

Harbours Act 1964

1964 CHAPTER 40

Miscellaneous and General

43 Provisions with respect to loans made under this Act by the Minister [^{F1}or the Welsh Ministers].

- (1) Any loans which the Minister makes under section . . . ^{F2} 11 of this Act shall be repaid to him at such times and by such methods, and interest thereon shall be paid to him at such rates and at such times, as he may, with the approval of the Treasury, from time to time direct.
- [^{F3}(1A) Any loans which the Welsh Ministers make under section 11 of this Act shall be repaid to them at such times and by such methods, and interest thereon shall be paid to them at such rates and at such times, as they may from time to time direct.]
- (2) The Treasury may issue out of the [^{F4}National Loan Fund] to the Minister such sums as are necessary to enable him to make loans under section . . . ^{F2} 11 of this Act.
- [^{F5}(2A) Such sums as are necessary to enable the Welsh Ministers to make loans under section 11 of this Act may be issued to them out of the Welsh Consolidated Fund.]
- (3) ^{F6}
- (4) Any sums received by the Minister under subsection (1) of this section shall be paid into the [^{F4}National Loan Fund] . . . ^{F7}
- [^{F8}(4A) Any sums received by the Welsh Ministers under subsection (1A) of this section shall be paid into the Welsh Consolidated Fund.]
- (5) The Minister shall, as respects each financial year, prepare in such form and manner as the Treasury may direct an account of sums issued to him under this section and of the sums to be paid into the [^{F4}National Loan Fund] under subsection (4) of this section and of the disposal by him of those sums respectively, and send it to the Comptroller and Auditor General not later than the end of November following the year; and the Comptroller and Auditor General shall examine, certify and report on the account and lay copies of it, together with his report, before each House of Parliament.

48 Service of documents.

(1) Any document required or authorised by this Act to be given to or served on any person may be given or served either by delivering it to that person, or by leaving it at his proper address, or by post by means of the recorded delivery service.

[^{F42}(1A) Any such document may also be given to or served on a person (the “recipient”) by means of an electronic communication but only if—

- (a) the recipient has given a written statement agreeing to accept service of the document by means of an electronic communication,
- (b) the statement has not been withdrawn, and
- (c) the document was transmitted in a specified electronic form to a specified electronic address.

(1B) For the purposes of subsection (1A)(c) “specified” means specified by the recipient in a written statement given for the purposes of paragraph (a) of that subsection.

(1C) A document given or served on a recipient in accordance with subsection (1A) must be in a form sufficiently permanent to be used for subsequent reference.

(1D) Where a document is given to or served on a recipient in accordance with subsection (1A), the document is deemed, unless the contrary is proved, to have been given to or served on the recipient at the time at which the electronic communication is transmitted.

(1E) But if the transmission is made outside the recipient’s normal business hours, the document is to be taken to have been given to or served on the recipient on the next working day.

(1F) A statement under subsection (1A) may be withdrawn by giving a written notice to the person to whom the statement was made.

(1G) A withdrawal under subsection (1F) takes effect on the later of—

- (a) the date specified by the person in the notice, and
- (b) the date which is fourteen days after the date on which the notice is given.]

[^{F43}(2) Any document required or authorised to be given to or served on a body corporate may be given to or served on the secretary or clerk of that body.]

(3) For the purposes of this section and of [^{F44}section 7 of the ^{M6}Interpretation Act 1978] in its application to this section, the proper address of any person to or on whom any such document as aforesaid is to be given or served shall, in the case of the secretary or clerk of a corporation, be that of the registered or principal office of the corporation, and in any other case be the last-known address of the person to be served, subject, however, to this qualification, that, where the person to or on whom the document is to be given or served has, in accordance with arrangements agreed, furnished an address for the giving or service of the document, being an address in the United Kingdom, his proper address for the purposes aforesaid shall be the address furnished.

- (4) If the name or the address of any owner, lessee or occupier of land to or on whom any such document as aforesaid is to be given or served cannot after reasonable inquiry be ascertained by the authority, body or person seeking to give or serve the document, the document may be given or served by addressing it to the person to or on whom it is to be given or served by the description of “owner”, “lessee” or “occupier” of the land (describing it) to which the document relates, and by delivering it to some responsible person resident or appearing to be resident on the premises, or, if there is no such person to whom it can be delivered, by affixing it, or a copy of it, to some conspicuous part of the premises.

[^{F45}(5) Subsections (1) to (4) do not apply in relation to a document if—

- (a) it is required or authorised by Schedule 3 to be given to or served on a relevant authority, and
- (b) the authority, in exercise of a power in Schedule 3, has specified the form in which, or means by which, the document is to be given to or served on it.

(6) In this section —

“electronic address” includes any number or address used for the purpose of receiving electronic communications;

“electronic communication” has the meaning given in section 15 of the Electronic Communications Act 2000;

“relevant authority” means—

- (a) the Secretary of State;
- (b) the Welsh Ministers;
- (c) the Scottish Ministers;

“working day” means any day other than—

49 Provisions as to ecclesiastical property.

- (1) Where under this Act a document is required to be served on an owner of land, and the land is ecclesiastical property, a copy of the document shall be served on the [^{F47}Diocesan Board of Finance for the diocese in which the land is situated].
- (2) [^{F48}Where any ecclesiastical property is vested in the incumbent of a benefice which is vacant], it shall be treated for the purposes of an application to the Minister or the Minister of Agriculture, Fisheries and Food for any of the following orders in which provision for the compulsory acquisition of the property is proposed to be included, namely, a harbour revision order, a harbour empowerment order, . . . ^{F49} and of a compulsory acquisition of the property in pursuance of a provision for the compulsory acquisition thereof included in any such order, as being vested in the [^{F47}Diocesan Board of Finance for the diocese in which the land is situated], and (in the case of such an acquisition as aforesaid) any notice to treat shall be served accordingly.
- (3) Where provision for the compulsory acquisition of land is included in such an order as aforesaid, the order must be so framed as to secure—
 - (a) that if, at the time of the acquisition of any land in pursuance of that provision, the land is ecclesiastical property, any sum agreed upon or awarded for the acquisition of the fee simple of the land shall be paid to the [^{F47}Diocesan Board of Finance for the diocese in which the land is situated]; and
 - (b) that any sum to be paid by way of compensation for damage sustained by reason of severance or injury affecting land that is ecclesiastical property (being severance or injury arising from the acquisition of land in pursuance of that provision) shall be so paid.
- (4) Any sum which, in pursuance of a provision included in an order in compliance with the last foregoing subsection, is paid to the [^{F47}Diocesan Board of Finance for the diocese in which the land is situated] with reference to any land shall, if the land is not consecrated, be applied by [^{F50}it] for the purposes for which the proceeds of a sale by agreement of the fee simple of the land would be applicable under any enactment or Measure authorising such a sale or disposing of the proceeds of such a sale, and if
