Harbour Revision and Empowerment Orders

14 Ministers' powers, on application of harbour authorities, or others, to make orders for securing harbour efficiency, &c.

(1) Subject to the provisions of this section and to the following provisions of this Act, there may, in relation to a harbour which is being improved, maintained or managed by a harbour authority in the exercise and performance of statutory powers and duties, be made by the appropriate Minister an order (in this Act referred to as a “harbour revision order”) for achieving all or any of the objects specified in Schedule 2 to this Act.

[^{F10}(1A) Subsection (1) is subject to—

(a) section 33(2) of the Planning Act 2008 (exclusion of powers to authorise development);

Status: Point in time view as at 01/04/2017.

Changes to legislation: Harbours Act 1964 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 24 June 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (b) section 120(9) of that Act (exclusion of power to include ancillary provision in orders).]
- (2) Subject to the next following section, a harbour revision order shall not be made in relation to a harbour by the appropriate Minister—
- (a) except upon written application in that behalf made to him by the authority engaged in improving, maintaining or managing it or by a person appearing to him to have a substantial interest or body representative of persons appearing to him to have such an interest; and
 - (b) unless the appropriate Minister is satisfied that the making of the order is desirable in the interests of securing the improvement, maintenance or management of the harbour in an efficient and economical manner or of facilitating the efficient and economic transport of goods or passengers by sea ^{F11}or in the interests of the recreational use of sea-going ships].
- ^{F12}[(2A) The objects for achieving all or any of which a harbour revision order may be made in relation to a harbour include repealing superseded, obsolete or otherwise unnecessary statutory provisions of local application affecting the harbour, or consolidating any statutory provisions of local application affecting the harbour; and subsection (2)(b) of this section does not apply to an order in so far as it is made for objects mentioned in this subsection.]
- ^{F13}[(2B) Nothing in subsection (2)(b) of this section shall prevent the making of an order for facilitating—
- (a) the closing of part of the harbour,
 - (b) a reduction in the facilities available in the harbour, or
 - (c) the disposal of property not required for the purposes of the harbour,
- if the appropriate Minister is satisfied that the making of the order is desirable on grounds other than those specified in that subsection.]
- (3) A harbour revision order may include all such provisions as appear to the appropriate Minister to be requisite or expedient for rendering of full effect ^{F14}any other provision of the order]and any ^{F15}supplementary, consequential or incidental] provisions appearing to him to be requisite or expedient for the purposes of ^{F16}, or in connection with,] the order, including, but without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing words, penal provisions and provisions incorporating, with or without modifications, any provision of the Lands Clauses Acts or any other enactment and provisions for ^{F17}excluding or modifying any provision of any Act or of any instrument made under any Act (including this Act) and for repealing] any statutory provision of local application affecting the harbour to which the order relates; but no penal provision of a harbour revision order shall be so framed as to permit of a person's being punished otherwise than on his conviction or as to permit—
- (a) on his being summarily convicted, of the infliction on him of a penalty other than a fine or of ^{F18}—
 - (i) in the case of an offence triable either summarily or on indictment, the infliction on him of a fine exceeding the prescribed sum within the meaning of section 32 of the ^{M3}Magistrates' Courts Act 1980 or section 289B of the ^{M4}Criminal Procedure (Scotland) Act 1975;
 - (ii) in the case of an offence triable only summarily, the infliction on him of a fine exceeding ^{F19}level 4 on the standard scale] or, in the case of a continuing offence, a daily fine exceeding £50 for each day on which the offence continues after conviction;]

Status: Point in time view as at 01/04/2017.

- (b) on his being convicted on indictment, of the infliction on him of [^{F20} a penalty other than a fine].
- (4) In the case of a harbour revision order that provides for the establishment of a body as the harbour authority for the harbour to which the order relates in lieu of the existing one, references in paragraphs 2 to 17 of Schedule 2 to this Act to the authority (except in the case of the reference in paragraph 3 the references, other than the second, in paragraph 5 and the second reference in paragraph 11) shall be construed as referring to the body established by the order as the harbour authority, and in the said excepted case shall be construed as referring to the existing one.
- ^{F21}[(4A) Where two or more harbours are being improved, maintained or managed by the same harbour authority or by harbour authorities which are members of the same group, a harbour revision order may relate to more than one of the harbours; and for this purpose two authorities are members of the same group if one is a subsidiary (within the meaning of [^{F22}the Companies Acts (see section 1159 of the Companies Act 2006)]) of the other or both are subsidiaries of another company (within the meaning of [^{F23}that section]).]
- (5) Where a harbour revision order includes provision for the compulsory acquisition of land, there must, in the case of each parcel of land proposed to be acquired compulsorily, be annexed to the order a [^{F24}map of a scale not less than 1:2500] on which the boundaries of that parcel are plainly delineated.
- ^{F25}[(5A) Where a harbour revision order includes provision for extinguishing or diverting a public right of way over a footpath [^{F26}or bridleway][^{F26}, bridleway or restricted byway], there must be annexed to the order a map of a scale not less than 1:2500 on which the path or way concerned, and in the case of a diversion the new path or way, are plainly delineated.]
- ^{F27}(6)
- (7) In this section and in Schedule 2 to this Act “the appropriate Minister”, in the case of an order to be made in relation to a harbour not being a fishery harbour or a marine work means the Minister, in the case of an order to be made in relation to a fishery harbour means the Minister of Agriculture, Fisheries and Food, and in the case of an order to be made in relation to a marine work means the Secretary of State.

