VALIDITY OF TENANTS' NOTICES, EFFECT ON LANDLORD AND TENANT ACT 1954 ETC. AND PROCEDURE GENERALLY.

PART II

Procedural Provisions

- 6 (1) A tenant's notice under Part I of this Act of his desire to have the freehold or an extended lease of a house and premises shall be in the prescribed form, and shall contain the following particulars:—
- (a) the address of the house, and sufficient particulars of the house and premises to identify the property to which the claim extends;
 - (b) such particulars of the tenancy and of the rateable value of the house and premises as serve to identify the instrument creating the tenancy and show that (apart from the operation, if any, of the proviso to section 4(1) of this Act) the tenancy is and has at the material times been a long tenancy at a low rent;
 - (c) the date on which the tenant acquired the tenancy;
 - (d) the periods for which since the beginning of the preceding ten years and since acquiring the tenancy the tenant has and has not occupied the house as his residence, together with the following additional particulars about the periods for which during that time he has so occupied the house, that is to say,—
 - (i) what parts, if any, of the house have not been in his own occupation and for what periods; and
 - (ii) what other residence, if any, he has had and for what periods, and which was his main residence.
- (2) Where the tenant gives the notice by virtue of section 6 or 7 of this Act, subparagraph (1)(c) and (d) above shall apply with the appropriate modifications of references to the tenant, so that the notice shall show the particulars bringing the case within section 6 or 7.
- (3) The notice shall not be invalidated by any inaccuracy in the particulars required by this paragraph or any misdescription of the property to which the claim extends; and where the claim extends to property not properly included in the house and premises, or does not extend to property that ought to be so included, the notice may with the leave of the court, and on such terms as the court may see fit to impose, be amended so as to exclude or include that property.
