Sections 3, 71.

REQUIREMENTS TO BE COMPLIED WITH BY CLUB'S
APPLICATION FOR REGISTRATION CERTIFICATE

1 The application shall specify the name, objects and address of the club, and shall state that there is kept at that address a list of the names and addresses of the members.

2 The application shall state, in terms of subsections (1) and (2) of section 41 of this Act, that the club is qualified under those subsections to receive a registration certificate for the premises, or will be so qualified if, as regards any provision of the rules specified in the application, the court sees fit to give a direction under section 42(2) of this Act.

3 The application shall set out, or shall incorporate a document annexed which sets out, the names and addresses of the members of any committee having the general management of the affairs of the club, and those of the members of any other committee concerned with the purchase for the club or with the supply by the club of intoxicating liquor, and those of other officers of the club.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/12/2001.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Licensing Act 1964 (repealed). (See end of Document for details)

- 4 (1) The application shall state, or shall incorporate a document annexed which states, the rules of the club or, in the case of an application for renewal, the changes in the rules made since the last application for the issue or renewal of the certificate.
- (2) If, in the case of an application for renewal, there has been no such change as aforesaid, the application shall so state.
- 5 The application shall—
- (a) identify the premises for which the issue or renewal of the registration certificate is sought; and
 - (b) state that those premises are or are to be occupied by and habitually used for the purposes of the club, the times at which they are or are to be open to members and the hours (if any) fixed by or under the rules of the club as the permitted hours there; and
 - (c) state the interest held by or in trust for the club in those premises and, if it is a leasehold interest or if the club has no interest, the name and address of any person to whom payment is or is to be made of rent under the lease or otherwise for the use of the premises.
- 6 (1) The application shall give, or shall incorporate a document annexed which gives—
- (a) particulars of any property not comprised in paragraph 5 of this Schedule which is or is to be used for the purposes of the club and not held by or in trust for the club absolutely, including the name and address of any person to whom payment is or is to be made for the use of that property;
 - (b) particulars of any liability of the club in respect of the principal or interest of moneys borrowed by the club or charged on property held by or in trust for the club, including the name and address of the person to whom payment is or is to be made on account of that principal or interest;
 - (c) particulars of any liability of the club or of a trustee for the club in respect of which any person has given any guarantee or provided any security, together with particulars of the guarantee or security given or provided, including the name and address of the person giving or providing it.
- (2) An application for renewal, or document annexed to it, may give the particulars required by this paragraph by reference to the changes (if any) since the last application by the club for the issue or renewal of the registration certificate.
- (3) If there is no property or liability of which particulars are required by any paragraph of sub-paragraph (1) of this paragraph, the application shall so state.
- (4) In this paragraph, “liability” includes a future or contingent liability.
- 7 (1) The application shall give, or shall incorporate a document annexed which gives, particulars of any premises not comprised in paragraph 5 of this Schedule, which have within the preceding twelve months been occupied and habitually used for the purposes of the club, and shall state the interest then held by or in trust for the club in those premises and, if it was a leasehold interest or if the club had no interest, the name and address of any person to whom payment was made of rent under the lease or otherwise for the use of the premises.
- (2) If there are no premises of which particulars are required by this paragraph, the application shall so state.
- 8 Where the interest held by or in trust for the club in any land of which particulars are required by paragraph 5, 6 or 7 of this Schedule is or was a leasehold interest,

Status: Point in time view as at 01/12/2001.

- 4 On receipt of any such application or amended application or of any such notice the [F15 chief executive to] the justices shall forthwith send a copy to any chief officer of police concerned and to the clerk of any local authority concerned, and the number of additional copies required to be lodged with the [F15 chief executive is] the number necessary to provide the copies the [F15 chief executive needs] for this purpose.

Textual Amendments

F15 Words in Sch. 6 para. 4 substituted (1.4.2001) by 1999 c. 22, s. 90, Sch. 13 paras. 36, 52(3) (with s. 107, Sch. 14 para. 7(2)); S.I. 2001/916, art. 2 (with Sch. 2 para. 2)

- 5 A club applying for the issue of a registration certificate for any premises, or for the renewal of a registration certificate in respect of different, additional or enlarged premises, shall give public notice of the application (identifying those premises and giving the name and address of the club) either—
- (a) by displaying the notice on or near the premises, in a place where it can conveniently be read by the public, for the seven days beginning with the date of the application; or
 - (b) by advertisement on one at least of those days in a newspaper circulating in the place where the premises are situated.