(4) An order under this section is in this Act referred to as a “harbour empowerment order”.

(5) Neither the Minister, nor the Minister of Agriculture, Fisheries and Food nor the Secretary of State shall make a harbour empowerment order unless he is satisfied that the making thereof is desirable in the interests of facilitating the efficient and economic transport of goods or passengers by sea [^{F32}or in the interests of the recreational use of sea-going ships].

(6) A harbour empowerment order may include all such provisions as appear to the Minister of the Crown by whom it is made to be requisite or expedient for giving full effect to any provision included in the order by virtue of the foregoing provisions of this section and any [^{F33}supplementary, consequential or incidental] provisions appearing to him to be requisite or expedient for the purposes of, or in connection with, the order, including, but without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing words, penal provisions and provisions incorporating, with or without modifications, any provision of the Lands Clauses Acts or any other enactment [^{F34}and provisions for excluding or modifying any provision of any Act or of any instrument made under any Act (including this Act)] [^{F35}and for repealing any statutory provision of local application affecting the area in relation to which the powers are intended to be exercised]; but no penal provision of a harbour empowerment order shall be so framed as to permit of a person’s being punished otherwise than on his conviction or as to permit—

- (a) on his being summarily convicted, of the infliction on him of a penalty other than a fine or of [^{F36}—
 - (i) in the case of an offence triable either summarily or on indictment, the infliction on him of a fine exceeding the prescribed sum within the meaning of section 32 of the ^{M5}Magistrates’ Courts Act 1980 or section 289B of the ^{M6}Criminal Procedure (Scotland) Act 1975;
 - (ii) in the case of an offence triable only summarily, the infliction on him of a fine exceeding [^{F37}level 4 on the standard scale] or, in the case of a continuing offence, a daily fine exceeding £50 for each day on which the offence continues after conviction;]

- (b) on his being convicted on indictment, of the infliction on him of [^{F38}a penalty other than a fine].
- (7) Where a harbour empowerment order includes provision for the compulsory acquisition of land, there must, in the case of each parcel of land proposed to be acquired compulsorily, be annexed to the order a [^{F39}map of a scale not less than 1:2500] on which the boundaries of that parcel are plainly delineated.
- ^{F40}[(7A) Where a harbour empowerment order includes provision for extinguishing or diverting a public right of way over a footpath [^{F41}or bridleway][^{F41}, bridleway or restricted byway], there must be annexed to the order a map of a scale not less than 1:2500 on which the path or way concerned, and in the case of a diversion the new path or way, are plainly delineated.]

17A Power to make closure order

- (1) The Secretary of State may make an order under this section in respect of a harbour (a “closure order”)—
 - (a) on the application of the harbour authority,
 - (b) with the consent of the harbour authority, or
 - (c) if the Secretary of State has consulted the harbour authority and is satisfied that they are unlikely to object.
- (2) The Secretary of State must publish guidance about the circumstances in which a closure order will be made. The guidance—
 - (a) must require the Secretary of State to have regard to the underlying purpose, and
 - (b) must be reviewed and (if appropriate) revised from time to time.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/04/2017.

Changes to legislation: Harbours Act 1964 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 24 June 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (3) In this section—
- (a) “the underlying purpose” means the purpose of permitting or requiring harbour authorities to cease to maintain harbours which are no longer commercially viable or necessary;
 - (b) “the harbour authority” in relation to a harbour means any harbour authority which has statutory duties to manage, maintain or improve the harbour.

17B Content of closure order

- (1) A closure order must relieve the harbour authority of—
- (a) all statutory functions in respect of the harbour, or
 - (b) specified statutory functions in respect of the harbour.
- (2) A closure order may transfer specified functions of the harbour authority to a specified body (with the body's consent).
- (3) A closure order must include transitional provision about the cessation of the harbour authority's functions (including provision about rights and liabilities in relation to the performance of functions before the closure order takes effect).
- (4) A closure order may—
- (a) permit or require the harbour authority to carry out works in respect of the harbour;
 - (b) permit the Secretary of State to carry out works in respect of the harbour;
 - (c) require a harbour authority to pay for works carried out under paragraph (b);
 - (d) confer on the harbour authority or the Secretary of State power to acquire (whether by agreement or compulsorily) land described in the order as the site of works to be carried out under paragraph (a) or (b).

17C Harbour closure orders: property etc

- (1) A closure order may include provision for the transfer of property, rights and liabilities of the harbour authority.
- (2) In particular, a closure order may include provision—
- (a) transferring things that would otherwise not be capable of being transferred;
 - (b) creating interests, rights or liabilities in relation to things transferred or in connection with a transfer;
 - (c) for enforcement of rights or liabilities (whether transferred or created by the order);
 - (d) about the transfer of rights and liabilities in relation to employment (including provision for deemed continuity);
 - (e) about pension schemes (including provision for amending schemes, winding them up, transferring their administration, and saving rights existing before a transfer takes effect);
 - (f) terminating appointments;
 - (g) for compensation for loss of employment (or office).
- (3) A closure order may include provision—
- (a) extinguishing liabilities to the Secretary of State;
 - (b) about the winding up of the harbour authority's affairs;

Status: Point in time view as at 01/04/2017.

