Miscellaneous provisions as to evidence, procedure and trial

8 Proof of criminal intent.

A court or jury, in determining whether a person has committed an offence,—

- (a) shall not be bound in law to infer that he intended or foresaw a result of his actions by reason only of its being a natural and probable consequence of those actions; but
- (b) shall decide whether he did intend or foresee that result by reference to all the evidence, drawing such inferences from the evidence as appear proper in the circumstances.

9 Proof by written statement.

- (1) In any criminal proceedings, other than committal proceedings, a written statement by any person shall, if such of the conditions mentioned in the next following subsection as are applicable are satisfied, be admissible as evidence to the like extent as oral evidence to the like effect by that person.
- (2) The said conditions are—
 - (a) the statement purports to be signed by the person who made it;
 - (b) the statement contains a declaration by that person to the effect that it is true to the best of his knowledge and belief and that he made the statement knowing that, if it were tendered in evidence, he would be liable to prosecution if he wilfully stated in it anything which he knew to be false or did not believe to be true;

Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (c) before the hearing at which the statement is tendered in evidence, a copy of the statement is served, by or on behalf of the party proposing to tender it, on each of the other parties to the proceedings; and
- (d) none of the other parties or their solicitors, within seven days from the service of the copy of the statement, serves a notice on the party so proposing objecting to the statement being tendered in evidence under this section:

Provided that the conditions mentioned in paragraphs (c) and (d) of this subsection shall not apply if the parties agree before or during the hearing that the statement shall be so tendered.

- (3) The following provisions shall also have effect in relation to any written statement tendered in evidence under this section, that is to say—
 - (a) if the statement is made by a person under the age of twenty-one, it shall give his age;
 - (b) if it is made by a person who cannot read it, it shall be read to him before he signs it and shall be accompanied by a declaration by the person who so read the statement to the effect that it was so read; and
 - (c) if it refers to any other document as an exhibit, the copy served on any other party to the proceedings under paragraph (c) of the last foregoing subsection shall be accompanied by a copy of that document or by such information as may be necessary in order to enable the party on whom it is served to inspect that document or a copy thereof.

[^{F3}(3A) In the case of a statement which indicates in pursuance of subsection (3)(a) of this section that the person making it has not attained the age of fourteen, subsection (2)(b) of this section shall have effect as if the words from “made” onwards there were substituted the words “understands the importance of telling the truth in it”.]

- (4) Notwithstanding that a written statement made by any person may be admissible as evidence by virtue of this section—
 - (a) the party by whom or on whose behalf a copy of the statement was served may call that person to give evidence; and
 - (b) the court may, of its own motion or on the application of any party to the proceedings, require that person to attend before the court and give evidence.
- (5) An application under paragraph (b) of the last foregoing subsection to a court other than a magistrates’ court may be made before the hearing and on any such application the powers of the court shall be exercisable [^{F4}by a puisne judge of the High Court, a Circuit judge or Recorder sitting alone.]
- (6) So much of any statement as is admitted in evidence by virtue of this section shall, unless the court otherwise directs, be read aloud at the hearing and where the court so directs an account shall be given orally of so much of any statement as is not read aloud.
- (7) Any document or object referred to as an exhibit and identified in a written statement tendered in evidence under this section shall be treated as if it had been produced as an exhibit and identified in court by the maker of the statement.
- (8) A document required by this section to be served on any person may be served—
 - (a) by delivering it to him or to his solicitor; or 10 Proof by formal admission.

- (1) Subject to the provisions of this section, any fact of which oral evidence may be given in any criminal proceedings may be admitted for the purpose of those proceedings by or on behalf of the prosecutor or defendant, and the admission by any party of any such fact under this section shall as against that party be conclusive evidence in those proceedings of the fact admitted.
- (2) An admission under this section—
 - (a) may be made before or at the proceedings;
 - (b) if made otherwise than in court, shall be in writing;
 - (c) if made in writing by an individual, shall purport to be signed by the person making it and, if so made by a body corporate, shall purport to be signed by a director or manager, or the secretary or clerk, or some other similar officer of the body corporate;
 - (d) if made on behalf of a defendant who is an individual, shall be made by his counsel or solicitor;
- (3) An admission under this section for the purpose of proceedings relating to any matter shall be treated as an admission for the purpose of any subsequent criminal proceedings relating to that matter (including any appeal or retrial).
- (4) An admission under this section may with the leave of the court be withdrawn in the proceedings for the purpose of which it is made or any subsequent criminal proceedings relating to the same matter.