Objections, etc.

- 6 (1) Subject to sub-paragraph (2) of this paragraph, an objection to an application for the issue or renewal of a registration certificate shall be made by lodging with the [F16 chief executive] to the justices two copies in writing of the objection not later than twenty-eight days after the making of the application or, if the application is amended, after the making of the amended application.
- (2) If a magistrates' court extends the time allowed under section 45 of this Act to the chief officer of police, fire authority or local authority for inspecting premises to which the application relates, that court shall also extend the time in which the chief officer or authority may make objections to the application.

Textual Amendments

F16 Words in Sch. 6 para. 6(1) substituted (1.4.2001) by 1999 c. 22, s. 90, Sch. 13 para. 52(4) (with s. 107, Sch. 14 para. 7(2)); S.I. 2001/916, art. 2 (with Sch. 2 para. 2)

- 7 On receipt of an objection to an application for the issue or renewal of a registration certificate the [F17 chief executive] to the justices shall forthwith send a copy to the person signing the application at any address furnished by him for communications relating to the application or, in default of such an address, at the address given in the application as that of the club.

Textual Amendments

F17 Words in Sch. 6 para. 7 substituted (1.4.2001) by 1999 c. 22, s. 90, Sch. 13 para. 52(4) (with s. 107, Sch. 14 para. 7(2)); S.I. 2001/916, art. 2 (with Sch. 2 para. 2)

Status: Point in time view as at 01/12/2001.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Licensing Act 1964 (repealed). (See end of Document for details)

- 8 Paragraphs 6 and 7 of this Schedule shall apply in relation to any notice of intention, on an application for the issue, renewal or variation of a registration certificate, to make representations as to conditions relating to the sale of intoxicating liquor as they apply to objections to an application for the issue or renewal of a registration certificate (with the substitution of references to giving the notice for references to making the objection).
- 9 Where any such objection is made or any such notice is given, the magistrates' court may make such order as it thinks just and reasonable for the payment of costs to the club by the person making the objection or giving the notice or by the club to that person; and for purposes of enforcement the order shall be treated as an order for the payment of a sum enforceable as a civil debt.
- 10 Where a club applies for a renewal of a registration certificate and the magistrates' court under paragraph 6(2) of this Schedule extends the time for any person to make objection to the application, the court may order that the certificate to be renewed shall not continue in force by virtue of section 40(5) of this Act beyond a date specified in the order.
- 11 (1) Subject to sub-paragraph (2) of this paragraph, an objection to an application for the issue or renewal of a registration certificate shall specify the ground of objection with such particulars as are sufficient to indicate the matters relied on to make it out.
- (2) Where objection is made to an application for the issue or renewal of a registration certificate on the ground that the application does not give the information required by this Act, or the information is incomplete or inaccurate, or the application is otherwise not in conformity with this Act, it shall be sufficient for the objection to state the ground as a matter of suspicion, and to indicate the reasons for the suspicion.
- 12 Where, on an objection to an application for the issue or renewal of a registration certificate, there appears to the court to be good reason to suspect that the application does not give the information required by this Act, or that the information is incomplete or inaccurate, or the application is otherwise not in conformity with this Act, it shall be for the applicant to satisfy the court that the ground of objection cannot be made out, unless the applicant desires and is permitted to amend the application so as to remove the ground of objection.

PART II

COMPLAINT FOR CANCELLATION OR VARIATION OF REGISTRATION CERTIFICATE

- 13 (1) A summons issued on a complaint made against a club for the cancellation or variation of a registration certificate shall be served on the chairman or secretary of the club or the person who signed the last application for the issue or renewal of the certificate, and that service shall be treated as service on the club.
- (2) Any such summons shall, in addition to being served on the club, be served on such persons, if any, as the justices issuing the summons may direct.
- 14 Where it appears to a magistrates' court having jurisdiction to deal with any such complaint that the summons cannot be served on the club in accordance with paragraph 13 of this Schedule, or not without undue difficulty or delay, the court may order that service on the club may be effected by serving the summons on a person named in the order, being a person who appears to the court to have, or to have had, an interest in the club, or to be, or to have been, an officer of the club.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/12/2001.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Licensing Act 1964 (repealed). (See end of Document for details)

- 15 A complaint may be made against a club for the cancellation of a registration certificate on the ground that the club has not twenty-five members, notwithstanding that the complainant's case is that the club does not exist.