Changes to legislation: Harbours Act 1964 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 24 June 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (c) about the winding up of any company wholly owned by the harbour authority;
 - (d) about the dissolution of the harbour authority.
- (4) A provision of a closure order transferring property, rights or liabilities may—
- (a) make the transfer subject to a condition (such as the grant of an interest in favour of a third party), and
 - (b) include provision about the effect of failure to comply with the condition.
- (5) Provision under this section may confer a function on the Secretary of State.

17D Harbour closure orders: procedure

- (1) Part 1 of Schedule 3 has effect in relation to closure orders as in relation to harbour revision orders.
- (2) In relation to closure orders made otherwise than on the application of the harbour authority Part 1 of Schedule 3 has effect with any necessary modifications, in particular—
- (a) ignore paragraphs 3, 5, 6, 7, 9, 13 and 14,
 - (b) treat a reference to the applicant as a reference to the Secretary of State,
 - (c) treat a reference to the application for an order as a reference to the proposal to make an order,
 - (d) treat a reference to being notified of a proposed application as a reference to proposing to make an order, and
 - (e) paragraph 8 applies if the Secretary of State decides that the order would relate to a project which falls within Annex I or II to the Directive and is a relevant project, in which case—
 - (i) the Secretary of State must prepare the environmental statement, having consulted bodies with environmental responsibilities, and
 - (ii) the statement must include the information specified in subparagraph (2) (and may include other information).
- (3) Section 44 applies in relation to closure orders as in relation to harbour revision orders.

17E Harbour closure orders: devolution

- (1) In relation to fishery harbours in Wales—
- (a) the power to make closure orders vests in the Welsh Ministers, and
 - (b) a reference in this group of sections to the Secretary of State is to be treated as a reference to the Welsh Ministers.
- (2) In relation to harbours in Scotland—
- (a) the power to make closure orders vests in the Scottish Ministers,
 - (b) a reference in this group of sections to the Secretary of State is to be treated as a reference to the Scottish Ministers, and
 - (c) the reference in section 17D(1) to Schedule 3 is a reference to that Schedule as it has effect in relation to Scotland.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/04/2017.

Changes to legislation: Harbours Act 1964 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 24 June 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. 17F Supplemental

- (1) A closure order may include incidental, consequential, transitional or saving provisions.
- (2) In particular, a closure order—
 - (a) may amend, repeal or revoke an enactment of local application, and
 - (b) may disapply or modify the application of any other enactment.
- (3) A closure order—
 - (a) may make provision generally or only for specified purposes, and
 - (b) may make different provision for different purposes.]

Harbour Reorganisation Schemes

18 Harbour reorganisation schemes.

- (1) With a view to securing the efficient and economical development of a group of harbours each of which is being improved, maintained or managed by a harbour authority in the exercise and performance of statutory powers and duties, a scheme (in this Act referred to as a “harbour reorganisation scheme”) with respect to the group, providing for all or any of the matters mentioned in subsection (2) below, may be submitted to the Minister . . . ^{F54} by all or any of the authorities who between them are engaged, in the exercise and performance of statutory powers and duties, in improving, maintaining or managing the several harbours comprised in the group (hereafter in this section referred to as “the relevant authorities”).

[^{F55}(1A) If the Secretary of State is of opinion that, with a view to securing the efficient and economical development of any such group of harbours as is mentioned in subsection (1) of this section, a harbour reorganisation scheme ought to be made providing for all or any of the matters for which provision may be made by such a scheme, he may by order make a harbour reorganisation scheme providing for those matters.]

- (2) The said matters are the following, that is to say,—
 - (a) transferring powers or duties conferred or imposed by a statutory provision of local application on any of the relevant authorities for the purpose of, or in connection with, the improvement, maintenance or management of a harbour comprised in the group to another of those authorities or to a body constituted by the scheme;
 - (b) transferring interests of any of the relevant authorities in fixed or movable property used by them for the purposes of the harbour in question and rights or liabilities enjoyed or incurred by them for those purposes to another of those authorities or to such a body as aforesaid;
 - (c) transferring powers or duties conferred or imposed by a statutory provision of local application on any of the relevant authorities (other than powers or duties falling within paragraph (a) above), or powers or duties so conferred or imposed in relation to a harbour comprised in the group on a local lighthouse authority who are not one of the relevant authorities, to another person (whether one of those authorities or not) or to such a body as aforesaid;
 - (d) transferring interests of any of the relevant authorities or of a local lighthouse authority in fixed or movable property used by them for the purposes

Status: Point in time view as at 01/04/2017.

