

Wireless Telegraphy Act 1967 (repealed)

1967 CHAPTER 72

PART I

INFORMATION AS TO SALE AND HIRE OF TELEVISION SETS

^{F1}

Textual Amendments

^{F1} S. 1 repealed (16.8.1996) by S.I. 1996/1864, reg. 4(1).

2 Notification and recording of transactions.

- (1) [^{F2}Subject to subsections (1A) and (2) of this section, every television dealer who, after the end of twenty-eight days from the date on which he became such a dealer]—
- (a) sells a television set by retail;
 - (b) lets a television set on hire or hire-purchase; or
 - (c) arranges for a television set to be sold or let as aforesaid to any person by another television dealer, shall, in relation to that sale or letting, give to [^{F3}the [^{F4}Secretary of State]] [^{F3}the BBC] a notification containing the particulars specified in Part I of the Schedule to this Act and make a record of the particulars specified in Part II of that Schedule.

[^{F5}(1A) Subsection (1) of this section shall not apply to a television dealer in whose case the following conditions are satisfied, that is to say —

- (a) that he is such a dealer by reason only that he sells or lets, or holds himself out as willing to sell or let, television sets in pursuance of arrangements made by another television dealer; and
- (b) that all payments of or towards the price or by way of rent in respect of any television set sold or let by him are received or collected on his behalf by the dealer who arranged for the sale or letting to be made.

Status: Point in time view as at 16/08/1996.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Wireless Telegraphy Act 1967 (repealed). (See end of Document for details)

- ^{F5}(1B) A television dealer in whose case the conditions specified in subsection (1A) of this section cease to be satisfied shall be treated for the purposes of subsection (1) of this section as having become a television dealer when those conditions ceased to be satisfied in his case]
- (2) In relation to any sale or letting as respects which [^{F6}subsection (1) of this section] is required to be complied with by the dealer who arranges for the sale or letting to be made, the other dealer concerned—
- (a) shall not be required to comply with that subsection; but
 - (b) shall, unless all payments of or towards the price or by way of rent in respect of the sale or letting are to be received or collected on his behalf by the first-mentioned dealer, make a record of the particulars specified in Part III of the Schedule to this Act.
- (3) Any notification to be given to [^{F3}the [^{F4}Secretary of State]] [^{F3}the BBC] under this section shall be in the prescribed form and shall be given to [^{F7}him][^{F7}them] within twenty-eight days from the date of the sale or letting to which it relates; and any such notification to be given by any dealer shall be given to [^{F3}the [^{F4}Secretary of State]] [^{F3}the BBC] at such address as [^{F7}he][^{F7}they] may have directed by a notice in writing given to that dealer or, if no such notice has been given, at the prescribed address.
- (4) Any record under this section may be made either in the prescribed form or in any other form which enables the matters recorded to be readily ascertained by any person to whom the record is produced for inspection; and any matter required to be recorded by virtue of Part II or III of the Schedule to this Act shall be recorded within the time specified in relation thereto in that Part of the Schedule.
- (5) Any record made under this section by any person shall be kept at a place at which he carries on business and, unless he previously ceases to be a television dealer, shall be preserved by him—
- (a) if it relates to a sale and the price is not payable by instalments, for twelve months from the date of the sale;
 - (b) if it relates to a sale and the price is payable by instalments or to a letting, for twelve months from the date when the last instalment or payment of rent is due.
- (6) The person having charge of any place where records are kept under this section shall at any time during normal business hours, if so required by a person duly authorised in that behalf by [^{F3}the [^{F4}Secretary of State]] [^{F3}the BBC], produce the records for inspection.
- (7) The [^{F4}Secretary of State] may by regulations amend or delete any provision of the Schedule to this Act or add any further provision thereto.

6 Interpretation of Part I.

- (1) In this Part of this Act—

“appointed day” means such day as the [^{F21}Secretary of State] may by order appoint;

[^{F22}“the BBC” means the British Broadcasting Corporation;]

“prescribed” means prescribed by regulations made by the [^{F21}Secretary of State][^{F23}after consultation with the BBC];

“television dealer” means a person who by way of trade or business—

- (a) sells television sets by retail;
- (b) lets such sets on hire or hire-purchase;
- (c) arranges for such sets to be sold or let as aforesaid by another television dealer; or
- (d) holds himself out as willing to engage in any of the foregoing activities;

[^{F24}“television programme” means a programme included in any television broadcasting or other television programme service (within the meaning of Part I of the Broadcasting Act 1990);]

“television set” means any . . . ^{F25} apparatus designed primarily for the purpose of receiving and exhibiting television programmes . . . ^{F25} (whether or not its use for that purpose is dependent on the use of anything else in conjunction therewith) and any assembly comprising such apparatus and other apparatus.

