

Industrial and Provident Societies Act 1965

1965 CHAPTER 12

Provisions as to rules

10 Amendment of registered rules

- (1) Subject to subsection (2) of this section, any amendment of a society's rules as for the time being registered under this Act shall not be valid until the amendment has been so registered, for which purpose there shall be sent to the appropriate registrar two copies of the amendment signed—
 - (a) in the case of a society for the time being consisting solely of registered societies, by the secretary of the society and by two members of the committee and the secretary of each (or, if more than three, of each of any three) of the constituent societies ;
 - (b) in any other case, by three members and the secretary of the society.
- (2) The foregoing subsection shall not apply to a change in the situation of a society's registered office or in the name of a society; but—
 - (a) notice of any change in the situation of a society's registered office shall be sent to the appropriate registrar ; and
 - (b) where such a notice is duly sent, or where a change in the name of a registered society is made in accordance with section 5(3) of this Act, the change in the situation of the society's registered office or, as the case may be, the change in the society's name shall be registered by the appropriate registrar as an amendment of the society's rules.
- (3) The appropriate registrar, on being satisfied that any amendment of a society's rules is not contrary to the provisions of this Act, shall issue to the society in respect of that amendment an acknowledgment of registration in the prescribed form which shall be conclusive evidence that it is duly registered.