Changes to legislation: Harbours Act 1964 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 24 June 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. - of, or in connection with, the exercise or performance of any powers or duties transferred by a provision of the scheme having effect by virtue of paragraph (c) above to the person to whom the powers or duties are transferred, and transferring to that person rights or liabilities enjoyed or incurred by the authority from whom the powers or duties are transferred in, or in connection with, the exercise or performance of the transferred powers or duties;
- (e) transferring to any of the relevant authorities or to a body constituted by the scheme interests of a person in fixed or movable property used by him for carrying out harbour operations at a harbour that is comprised in the group or is adjacent to any of the harbours so comprised, not being a person engaged in improving, maintaining or managing that harbour in the exercise and performance of statutory powers and duties;
- (f) transferring to the service of a person or body to whom any powers, duties, interests, rights or liabilities are transferred by a provision of the scheme having effect by virtue of any of the foregoing paragraphs officers or servants employed by the person from whom the powers, duties, interests, rights or liabilities are transferred;
- (g) dissolving any body of constables maintained by any of the relevant authorities, and transferring—
- (i) the members of that body to another such body or bodies (whether or not maintained by another or other of those authorities or by a body constituted by the scheme);
 - (ii) property, rights or liabilities vested for the purposes of the dissolved body in the authority by whom it was maintained to an authority by whom is or is to be maintained a body of constables to which any of the members of the dissolved body are transferred;
- (h) preserving (with or without adjustment) [^{F56}or otherwise securing] the rights, as respects pensions, gratuities or other like benefits, of persons transferred by the scheme and their spouses [^{F57}, civil partners] and dependents and of persons who are determined in accordance with the scheme to be such as would have been transferred thereby had they been serving when it comes into operation and their spouses [^{F57}, civil partners] and dependents;
- (i) making such provision as appears to the Minister necessary of expedient for rendering of full effect any provision of the scheme having effect by virtue of any of the foregoing paragraphs and such other [^{F58}supplementary, consequential or incidental] provision as appears to him necessary or expedient for any of the purposes of the scheme, including, but without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing words, provision for repealing or amending any statutory provision of local application affecting the group or any of the harbours comprised therein.
- (3) Where a harbour reorganisation scheme provides for transferring interests in land, there must, in the case of each parcel of land interests in which are proposed to be transferred, be annexed to the scheme a [^{F59}map of a scale not less than 1:2500] on which the boundaries of that parcel are plainly delineated.
- [^{F60}(4) The provisions of Schedule 4 to this Act shall have effect as follows with respect to the procedure for confirming and making harbour reorganisation schemes—
- (a) Part I of that Schedule shall have effect with respect to the procedure for confirming schemes submitted to the Secretary of State;

Status: Point in time view as at 01/04/2017.

Changes to legislation: Harbours Act 1964 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 24 June 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (b) Part 1 of that Schedule shall, subject to the modifications specified in Part II thereof, have effect with respect to the procedure for the making of schemes by the Secretary of State of his own motion;
[^{F61}and a harbour reorganisation scheme as confirmed or made by the Secretary of State shall be subject to special parliamentary procedure].]
- (5) The Minister shall not confirm [^{F62}or make] a harbour reorganisation scheme containing such provision as is authorised by subsection (2)(e) above unless it also includes provision for the payment of compensation in respect of the transfer of the interests in question.
- (6) The Minister shall not confirm [^{F62}or make] a harbour reorganisation scheme if any harbour comprised in the group to which the scheme relates is a fishery harbour or marine work.
- (7) If at any time it appears to the Minister that any such provision of a harbour reorganisation scheme having effect by virtue of subsection (2)(h) above as adjusts the rights of a person operates or is likely to operate so as to put that person in a worse position than he would have been in had the provision not been included in the scheme, he may by order amend the scheme in such manner as appears to him to secure that that person is or will be in no such worse position.

Compensation for Loss of Office, &c.

19 Compensation for loss of office, &c., in consequence of orders and schemes under foregoing provisions.

- (1) The Minister shall by regulations make provision requiring such person or body, being a person or body subject to any of the provisions of a harbour reorganisation scheme,

Status: Point in time view as at 01/04/2017.

Changes to legislation: Harbours Act 1964 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 24 June 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details) as may be determined by or under the regulations to pay, subject to such exceptions or conditions as may be prescribed by the regulations, compensation to, or in respect of, persons who are or, but for any national service of theirs would be, the holders of any such situation, place or employment as may be so prescribed and suffer loss of employment or loss or diminution of emoluments or pension rights in consequence of any of the provisions of the scheme.

