Commencement Information

- II Act not in force at Royal Assent see s. 78(3); Act wholly in force at 1.1.1966.

Registered societies

1 Societies which may be registered.

- (1) Subject to sections 2(1) and 7(1) of this Act, a society for carrying on any industry, business or trade (including dealings of any description with land), whether wholesale or retail, may be registered under this Act if—
- it is shown to the satisfaction of the^{F1}FCA that one of the conditions specified in subsection (2) of this section is fulfilled; and
 - the society's rules contain provision in respect of the matters mentioned in Schedule 1 to this Act; and
 - the place which under those rules is to be the society's registered office is situated in Great Britain or the Channel Islands.
- (2) The conditions referred to in subsection (1)(a) of this section are—
- that the society is a bona fide co-operative society; or
 - that, in view of the fact that the business of the society is being, or is intended to be, conducted for the benefit of the community, there are special reasons why the society should be registered under this Act rather than as a company under ^{F2}the Companies Acts].
- (3) In this section, the expression “co-operative society” does not include a society which carries on, or intends to carry on, business with the object of making profits mainly for the payment of interest, dividends or bonuses on money invested or deposited with, or lent to, the society or any other person.

Status: Point in time view as at 22/04/2014.

Name and maximum shareholding

5 Name of society.

- (1) No society shall be registered under this Act under a name which in the opinion of the [F13FCA] is undesirable.
- (2) Subject to subsection (5) of this section, [F14the last word in the name of every society registered under this Act shall be “limited” or, if the rules of the society state that its registered office is to be in Wales, either that word or the word “cyfyngedig”].
- (3) A registered society may change its name in the following manner and in that manner only, that is to say—
 - (a) by a resolution for the purpose passed at a general meeting of the society after the giving of such notice as is required by the rules of the society of such a resolution or, if the rules do not make special provision as to notice of such a resolution, after the giving of such notice as is required by the rules of a resolution to amend the rules; and
 - (b) with the approval in writing [F15of the [F13FCA]]
- (4) No change in the name of a registered society shall affect any right or obligation of the society, or of any member thereof, and any pending legal proceedings may be continued by or against the society notwithstanding its new name.
- (5) If [F16the [F13FCA]] is satisfied that the objects of a society applying for registration under this Act or of a registered society are wholly charitable or benevolent, the [F13FCA] may register the society by a name which does not contain the word “limited”[F17or the word “cyfyngedig”] or, as the case may be, permit the society to change its name to one which does not contain [F18either of those words]; but if it subsequently appears to the [F13FCA] that the society, whether in consequence of a change in its rules or otherwise, is not being conducted wholly for charitable or benevolent objects, the [F13FCA] may direct that the word “limited”[F17, or in an appropriate case the word “cyfyngedig”,] be added as the last word in the name of the society and shall notify the society accordingly.
- (6) Every registered society shall cause its registered name to be painted or affixed, and to be kept painted or affixed, in a conspicuous position and in letters easily legible, on the outside of its registered office and every other office or place in which the business of the society is carried on, and shall have that name ^{F19}... mentioned in legible characters—
 - (a) in all notices, advertisements and other official publications of the society;
 - (b) in all business letters of the society;
 - (c) in all bills of exchange, promissory notes, endorsements, cheques, and orders for money or goods, purporting to be signed by or on behalf of the society;
 - (d) in all bills, invoices, receipts, and letters of credit of the society.
 - [F20(e) in all its business correspondence and documentation that takes electronic form;

Operations of registered society

7 Carrying on of banking by societies.

- (1) A society which has any withdrawable share capital—
 - (a) shall not be registered with the object of carrying on, and
 - (b) if a registered society shall not carry on, the business of banking.
- (2) Every registered society which carries on the business of banking shall on the first Monday in February and August in each year make out, and until the next such Monday keep hung up in a conspicuous position in its registered office and in every other office or place of business belonging to the society where the business of banking is carried on, a statement in the form set out in Schedule 2 to this Act or as near thereto as the circumstances admit.
- (3) The taking of deposits of not more than [^{F41}four hundred pounds] in any one payment and not more than [^{F41}four hundred pounds] for any one depositor, payable on not less than two clear days' notice, shall not be treated for the purposes of subsections (1) and (2) of this section as carrying on the business of banking; but no society which takes such deposits shall make any payment of withdrawable capital while any payment due on account of any such deposit is unsatisfied.
- (4) Where, in the case of a society to which section 4 of this Act applies, being a society registered under the Act of 1893 before 27th April 1952—
 - (a) no amendment of the society's registered rules has been registered since that date; and
 - (b) those rules permit the taking of deposits up to, but not in excess of, ten shillings in any one payment and twenty pounds for any one depositor; and
 - (c) the society's committee has since that date by a resolution recorded in writing, whether passed before or after the commencement of this Act, resolved that there shall be substituted for the said limits of ten shillings and twenty pounds specified higher limits not exceeding two pounds and fifty pounds respectively, then, subject to subsection (5) of this section, the society's registered rules shall have effect subject to that resolution.

