Miscellaneous provisions as to evidence, procedure and trial

8 Proof of criminal intent.

- A court or jury, in determining whether a person has committed an offence,—
- (a) shall not be bound in law to infer that he intended or foresaw a result of his actions by reason only of its being a natural and probable consequence of those actions; but
 - (b) shall decide whether he did intend or foresee that result by reference to all the evidence, drawing such inferences from the evidence as appear proper in the circumstances.

9 Proof by written statement. E+W+N.I.

- (1) In any criminal proceedings, other than committal proceedings under sections 4 to 6 of the Magistrates' Courts Act 1980, a written statement by any person shall, if such of the conditions mentioned in the next following subsection as are applicable are satisfied, be admissible as evidence to the like extent as oral evidence to the like effect by that person.
- (2) The said conditions are—
 - (a) the statement purports to be signed by the person who made it;
 - (b) the statement contains a declaration by that person to the effect that it is true to the best of his knowledge and belief and that he made the statement knowing that, if it were tendered in evidence, he would be liable to prosecution if he wilfully stated in it anything which he knew to be false or did not believe to be true;
 - (c) before the hearing at which the statement is tendered in evidence, a copy of the statement is served, by or on behalf of the party proposing to tender it, on each of the other parties to the proceedings; and
 - (d) none of the other parties or their solicitors, within seven days from the service of the copy of the statement, serves a notice on the party so proposing objecting to the statement being tendered in evidence under this section:

Status: Point in time view as at 06/04/2001.

Changes to legislation: Criminal Justice Act 1967 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 26 May 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

Provided that the conditions mentioned in paragraphs (c) and (d) of this subsection shall not apply if the parties agree before or during the hearing that the statement shall be so tendered.

- (3) The following provisions shall also have effect in relation to any written statement tendered in evidence under this section, that is to say—
- (a) if the statement is made by a person under the age of [^{F3}eighteen], it shall give his age;
 - (b) if it is made by a person who cannot read it, it shall be read to him before he signs it and shall be accompanied by a declaration by the person who so read the statement to the effect that it was so read; and
 - (c) if it refers to any other document as an exhibit, the copy served on any other party to the proceedings under paragraph (c) of the last foregoing subsection shall be accompanied by a copy of that document or by such information as may be necessary in order to enable the party on whom it is served to inspect that document or a copy thereof.
- (4) Notwithstanding that a written statement made by any person may be admissible as evidence by virtue of this section—
- (a) the party by whom or on whose behalf a copy of the statement was served may call that person to give evidence; and
 - (b) the court may, of its own motion or on the application of any party to the proceedings, require that person to attend before the court and give evidence.
- (5) An application under paragraph (b) of the last foregoing subsection to a court other than a magistrates' court may be made before the hearing and on any such application the powers of the court shall be exercisable [^{F4}by a puisne judge of the High Court, a Circuit judge or Recorder sitting alone.]
- (6) So much of any statement as is admitted in evidence by virtue of this section shall, unless the court otherwise directs, be read aloud at the hearing and where the court so directs an account shall be given orally of so much of any statement as is not read aloud.
- (7) Any document or object referred to as an exhibit and identified in a written statement tendered in evidence under this section shall be treated as if it had been produced as an exhibit and identified in court by the maker of the statement.
- (8) A document required by this section to be served on any person may be served—
- (a) by delivering it to him or to his solicitor; or
 - (b) by addressing it to him and leaving it at his usual or last known place of abode or place of business or by addressing it to his solicitor and leaving it at his office; or
 - (c) by sending it in a registered letter or by the recorded delivery service [^{F5}or by first class post]addressed to him at his usual or last known place of abode or place of business or addressed to his solicitor at his office; or
 - (d) in the case of a body corporate, by delivering it to the secretary or clerk of the body at its registered or principal office or sending it in a registered letter or by the recorded delivery service [^{F6}or by first class post]addressed to the secretary or clerk of that body at that office.

Status: Point in time view as at 06/04/2001.

[^{F8}11 Notice of alibi.

- (1) On a trial on indictment the defendant shall not without the leave of the court adduce evidence in support of an alibi unless, before the end of the prescribed period, he gives notice of particulars of the alibi.
- (2) Without prejudice to the foregoing subsection, on any such trial the defendant shall not without the leave of the court call any other person to give such evidence unless—
 - (a) the notice under that subsection includes the name and address of the witness or, if the name or address is not known to the defendant at the time he gives the notice, any information in his possession which might be of material assistance in finding the witness;
 - (b) if the name or the address is not included in that notice, the court is satisfied that the defendant, before giving the notice, took and thereafter continued to take all reasonable steps to secure that the name or address would be ascertained;
 - (c) if the name or the address is not included in that notice, but the defendant subsequently discovers the name or address or receives other information which might be of material assistance in finding the witness, he forthwith gives notice of the name, address or other information, as the case may be; and
 - (d) if the defendant is notified by or on behalf of the prosecutor that the witness has not been traced by the name or at the address given, he forthwith gives notice of any such information which is then in his possession or, on subsequently receiving any such information, forthwith gives notice of it.
- (3) The court shall not refuse leave under this section if it appears to the court that the defendant was not informed in accordance with rules under [^{F9}section 144 of the Magistrates' Courts Act 1980](rules of procedure for magistrates' courts) of the requirements of this section.
- (4) Any evidence tendered to disprove an alibi may, subject to any directions by the court as to the time it is to be given, be given before or after evidence is given in support of the alibi.