- (2) Where it is proposed to make a harbour revision order or a harbour empowerment order, the Minister of the Crown by whom the order is to be made shall consider whether any person, who is, or but for any national service of his would be, holder of any situation, place or employment with a person or body subject to any of the provisions of the order, might if the order were made, suffer any loss of employment or loss or diminution of emoluments or pension rights in consequence of any of the provisions of the order; and if it appears to that Minister that such a person who is or would be the holder of such a situation, place or employment might suffer any such loss or diminution in consequence as aforesaid and that, if he does, compensation should be paid in respect thereof, that Minister shall not make the order unless he is satisfied that it secures that there will be paid to or in respect of that person, if he suffers any such loss or diminution in consequence as aforesaid, compensation corresponding, as near as may be, to that payable by virtue of regulations made under subsection (1) of this section to or in respect of the holder in similar circumstances of a similar situation, place or employment, in respect of similar loss or diminution suffered in consequence of any of the provisions of a harbour reorganisation scheme.
- (3) Different regulations may be made under subsection (1) of this section in relation to different classes of persons, and any such regulations may be so framed as to have effect from a date earlier than that on which they are made, so however that so much of any regulations as provides that any provision thereof is to have effect from a date earlier than that on which they are made shall not place any person other than a harbour authority in a worse position than he would have been in if the regulations had been so framed as to have effect only as from the date on which they are made.
- (4) Regulations made under subsection (1) of this section may include provision as to the manner in which, and the person to whom, any claim to compensation is to be made, and for the determination of all questions arising under the regulations.
- (5) In this section “national service” means any such service in any of Her Majesty’s forces or other employment (whether or not in the service of Her Majesty) as may be prescribed by regulations under subsection (1) of this section.

Harbour Charges

26 Repeal of provisions limiting discretion of certain harbour authorities as to ship, passenger and goods dues charged by them.

- (1) Subject to the following provisions of this Act, any statutory provision made with respect to a particular harbour authority shall cease to have effect in so far as (otherwise than by way of expressly providing for freedom from dues or in any other manner prohibiting the levying of a due) it limits the discretion of the authority as to the ship, passenger and goods dues chargeable by them at a harbour which, in the exercise and performance of statutory powers and duties, they are engaged in improving, maintaining or managing (whether by specifying, or providing for specifying, the dues to be levied, or fixing or providing for fixing, dues, or otherwise).
- (2) Subject to the following provisions of this Act and to any such statutory provision made with respect to them in particular as expressly provides for freedom from dues or in any other manner prohibits the levying of a due, a harbour authority shall have power to demand, take and recover such ship, passenger and goods dues as they think fit at such a harbour as aforesaid.
- (3) Any such provision of the ^{M7}Harbours, Docks and Piers Clauses Act 1847 as incorporated in a statutory provision made with respect to a harbour authority as refers to rates shall, with any necessary modifications, apply to charges imposed by virtue of this section by that authority as if they were rates payable under a statutory provision made with respect to them, and any such enactment of a statutory provision made with respect to a harbour authority as refers (in whatever terms) to charges payable to them under a statutory provision made with respect to them or to charges so payable of a specified class shall (in so far as it does not cease to have effect by virtue of subsection (1) of this section) apply with any necessary modifications to charges imposed by that authority by virtue of this section or, as the case may be, to charges so imposed of that class as if they were charges so payable or, as the case may be, charges so payable of that class.
- (4) Any ship, passenger and goods dues in force immediately before this section comes into operation which are exigible by a harbour authority at a harbour which, in the exercise and performance of statutory powers and duties, they are engaged in improving, maintaining or managing, being dues imposed or deemed to have been imposed by or by virtue of a statutory provision made with respect to the authority, shall be deemed to have been imposed by virtue of this section.
- (5) In this section “harbour authority” does not include—
 - (a) any of the Boards [^{F64}or Canal & River Trust];
 - (b) a person carrying on an inland waterway undertaking to which provisions of section 43 of the ^{M8}Transport Act 1962 apply by virtue of section 52(2) of that Act;
 - (c) a person carrying on an undertaking all or any of the charges of which are, under the statutory provisions relating to the undertaking, subject to revision by the Minister and some other Minister acting together;

27 Certain charges of certain harbour authorities to be reasonable.

- (1) In place of any limitation imposed, by a statutory provision made with respect to them in particular, on the discretion of a harbour authority as to charges (of any kind other than excepted charges) that may be made by them at a harbour which, in the exercise and performance of statutory powers and duties, they are engaged in improving, maintaining or managing (not being a limitation by way of expressly providing for freedom from charges or in any other manner prohibiting the making of a charge or by way of providing, by what form of words soever, that the charges shall be such as may be reasonable), there shall, by virtue of this subsection, be imposed the limitation that the charges shall be such as may be reasonable.
- (2) For the purposes of the foregoing subsection the following shall be excepted charges, namely,—
 - (a) ship, passenger and goods dues;
 - (b) charges ascribable to the running of a ferry service in or from a harbour;
 - (c) contributions which, by virtue of a provision included in an order [^{F65}section 28 of the ^{M10}Salmon and Freshwater Fisheries Act 1975 by virtue of paragraph 1(a) of Schedule 3 to that Act][^{F66}under section 142 of the Water Resources Act 1991], fall to be assessed on several fisheries or the owners or occupiers thereof;
 - (d) duties on licences granted under [^{F67}section 25 of the said Act of 1975] to fish;
 - (e) charges in respect of licences under [^{F68}the ^{M11}Water Resources Act 1963][^{F68}Chapter II of Part II of the Water Resources Act 1991] to abstract water or in respect of water authorised by such licences to be abstracted.
- (3) In this section “harbour authority” has the same meaning as in the last foregoing section.

charge is imposed are to the amount where no composition agreement applies and no specially agreed rebate is allowed].