(5) Where subsection (4) of this section applies to any society, the society's committee shall not have power to vary or revoke any resolution such as is mentioned in paragraph (c) of that subsection; but upon the registration after the commencement of this Act under section 10 thereof of any amendment of the rules of the society—

- (a) the registered rules of the society shall have effect as if any such resolution had not been passed; and
- (b) if not already exercised, the power of the society's committee to pass such a resolution shall determine, so, however, that paragraph (a) of this subsection shall not affect any sums standing deposited with the society immediately before the date of registration of the amendment.

(6) Any registered society which—

- (a) carries on the business of banking in contravention of subsection (1) of this section; or
- (b) fails to comply with subsection (2) of this section; or
- (c) makes any payment of withdrawable capital in contravention of subsection (3) of this section, 7A Capacity of society not limited by its rules .

- (1) The validity of an act done by a registered society shall not be called into question on the ground of lack of capacity by reason of anything in the society's registered rules.
- (2) A member of a registered society may bring proceedings to restrain the doing of an act which but for subsection (1) of this section would be beyond the society's capacity; but no such proceedings shall lie in respect of an act to be done in fulfilment of a legal obligation arising from a previous act of the society.
- (3) It remains the duty of the members of the committee of a registered society to observe any limitations on their powers flowing from the society's registered rules; and action by the members of the committee which but for subsection (1) of this section would be beyond the society's capacity may only be ratified by the society by special resolution.
- (4) A resolution ratifying such action shall not affect any liability incurred by a member of the committee or any other person; relief from any such liability must be agreed to separately by special resolution.
- (5) The operation of this section is restricted by section 7D of this Act (application to charitable societies); and section 7E of this Act (transactions with members of the committee and connected persons in excess of powers) has effect notwithstanding this section.
- (6) In this section "special resolution" means a resolution passed by not less than 75% of such members of the society as (being entitled to do so) vote in person, or by proxy where the society's rules allow proxies, at a general meeting of which not less than 21 days' notice, specifying the intention to propose the resolution, has been duly given according to those rules.
- (7) A copy of every special resolution for the purposes of this section signed by the chairman of the meeting at which the resolution was passed and countersigned by the secretary of the society shall be sent to the [^{F45}FCA] and registered by it; and until that copy is so registered the special resolution shall not take effect.

7B Power of committee to bind society .

- (1) In favour of a person dealing with a registered society in good faith, the power of the committee to bind the society, or authorise others to do so, shall be deemed to be free of any limitation under the society's registered rules.
- (2) For this purpose—
 - (a) a person "deals with" a society if he is a party to any transaction or other act to which the society is a party;
 - (b) a person shall not be regarded as acting in bad faith by reason only of his knowing that an act is beyond the powers of the committee under the society's registered rules; and
 - (c) a person shall be presumed to have acted in good faith unless the contrary is proved.

Status: Point in time view as at 22/04/2014.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Industrial and Provident Societies Act 1965 (repealed). (See end of Document for details)

- (3) The references above to limitations on the powers of the committee under the society's registered rules include limitations deriving—
 - (a) from a resolution of the society in general meeting or a meeting of any class of members; or
 - (b) from any agreement between the members of the society or of any class of members.
- (4) Subsection (1) of this section does not affect any right of a member of the society to bring proceedings to restrain the doing of an act which is beyond the powers of the committee; but no such proceedings shall lie in respect of an act to be done in fulfilment of a legal obligation arising from a previous act of the society.
- (5) Nor does subsection (1) affect any liability incurred by a member of the committee, or any other person, by reason of the committee's exceeding its powers.
- (6) The operation of this section is restricted by section 7D of this Act (application to charitable societies); and section 7E of this Act (transactions with members of the committee and connected persons in excess of powers) has effect notwithstanding this section.

