherwise to the reasonable satisfaction of the engineer of the said Board, any deposit on the bed of Channelsea river or Abbey creek caused by, or arising from, the discharge by the Council of storm water into the said river or creek under this paragraph.

Any dispute arising, under this sub-paragraph between the Greater London Council and the British Waterways Board shall be determined by an arbitrator, who shall, in default of agreement, be appointed by the Minister of Transport on the application of either party to the dispute.

- (2) If any person fails to comply with the requirements of a notice under this paragraph, he shall be liable to a fine not exceeding [<sup>F35</sup>five pounds][<sup>F35</sup>£200] and to a further fine not exceeding twenty shillings for every day on which the failure continues after conviction.
- (3) Any person aggrieved by the requirements of any such notice may appeal to a magistrates' court.

Textual Amendments

F35 “£200” substituted with effect in Greater London for “five pounds” by virtue of Greater London Council \(General Powers\) Act 1983 \(c. iii\) s. 3, Sch.

- 18 (1) If any person—
- (a) knowingly erects or places any building, wall, bridge, fence, obstruction or encroachment in, on, over or under any sewer vested in the Greater London Council or in the council of an inner London borough; or
  - (b) obstructs, fills in or diverts any sewer or drain vested in or under the control of, the Greater London Council or the council of an inner London borough, without the previous consent in writing of the council in whom the sewer or drain is vested or by whom it is controlled, then, without prejudice to any other proceedings which may be taken against him, that council—
    - (i) may recover from him, as a debt due from him to the council, a penalty not exceeding [<sup>F36</sup>twenty pounds][<sup>F36</sup>£200], and a further penalty not exceeding five pounds for every day on which the contravention continues after notice thereof has been served on him by the council; and
    - (ii) may demolish and remove the building, wall, bridge, fence, obstruction or encroachment, and execute any works necessary for re-opening, restoring, repairing or reinstating the sewer or drain, as the case may be, and may recover from the offender the expenses incurred by the council in so doing.
- (2) Nothing in this paragraph shall prevent or impede the maintenance, repair or renewal of any building or works under which a sewer or drain has been constructed, so however that the building or works shall not injure or obstruct the sewer or drain.
- [<sup>F37</sup>(3) Nothing in this paragraph applies to the erection of a building or extension of a building if section 18 of the Building Act 1984 would apply if plans of that building or extension were, in accordance with building regulations, deposited with a local authority.]

- 1 (1) Without prejudice to sections 259 and 262 of the <sup>M13</sup>Public Health Act 1936, but subject to the following provisions of this paragraph, if a local authority consider that in any premises a pond, pool, ditch, gutter or place containing, or used for the collection of, any drainage, filth, stagnant water or other matter is likely to be prejudicial to health or a nuisance, they may by notice require the owner or occupier of the premises to drain, cleanse, cover or fill up the pond, pool, ditch, gutter or place, or to construct a proper drain for the discharge of the matter, or to execute such other works as the circumstances may require.
- (2) The local authority may contribute towards the expenses incurred by any person in complying with a notice under this paragraph.
- (3) Where any works required by a notice under this paragraph interfere with any right to the use of water, the local authority may, with the agreement of the person in whom the right is vested, acquire from him the right and any land for the benefit of which the right enures, instead of compensating him under section 278 of the Public Health Act 1936.

- 9 (1) Where it appears to a local authority, being the council of a London borough or the Common Council, that any land within the area of the authority is by reason of its derelict, neglected or unsightly condition detrimental to the amenities of the neighbourhood, the authority may, after serving notice of their proposals on the owner and on the occupier of the land and subject to sub-paragraph (3) of this paragraph, execute such works and do such other things as the authority consider expedient for the purpose of restoring or improving and thereafter preserving the appearance of the land:

Provided that the works and other things which may be required to be executed or done under this paragraph shall not include the erection or maintenance of any building or the doing of anything in or upon any building, but may include the erection or maintenance of a hoarding or fence.

- (2) Any person served with a notice under the foregoing sub-paragraph may, if aggrieved by the proposal specified in the notice, appeal to a magistrates' court within the period of twenty-eight days beginning with the date of the service of the notice.
- (3) A local authority may proceed with the proposals specified in a notice under sub-paragraph (1) of this paragraph if but only if—
- (a) none of the persons on whom the notice was served has, within the said period of twenty-eight days, taken steps to implement the proposals himself or instituted an appeal against the proposals to a magistrates' court; or
  - (b) any such steps begun to be taken by any such person within that period are not completed within a reasonable time; or
  - (c) any appeal instituted within that period has been dismissed or abandoned or failed for want of prosecution.
- (4) Any expenses incurred by the local authority in removing any materials from any land in exercise of the powers conferred on them by this paragraph and the cost of selling any materials so removed may be deducted by the authority from the proceeds which they are required by section 276 of the <sup>M15</sup>Public Health Act 1936 to pay to the person to whom the materials belonged.
- (5) The foregoing provisions of this paragraph shall not be construed as prejudicing the powers exercisable by the Greater London Council under section 69 of the <sup>M16</sup>London Building Acts (Amendment) Act 1939, or by the council of an outer London borough under [<sup>F65</sup>section 79 of the Building Act 1984], or by the local planning authority under section 89 of the National Parks and Access to the <sup>M17</sup>Countryside Act 1949.

conditions under section 22 of the <sup>M27</sup>London County Council (General Powers) Act 1959 was in force in relation to that land immediately before 1st April 1965, then—

- (a) until the expiration of the period of two months beginning with the date when that licence would have expired if this Act had not been passed, and
- (b) if by the expiration of that period the occupier of that land has duly made an application for a site licence in respect of that land under the said Part I, but that site licence has not yet been issued, until the date when such a site licence is first issued in respect of that land, the licence under the said section 22 shall be deemed to be a site licence under the said Part I granted for an unlimited period, but subject to the same conditions (if any) as the licence under the said section 22, by the council of the London borough in which that land is situated.

- (3) Where in the case of any such land as aforesaid no occupier thereof at any time since the grant of the licence under the said section 22 has been entitled to the benefit of a permission for the use of the land as a caravan site granted under Part III of the <sup>M28</sup>Town and Country Planning Act of 1947 <sup>M29</sup> or of 1962 otherwise than by a development order, paragraph (b) of the last foregoing sub-paragraph shall not apply to that land but—
  - (a) if before the expiration of the period referred to in paragraph (a) of that sub-paragraph the occupier of the land duly makes an application for a site licence in respect of that land under the said Part I, then, so long as the conditions, if any, attached to the licence under the said section 22 are complied with, no offence shall be committed under section 1 of the said Act of 1960 in respect of the land at any time after the expiration of that period and before such a licence is first issued in respect of the land; and
  - (b) section 17 of the said Act of 1960 shall apply to that land as if the land were an existing site within the meaning of that Act and as if any reference in that section to the commencement of that Act were a reference to the date referred to in the said paragraph (a).
- (4) Where in the case of any such land as aforesaid such permission as aforesaid for the use of that land as a caravan site has been granted in terms such that it will expire at the end of a specified period, nothing in sub-paragraph (2) of this paragraph shall cause any licence in respect of that land under the said section 22 to continue in force after the end of that period.
- (5) In this paragraph, the expressions “caravan site” and “occupier” have the meanings respectively assigned by section 1 of the said Act of 1960.