- (2) Subject to subsections (10) to (12) below . . . ^{F89} the provisions of subsections (3) to (6) below shall have effect where written objection to a charge to which this section applies imposed by a harbour authority at a harbour which, in the exercise and performance of statutory powers and duties, they are engaged in improving, maintaining or managing, is lodged with [^{F90}the Secretary of State] by—
- (a) a person appearing to [^{F90}him] to have a substantial interest; or
 - (b) a body representative of persons so appearing;
- and the objection is expressed to be made on all or any of the following grounds, namely,—
- (i) that the charge ought not to be imposed at all;
 - (ii) that the charge ought to be imposed at a rate lower than that at which it is imposed;
 - (iii) that, according to the circumstances of the case, ships, passengers or goods of a class specified in the objection ought to be excluded from the scope of the charge either generally or in circumstances so specified;
 - (iv) that, according to the circumstances of the case, the charge ought to be imposed, either generally or in circumstances specified in the objection, on ships, passengers or goods of a class so specified at a rate lower than that at which it is imposed on others.
- (3) [^{F90}The Secretary of State] shall, forthwith after the objection is lodged, send a copy thereof to the authority and shall give notice to the objector that, as a condition precedent to the taking by [^{F90}the Secretary of State] of further steps in the matter of the objection, he must publish in specified newspapers a notice (which, if a form therefor is specified, must be in that form)—
- (a) stating that he has lodged with [^{F90}him] an objection to the charge (and specifying the ground or grounds on which it is expressed to be made); and
 - (b) stating that any such person or body as the following who desires to make to [^{F90}the Secretary of State] representations in the matter, that is to say, a person having a substantial interest and a body representative of persons who have such an interest, should do so in writing within the time specified in the notice (which shall not be less than forty-two days from the publication or first publication thereof).
- (4) Where the proper notice concerning the objection has been duly published, then so soon as practicable after the expiration of the time therein specified (but subject to the next following subsection), [^{F90}the Secretary of State] shall, unless the objection has been withdrawn before the expiration of that time and no written representations in the matter have been made to [^{F90}him] by any such person or body as is mentioned in subsection (3)(b) above before the expiration of that time, proceed to consideration of the charge and any representations made and, unless [^{F90}he is] satisfied that [^{F90}he] can properly proceed to a decision in the matter without causing an inquiry to be held with respect to it, shall cause an inquiry to be so held.
- (5) Where written representations are made as mentioned in subsection (4) above, [^{F90}the Secretary of State] shall send copies thereof to the authority and (except where the objection has been withdrawn) to the objector, and shall not proceed to consideration of the charge until such period for consideration of, and comment upon, the representations by the authority and by the objector (if the objection has not been withdrawn) as [^{F90}the Secretary of State thinks] reasonable has elapsed.

- (6) [F90the Secretary of State], after effect has been given to subsection (4) above, shall either—
- (a) approve the charge but set a limit (not being later than the expiration of twelve months from the date on which [F90he approves it] to the period during which the approval is to be of effect, and give to the authority written notice that [F90he has approved it], stating the limit set; or
 - (b) give to the authority such direction with respect to the charge as would meet objection thereto made on any of the grounds specified in subsection (2) above (whether that is or is not the ground, or is or is not included amongst the grounds, on which the objection whose lodging gives rise to the proceedings is expressed to be made).
- (7) A direction given under the last foregoing subsection to an authority must be in writing and must specify a date for its coming into operation and the period from that date (which shall not exceed twelve months) during which it is to have effect, and the authority shall comply with it.
- (8) If a harbour authority fail to comply with an obligation to which they are subject by virtue of the last foregoing subsection, they shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable, on summary conviction, to a fine not exceeding [F91level 4 on the standard scale].
- (9) Forthwith after complying on any occasion with subsection (6) above, [F90the Secretary of State] shall publish, in the newspapers in which was published notice of the lodging of the objection the lodging whereof gave rise to the proceedings that resulted in the compliance on that occasion, the notice or direction given by [F90him] to the harbour authority concerned.
- (10) Where, by virtue of this section, a charge imposed at a harbour is approved, subsections (3) to (6) above shall not have effect by virtue of the lodging of a further objection thereto during the period during which the approval is of effect; and where, by virtue of this section, a direction is given with respect to a charge so imposed, the said subsections shall not have effect by virtue of the lodging of a further objection to that charge during the period during which the direction has effect or of the lodging, during that period, of an objection to a charge that has come into existence by virtue of the direction.
- (11) Where effect to subsections (3) to (5) above is in course of being given in consequence of the lodging with [F90the Secretary of State] of an objection to a charge and a further objection to that charge is lodged with [F90the Secretary of State] subsections (3) to (6) above shall not have effect by virtue of the lodging of that further objection.
- (12) If it appears to [F90the Secretary of State] that [F92the Sea Fish Industry Authority] are, or may be, concerned with a charge, [F90the Secretary of State] shall not give effect to subsection (6) above in relation to that charge without having consulted [F92the Authority].
- (13) In relation to charges to which this section applies imposed by a harbour authority at a fishery harbour which, in the exercise and performance of statutory powers and duties, they are engaged in improving, maintaining or managing, the foregoing provisions of this section shall have effect with the substitution, for references to [F90the Secretary of State], of references to the Minister of Agriculture, Fisheries and Food, . . .^{F89}

