

Administration of Justice Act 1965

1965 CHAPTER 2

PART I

FUNDS IN COURT IN ENGLAND AND WALES.

Amendments of Part X of County Courts Act 1959.

10 Provision of money for making good default of Accountant General with respect to funds in county courts.

If the Lord Chancellor, whether on a representation made to him by any person interested or not, certifies that the Accountant General has been guilty of any default with respect to any money or securities in a county court in England or Wales, such sum as the Lord Chancellor certifies to be necessary for making good the default shall be paid out of moneys provided by Parliament or, if and so far as it is not so paid, shall be charged on and issued out of the Consolidated Fund.