- (2) In this Part of this Act references to sale by retail do not include references to such sales by auction unless the auctioneer is selling as principal; and references to letting on hire or hire-purchase do not include references to letting as aforesaid for the purpose of resale or re-letting.

Status: Point in time view as at 16/08/1996.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Wireless Telegraphy Act 1967 (repealed). (See end of Document for details)

- (3) For the purposes of this Part of this Act a television set is sold or let on hire or hire-purchase when the contract of sale or, as the case may be, the contract of hire or hire-purchase is made.

PART II

MISCELLANEOUS

[^{F267} Restriction on dealings in and custody of certain apparatus.

- (1) This section applies to wireless telegraphy apparatus and to any apparatus designed or adapted for use in connection with wireless telegraphy apparatus.
- (2) Where it appears to the Secretary of State to be expedient to do so for the purpose of preventing or reducing the risk of interference with wireless telegraphy, he may make an order applying restrictions under this section in relation to apparatus to which this section applies of any class or description specified in the order.
- (3) Any of the following actions in relation to any such apparatus is subject to restriction under this section—
- (a) manufacture (whether or not for sale);
 - (b) selling or offering for sale, letting on hire or offering to let on hire, or indicating (whether by display of the apparatus or by any form of advertisement) one's willingness to sell or let on hire;
 - (c) having in one's custody or control; and
 - (d) importation.
- (4) An order under this section shall specify such of the actions subject to restriction under this section as are restricted by the order in the case of apparatus of any class or description specified in the order.
- (5) Any action for the time being restricted by an order under this section in the case of any apparatus is prohibited by this section—
- (a) save with the authority of the Secretary of State and subject to compliance with any terms and conditions attached by the Secretary of State to that authority; or

Status: Point in time view as at 16/08/1996.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Wireless Telegraphy Act 1967 (repealed). (See end of Document for details)

- (b) in the case of action within subsection (3)(c) above, save as mentioned in paragraph (a) above or as otherwise authorised by law apart from this section.
- (6) An authority given by the Secretary of State for the purposes of this section in the case of apparatus of any class or description specified in an order under this section may be limited—
- (a) to such of the actions restricted by the order; and
 - (b) to such subsidiary class or description of apparatus within the class or description specified in the order;
- as may be specified in the authority.
- (7) Any terms or conditions attached by the Secretary of State to any authority under this section for manufacture or importation may relate to a period after, as well as to the time of, or a period before, the manufacture or importation.
- (8) The Secretary of State's authority may be given, and any terms or conditions may be attached to it, either generally by means of a notice in the London Gazette or by an instrument in writing issued to each person authorised to do, in relation to apparatus of any class or description to which an order under this section relates, anything for the time being restricted by the order; and any such notice published in the London Gazette shall also be published in the Edinburgh Gazette and the Belfast Gazette.
- (9) The Secretary of State shall not make any order under this section or give any authority for the purposes of this section or attach any term or condition to any such authority, unless the Secretary of State is satisfied that the order, authority, term or condition in question is compatible with the international obligations of the United Kingdom; and where any statutory instrument containing such an order or any notice or instrument in writing giving such an authority or attaching any term or condition to such an authority contains a statement that the Secretary of State is so satisfied, that statement shall be evidence (and, in Scotland, sufficient evidence) of that fact.
- (10) Where the importation of apparatus of any class or description to which this section applies is for the time being restricted by an order under this section, a person commissioned by the Commissioners of Customs and Excise may require any person having custody or control of any apparatus of that class or description which is being or has been imported to furnish proof that the importation of the apparatus is or was not unlawful by virtue of this section; and if such proof is not furnished to the satisfaction of those Commissioners the apparatus shall be deemed, unless the contrary is proved, to be prohibited goods, and shall be liable to forfeiture under the ^{M2}Customs and Excise Management Act 1979,
- (11) Any person who—
- (a) takes any action within subsection (3)(a) or (b) above in relation to any apparatus in contravention of subsection (5) above; or
 - (b) without reasonable excuse has any apparatus in his custody or control in contravention of that subsection; or
 - (c) contravenes or fails to comply with any terms or conditions attached to any authority given by the Secretary of State for the purposes of this section (whatever the action to which that authority relates);
- shall, without prejudice to any liability to a penalty which he may have incurred under the Act of 1979 mentioned above, be guilty of an offence under the principal Act.
- (12) For the avoidance of doubt, it is hereby declared that in this section “manufacture” includes construction by any method and the assembly of component parts.]
