SCHEDULE 3

SUPPLEMENTARY PROVISIONS AS TO DUTIES RELATING TO BETTING AND GAMING.

PART II

DUTIES RELATING TO GAMING

Provision of information, etc.

- 14 Where at or at any time after the passing of this Act any premises are, or are to be, used for such a purpose and in such circumstances that their use for that purpose and in those circumstances on or after 1st October 1966 requires a gaming licence or a gaming machine licence to be in force in respect of those premises, the person so using or proposing so to use those premises shall inform the Commissioners of that use or proposed use of those premises not later than ten days after the date of the passing of this Act or the first day thereafter on which the premises are so used.
- 15 Any person who engages in Great Britain by way of business in importing, manufacturing, selling, hiring or otherwise supplying gaming machines shall—
- (a) keep such records with respect to the gaming machines imported, manufactured, sold, hired or otherwise supplied by him as the Commissioners may direct and preserve those records for such period as the Commissioners may direct on such premises used for the purposes of his business as the Commissioners may approve;
 - (b) permit any officer to enter on any premises used for the purposes of his business, and to inspect any gaming machines on those premises and inspect and take copies of any such records as aforesaid;
- and any such person, and any other person employed in, or having functions in connection with, his business shall, if required so to do by the Commissioners or an officer, produce, at a time and place to be specified by the Commissioners or officer, any such records as aforesaid and give such other information relating to the gaming machines imported, manufactured, sold, hired or otherwise supplied by him as the Commissioners or officer may require.
- 16 Any officer may enter on any premises in respect of which a gaming machine licence is in force, and on any other premises on which he has reason to suspect that gaming by means of gaming machines is carried on, and inspect those premises and any gaming machine thereon and require the production of any gaming machine licence for the time being in force in respect of those premises ; and any person concerned in the management of those premises shall comply or secure compliance with any such requirement and give such other information with respect to the use or keeping of gaming machines on those premises as the officer may require.