11 Notice of alibi.

- (1) On a trial on indictment the defendant shall not without the leave of the court adduce evidence in support of an alibi unless, before the end of the prescribed period, he gives notice of particulars of the alibi.
- (2) Without prejudice to the foregoing subsection, on any such trial the defendant shall not without the leave of the court call any other person to give such evidence unless—
 - (a) the notice under that subsection includes the name and address of the witness or, if the name or address is not known to the defendant at the time he gives the notice, any information in his possession which might be of material assistance in finding the witness;
 - (b) if the name or the address is not included in that notice, the court is satisfied that the defendant, before giving the notice, took and thereafter continued to take all reasonable steps to secure that the name or address would be ascertained;
 - (c) if the name or the address is not included in that notice, but the defendant subsequently discovers the name or address or receives other information which might be of material assistance in finding the witness, he forthwith gives notice of the name, address or other information, as the case may be; and
 - (d) if the defendant is notified by or on behalf of the prosecutor that the witness has not been traced by the name or at the address given, he forthwith gives notice of any such information which is then in his possession or, on subsequently receiving any such information, forthwith gives notice of it.
- (3) The court shall not refuse leave under this section if it appears to the court that the defendant was not informed in accordance with rules under [F5section 144 of the Magistrates' Courts Act 1980](rules of procedure for magistrates' courts) of the requirements of this section.
- (4) Any evidence tendered to disprove an alibi may, subject to any directions by the court as to the time it is to be given, be given before or after evidence is given in support of the alibi.
- (5) Any notice purporting to be given under this section on behalf of the defendant by his solicitor shall, unless the contrary is proved, be deemed to be given with the authority of the defendant.
- (6) A notice under subsection (1) of this section shall either be given in court during, or at the end of, the proceedings before the examining justices or be given in writing to the solicitor for the prosecutor, and a notice under paragraph (c) or (d) of subsection (2) of this section shall be given in writing to that solicitor.
- (7) A notice required by this section to be given to the solicitor for the prosecutor may be given by delivering it to him, or by leaving it at his office, or by sending it in a registered letter or by the recorded delivery service addressed to him at his office.

(8) In this section—

“evidence in support of an alibi” means evidence tending to show that by reason of the presence of the defendant at a particular place or in a particular area at a particular time he was not, or was unlikely to have been, at the place where the offence is alleged to have been committed at the time of its alleged commission.

“the prescribed period” means the period of seven days from the end of the proceedings before the examining justices [^{F6}or, where a notice of transfer has been given under section 4 of the Criminal Justice Act 1987, of the giving of that notice].

(9) In computing the said period a Sunday, Christmas Day, Good Friday, a day which is a bank holiday under the ^{M2}Bank Holidays Act 1871 in England and Wales or a day appointed for public thanksgiving or mourning shall be disregarded.

Miscellaneous

56 Committal for sentence for offences tried summarily.

[^{F61}(1) Where a magistrates’ court (“the committing court”) commits a person in custody or on bail to the Crown Court under any enactment to which this section applies to be sentenced or otherwise dealt with in respect of an offence (“the relevant offence”), the committing court—

- (a) if the relevant offence is an [^{F62}indictable offence], may also commit him, in custody or on bail as the case may require, to the Crown Court to be dealt with in respect of any other offence whatsoever in respect of which the committing court has power to deal with him (being an offence of which he has been convicted by that or any other court); or
- (b) if the relevant offence is a summary offence, may commit him, as aforesaid, to the Crown Court to be dealt with in respect of—
 - (i) any other offence of which the committing court has convicted him, being either an offence punishable with imprisonment or an offence in respect of which the committing court has a power or duty to order him to be disqualified under [^{F63}section 93 of the Road Traffic Act 1972, section 19 of the Transport Act 1981 or sections 34 to 36 of the Road Traffic Offenders Act 1988] (disqualification for certain motoring offences); or
 - (ii) any suspended sentence in respect of which the committing court has under section 24(1) of the ^{M17}Powers of Criminal Courts Act 1973 power to deal with him.]