PART III

GENERAL

- 16 (1) A magistrates' court may deal with an application by a club for the issue, variation or renewal of a registration certificate without hearing the club, but—
- (a) before refusing such an application, or renewing a registration certificate for a shorter time than is requested in the application, shall give the club an opportunity to be heard; and
 - (b) before renewing a registration certificate for a longer period than one year, may invite any chief officer of police or local authority concerned to make representations.
- (2) In relation to any such application [^{F18}subsections (1) and (3) of section 97 and section 121 of the ^{M2}Magistrates' Courts Act 1980] shall apply as they apply in relation to a complaint.

SCHEDULE 7

PROVISIONS AS TO CLUB RULES

Management of club

- 1 The affairs of the club, in matters not reserved for the club in general meeting or otherwise for the decision of the general body of members, must, under the rules, be managed by one or more elective committees; and one committee must be a general committee, charged with the general management of those affairs in matters not assigned to special committees.

General meetings

- 2 (1) There must, under the rules, be a general meeting of the club at least once in every year, and fifteen months must not elapse without a general meeting.
- (2) The general committee must be capable of summoning a general meeting at any time on reasonable notice.
- (3) Any members entitled to attend and vote at a general meeting must be capable of summoning one or requiring one to be summoned at any time on reasonable notice, if a specified number of them join to do so; and the number required must not be more than thirty nor more than one-fifth of the total number of the members so entitled.
- (4) At a general meeting the voting must be confined to members, and all members entitled to use the club premises must be entitled to vote, and must have equal voting rights, except that—
- (a) the rules may exclude from voting, either generally or on particular matters, members below a specified age (not greater than twenty-one), women if the club is primarily a men's club, and men if the club is primarily a women's club, and
 - (b) if the club is primarily a club for persons qualified by service or past service, or by any particular service or past service, in Her Majesty's forces, the rules may exclude persons not qualified from voting, either generally or on particular matters; and
 - (c) if the rules make special provision for family membership or family subscriptions or any similar provision, the rules may exclude from voting, either generally or on particular matters, all or any of the persons taking the benefit of that provision as being members of a person's family, other than that person.

Membership

- 3 (1) Ordinary members must, under the rules, be elected either by the club in general meeting or by an elective committee, or by an elective committee with other members of the club added to it for the purpose; and the name and address of any person proposed for election must, for not less than two days before the election, be prominently displayed in the club premises or principal club premises in a part frequented by the members.
- (2) The rules must not make any such provision for the admission of persons to membership otherwise than as ordinary members (or in accordance with the rules required for ordinary members by sub-paragraph (1) of this paragraph) as is likely to result in the number of members so admitted being significant in proportion to the total membership.

Meaning of “elective committee”

- 4 (1) In this Schedule “elective committee” means, subject to the following provisions of this paragraph, a committee consisting of members of the club who are elected to the committee by the club in accordance with sub-paragraph (2) of this paragraph for a period of not less than one year nor more than five years; and paragraph 2(4) of this Schedule shall apply to voting at the election as it applies to voting at general meetings.
- (2) Elections to the committee must be held annually, and if all the elected members do not go out of office in every year, there must be fixed rules for determining those that are to; and all members of the club entitled to vote at the election and of not less than two years’ standing, must be equally capable of being elected (subject only to any provision made for nomination by members of the club and to any provision prohibiting or restricting re-election) and, if nomination is required, must have equal rights to nominate persons for election.
- (3) Except in the case of a committee with less than four members, or of a committee concerned with the purchase for the club or with the supply by the club of intoxicating liquor, a committee of which not less than two-thirds of the members are members of the club elected to the committee in accordance with sub-paragraphs (1) and (2) of this paragraph shall be treated as an elective committee.
- (4) A sub-committee of an elective committee shall also be treated as an elective committee if its members are appointed by the committee and not less than two-thirds of them (or, in the case of a sub-committee having less than four members, or concerned with the purchase for the club or with the supply by the club of intoxicating liquor, all of them) are members of the committee elected to the committee in accordance with sub-paragraphs (1) and (2) of this paragraph who go out of office in the sub-committee on ceasing to be members of the committee.
- (5) For the purposes of this paragraph a person who on a casual vacancy is appointed to fill the place of a member of an elective committee for the remainder of his term and no longer shall, however appointed, be treated as elected in accordance with sub-paragraphs (1) and (2) of this paragraph if the person whose place he fills was so elected or is to be treated as having been so elected.