7C No duty to enquire as to capacity of society or authority of committee.

A party to a transaction with a registered society is not bound to enquire as to whether it is permitted by the society's registered rules or as to any limitation on the powers of the committee to bind the society or authorise others to do so.

7D Application of sections 7A and 7B to charitable societies .

- (1) Sections 7A and 7B of this Act (capacity of society not limited by its rules and power of committee to bind society) do not apply to the acts of a registered society which is a charity except in favour of a person who—
 - (a) gives full consideration in money or money's worth in relation to the act in question; and
 - (b) does not know that the act is not permitted by the society's registered rules or, as the case may be, is beyond the powers of the committee,or who does not know at the time the act is done that the society is a charity.
- (2) However, where such a society purports to transfer or grant an interest in property, the fact that the act was not permitted by the society's registered rules or, as the case may be, that the committee in connection with the act exceeded any limitation on its powers under those rules, does not affect the title of a person who subsequently acquires the property or any interest in it for full consideration without actual notice of any such circumstances affecting the validity of the society's act.
- (3) In any proceedings arising out of subsection (1) of this section the burden of proving—
 - (a) that a person knew that an act was not permitted by the society's registered rules or was beyond the powers of the committee, or
 - (b) that a person knew that the society was a charity, lies on the person making that allegation.
- (4) Where a registered society is a charity with its registered office situated in England or Wales, the ratification of an act under section 7A(3) of this Act, or the ratification of a transaction to which section 7E of this Act applies, is ineffective without the prior written consent of the [^{F46}Charity Commission] for England and Wales.

- (5) In this section “charity”—
- (a) in relation to a society whose registered office is situated in England or Wales, has the same meaning [^{F47}as it has under section 1(1) of the Charities Act 2011];
 - (b) in relation to a society whose registered office is situated in Scotland, means a body established for charitable purposes only (that expression having the same meaning as in the Income Tax Acts);
 - (c) in relation to a society whose registered office is situated in one of the Channel Islands, means a society established for charitable purposes only (“charitable purposes” having the meaning given by the law of the Island in question).

7E Transactions with committee members and other persons in excess of powers .

- (1) This section applies where a registered society enters into a transaction to which the parties include—
- (a) a member of the committee of the society, or
 - (b) a person connected with such a member ^{F48}....,
- and the committee of the society, in connection with the transaction, exceeds any limitation on its powers under the society’s registered rules
- (2) The transaction is voidable at the instance of the society.
- (3) Whether or not it is avoided, any such party to the transaction as is mentioned in subsection (1)(a) or (b) of this section, and any member of the committee who authorised the transaction, is liable—
- (a) to account to the society for any gain which he has made directly or indirectly by the transaction; and
 - (b) to indemnify the society for any loss or damage resulting from the transaction.
- (4) Nothing in the above provisions shall be construed as excluding the operation of any other enactment or rule of law by virtue of which the transaction may be called in question or any liability to the society may arise.
- (5) The transaction ceases to be voidable if—
- (a) restitution of any money or other asset which was the subjectmatter of the transaction is no longer possible; or
 - (b) the society is indemnified for any loss or damage resulting from the transaction; or
 - (c) rights acquired bona fide for value and without actual notice of the committee’s exceeding its powers by a person who is not party to the transaction would be affected by the avoidance; or

- (d) the transaction is ratified by the society in general meeting in such a way as the case may require.
- (6) A person other than a member of the committee is not liable under subsection (3) of this section if he shows that at the time the transaction was entered into he did not know that the committee was exceeding its powers.
- (7) This section does not affect the operation of section 7B of this Act in relation to any party to the transaction not within subsection (1)(a) or (b) of this section.
- (8) But where a transaction is voidable by virtue of this section and valid by virtue of that section in favour of such a person, the court may, on the application of that person or of the society, make such order affirming, severing or setting aside the transaction, on such terms, as appear to the court to be just.

Provisions as to rules

9 Acknowledgment of registration of rules.

Without prejudice to section 53(3) of this Act, an acknowledgment of the registration of a society issued under section 2(3) of this Act shall also constitute an acknowledgment, and be conclusive evidence, of the registration under this Act of the rules of that society in force at the date of the society's registration.