(2) The enactments to which this section applies are the ^{M18}Vagrancy Act 1824 (incorrigible rogues), [^{F64}[^{F65}sections 37 and 38 of the Magistrates’ Courts Act 1980] (committal for sentence), section 62(6) of this Act [^{F66}, section 8(6) of the Powers of Criminal Courts Act 1973 (probationer convicted of subsequent offence) and section 24(2) of that Act and paragraph 2(2)(a) of Schedule 9 to the Criminal Law Act 1977 (committal to be dealt with in respect of a wholly or partly suspended sentence)].

- (3) The power of a magistrates’ court under section 8(4) of the ^{M19}Criminal Justice Act 1948 to commit to a [^{F67}Crown Court] a person subject to a probation order or an order for conditional discharge who has been convicted of an offence by the magistrates’ court shall be exercisable notwithstanding that the magistrates’ court has not dealt with him in respect of that offence; and accordingly in that subsection and subsection (5) of that section the words “and dealt with” shall cease to have effect.
- (4) ^{F68}
- (5) Where under subsection (1) of this section a magistrates’ court commits a person to be dealt with by a [^{F67}Crown Court] in respect of an offence, the latter court may after inquiring into the circumstances of the case deal with him in any way in which the magistrates’ court might have dealt with him, and, without prejudice to the foregoing provision, where under that subsection or any enactment to which this section applies a magistrates’ court so commits a person, any duty or power which, apart from this subsection, would fall to be discharged or exercised by the magistrates’ court shall not be discharged or exercised by that court but shall instead be discharged or may instead be exercised by the [^{F67}Crown Court].
- (6) Any duty imposed or power conferred by virtue of the last foregoing subsection on a [^{F67}Crown Court], in a case where an offender has been committed to the court under [^{F69}section 37 of the Magistrates’ Courts Act 1980], shall be discharged or may be exercised by the court notwithstanding that it sentences him to borstal training and in that or any other case shall be discharged or may be exercised notwithstanding anything in any other enactment and, in particular, in [^{F70}sections 34 to 36 and 44 of the Road Traffic Offenders Act 1988].
- (7) ^{F71}
- (8) ^{F72}
- (13) In this section—
 - “disqualified” means disqualified for holding or obtaining a licence under Part II of the ^{M20}Road Traffic Act 1960 [^{F73}Part III of the Road Traffic Act 1972, section 19 of the Transport Act 1981 or Part III of the Road Traffic Act 1988].

- (a) the release on licence under section 60(1) or 61, and the recall under section 62, of this Act of persons whose cases have been referred to the Board by the Secretary of State;
 - (b) the conditions of such licences and the variation or cancellation of such conditions; and
 - (c) any other matter so referred which is connected with the release on licence or recall of persons to whom the said section 60 or 61 applies.
- (4) The following provisions shall have effect with respect to the proceedings of the Board on any case referred to it, that is to say—
- (a) the Board shall deal with the case on consideration of any documents given to it by the Secretary of State and of any reports it has called for and any information whether oral or in writing that it has obtained; and
 - (b) if in any particular case the Board thinks it necessary to interview the person to whom the case relates before reaching a decision, the Board may request one of its members to interview him and shall take into account the report of that interview by that member;
- and, without prejudice to the foregoing, the Secretary of State may by rules make provision with respect to the proceedings of the Board on cases referred to it, including provision authorising such cases to be dealt with by a prescribed number of members of the Board.
- (5) The documents to be given by the Secretary of State to the Board under the last foregoing subsection shall include—
- (a) where the case referred to the Board is one of release under section 60 or 61 of this Act, any written representations made by the person to whom the case relates in connection with or since his last interview in accordance with rules under the next following subsection;
 - (b) where the case so referred relates to a person recalled under section 62 of this Act, any written representations made under that section.
- (6) The Secretary of State may by rules make provision—
- (a) for the establishment and constitution of local review committees having the duty of reviewing at such times or in such circumstances as may be prescribed by or determined under the rules the cases of persons who are or will become eligible for release under section 60 or 61 of this Act and reporting to the Secretary of State on their suitability for release on licence; and
 - (b) for the interview of such persons by a member of any such committee (not being a prison officer);
- and rules under this subsection may make different provision for different cases.
- (7) The supplementary provisions contained in Schedule 2 to this Act shall have effect with respect to the Parole Board and local review committees.]