- 2 The number on the back of the ballot paper is to correspond with that on the counterfoil, and shall be printed in small characters.

C.

Form of directions for the guidance of voters in voting

- 1 The voter should see that the ballot paper, before it is handed to him, is stamped with the official mark.
- 2 The voter will go into one of the compartments and, with the pencil provided in the compartment, place a cross X on the right-hand side either in the space opposite the words "FOR Sunday opening", if he wishes to vote that way, or in the space opposite the words "AGAINST Sunday opening", if he wishes to vote that way.
- 3 The voter will then fold up the ballot paper so as to show the official mark on the back, and leaving the compartment will, without showing the front of the paper to any person, show the official mark on the back to the presiding officer, and then, in the presence of the presiding officer, put the paper into the ballot box, and forthwith leave the polling station.
- 4 If the voter inadvertently spoils a ballot paper he can return it to the officer who will, if satisfied of such inadvertence, give him another paper.
- 5 If the voter places any mark on the paper by which he may afterwards be identified, his ballot paper will be void and will not be counted.
- 6 If the voter fraudulently takes a ballot paper out of a polling station or fraudulently puts into the ballot box any paper other than the one given to him by the officer, he will be liable on conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months or to a fine not exceeding twenty pounds or to both such imprisonment and such fine.

PART I

APPLICATIONS TO LICENSING JUSTICES

Notice of application

- 1 (1) A person intending to apply to licensing justices for the making, variation or revocation of a restriction order with respect to any premises or part of any premises shall give notice of his intention to the [^{F48}chief executive] to the licensing justices and—
- (a) in the case of an application for the making of an order, to the appropriate person in relation to the premises; and
 - (b) in the case of an application for the variation or revocation of an order—
 - (i) to the chief office of police; and
 - (ii) subject to sub-paragraph (3) below, to the person or, if more than one, each of the persons on whose application the order was made.
- (2) The reference in sub-paragraph (1) above to the person or persons on whose application a restriction order was made is, in relation to any person who applied by virtue of a position held by him, a reference to the holder for the time being of that position.
- (3) Notice under this paragraph in the case of an application for the variation or revocation of a restriction order is not required to be given to a person on whose application the order was made if that person is no longer entitled to apply for the making of a restriction order with respect to the premises or, if he applied by virtue of a position held by him, it is not a position which is any longer held in the neighbourhood; and the obligation to give a person notice is discharged by giving it to him at his last known address.
- (4) Notice under this paragraph shall be in writing and specify in general terms the grounds of the application.
- (5) Notice under this paragraph shall be given not later than 21 days before the commencement of the licensing sessions at which the application is to be made.
- (6) Licensing justices shall not hear an application for the making, variation or revocation of a restriction order unless notice under this paragraph has been duly given.
- (7) For the purposes of this paragraph, the following person is the appropriate person in relation to the following premises—
- (a) in the case of a theatre, the proprietor;
 - (b) in the case of any other licensed premises, the holder of the justices' licence; and
 - (c) in the case of premises for which a canteen licence is in force, the holder of the canteen licence.