10 Amendment of registered rules.

- (1) Subject to subsection (2) of this section, any amendment of a society's rules as for the time being registered under this Act shall not be valid until the amendment has been so registered, for which purpose there shall be sent to the [^{F52}FCA] two copies of the amendment signed—
- in the case of a society for the time being consisting solely of registered societies, by the secretary of the society and by ^{F53} . . . the secretary of each [^{F54} (or, if more than two, of each of any two)] of the constituent societies;
 - in any other case, by three members and the secretary of the society.
- (2) The foregoing subsection shall not apply to a change in the situation of a society's registered office or in the name of a society; but—
- notice of any change in the situation of a society's registered office shall be sent to the [^{F52}FCA]; and
 - where such a notice is duly sent, or where a change in the name of a registered society is made in accordance with section 5(3) of this Act, the change in the situation of the society's registered office or, as the case may be, the change in the society's name shall be registered by the [^{F52}FCA] as an amendment of the society's rules.
- (3) the [^{F52}FCA], on being satisfied that any amendment of a society's rules is not contrary to the provisions of this Act, shall issue to the society in respect of that amendment an acknowledgment of registration [^{F55} bearing the [^{F56}FCA's] seal] that the rules provide, or would as amended provide, for the making of such advances without security.

13 Supplementary provisions as to rules.

- (1) The rules of a registered society or any schedule thereto may specify the form of any instrument necessary for carrying the purposes of the society into effect.
- (2) The rules of a registered society may impose reasonable fines on persons who contravene or fail to comply with any of those rules.
- (3) Any fine imposed by the rules of a registered society shall be recoverable on the summary conviction of the offender.
- (4) Any provision of, or of any instrument made under, this or any other Act requiring or authorising the rules of a registered society to deal with particular matters shall be without prejudice to the power of such a society to make rules with respect to any other matter which are not inconsistent with any such provision or with any other provision of this or any other Act and which are not otherwise unlawful.

14 Rules to bind members.

- (1) Subject to subsections (2) and (3) of this section, the registered rules of a registered society shall bind the society and all members thereof and all persons claiming through them respectively to the same extent as if each member had subscribed his name and affixed his seal thereto and there were contained in those rules a covenant on the part of each member and any person claiming through him to conform thereto subject to the provisions of this Act.
- (2) A member of a registered society shall not, without his consent in writing having been first obtained, be bound by any amendment of the society's rules registered after he became a member, being an amendment registered after 27th March 1928, if and so far as that amendment requires him to take or subscribe for more shares than the number held by him at the date of registration of the amendment, or to pay upon the shares so held any sum exceeding the amount unpaid upon them at that date, or in any other way increases the liability of that member to contribute to the share or loan capital of the society.
- (3) In the case of a society to which section 4 of this Act applies which was a registered society under the Act of 1893 on 1st January 1894, the society or the members thereof may respectively exercise any power given by this Act and not made to depend on the provisions of the society's rules notwithstanding anything in any of those rules registered before 12th September 1893.
- (4) In its application to Scotland, subsection (1) of this section shall have effect as if the words "and affixed his seal" were omitted.

15 Provision of copies of rules.

- [^{F60}(1) A registered society shall, on demand, give a copy of its registered rules—
- (a) free of charge, to any member of the society to whom a copy of those rules has not previously been given; and
 - (b) to any other person, upon payment of such fee as the society may require, not exceeding the specified amount.]

[^{F61}(1A) In subsection (1) of this section “specified amount” means £5 or such other amount as the Treasury may specify by order.

(1B) The power to make an order under this section shall be exercisable by statutory instrument, which shall be subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.]

(2) If any person, with intent to mislead or defraud, gives to any other person—

- (a) a copy of any rules other than rules for the time being registered under this Act on the pretence that they are the existing rules, or that there are no other rules, of a registered society; or
- (b) a copy of the rules of a society which is not registered under this Act on the pretence that they are the rules of a registered society, he shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding [^{F62}level 1 on the standard scale].