[^{F78}60] Release on licence of persons serving determinate sentences.

(1) The Secretary of State may, if recommended to do so by the Parole Board, release on licence a person serving a sentence of imprisonment, other than imprisonment for life [^{F79}or serving a sentence of youth custody], after he has served not less than one-third of his sentence or [^{F80}the specified period] whichever expires the later.

[In subsection (1) of this section “the specified period” means twelve months or such ^{F81}(1A) period, not more than twelve months, as the Secretary of State may by order provide.

(1B) An order under subsection (1A) of this section may make such incidental or supplementary provision (including provision amending enactments) as the Secretary of State considers appropriate.]

[Where a sentence of imprisonment for an offence has been passed on a person with ^{F82}(1C) an order under subsection (1) of section 47 of the Criminal Law Act 1977 (sentences partly suspended)—

- (a) if the offender has not been released from prison since the sentence for the offence was passed, the only portion of that sentence that is to be taken into account for the purposes of subsection (1) of this section is any portion of it that he is required to serve in prison under subsection (1) or (3) of the said section 47; and
- (b) if he is released from prison but part of his sentence for the offence is subsequently restored under subsection (3) of that section, he shall be treated for the purpose of subsection (1) of this section as if his only sentence for the offence were the part of his sentence so restored.]

(2) A person whose sentence falls to be reduced under section 67 of this Act shall, for the purpose of determining under the foregoing subsection whether he has served one-third of his sentence, be treated as if any period spent in custody. . . ^{F83} and taken into account under that section were included in his sentence and as if he had served that period as part of that sentence.

(3) Without prejudice to his earlier release under subsection (1) of this section the Secretary of State may direct that—

- (a) a person serving a sentence of imprisonment in respect of whom an extended sentence certificate was issued when the sentence was passed;. . . ^{F84}
- (b) ^{F84}

shall, instead of being granted remission of any part of his sentence under the prison rules, be released on licence at any time on or after the day on which he could have been discharged from prison if the remission had been granted.

. . . ^{F85}

(4) A person subject to a licence under this section shall comply with such conditions, if any, as may for the time being be specified in the licence.

(5) The Secretary of State shall consult the Board before including on release, or subsequently inserting, a condition in a licence under this section or varying or cancelling any such condition; and for the purposes of this subsection the Secretary of State shall be treated as having consulted the Board about a proposal to include, insert, vary or cancel a condition in any case if he has consulted the Board about the implementation of proposals of that description generally or in that class of case.

[A licence granted to any person under this section in England and Wales shall, unless ^{F86}(5A) previously revoked under section 62 of this Act, remain in force until a date specified in the licence, being—

- (a) in the case of a licence granted to a person in respect of whom an extended sentence certificate was issued when sentence was passed on him, the date of the expiration of the sentence;
- (b) ^{F87}
- (d) in a case not within [^{F88}paragraph (a) above], the remission date.

In this subsection “the remission date”, in relation to a person released on licence under this section, means the date on which he could have been discharged from prison on remission of part of his sentence under the prison rules, if, after the date of his release on licence, he had not forfeited remission of any part of the sentence under the rules.]

(6) A licence granted to any person under this section [^{F89}in Scotland] shall, unless previously revoked under section 62 of this Act, remain in force until a date specified in the licence, being—

- (a) in the case of a licence granted. . . ^{F90} to a person who was under the age of twenty-one when sentence was passed on him, the date of the expiration of the sentence;
- (b) in any other case, the date on which he could have been discharged from prison on remission of part of his sentence under the prison rules if, after the date of his release on licence, he had not forfeited remission of any part of the sentence under the rules.

(7) Section 20 of and Schedule 3 to the ^{M21}Criminal Justice Act 1961 (supervision of discharged prisoners) shall cease to have effect.