Objections to applications for variation or revocation

- (1) A person intending to oppose an application to licensing justices for the variation or revocation of a restriction order shall give notice of his intention to the applicant.
 - (2) Notice under this paragraph shall be in writing and specify in general terms the grounds of the opposition.
 - (3) Notice under this paragraph shall be given not later than 7 days before the commencement of the licensing sessions at which the application is to be made.
 - (4) Except as provided by sub-paragraph (5) below, licensing justices shall not entertain an objection unless notice under this paragraph has been duly given.
 - (5) Where an objection of which notice under this paragraph has not been duly given is made to an application, the justices may adjourn consideration of the application to a day which they shall notify to the applicant and the objector and on that day the justices shall hear the application and the objection as if notice under this paragraph had been duly given.

Evidence

- 3
- Evidence given on an application to licensing justices for the making, variation or revocation of a restriction order shall be given on oath.

PART II

APPLICATIONS TO MAGISTRATES' COURTS

Notice of application

- (1) A magistrates' court shall not hear an application for the making, variation or revocation of a restriction order with respect to any premises unless satisfied that the applicant has given at least 21 days' notice of his intention to the following persons in accordance with this paragraph.
 - (2) The persons referred to are the [^{F49}chief executive] to the justices and—
 - (a) in the case of an application for the making of an order, the secretary of the club which is registered in respect of the premises to which the application relates; and
 - (b) in the case of an application for the variation or revocation of an order—
 - (i) the chief officer of police; and
 - (ii) subject to sub-paragraph (4) below, the person or, if more than one, each of the persons on whose application the order was made.
 - (3) The reference in sub-paragraph (2) above to the person or persons on whose application a restriction order was made is, in relation to any person who applied by virtue of a position held by him, a reference to the holder for the time being of that position.
 - (4) Notice under this paragraph in the case of an application for the variation or revocation of a restriction order is not required to be given to a person on whose application the order was made if that person is no longer entitled to apply for the making of a restriction order with respect to the premises or, if he applied by

[^{F50}SCHEDULE 8B

Section 83A]

MILLENNIUM LICENSING HOURS

Textual Amendments

F50 Sch. 8B inserted (29.7.1999) by S.I. 1999/2137, art. 3

Millennium licensing hours

- 1 (1) The Millennium licensing hours shall (subject to any Millennium restriction order) be added to the permitted hours in—
- (a) licensed premises, other than premises licensed for the sale of intoxicating liquor for consumption off the premises only; and
- (b) premises in respect of which a club is registered.
- (2) The Millennium licensing hours are the period between—
- (a) the end of the permitted hours in the premises on 31st December 1999; and

Status: Point in time view as at 01/12/2001.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Licensing Act 1964 (repealed). (See end of Document for details)

- (b) the beginning of the permitted hours in the premises on the following day (or, if there are no permitted hours in the premises on that day, midnight on 31st December 1999).
- (3) If there are no permitted hours in the premises on 31st December 1999, there are no Millennium licensing hours in those premises.
- (4) In determining for the purposes of sub-paragraph (2) above when any permitted hours end or begin, this paragraph and any Millennium restriction order shall be disregarded (but anything which for the time being adds to or restricts the permitted hours by virtue of any other provision of this Act, including section 68 or 70, shall be taken into account).
- (5) Hours which—
 - (a) are comprised in the permitted hours for limited purposes by virtue of section 68 or 70 of this Act; and
 - (b) fall immediately before hours added by virtue of sub-paragraph (1) above, shall be added to the permitted hours for all purposes.
- (6) No special order of exemption shall be made to add to the permitted hours in any premises any hours which would otherwise be comprised in the Millennium licensing hours for those premises.
- (7) Where the permitted hours are different in different parts of the same premises, each such part shall be treated as separate premises for the purposes of this paragraph.

Millennium restriction orders

- 2 (1) An order under this paragraph (referred to in this Schedule as a “Millennium restriction order”) may be made with respect to—
 - (a) any licensed premises or part of licensed premises, other than premises licensed for the sale of intoxicating liquor for consumption off the premises only; and
 - (b) any premises in respect of which a club is registered.
- (2) Where a Millennium restriction order is in force with respect to any premises or part of any premises, the period added by paragraph 1(1) above to the permitted hours in those premises or that part shall not include any time specified in the order.
- (3) A Millennium restriction order may specify all or any part of the Millennium licensing hours.
- (4) The power to make a Millennium restriction order shall be exercisable—
 - (a) with respect to licensed premises, by licensing justices, and
 - (b) with respect to premises in respect of which a club is registered, by a magistrates’ court,on application being made to them under this paragraph.
- (5) An application for a Millennium restriction order may be made by—
 - (a) the chief officer of police;
 - (b) any person living in the neighbourhood, or any body representing persons who do; or

