

Law Reform (Miscellaneous Provisions) (Scotland) Act 1966

1966 CHAPTER 19

1 Wages, pensions etc., to be exempt from arrestment on the dependence of an action.

- (1) After the passing of this Act it shall not be competent to arrest on the dependence of an action any earnings or any pension.
- (2) (a) For the purposes of this and of the next following section “earnings” means any sums payable by way of wages or salary (including any fees, bonus, commission, overtime pay or other emoluments payable in addition to wages or salary by the person paying the wages or salary or payable under a contract of service);
(b) in this section “pension” includes—
 - (i) any annuity in respect of past services, whether or not the services were rendered to the person paying the annuity, and any periodical payments by way of compensation for the loss, abolition or relinquishment, or any diminution in the emoluments, of any office or employment;
 - (ii) any pension or allowance payable in respect of disablement or disability.

Textual Amendments

F2 S. 4 repealed by Children Act 1975 \(c. 72\), s. 108(1)(b), Sch. 4 Pt. IV

5 Adopted person to be treated as child of natural parents for the purposes of succession in certain circumstances.

- (1) Notwithstanding section 23(1) of the Succession (Scotland) Act 1964 (adopted person to be treated for the purposes of succession as the child of the adopter), where the adopter of an adopted person has died before 10th September 1964, the adopted person shall be treated for the purposes of succession to the estate of a natural parent, who dies after the commencement of this Act, as the child of that parent.
- (2) In the foregoing subsection, in relation to a person adopted jointly by spouses any reference, however worded, to the death of an adopter shall be construed as a reference to the death of both spouses: and other expressions shall have the same meaning as in Part IV of the ^{M1} Succession (Scotland) Act 1964.

6 Amendment of s. 5 of Trusts (Scotland) Act 1961.

- (1) The periods for which accumulations of income under a settlement or other disposition are permitted by section 5 of the ^{M2} Trusts (Scotland) Act 1961 shall include—
 - (a) a term of twenty-one years from the date of the making of the settlement or other disposition, and
 - (b) the duration of the minority or respective minorities of any person or persons living or in utero at that date, and a direction to accumulate income during a period specified in paragraph (a) or paragraph (b) of this subsection shall not be void, nor shall the accumulation of the income be contrary to the said section 5, solely by reason of the fact that the period begins during the life of the grantor and ends after his death.
- (2) The restrictions imposed by the said section 5 shall apply in relation to a power to accumulate income whether or not there is a duty to exercise that power, and they shall apply whether or not the power to accumulate extends to income produced by the investment of income previously accumulated.
- (3) This section shall apply only in relation to instruments taking effect after the passing of this Act, and in the case of an instrument made in the exercise of a special power of appointment shall apply only where the instrument creating the power takes effect after the passing of this Act.