(8) In the application of this section to Scotland—

- (a) the expression “prison rules” means rules under section 35 of the ^{M22}Prisons (Scotland) Act 1952;
- (b) the expression “imprisonment” includes detention in a young offenders institution as defined in section 31(1)(d) of the Prisons (Scotland) Act 1952;

[^{F92}61 Release on licence of persons sentenced to imprisonment for life, etc.

- (1) The Secretary of State may, if recommended to do so by the Parole Board, release on licence a person serving a sentence of imprisonment for life [^{F93}or custody for life] or a person detained under section 53 of the ^{M23}Children and Young Persons Act 1933 (young offenders convicted of grave crimes), but shall not do so in the case of a person sentenced to imprisonment for life [^{F93}or custody for life] or to detention during Her Majesty's pleasure or for life except after consultation with the Lord Chief Justice of England together with the trial judge if available.
- (2) Subsections (4) and (5) of the last foregoing section shall apply in relation to a licence under this section as they apply in relation to a licence under that section.
- (3) A licence granted under this section to any person sentenced under section 53(2) of the Children and Young Persons Act 1933 to be detained otherwise than for life shall, unless previously revoked under the next following section, remain in force until a date specified in the licence, being the date of the expiration of the sentence.
- (4) In the application of this section to Scotland—
- (a) for the references to section 53 and 53(2) of the Children and Young Persons Act 1933 there shall be substituted respectively references to [^{F94}section 206 and 206(2) of the ^{M24}Criminal Procedure (Scotland) Act 1975];
- (b) in subsection (1), for the words “Lord Chief Justice of England” there shall be substituted the words “Lord Justice General”.]

M24 1975 c. 21.

[^{F95}62] Revocation of licences and conviction of prisoners on licence.

- (1) Where the Parole Board recommends the recall of any person who is subject to a licence under section 60 or 61 of this Act, the Secretary of State may revoke that person's licence and recall him to prison.
- (2) The Secretary of State may revoke the licence of any such person and recall him as aforesaid without consulting the Board, where it appears to him that it is expedient in the public interest to recall that person before such consultation is practicable.
- (3) A person recalled to prison under the foregoing provisions of this section may make representations in writing with respect to his recall and shall on his return to prison be informed of the reasons for his recall and of his right to make such representations.
- (4) The Secretary of State shall refer to the Board the case of a person recalled under subsection (1) of this section who makes representations under the last foregoing subsection and shall in any event so refer the case of a person returned to prison after being recalled under subsection (2) of this section.
- (5) Where the Board recommends the immediate release on licence of a person whose case is referred to it under this section, the Secretary of State shall give effect to the recommendation, and where it is necessary for that purpose to release that person under subsection (1) of the last foregoing section, the Secretary of State shall do so without the consultation required by that subsection.
- (6) If a person subject to a licence under section 60 or 61 of this Act is convicted by a magistrates' court of an offence punishable on indictment with imprisonment, the court may commit him in custody or on bail to [^{F96}Crown Court] for sentence in accordance with [^{F97}section 42 of the ^{M25}Powers of Criminal Courts Act 1973] (power of [^{F96}Crown Court] to sentence persons convicted by magistrates' courts of indictable offences).
- (7) If a person subject to any such licence is convicted on indictment of such an offence as aforesaid or is committed to [^{F96}Crown Court] for sentence as aforesaid or under [^{F98}section 38 of the Magistrates' Courts Act 1980] (committal of persons convicted of indictable offences for sentence), [^{F99}then, except in a case to which subsection (7A) of this section applies,] the court by which he is convicted or to which he is committed, as the case may be, may, whether or not it passes any other sentence on him, revoke the licence.

[Any such licence shall be treated as revoked where—

- ^{F100}(7A) (a) the offender—
- (i) was sentenced to imprisonment with an order under subsection (1) of section 47 of the Criminal Law Act 1977 (sentences partly suspended); and
 - (ii) was released on licence before the expiration of any part of his sentence which he was required to serve in prison under subsection (1) of that section; and
- (b) by virtue of subsection (3) of that section a court restores any part of the sentence held in suspense,
- and subsection (9) of this section shall apply to the offender accordingly.]