Cancellation, suspension or refusal of registration of society or rules

16 Cancellation of registration of society.

(1) ^{F63}Subject to the provisions of this section and sections 18(1)(c) and 59 of this Act, and without prejudice to section 52(4) thereof, the [^{F64}FCA] may, . . ., in writing, cancel the registration of any registered society—

- (a) if at any time it is proved to the [^{F65}FCA’s]satisfaction—
 - (i) that the number of members of the society has been reduced, in the case of a society for the time being consisting solely of registered societies, to less than two or, in any other case, to less than [^{F66}three]; or
 - (ii) that an acknowledgment of registration has been obtained by fraud or mistake; or
 - (iii) that the society has ceased to exist;
- (b) if the [^{F64}FCA] thinks fit, at the request of the society, to be evidenced in such manner as the [^{F64}FCA] shall from time to time direct;
- (c) ^{F67}. . .
 - (i) on proof to the [^{F65}FCA’s] satisfaction that the society exists for an illegal purpose, or has wilfully and after notice from the [^{F64}FCA] violated any of the provisions of this Act or any enactment repealed thereby; or

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Industrial and Provident Societies Act 1965 (repealed). (See end of Document for details)

- (ii) if at any time it appears to the [F64FCA] that neither of the conditions specified in section 1(2) of this Act is fulfilled in the case of that society; or
 - (iii) in the case of a society whose registered rules contain such a provision as is authorised by section 12 of this Act, if it appears to the [F64FCA] that the society no longer consists mainly of such members as are mentioned in that section or that the activities carried on by it do not mainly consist in making advances to its members for such purposes as are so mentioned.
- (2) Subsection (1)(c)(ii) of this section shall not authorise the cancellation of the registration of any society to which section 4 of this Act applies which was registered or deemed to be registered under the Act of 1893 before 26th July 1938 if no invitation to subscribe for or to acquire or offer to acquire securities, or to lend or deposit money, has been made on or after that date by or on behalf of the society.
- [F68(2A) The FCA must consult the PRA before cancelling the registration of a registered society which is a PRA -authorised person.]
- (3) Not less than two months previous notice in writing specifying briefly the ground of the proposed cancellation shall be given by the [F64FCA] to a society before its registration is cancelled otherwise than—
- (a) at its own request; or
 - (b) by virtue of section 52(4) of this Act; or
 - (c) after the lodging with the [F64FCA] of such a certificate as is referred to in section 59 of this Act;
- and if before the expiration of the period of that notice the society duly lodges an appeal under section 18(1)(c) of this Act, then, without prejudice to section 17(2) of this Act, the society's registration shall not be cancelled before the date of the determination or abandonment of the appeal.
- (4) Where the ground specified in any notice under subsection (3) of this section is that referred to in subsection (1)(c)(ii) thereof—
- (a) the [F64FCA] shall consider any representations with respect to the proposed cancellation made to the [F64FCA] by the society within the period of duration of the notice and, if the society so requests, afford it an opportunity of being heard by the [F64FCA] before its registration is cancelled;
 - (b) if it appears to the [F64FCA] at any time after the expiration of one month from the date of the giving of the notice that there have not been taken the steps which by that time could reasonably have been taken for the purpose—
 - (i) of converting the society into, or amalgamating it with, or transferring its engagements to, a company in accordance with section 52 of this Act; or
 - (ii) of dissolving the society under section 55 of this Act, the [F64FCA] may give such directions as [F69:it]thinks fit for securing that the affairs of the society are wound up before cancellation of the registration takes effect.
- [F70(4A) The FCA must consult the PRA before issuing directions under subsection (4) to a registered society which is a PRA -authorised person.]
- (5) Any person who contravenes or fails to comply with any directions given by the [F64FCA] under subsection (4)(b) of this section shall be liable on summary conviction

21 Advances to members.

Without prejudice to any provision included by virtue of section 12 of this Act, the rules of a registered society may provide for advances of money to members—

- (a) on the security of real or personal property or, in Scotland, of heritable or moveable estate; or
- (b) if the society is registered to carry on banking business, in any manner customary in the conduct of such business.

22 Remedy for debts from members.

- (1) All moneys payable to a registered society by a member thereof shall be a debt due from that member to the society and shall be recoverable as such in the county court, or, in Scotland, before the sheriff, within whose jurisdiction the society's registered office is situate or within whose jurisdiction the member resides, at the option of the society.
- (2) A registered society shall have a lien on the shares of any member for any debt due to the society by that member, and may set off any sum credited to the member on those shares in or towards the payment of that debt.

