

Arbitration (International Investment Disputes) Act 1966

1966 CHAPTER 41

Enforcement of Convention awards

1 Registration of Convention awards.

- (1) This section has effect as respects awards rendered pursuant to the Convention on the settlement of investment disputes between States and nationals of other States which was opened for signature in Washington on 18th March 1965.

That Convention is in this Act called “the Convention”, and its text is set out in the Schedule to this Act.

- (2) A person seeking recognition or enforcement of such an award shall be entitled to have the award registered in the High Court subject to proof of the prescribed matters and to the other provisions of this Act.

- (3)^{F1}

- (4) In addition to the pecuniary obligations imposed by the award, the award shall be registered for the reasonable costs of and incidental to registration.

- (5) If at the date of the application for registration the pecuniary obligations imposed by the award have been partly satisfied, the award shall be registered only in respect of the balance, and accordingly if those obligations have then been wholly satisfied, the award shall not be registered.

- (6) The power to make rules of court under section [F2]99 of the ^{M1}Supreme Court of Judicature (Consolidation) Act 1925][F2]84 of the [F3]Senior Courts Act 1981]] shall include power—

- (a) to prescribe the procedure for applying for registration under this section, and to require an applicant to give prior notice of his intention to other parties,
- (b) to prescribe the matters to be proved on the application and the manner of proof, and in particular to require the applicant to furnish a copy of the award certified pursuant to the Convention,

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Arbitration (International Investment Disputes) Act 1966, Section 1. (See end of Document for details)

- (c) to provide for the service of notice of registration of the award by the applicant on other parties,
- and in this and the next following section “prescribed” means prescribed by rules of court.
- (7) For the purposes of this and the next following section—
- (a) “award” shall include any decision interpreting, revising or annulling an award, being a decision pursuant to the Convention, and any decision as to costs which under the Convention is to form part of the award,
- (b) an award shall be deemed to have been rendered pursuant to the Convention on the date on which certified copies of the award were pursuant to the Convention dispatched to the parties.
- (8) This and the next following section shall bind the Crown (but not so as to make an award enforceable against the Crown in a manner in which a judgment would not be enforceable against the Crown).