- (8) ^{F101}
- (9) On the revocation of the licence of any person under this section [^{F102}or section 213(1) or 422(1) of the ^{M26}Criminal Procedure (Scotland) Act 1975], he shall be liable to be detained in pursuance of his sentence, and, if at large, shall be deemed to be unlawfully at large.
- (10) If in the case of a person subject to a licence under section 60 of this Act a [^{F96}Crown Court] or the High Court of Justiciary or a sheriff revokes that licence under this section [^{F102}or section 213(1) or 422(1) of the ^{M27}Criminal Procedure (Scotland) Act 1975], the Secretary of State shall not thereafter release him under subsection (1) of that section before the expiration of [^{F103}the specified period] from the date of revocation or before the expiration of one-third of the period during which the licence would have remained in force, whichever is the later; but the foregoing provision shall not affect any power to release him otherwise than under that subsection.
- [In subsection (10) above “the specified period” has the same meaning as in ^{F104}(10A) section 60(1) above.]
- (11) This section shall have effect, in its application to a person sentenced [^{F105}to youth custody or] to be detained under section 53 of the ^{M28}Children and Young Persons Act 1933 [^{F106}young offenders convicted of grave crimes) or section [^{F107}205(2)] of the ^{M29}said Act of 1975 (Punishment of person under 18)], as if for any reference to a prison there were substituted a reference to any place in which [^{F108}that person was detained immediately before he was released on licence].]

71 Exercise of powers of release.

Any power conferred by or under any enactment to release a person from a prison or other institution to which the Prison Act 1952 applies or from an approved school may be exercised notwithstanding that he is not for the time being detained in that institution or school and a person released by virtue of this section shall, after his release, be treated in all respects as if he had been released from that institution or school.

72 Power of magistrates to issue warrants for arrest of escaped prisoners and mental patients.

[^{F130}(1) On an information in writing being laid before a justice of the peace for any area in England and Wales or Northern Ireland and substantiated on oath, or on an application being made to a sheriff, magistrate or justice of the peace in Scotland, alleging that any person is—

- (a) an offender unlawfully at large from a prison or other institution to which the Prison Act applies in which he is required to be detained after being convicted of an offence; or
- (b) a convicted mental patient liable to be retaken under [^{F131}section 18, 38(7) or 138 of the Mental Health Act 1983], section 36 or 106 of the ^{M37}Mental Health (Scotland) Act 1960 or [^{F132}Article 29, 45(6) or 132 of the Mental Health (Northern Ireland) Order 1986] (retaking of mental patients who are absent without leave or have escaped from custody);

the justice, sheriff or magistrate may issue a warrant to arrest him and bring him before a magistrates' court for that area or, in Scotland, before any sheriff.

(2) Where a person is brought before a magistrates' court or sheriff in pursuance of a warrant for his arrest under this section, the court or sheriff shall, if satisfied that he is the person named in the warrant and if satisfied as to the facts mentioned in paragraph (a) or (b) of the foregoing subsection, order him to be returned to the prison or other institution where he is required or liable to be detained or, in the case of a convicted mental patient, order him to be kept in custody or detained in a place of safety pending his admission to hospital.

(3) [^{F133}section 137 of the Mental Health Act 1983], section 105 of the ^{M38}Mental Health (Scotland) Act 1960 and [^{F134}Article 131 of the Mental Health (Northern Ireland) Order 1986] (custody, conveyance and detention of certain mental patients) shall apply to a convicted mental patient required by this section to be conveyed to any place or to be kept in custody or detained in a place of safety as they apply to a person required by or by virtue of [^{F135}the said Act of 1983], 1960 [^{F136}or 1984 or the said Order of 1986] 1960 or 1961, as the case may be, to be so conveyed, kept or detained.