23 Nomination to property in society.

- (1) Subject to subsections (2) and (3) of this section, a member of a registered society may, by a written statement signed by him and delivered at or sent to the society's registered office during his lifetime or made in any book kept at that office, nominate a person or persons to become entitled at his death to the whole, or to such part or respective parts as may be specified in the nomination, of any property in the society (whether in shares, loans or deposits or otherwise) which he may have—

- (b) in any other case, at the time of his death.
- (2) The nomination by a member of a society under the foregoing subsection of a person who is at the date of the nomination an officer or servant of the society shall not be valid unless that person is the [^{F84}spouse, civil partner,] father, mother, child, brother, sister, nephew or niece of the nominator.
- (3) For the purposes of the disposal of any property which is the subject of a nomination under subsection (1) of this section—
- (a) if the nomination was made before 1st January 1914 and at the date of the nomination the amount credited to the nominator in the society's books exceeded one hundred pounds, the nomination shall not be valid;
- (b) if the nomination was made after 31st December 1913 and before 5th August 1954 and at the date of the nominator's death the amount of his property in the society comprised in the nomination exceeds one hundred pounds, the nomination shall be valid to the extent of one hundred pounds but not further or otherwise;
- (c) if the nomination was made after 4th August 1954 and at the date of the nominator's death the amount of his property in the society comprised in the nomination exceeds [^{F85}£1,500], the nomination shall be valid to the extent of [^{F85}£1,500], but not further or otherwise.
- (4) A nomination by a member of a society under subsection (1) of this section may be varied or revoked by a subsequent nomination by him thereunder or by any similar document in the nature of a revocation or variation signed by the nominator and delivered at or sent to the society's registered office during his lifetime, but shall not be revocable or variable by the will of the nominator or by any codicil thereto.
- (5) Every registered society shall keep a book in which the names of all persons nominated under subsection (1) of this section and any revocation or variation of any nomination under that subsection shall be recorded.
- (6) The marriage of a member of a society shall operate as a revocation of any nomination made by him before the marriage and after 31st December 1913; but if any property of that member has been transferred by an officer of the society in pursuance of that nomination in ignorance of a marriage contracted by the nominator subsequent to the date of the nomination, the receipt of the nominee shall be a valid discharge to the society and the society shall be under no liability to any other person claiming the property.
- [^{F86}(7) The formation of a civil partnership by a member of a society revokes any nomination made by him before the formation of the civil partnership; but if any property of that member has been transferred by an officer of the society in pursuance of the nomination in ignorance of a civil partnership formed by the nominator after the date of the nomination—
- (a) the receipt of the nominee shall be a valid discharge to the society, and
- (b) the society shall be under no liability to any other person claiming the property.]

- (3) Where property other than land is held in security by a registered society in Scotland, a receipt in or as nearly as may be in form E in the said Part II shall discharge the security, and vest the property comprised therein in the person or persons entitled thereto at the date of the granting of the receipt without the necessity of any further deed:

Provided that where the original security was intimated to any person that security shall not be discharged nor the property vested as aforesaid until the receipt has been duly intimated to that person.

- (4) The fees payable in respect of the registration of receipts mentioned in this section shall in no case exceed [F101 25p] . . . F102

- (5) In this section—

- (a) the expression “ a receipt ”, in relation to any security, means a receipt, [F103 signed by two members of the committee and countersigned by the secretary of the society or, if the society is in liquidation, signed by the liquidator or liquidators for the time being, described as such], for all moneys advanced by the society on the security of the property comprised in that security;
- (b) the expressions “ conveyance ” and “ deed ” have the meanings respectively assigned to them by the M8 Conveyancing (Scotland) Act 1924.

register kept under section 44(1) of this Act other than those entered under paragraph (b) or (c) thereof.

- (2) A registered society may by its rules (not being rules made earlier than 12th September 1893) authorise, in addition to any inspection in pursuance of the foregoing subsection, the inspection of such of the society's books upon such conditions as may be specified in the rules, but no person who is not an officer of the society or specially authorised by a resolution of the society shall be authorised by the rules to inspect the loan or deposit account of any other person without that other person's written consent.