Status: Point in time view as at 01/12/2001.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Licensing Act 1964 (repealed). (See end of Document for details)

- (c) the local authority in whose area the premises are situated.
- (6) In sub-paragraph (5) above “local authority” means–
- (a) in England, a district council, a London borough council or the Common Council of the City of London;
 - (b) in Wales, a county council or a county borough council.
- (7) A Millennium restriction order may be made–
- (a) on the ground that it is desirable to avoid or reduce any disturbance of or annoyance to persons living in the neighbourhood due to the use of the premises or part of the premises; or
 - (b) on the ground that it is desirable to avoid or reduce the occurrence of disorderly conduct in the premises or part of the premises or the occurrence in the vicinity of the premises of disorderly conduct on the part of persons resorting to the premises or part of the premises.
- (8) The terms of a Millennium restriction order shall be such as the licensing justices or, as the case may be, the magistrates’ court think fit.

Applications for Millennium restriction orders: licensing justices

- 3
- (1) A person intending to apply to licensing justices for the making of a Millennium restriction order with respect to any premises or part of any premises shall give notice of his intention to the clerk to the licensing justices and to the appropriate person in relation to the premises.
 - (2) Notice under this paragraph shall be in writing and specify in general terms the grounds of the application.
 - (3) Notice under this paragraph shall be given not later than 21 days before the commencement of the licensing sessions at which the application is to be made.
 - (4) Licensing justices shall not hear an application for the making of a Millennium restriction order unless notice under this paragraph has been duly given.
 - (5) For the purposes of this paragraph, the following person is the appropriate person in relation to the following premises–
 - (a) in the case of a theatre, the proprietor;
 - (b) in the case of any other licensed premises, the holder of the justices’ licence; and
 - (c) in the case of premises for which a canteen licence is in force, the holder of the canteen licence.
 - (6) Evidence given on an application to licensing justices for the making of a Millennium restriction order shall be given on oath.

Applications for Millennium restriction orders: magistrates’ courts

- (1) A Magistrates’ court shall not hear an application for the making of a Millennium restriction order with respect to any premises unless satisfied that the applicant has

Status: Point in time view as at 01/12/2001.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Licensing Act 1964 (repealed). (See end of Document for details) given at least 21 days' notice of this intention to the following persons in accordance with this paragraph.

- (2) The persons referred to are the clerk to the justices and the secretary of the club which is registered in respect of the premises to which the application relates.
- (3) Notice under this paragraph shall be in writing and specify in general terms the grounds of the application.

Millennium restriction orders: appeals

- 5 (1) Any holder of a justices' licence, any club or any proprietor of a theatre aggrieved by a decision of licensing justices or a magistrates' court—
 - (a) granting a Millennium restriction order, or
 - (b) as to the terms on which such an order is granted,may appeal to the Crown Court against the decision.
- (2) On an appeal under this paragraph the applicant for the order against which the appeal is brought shall be respondent in addition to the licensing justices or justices, as the case may be.
- (3) Where an appeal is brought under this paragraph, the order shall remain in force pending the disposal of the appeal.
- (4) The judgment of the Crown Court on any appeal under this paragraph shall be final.

Duty to post notice of Millennium restriction order on premises

- 6 (1) Where a Millennium restriction order is in force with respect to any licensed premises, the holder of the licence or the theatre proprietor, as the case may be, shall keep posted in some conspicuous place there throughout 31st December 1999 and 1st January 2000 a notice stating the effect of the order on the permitted hours.
- (2) Where a Millennium restriction order has effect with respect to a part only of licensed premises, sub-paragraph (1) above requires the notice to be posted in that part of the premises.
- (3) A person contravening this paragraph shall be liable to a fine not exceeding level 1 on the standard scale.

