

Police Act 1964

1964 CHAPTER 48

PART IV

MISCELLANEOUS AND GENERAL

Remedies and complaints against police

50 Information as to manner of dealing with complaints

Every police authority in carrying out their duty with respect to the maintenance of an adequate and efficient police force, and inspectors of constabulary in carrying out their duties with respect to the efficiency of any police force, shall keep themselves informed as to the manner in which complaints from members of the public against members of the force are dealt with by the chief officer of police.