47 Inspection of books by order of registrar.

- (1) Subject to subsection (2) of this section, the [F134FCA] may, if [F135it] thinks fit, on the application of ten members of a registered society each of whom has been a member of the society for not less than twelve months immediately preceding the date of the application, appoint an accountant or actuary to inspect the books of the society and to report thereon.
- (2) The members making an application under the foregoing subsection shall deposit with the [F134FCA] as security for the costs of the proposed inspection such sum as [F135it] may require; and all expenses of and incidental to the inspection shall be defrayed by the applicants, or out of the funds of the society, or by the members or officers, or former members or officers, of the society, in such proportions as the [F134FCA] may direct.
- (3) A person appointed under this section shall have power to make copies of any books of the society, and to take extracts therefrom, at all reasonable hours at the society's registered office or at any other place where those books are kept.
- (4) the [F134FCA] shall communicate the results of any inspection under this section to the applicants and to the society.

Dissolution of society

[^{F160}55. Dissolution of society

- (1) A registered society may be dissolved—
 - (a) on its being wound up in pursuance of an order or resolution made as is directed in the case of companies registered under the Companies Acts, or
 - [^{F161}(b) in accordance with section 58 of this Act, by an instrument of dissolution—
 - (i) to which not less than three-fourths of the members of the society have given their consent testified by their signatures to the instrument;
 - (ii) in the case of a dormant society which is not a credit union, which has been approved by a special resolution of the society; or
 - (iii) in the case of a credit union, which has been approved by a special resolution of the society and confirmed by the [^{F162}appropriate authority].]
- [^{F163}(1A) In subsection (1)(b) above “special resolution” has the same meaning as in section 50 of this Act.
- (1B) In subsection (1)(b)(ii) above a society is “dormant” if its accounts for the current year of account and the two years of account immediately preceding the current year of account show no accounting transactions other than—
 - [^{F164}(a) fees paid to the FCA ;
 - (aa) fees paid to the PRA ;]
 - (b) payment of dividends; or
 - (c) payment of interest;and it has notified the [^{F165}FCA] that it is dormant.
- (1C) For the purposes of subsection (1)(b)(iii) above the [^{F166}appropriate authority] shall be deemed to have confirmed a special resolution if, within twenty one days of the credit union sending a copy of that special resolution to the [^{F166}appropriate authority], the [^{F166}appropriate authority] has not notified the credit union in writing to the contrary.]
- [^{F167}(1D) A relevant society may also be dissolved under paragraph 84 of Schedule B1 to the 1986 Act as applied in relation to a relevant society by an order made under section 255 of the Enterprise Act 2002.]
- (2) The provisions relating to the winding up of companies registered under the Companies Acts have effect in relation to a registered society as if the society were such a company, subject to the following modifications—
 - (a) any reference to the registrar of companies shall be read as a reference to the [^{F168}FCA] ;
 - (b) any reference to a company registered in Scotland shall be read as a reference to a society registered under this Act whose registered office is situated in Scotland;
 - (c) if the society is wound up in Scotland, the court having jurisdiction is the sheriff court within whose jurisdiction the society’s registered office is situated.
- (3) A copy of any resolution passed for the voluntary winding up of a registered society must be sent by the society to the [^{F169}FCA and, if the registered society is a PRA - authorised person, the PRA] within 15 days after it is passed.

Status: Point in time view as at 22/04/2014.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Industrial and Provident Societies Act 1965 (repealed). (See end of Document for details)

For the purposes of section 62 of this Act (offences by officers etc) as it applies in relation to a failure to comply with this subsection, a liquidator of the society shall be treated as an officer of it.

- (4) A copy of any resolution passed for the voluntary winding up of a registered society must be annexed to every copy of the registered rules of the society issued after the passing of the resolution.
- (5) This section has effect subject to section 59 of this Act (restriction on dissolution or cancellation of registration).]

57 Liability of members in winding up.

Where a registered society is wound up by virtue of [^{F175}section 55(1)(a)] of this Act, the liability of a present or past member of the society to contribute for payment of the debts and liabilities of the society, the expenses of winding up, and the adjustment of the rights of contributories amongst themselves, shall be qualified as follows, that is to say—

- (a) no person who ceased to be a member not less than one year before the beginning of the winding up shall be liable to contribute;
- (b) no person shall be liable to contribute in respect of any debt or liability contracted after he ceased to be a member;
- (c) no person who is not a member shall be liable to contribute unless it appears to the court that the contributions of the existing members are insufficient to satisfy the just demands on the society;
- (d) no contribution shall be required from any person exceeding the amount, if any, unpaid on the shares in respect of which he is liable as a past or present member;
- (e) in the case of a withdrawable share which has been withdrawn, a person shall be taken to have ceased to be a member in respect of that share as from the date of the notice or application for withdrawal.