40A Directions

- (1) A designated harbour authority may give directions (“harbour directions”) in respect of ships—
 - (a) within their harbour, or
 - (b) entering or leaving their harbour.
- (2) A harbour direction may relate to—
 - (a) the movement of ships;
 - (b) mooring or unmooring;
 - (c) equipment (including nature and use);
 - (d) the manning of ships.
- (3) A harbour direction may require the master of a ship to provide information to a specified person in a specified manner.
- (4) “Designated harbour authority” means—
 - (a) a harbour authority for a fishery harbour in Wales who are designated by order of the Welsh Ministers,
 - (b) a harbour authority for any other harbour in England or Wales who are designated by order of the Secretary of State, and
 - (c) a harbour authority for a harbour in Scotland who are designated by order of the Scottish Ministers.
- (5) A harbour direction is subject to any direction under section 52 of the Harbours, Docks and Piers Clauses Act 1847 (directions by harbour master).
- (6) A harbour authority may not give a harbour direction which conflicts with an enactment.
- (7) An order designating a harbour authority may amend or repeal any statutory provision of local application which the person making the order thinks is—
 - (a) inconsistent with the power to give harbour directions, or
 - (b) unnecessary as a result of the power.

40B Procedure

- (1) Harbour directions must be in writing.
- (2) Before giving harbour directions a harbour authority must consult such representatives of users of the harbour as the authority think appropriate.
- (3) A harbour authority must make such arrangements as they think appropriate for publicising a proposed harbour direction for at least 28 days before it is given.
- (4) A harbour authority must—

42A Power to make orders delegating functions

- (1) The relevant authority may by order provide for such of the delegable functions as are designated in the order to be exercisable by such person as is designated in the order.
- (2) An authority may make an order under subsection (1) only with the consent of the person designated in it (“the delegate”).
- (3) The delegate—

- (a) must comply with the order, and
 - (b) is to be taken to have all the powers necessary to do so.
- (4) For so long as an order under subsection (1) remains in force, the functions designated in the order—
- (a) are exercisable by the delegate acting on behalf of the authority, and
 - (b) are not exercisable by the authority.
- This subsection is subject to subsections (5) and (6).
- (5) The delegate must obtain the consent of the relevant authority before exercising any function under—
- (a) section 15;
 - (b) section 15A;
 - (c) section 18.
- (6) Subsection (4)(b) does not apply to any function under—
- (a) section 15;
 - (b) section 15A;
 - (c) section 18.
- (7) If a function is, by virtue of an order under subsection (1), exercisable by a person, any reference in this Act to the relevant authority is to be read, so far as relating to that function or the exercise of it, as a reference to that person.
- (8) An order under subsection (1) may make different provision for different cases, different areas or different persons.
- (9) The delegable functions are functions under the following sections—
- (a) section 14 (making harbour revision orders, except as mentioned in paragraph (b) below);
 - (b) section 15 (making harbour revision orders for limited purposes for securing harbour efficiency);
 - (c) section 15A (making orders varying powers of appointment in the constitutions of harbour authorities);
 - (d) section 16 (making harbour empowerment orders);
 - (e) section 18 (confirming or making harbour reorganisation schemes);
 - (f) section 60 (making orders amending Acts of local application).
- (10) In this section “the relevant authority”, in relation to any delegable function, means the authority by whom (apart from any order under subsection (1)) the function is exercisable.

42B Directions as to performance of delegated functions

- (1) This section applies where any functions are exercisable by or in relation to a person by virtue of an order made under section 42A by a relevant authority.
- (2) The authority may from time to time give directions to the person with respect to the performance of the functions.
- (3) A person to whom directions are given under this section must comply with the directions.

[^{F125} 42C Consent of Welsh Ministers required for certain orders and schemes

- (1) This section applies to any harbour revision order or harbour empowerment order which makes provision excluding, modifying or repealing—
 - (a) any provision of the Marine and Coastal Access Act 2009 in so far as it applies to Wales;
 - (b) any instrument made under that Act by the Welsh Ministers;
 - (c) any statutory provision of local application made by the Welsh Ministers.
- (2) This section also applies to any harbour reorganisation scheme which makes provision repealing or amending any statutory provision of local application made by the Welsh Ministers.
- (3) The Secretary of State must notify the Welsh Ministers of any intention to make an order or scheme to which this section applies.
- (4) The order or scheme must not include any provision falling within subsection (1) or, as the case may be, (2) if, within the prescribed period beginning with the date of the notification under subsection (3), the Welsh Ministers refuse their consent to the inclusion of that provision in the order or scheme.

[^{F130}44 Limitation of right to challenge harbour revision orders, &c., in legal proceedings.