- 8 An order constituting a licensing planning area may provide—
- (a) for the appointment of sub-committees of the licensing planning committee for the area;
 - (b) for authorising or requiring such matters as the order may specify to be referred by the committee to those sub-committees.
- 9 Where an order under section 120 of this Act adds a licensing district or part of a licensing district to a licensing planning area, and the order provides for the appointment of additional members of the licensing planning committee by the licensing justices or a local planning authority having jurisdiction in the added district or part, the order may vary the provisions of the original order constituting the district so as to limit the right of the additional members to vote as members of the licensing planning committee to such matters relating to the added district or part of a district as the order may specify.
- 10 So far as any order makes any provision authorised by paragraph 8 or 9 of this Schedule, it may be varied or revoked by a subsequent order of the Secretary of State made after consultation with the licensing planning committee for the area in question.

- 5 A notice under paragraph 3 or paragraph 4 of this Schedule shall state the name and address of the person to whom the licence is proposed to be transferred and his trade or calling during the six months preceding the giving of the notice.

General

- 6 Where an applicant for the grant of a canteen licence or for the transfer or confirmation of the transfer of such a licence has, through inadvertence or misadventure, failed to comply with the requirements of the preceding paragraphs of this Schedule, the justices may, upon such terms as they think fit, postpone consideration of his application; and, if on the postponed consideration they are satisfied that any terms so imposed have been complied with, they may deal with the application as if the applicant had complied with the requirements of this Schedule.

[^{F58}SCHEDULE 12A

CHILDREN’S CERTIFICATES: SUPPLEMENTARY PROVISIONS

Textual Amendments

F58 Sch. 12A inserted (3.1.1995) by 1994 c. 40, s. 19(3), Sch. 7: S.I. 1994/3188, art. 3

Applications

- 1 (1) Licensing justices shall not entertain an application for a children’s certificate unless the applicant has, at least 21 days before the commencement of the licensing sessions at which the application is to be made, given to the [^{F59}chief executive] to the justices and to the chief officer of police notice of his intention to make the application.
- (2) Notice under sub-paragraph (1) of this paragraph shall—
- (a) be in writing and be signed by the applicant or his authorised agent, and
 - (b) state the situation of the premises where the area to which the application relates is to be found.
- (3) If the premises mentioned in sub-paragraph (2)(b) of this paragraph include a bar which is not included in the area to which the application relates, licensing justices may decline to entertain the application until the applicant has lodged a plan of the premises indicating the area to which the application relates.

Textual Amendments

F59 Words in Sch. 12A para. 1(1) substituted (1.4.2001) by 1999 c. 22, s. 90, Sch. 13 paras. 36, 56(a) (with s. 107, Sch. 14 para. 7(2)); S.I. 2001/916, art. 2 (with Sch. 2 para. 2)

- 2 (1) Where a chief officer of police wishes to oppose an application for a children’s certificate, he must give notice of his intention to do so to the applicant and to the [^{F60}chief executive] to the licensing justices at least 7 days before the commencement of the licensing sessions at which the application is to be made.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/12/2001.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Licensing Act 1964 (repealed). (See end of Document for details)

- (2) Notice under sub-paragraph (1) of this paragraph shall be in writing and specify in general terms the grounds of the opposition.

Textual Amendments

F60 Words in Sch. 12A para. 2(1) substituted (1.4.2001) by 1999 c. 22, s. 90, Sch. 13 paras. 36, 56(a) (with s. 107, Sch. 14 para. 7(2)); S.I. 2001/916, art. 2 (with Sch. 2 para. 2)

Refusal

- 3 Where licensing justices refuse an application for a children’s certificate, they shall specify their reasons in writing to the applicant.

Conditions

- 4 (1) It shall be a condition of the grant of a children’s certificate that meals and beverages other than intoxicating liquor are available for sale for consumption in the area to which the certificate relates at all times when the certificate is operational.
- (2) Licensing justices may impose such other conditions on the grant of a children’s certificate as they think fit.
- (3) Without prejudice to the generality of sub-paragraph (2) of this paragraph, conditions under that sub-paragraph may restrict the hours during which, or days on which, the certificate is operational.

