- (e) where the child or young person was accommodated pursuant to a remand under section 91(4) of that Act (remands to youth detention accommodation), the Secretary of State.]

- (a) is required to reside with a local authority foster parent by virtue of a youth rehabilitation order with fostering, and
- (b) is absent, without the consent of the responsible officer (within the meaning of Part 1 of the Criminal Justice and Immigration Act 2008), from the place in which he is required to reside, he may be arrested by a constable anywhere in the United Kingdom without a warrant.

(1E) A person so arrested shall be conducted to—

- (a) the place where he is required to reside, or
- (b) such other place as the local authority specified under paragraph 18(3) of Schedule 1 to the Criminal Justice and Immigration Act 2008 may direct,

at that local authority's expense.]

- (2) If a magistrates' court is satisfied by information on oath that there are reasonable grounds for believing that a person specified in the information can produce a person who is absent as mentioned in subsection (1) [<sup>F25</sup>, (1A) or (1D)] of this section, the court may issue a summons directed to the person so specified and requiring him to attend and produce the absent person before the court; and a person who without reasonable excuse fails to comply with any such requirement shall, without prejudice to any liability apart from this subsection, be guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine of an amount not exceeding [<sup>F44</sup>level 3 on the standard scale].

In the application of this subsection to Northern Ireland, "magistrates' court" means a magistrates' court within the meaning of the <sup>M4</sup>[<sup>F45</sup>Magistrates' Courts (Northern Ireland) Order 1981].

[<sup>F46</sup>(2A) Without prejudice to its powers under subsection (2) of this section, a magistrates' court (within the meaning of that subsection) may, if it is satisfied by information on oath that there are reasonable grounds for believing that a person who is absent as [<sup>F29</sup>mentioned in subsection (1), [<sup>F30</sup>(1A)(a), (aa) or (b)(i), (ii) or (ia)] or (1D) of this section is in premises] specified in the information, issue a search warrant authorising a constable to search the premises for that person.

(2B) A court shall not issue a summons or search warrant under subsection (2) or (2A) of this section in any case where the person who is absent is a person to whom subsection (1A) [<sup>F31</sup>or (1D)] of this section applies, unless the information referred to in the said subsection (2) or (2A) is given by the [<sup>F47</sup>responsible person][<sup>F33</sup>or the responsible officer, as the case may be.]]

- (3) A person who knowingly compels, persuades, incites or assists another person to become or continue to be absent as mentioned in subsection (1) [<sup>F34</sup>, (1A) or (1D)] of this section shall be guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months or a fine of an amount not exceeding [<sup>F48</sup>level 5 on the standard scale] or both.

- (4) The reference to a constable in [<sup>F49</sup>subsections (1),(1A) [<sup>F37</sup>, (1D)] and (2A)] of this section includes a reference to a person who is a constable under the law of any part of the United Kingdom, to a member of the police in Jersey and to an officer of