- (1) A person who desires to question any such order as follows, namely, a harbour revision or empowerment order [^{F131}(not being one confirmed by Act of Parliament under section [^{F132}4 or] 6 of the ^{M17}Statutory Orders (Special Procedure) Act 1945, or under section 2(4), as read with section 10, of that Act)] [^{F133}or an order under section 15A of this Act,] on the ground that there was no power to make the order or that a requirement of this Act was not complied with in relation to the order, . . . ^{F134} may, within six weeks from the date on which the order becomes operative . . . ^{F134} make an application for the purpose to the High Court or the Court of Session, as the case may be.
 - (1A) On an application under the foregoing subsection . . . ^{F134}, the court—
 - (a) may, by interim order, suspend the operation of the order or of any provision thereof, either generally or so far as may be necessary for the protection of the interests of the applicant, until the final determination of the proceedings; and
 - (b) if satisfied that there was no power to make the order or that the interests of the applicant have been substantially prejudiced by a failure to comply with a requirement of this Act so far as regards the inclusion in the order of that provision, may quash the order, or any provision thereof, either generally or so far as may be necessary as aforesaid.
 - (2) ^{F135}
 - (3) Except as provided by this section, a harbour revision or empowerment order [^{F136}, or an order under section 15A of this Act,] shall not, either before or after it is made, be questioned in any legal proceedings whatever, . . . ^{F134}.
 - (4) The foregoing provisions of this section shall apply to a harbour reorganisation scheme confirmed [^{F137}or made] by the Minister as they apply to a harbour revision order, with the substitution [^{F137}, in relation to a harbour reorganisation scheme confirmed by the Secretary of State,] for references to the making of the order and to its being made of references respectively to the confirmation of the scheme and to its being confirmed.
 - (5) In relation to proceedings in Scotland, subsections (1A)(a) . . . ^{F134} of this section shall have effect as if the words “by interim order” were omitted.
- [In relation to any challenge to an order to which subsection (7) below applies, an
- ^{F138}(6) organisation mentioned in the definition of “the public concerned” in Article 1(2) of the Directive is deemed for the purposes of—
 - (a) sub-paragraph (a) of Article 10a of that Directive to have an interest; and
 - (b) sub-paragraph (b) of Article 10a to have rights capable of being impaired.
 - (7) This subsection applies to a harbour revision or empowerment order authorising a project which—
 - (a) falls within Annex I to the Directive; or
 - (b) falls within Annex II to the Directive and is a relevant project.
 - (8) In this section, “the Directive”, “project” and “relevant project” have the meanings assigned by paragraph 1 of Schedule 3 to this Act.]
- [In the case of an order falling within subsection (7), an environmental organisation
- ^{F139}(6) is, in accordance with Article 10a of the Directive, to be deemed to have sufficient interest to make an application under subsection (1).

[^{F176}54A “Developments of national significance” etc.: special procedure

- [^{F177}(1) Subsection (4) below applies to a harbour revision order or harbour empowerment order which falls within subsection (2) below.]
- (2) [^{F178}An order] falls within this subsection if—
 - (a) [^{F179}it] authorises the carrying out of work which would constitute a national development; or
 - (b) [^{F180}it] is the subject of a direction by the Scottish Ministers under this paragraph.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/04/2017.

Changes to legislation: Harbours Act 1964 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 24 June 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

(3) In subsection (2) above and subsection (5) below, references to a “national development” are to any development (within the meaning of the Town and Country Planning (Scotland) Act 1997) for the time being designated under section 3A(4)(b) of that Act as a national development.

[^{F181}(4) The order is subject to the affirmative procedure.]

(5) [^{F182}An order (“the new order”) which revokes, amends or re-enacts an [^{F183}order (“the old order”) which was subject to the affirmative procedure by virtue] of subsection (4) above is subject to the procedure in that subsection only if—

- (a) the [^{F184}new] order authorises the carrying out of work which would constitute a national development (other than a national development to which the [^{F185}old order] relates); or
- (b) the Scottish Ministers so direct.]

Textual Amendments

F218 S. 59 repealed by Northern Ireland Constitution Act 1973 (c. 36, SIF 29:3), Sch. 6 Pt. I

60 Power to amend Acts of local application.

- (1) The appropriate Minister may, subject to the provisions of this section, by order repeal or amend any provision relating to a harbour which is contained in a local Act passed before this Act or in a provisional order confirmed or made before this Act or any provision in the ^{M37}Milford Haven Conservancy Act 1958, where it appears to him that the provision is inconsistent with, or has become unnecessary in consequence of, any provision of this Act.
- (2) The appropriate Minister shall not make an order under this section repealing or amending any provision in a local Act the Bill for which was promoted, or in a provisional order which was applied for, by a harbour authority or by any body who became a harbour authority by virtue of the Act or order or whose functions under the Act or order have become exercisable by a harbour authority, except on the application of that authority.
- (3) Before making an order under this section the appropriate Minister shall consult with any harbour authority who appear to him to be concerned, not being an authority by whom an application for the making of the order was made.
- (4) An order under this section may contain such transitional, supplemental or incidental provisions as appear to the appropriate Minister to be expedient.
- (5) In this section “the appropriate Minister”, except in the case of the repeal or amendment of a provision relating to a fishery harbour or marine work, means the Minister, in the case of the repeal or amendment of a provision relating to a fishery harbour means the Minister of Agriculture, Fisheries and Food, and in the case of the repeal or amendment of a provision relating to a marine work means the Secretary of State.