58 Instrument of dissolution.

- (1) The following provisions of this section shall have effect where a society is to be dissolved by an instrument of dissolution under [^{F176}section 55(1)(b)] of this Act.
- (2) The instrument of dissolution shall set forth—
 - (a) the liabilities and assets of the society in detail;
 - (b) the number of the members and the nature of their respective interests in the society;

Status: Point in time view as at 22/04/2014.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Industrial and Provident Societies Act 1965 (repealed). (See end of Document for details)

- (c) the claims of creditors, if any, and the provision to be made for their payment; and
 - (d) unless stated in the instrument of dissolution to be left to the award of the [F177FCA or the PRA], the intended appropriation or division of the funds and property of the society.
- (3) Alterations in the instrument of dissolution may be made by the consent of not less than three-fourths of the members of the society testified by their signatures to the alteration or, if the instrument was approved by a special resolution of the society, by a further special resolution [F178 or, if the instrument was approved by a special resolution of the society, by a further special resolution.].
- (4) The instrument of dissolution shall be sent to the [F179FCA and, if the society is a PRA-authorized person, the PRA] accompanied by a statutory declaration made by three members and the secretary of the society that all relevant provisions of this Act have been complied with; and any person knowingly making a false or fraudulent declaration in the matter shall be guilty of a misdemeanour or, in Scotland, an offence.
- (5) The instrument of dissolution and any alterations thereto shall be registered in like manner as an amendment of the rules of the society and shall be binding upon all the members of the society, but shall not be so registered until the [F180FCA] has received such a final return from the society as is referred to in section 39(4) of this Act.
- [F181(5A) Subsection (5) of this section does not apply to an instrument which pursuant to section 55(1)(b)(iii) above is not confirmed by the [F182appropriate authority].
- (5B) A copy of every special resolution for the purposes of section 55(1)(b) of this Act or subsection (3) of this section, signed by the chairman of the meeting at which the resolution was confirmed and countersigned by the secretary of the society, shall be sent to the [F183FCA and, if the society is a PRA-authorized person, the PRA] before the end of the period of fourteen days beginning with the day on which the resolution was confirmed.
- (5C) The [F184FCA] shall register any copy of a special resolution sent to it in accordance with subsection (5B) of this section at the same time as it registers the instrument of dissolution and any alterations thereto.]
- (6) the [F185FCA] shall cause notice of the dissolution to be advertised [F186 . . . in the Gazette and in some newspaper circulating in or about the locality in which the society's registered office is situated; and unless—
- (a) within three months from the date of the Gazette in which that advertisement appears a member or other person interested in or having any claim on the funds of the society commences in the county court, or in Scotland before the sheriff, having jurisdiction in that locality proceedings to set aside the dissolution of the society; and
 - (b) that dissolution is set aside accordingly,
- then, subject to subsection (7) of this section, the society shall be legally dissolved from the date of the advertisement and the requisite consents to [F187, or approval of,] the instrument of dissolution shall be deemed to have been duly obtained without proof of the signatures thereto or of the special resolution, as the case may be [F188 or of the special resolution, as the case may be].
- (7) If the certificate referred to in section 59 of this Act has not been lodged with the [F189FCA] by the date of the advertisement referred to in subsection (6) of this section,

Status: Point in time view as at 22/04/2014.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Industrial and Provident Societies Act 1965 (repealed). (See end of Document for details) the society shall be legally dissolved only from the date when that certificate is so lodged or of the special resolution, as the case may be.

(8) Notice of any proceedings to set aside the dissolution of a society shall be sent to the [F190FCA and, if the registered society is a PRA-authorized person, the PRA] by the person taking those proceedings not later than seven days after they are commenced or not later than the expiration of the period of three months referred to subsection (6) of this section, whichever is the earlier; and notice of any order setting the dissolution aside shall be sent by the society to the [F190FCA and, if the registered society is a PRA-authorized person, the PRA] within seven days after the making of the order.

(9) In the application of this section to a society which for the time being consists solely of two registered societies, the reference in subsection (4) thereof to three members shall be construed as a reference to both members.

[F191(10) In this section “special resolution” has the same meaning as in section 50 of this Act.]