- (5) Any notice purporting to be given under this section on behalf of the defendant by his solicitor shall, unless the contrary is proved, be deemed to be given with the authority of the defendant.
- (6) A notice under subsection (1) of this section shall either be given in court during, or at the end of, the proceedings before the examining justices or be given in writing to the solicitor for the prosecutor, and a notice under paragraph (c) or (d) of subsection (2) of this section shall be given in writing to that solicitor.
- (7) A notice required by this section to be given to the solicitor for the prosecutor may be given by delivering it to him, or by leaving it at his office, or by sending it in a registered letter or by the recorded delivery service [^{F10}or by first class post]addressed to him at his office.
- (8) In this section—
“evidence in support of an alibi” means evidence tending to show that by reason of the presence of the defendant at a particular place or in a particular area at a particular time he was not, or was unlikely to have been, at the place where the offence is alleged to have been committed at the time of its alleged commission.
“the prescribed period” means the period of seven days from the end of the proceedings before the examining justices [^{F11}or, where a notice of transfer has been given under [^{F12}a relevant transfer provision], of the giving of that notice].
^{F13}“relevant transfer provision” means—
(a) section 4 of the Criminal Justice Act 1987; or
(b) section 53 of the Criminal Justice Act 1991.]
- (9) In computing the said period a Sunday, Christmas Day, Good Friday, a day which is a bank holiday under the ^{M1}Bank Holidays Act 1871 in England and Wales or a day appointed for public thanksgiving or mourning shall be disregarded.]

36 Interpretation of Part I.

(1) In this Part of this Act—

.....^{F51}
“committal proceedings” means proceedings before a magistrates’ court acting as examining justices;

.....^{F51}
“director”, in relation to a body corporate which is established by or under any enactment for the purpose of carrying on under national ownership any industry or part of an industry or undertaking and whose affairs are managed by the members thereof, means a member of that body.

(2) Expressions used in any provision of this Part of this Act relating to magistrates’ courts or proceedings before such courts and also used in [^{F52}the Magistrates’ Courts Act 1980] have the same meanings in any such provision as they have in that Act.

67 Computation of sentences of imprisonment passed in England and Wales.

(1) The length of any sentence of imprisonment imposed on an offender by a court shall be treated as reduced by any ^{F82}relevant period, but where he^{F83} [(a)] was previously subject to a probation order, ^{F84}a community service order], an order for conditional discharge or a suspended sentence in respect of that offence, any such period falling before the order was made or suspended sentence passed shall be disregarded for the purposes of this section.

(b) ^{F85}

^{F86}(1A) In subsection (1) above “relevant period” means—

(a) any period during which the offender was in police detention in connection with the offence for which the sentence was passed; or

(b) any period during which he was in custody—

(i) by reason only of having been committed to custody by an order of a court made in connection with any proceedings relating to that sentence or the offence for which it was passed or any proceedings from which those proceedings arose; or

(ii) by reason of his having been so committed and having been concurrently detained otherwise than by order of a court.]^{F87} or—

(c) any period during which, in connection with the offence for which the sentence was passed, he was ^{F88}remanded ^{F89}or committed] to local authority accommodation] by virtue of an order under section 23 of the Children and Young Persons Act 1969 ^{F90}or section 37 of the Magistrates’ Courts Act 1980] and in accommodation provided for the purpose of restricting liberty.]

(2) For the purposes of this section a suspended sentence shall be treated as a sentence of imprisonment when it takes effect under ^{F91}section 119 of the Powers of Criminal Courts (Sentencing) Act 2000] and as being imposed by the order under which it takes effect.

^{F92}(2A) Where a person is sentenced to imprisonment with an order under section 47(1) of the Criminal Law Act 1977 (sentences partly suspended), subsection (1) above—

(a) operates to reduce the part of the sentence required to be served in prison;

(b) operates to reduce the whole period of the sentence for the purposes of section 47(3) of that Act; but

(c) does not operate to reduce any part of the sentence which is ordered under section 47(1) of that Act to be held in suspense.

(2B) Where—

(a) an offender has been sentenced to imprisonment with an order under section 47(1) of that Act; and

(b) he has been released from prison after serving part of his sentence; and

(c) an order is subsequently made restoring part of his sentence.

the restored part shall for the purposes of this section be treated as a sentence of imprisonment imposed by the order restoring it (but shall not be reduced by any period spent in custody by the offender before the original sentence was passed).]