When operational

- 5 (1) Subject to any condition attached by the licensing justices and to sub-paragraph (2) of this paragraph, a children’s certificate shall be operational at any time up to nine in the evening.
- (2) Licensing justices may, in relation to a children’s certificate, approve a later time than nine in the evening as the time when the certificate ceases to be operational, and may do so either generally or for particular days or periods.
- (3) Licensing justices may only act under sub-paragraph (2) of this paragraph on the application of the appropriate person, but an approval under that provision need not correspond with the applicant’s proposals.
- (4) In sub-paragraph (3) of this paragraph, the reference to the appropriate person is—
- (a) in the case of an application with respect to an existing children’s certificate, to the holder of the justices’ licence for the licensed premises to which the certificate relates, and
 - (b) in the case of an application made in conjunction with an application for a children’s certificate, to the applicant for the certificate.

Duration

- 6 A children’s certificate shall remain in force until revoked.
- 7 (1) Licensing justices may, on their own motion or on application by the chief officer of police, revoke a children’s certificate if they are satisfied—

Status: Point in time view as at 01/12/2001.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Licensing Act 1964 (repealed). (See end of Document for details)

- (a) that the area to which the certificate relates does not constitute an environment in which it is suitable for persons under fourteen to be present, or
 - (b) that there has been a serious or persistent failure to comply with one or more conditions attached to the certificate.
- (2) When acting on their own motion, licensing justices may only revoke a children’s certificate if, at least 21 days before the commencement of the licensing sessions at which they propose to revoke the certificate, they have given notice of their intention to do so to the holder of the justices’ licence for the licensed premises to which the certificate relates.
- (3) When acting on application by the chief officer of police, licensing justices may only revoke a children’s certificate if, at least 21 days before the commencement of the licensing sessions at which the application is to be made, the chief officer of police has given—
- (a) to the [^{F61}chief executive] to the licensing justices, and
 - (b) to the holder of the justices’ licence for the licensed premises to which the certificate relates, notice of his intention to apply for the revocation of the certificate.
- (4) Notice under sub-paragraph (2) or (3) of this paragraph shall be in writing and specify in general terms the grounds for the proposed revocation.

Textual Amendments

- 9 A children’s certificate shall be treated as revoked on the day on which the area to which it relates ceases to be comprised in premises for which a justices’ licence is in force.

Appeals

- 10 (1) Any applicant for a children’s certificate who is aggrieved by a decision of licensing justices—
- (a) refusing to grant a certificate, or
 - (b) as to the conditions attached to the grant of a certificate,

Status: Point in time view as at 01/12/2001.

may appeal to the Crown Court against the decision.

- (2) Any applicant for an extension of the time when a children's certificate is operational who is aggrieved by a decision of licensing justices with respect to his application may appeal to the Crown Court against the decision.
- (3) Any holder of a justices' licence who is aggrieved by a decision of licensing justices revoking a children's certificate relating to the licensed premises may appeal to the Crown Court against the decision.
- (4) The judgment of the Crown Court on any appeal under this paragraph shall be final.

11 Where the Crown Court—

- (a) has awarded costs against an appellant under paragraph 10 of this Schedule, and
- (b) is satisfied that the licensing justices cannot recover those costs from him, it shall order payment out of central funds of such sums as appear to it sufficient to indemnify the licensing justices from all costs and charges whatever to which they have been put in consequence of the appellant's notice of appeal.]

- 6 (1) Where at the commencement of this Act a justices’ licence granted for a term other than twelve months is in force or in suspense, the following provisions of this paragraph shall apply.
- (2) Any licence granted by way of transfer (directly or indirectly) of the licence shall be granted to have effect for a period ending with the term for which the licence was granted.
- (3) An application for the regrant of the licence shall be treated as an application for a new licence and not as an application for the renewal of the licence, but section 123(1) of this Act shall not apply to the regrant.
- (4) The circumstances in which the licence may be forfeited shall include the following, that is to say, it may be forfeited—
- (a) by an order of a magistrates’ court made on complaint, where the court is satisfied that a condition attached, under a previous enactment corresponding to section 4(1) of this Act, to the grant of the licence has not been complied with;
 - (b) by order of any court by or before which the holder of the licence is convicted of any offence committed by him as such.
- (5) A person aggrieved by an order of a magistrates’ court under sub-paragraph (4) of this paragraph may appeal to a court of quarter sessions.