(4) In this section—

“convicted mental patient” means a person liable after being convicted of an offence to be detained under [^{F137}Part III of the Mental Health Act 1983], Part V of the Mental Health (Scotland) Act 1960 or Part III of the Mental Health [^{F138}(Northern Ireland) Order 1986] in pursuance of a hospital order or transfer direction together with an order or direction restricting his discharge [^{F139}or a person liable to be detained under][^{F137}section 38 of the said Act of 1983][^{F140}or Article 45 of the Mental Health (Northern Ireland) Order 1986];

“place of safety” has the same meaning as in [^{F137}Part III of the said Act of 1983] or 1960 or Part III of the said [^{F141}Order of 1986], as the case may be;

104 General provisions as to interpretation.

- (1) In this Act, except so far as the context otherwise requires, the following expressions have the meanings hereby respectively assigned to them; that is to say—

F164

“court” does not include a court-martial;
“explosive” has the same meaning as in the ^{M51}Explosives Act 1875;
[^{F165}“extended sentence certificate” means a certificate issued under section 28 of the ^{M52}Powers of Criminal Courts Act 1973 stating that an extended term of imprisonment was imposed on an offender under that section];
“firearm” has the same meaning as in the ^{M53}Firearms Act 1937;
“imitation firearm” has the same meaning as in the ^{M54}Firearms Act 1965;
“offensive weapon” has the same meaning as in section 1 of the ^{M55}Prevention of Crime Act 1953;
“prison rules” means rules under section 47 of the ^{M56}Prison Act 1952;
“sentence of imprisonment” does not include a committal in default of payment of any sum of money, or for want of sufficient distress to satisfy any sum of money, or for failure to do or abstain from doing anything required to be done or left undone;
[^{F166}“suspended sentence” means a sentence to which an order under section 22(1) of the ^{M57}Powers of Criminal Courts Act 1973 relates.]

- (2) For the purposes of any reference in this Act, however expressed, to the term of imprisonment or other detention to which a person has been sentenced or which, or part of which, he has served, consecutive terms and terms which are wholly or partly concurrent shall be treated as a single term.
- (3) Any reference in this Act however expressed to a previous conviction or sentence shall be construed as a reference to a previous conviction by a court in any part of Great Britain and to a previous sentence passed by any such court.
- (4) Any reference in this Act to an offence punishable with imprisonment shall be construed, in relation to any offender, without regard to any prohibition or restriction imposed by or under any enactment on the imprisonment of offenders of his age.
- (5) Any reference in this Act to any other enactment is a reference thereto as amended, and includes a reference thereto as extended or applied, by or under any other enactment, including this Act.

SCHEDULE 5

Section 102.

TRANSITIONAL PROVISIONS AND SAVINGS

Juries

1 Section 13 of this Act shall not apply to the verdict of a jury on the trial of any person who was arraigned before the commencement of that section.

2 Section 14 of this Act shall not apply to any person summoned to serve on a jury in any criminal proceedings before the commencement of that section.

Prisoners sentenced to corrective training or preventive detention

3 A person sentenced to corrective training or preventive detention in England and Wales who was or ought to have been detained in pursuance of his sentence immediately before the commencement of section 60 of this Act shall be treated for purposes of detention, release, recall and otherwise as having been sentenced to a term of imprisonment of the same length as the term of his original sentence and, if he was originally sentenced to preventive detention, he shall also be so treated as if an extended sentence certificate had been issued in respect of him.

4 A person sentenced to corrective training who immediately before the commencement of the said section 60 was subject to a licence under section 26 of the ^{M79}Prison Act 1952 (release on licence of prisoner sentenced to corrective training or preventive detention) shall be treated for all purposes as if his sentence had expired.

Marginal Citations

M79 1952 c. 52.

5 A person sentenced to preventive detention who immediately before the commencement of the said section 60 was subject to a licence as aforesaid shall be treated for the purposes of Part III of this Act as if he had been released on licence under subsection (3)(a) of that section and as if the requirements specified in the licence under the said section 26 were conditions specified in a licence under the said paragraph (a).

Release of prisoners, etc. on licence

6 A person serving any part of a sentence of imprisonment after the commencement of section 67 of this Act, being a sentence which fell to be reduced under section 17(2) of the ^{M80}Criminal Justice Administration Act 1962 (duration of sentence), shall, for the purpose of determining under section 60(1) of this Act whether he has served one-third of his sentence, be treated as if any period spent in custody between conviction and sentence and taken into account under the said section 17(2) were included in his sentence and as if he had served that period as part of that sentence.

Status: Point in time view as at 02/02/1991.

Changes to legislation: Criminal Justice Act 1967 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 08 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date.