(3) No period of custody, other than a period which would have been taken into account before the commencement of this Act under section 17(2) of the Criminal Justice Administration Act 1962 (duration of sentence) for the purpose of reducing a term of imprisonment, shall be taken into account for the like purpose under this section unless it falls after the commencement of this Act.

- (4) Any reference in this Act or any other enactment (whether passed before or after the commencement of this Act) to the length of any sentence of imprisonment shall, unless the context otherwise requires, be construed as a reference to the sentence pronounced by the court and not the sentence as reduced by this section.
- [^{F93}(5) This section applies—
- (a) to sentences of detention in a young offender institution; ^{F94} . . .
 - (b) to determinate sentences of detention passed under [^{F91}section 91 of the Powers of Criminal Courts (Sentencing) Act 2000]](sentences for serious indictable offences),
 - [^{F95}(c) to secure training orders under section 1 of the Criminal Justice and Public Order Act 1994;]
- as it applies to sentences of imprisonment.
- (6) The reference in subsection [^{F96}(1A)] above to an offender being committed to custody by an order of a court includes a reference to his being [^{F97}[^{F98}remanded or]]committed to a remand centre or to prison under [^{F99}section 23 of the Children and Young Persons Act 1969 or] section 37 of the Magistrates’ Courts Act 1980 but does not include a reference to his being [^{F100}remanded or committed to local authority accommodation] under the said section 23 [^{F101}or 37].
- [^{F102}(7) A person is in police detention for the purposes of this section—
- (a) at any time when he is in police detention for the purposes of the Police and Criminal Evidence Act 1984; and
 - (b) at any time when he is detained under [^{F103}section 41 of the Terrorism Act 2000].
- (8) No period of police detention shall be taken into account under this section unless it falls after the coming into force of section 49 of the Police and Criminal Evidence Act 1984.]

72 Power of magistrates to issue warrants for arrest of escaped prisoners and mental patients.

[^{F107}(1) On an information in writing being laid before a justice of the peace for any area in England and Wales or Northern Ireland and substantiated on oath, or on an application being made to a sheriff, magistrate or justice of the peace in Scotland, alleging that any person is—

- (a) an offender unlawfully at large from a prison or other institution to which the Prison Act applies in which he is required to be detained after being convicted of an offence; or
- (b) a convicted mental patient liable to be retaken under [^{F108}section 18, 38(7) or 138 of the Mental Health Act 1983], section 36 or 106 of the ^{M19}Mental Health (Scotland) Act 1960 or [^{F109}Article 29, 45(6) or 132 of the Mental Health (Northern Ireland) Order 1986] (retaking of mental patients who are absent without leave or have escaped from custody);

the justice, sheriff or magistrate may issue a warrant to arrest him and bring him before a magistrates' court for that area or, in Scotland, before any sheriff.

(2) Where a person is brought before a magistrates' court or sheriff in pursuance of a warrant for his arrest under this section, the court or sheriff shall, if satisfied that he is the person named in the warrant and if satisfied as to the facts mentioned in paragraph (a) or (b) of the foregoing subsection, order him to be returned to the prison or other institution where he is required or liable to be detained or, in the case of a convicted mental patient, order him to be kept in custody or detained in a place of safety pending his admission to hospital.

104 General provisions as to interpretation.

(1) In this Act, except so far as the context otherwise requires, the following expressions have the meanings hereby respectively assigned to them; that is to say—

.....^{F142}
“court” does not include a court-martial;

[^{F144}“extended sentence certificate” means a certificate issued under section 28 of the ^{M33}Powers of Criminal Courts Act 1973 stating that an extended term of imprisonment was imposed on an offender under that section];

^{F143}
.....

^{F143}

“prison rules” means rules under section 47 of the ^{M34}Prison Act 1952;

“sentence of imprisonment” does not include a committal in default of payment of any sum of money, or for want of sufficient distress to satisfy any sum of money, or for failure to do or abstain from doing anything required to be done or left undone;

[^{F145}“suspended sentence” means a sentence to which an order under section 118(1) of the Powers of Criminal Courts (Sentencing) Act 2000 relates.]

(2) For the purposes of any reference in this Act, however expressed, to the term of imprisonment or other detention to which a person has been sentenced or which, or part of which, he has served, consecutive terms and terms which are wholly or partly concurrent shall be treated as a single term. [^{F146}if—

- (a) the sentences were passed on the same occasion; or
- (b) where they were passed on different occasions, the person has not been released under Part II of the ^{M35}Criminal Justice Act 1991 at any time during the period beginning with the first and ending with the last of those occasions.]

(3) Any reference in this Act however expressed to a previous conviction or sentence shall be construed as a reference to a previous conviction by a court in any part of Great Britain and to a previous sentence passed by any such court.

(4) Any reference in this Act to an offence punishable with imprisonment shall be construed, in relation to any offender, without regard to any prohibition or restriction imposed by or under any enactment on the imprisonment of offenders of his age.

(5) Any reference in this Act to any other enactment is a reference thereto as amended, and includes a reference thereto as extended or applied, by or under any other enactment, including this Act.
