

Agriculture Act 1970

1970 CHAPTER 40

PART II

CAPITAL AND OTHER GRANTS

28 Interpretation of Part II.

[^{F1}(1)] In this Part of this Act, except where the context otherwise requires, the following expressions have the following meaning respectively, that is to say—

“agricultural business” means a business consisting in, or such part of any business as consists in, the pursuit of agriculture [^{F2}and includes any other business, of a kind for the time being specified by an order made by the appropriate authority, which is carried on by a person also carrying on a business consisting in or partly in the pursuit of agriculture and is carried on on the same or adjacent land];

“agriculture” and cognate expressions shall be construed, except in relation to Scotland, in accordance with section 109 of the ^{M1}Agriculture Act 1947 and, in relation to Scotland, in accordance with section 86 of the ^{M2}Agriculture (Scotland) Act 1948;

“the appropriate authority” in relation to any order, scheme or regulations under this Part of this Act, means the appropriate Minister, or the appropriate Ministers acting jointly, for the part or parts of the United Kingdom for which the order, scheme or regulations is or are made;

“the appropriate Minister”, except in sections 31 to 33 of this Act, means—

- (a) in relation to England, the Minister;
- (b) in relation to Wales, the Minister and the Secretary of State acting jointly;
- (c) in relation to Scotland, the Secretary of State;
- (d) in relation to Northern Ireland, the Minister;

“the Minister”, except in section 35 of this Act, means the Minister of Agriculture, Fisheries and Food;

“Wales” includes Monmouthshire and references to England shall be construed accordingly.

Status: Point in time view as at 28/11/2004.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Agriculture Act 1970, Part II. (See end of Document for details)

[^{F1}(2) An order under subsection (1) above shall be made by statutory instrument and any statutory instrument containing such an order shall be subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.]

[^{F3}29 Farm capital grants.

- (1) The appropriate authority may with the approval of the Treasury by scheme provide for the making, subject to such exceptions or restrictions as may be provided for by the scheme, of grants of amounts determined in such manner as may be provided for by or under the scheme towards expenditure incurred or to be incurred for the purposes of, or in connection with, the carrying on or establishment of an agricultural business, being expenditure which—
- (a) has been or is to be incurred in respect of any such matters as may be specified in the scheme, or in respect of works or facilities certified under section 26(6) of the ^{M3} Agriculture Act 1967 as amended by subsection (2)(e) of section 32 of this Act; and
 - (b) appears to the appropriate Minister to be of a capital nature or incurred in connection with expenditure of a capital nature; and
 - (c) is approved by the appropriate Minister for the purposes of a grant under the scheme.
- (2) Any scheme under this section shall be made by statutory instrument and—
- (a) may be made for any one, or jointly for any two or for all three, of the following, namely—
 - (i) England and Wales;
 - (ii) Scotland;
 - (iii) Northern Ireland;
 - (b) may make different provision for different circumstances;
 - (c) may vary or revoke any previous scheme under this section if or so far as that previous scheme is made for the same part or parts of the United Kingdom as the revoking or varying scheme;
 - (d) shall be laid before Parliament after being made and cease to have effect (without prejudice to anything previously done thereunder or to the making of a new scheme) after the expiration of a period of forty days (calculated in accordance with section 7(1) of the ^{M4} Statutory Instruments Act 1946)

Status: Point in time view as at 28/11/2004.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Agriculture Act 1970, Part II. (See end of Document for details) beginning with the day on which it is made unless within that period it has been approved by resolution of each House of Parliament; and the duration of such a scheme (that is to say, the period within which expenditure must qualify in accordance with the provisions of the scheme for consideration for a grant thereunder) shall be a period not exceeding seven years, but that period may from time to time be extended by further schemes under this section for periods not exceeding seven years at a time.

- (3) Any grant under such a scheme may be made, and any approval under such a scheme may be given, subject to such conditions as the appropriate Minister thinks fit; and any payment by way of such a grant shall be made at such time, or by such instalments at such intervals or times, as the appropriate Minister may determine—
- (a) where the expenditure in question is incurred for the purposes of activities on land situated in England, Wales or Northern Ireland, by the Minister;
 - (b) where that expenditure is incurred for the purposes of activities on land situated in Scotland, by the Secretary of State.
- (4) If at any time after the appropriate Minister has approved any expenditure for the purposes of a grant under such a scheme it appears to that Minister—
- (a) that any condition subject to which the approval was given or the grant has been made has not been complied with; or
 - (b) that any work in respect of expenditure on which the approval was given has been badly done, or has been or is being unreasonably delayed, or is unlikely to be completed; or
 - (c) that the person by whom the application for that approval [^{F4}or for the making of any payment was made] gave information on any matter relevant to the giving of the approval [^{F5}or the making of the payment] which was false or misleading in a material respect, the appropriate Minister may revoke the approval in respect of the whole or part of the expenditure and, where in pursuance of subsection (3)(a) or (b) of this section any payment has been made by the Minister or the Secretary of State by way of grant, the Minister or, as the case may be, the Secretary of State may on demand recover an amount [^{F6}equal to the payment which has been so made] or such part thereof as the appropriate Minister may specify; but before revoking an approval in whole or in part under this subsection the appropriate Minister—

- [shall give to the person to whom any payment by way of grant would be payable, or from whom any such amount would be recoverable, a written notification of the reasons for the action proposed to be taken by the appropriate Minister;
- (ii) shall afford that person an opportunity of appearing before and being heard by a person appointed for the purpose by the appropriate Minister; and
- (iii) shall consider the report by a person so appointed and supply a copy of the report to the person mentioned in paragraph (i) above.]

- (5) If any person, for the purpose of obtaining for himself or any other person any grant under such a scheme, knowingly or recklessly makes a false statement, he shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding [^{F8}£400][^{F8}level 5 on the standard scale].

33 Miscellaneous amendments relating to amalgamations.

^{x4}(1) In Schedule 3 to the ^{m12}Agriculture Act 1967 (which relates to the conditions applying to amalgamated agricultural units)—

- (a) paragraph 1 (which relates to the duration of the application of that Schedule to a unit of land) shall have effect, and be deemed always to have had effect, with the substitution for the words “forty years” of the words “fifteen years”;
- (b) for sub-paragraph (4) of paragraph 2 (which relates to registration of conditions in Scotland) there shall be substituted the following sub-paragraph—

“(4) In the case of a unit of land in Scotland—

- (a) where the conditions specified in this Schedule first come to apply to the unit, the Secretary of State shall cause to be recorded in the General Register of Sasines a notice of that fact;
 - (b) the said conditions shall not be enforceable against any third party who shall have in good faith and for value acquired right (whether completed by infertment or not) to his estate or interest in the unit prior to the said notice being recorded as aforesaid, or against any person deriving title from such a third party;
 - (c) where the conditions or any of them cease to apply to the unit or part of the unit in pursuance of paragraph 6(1) or 7(8) of this Schedule, the Secretary of State shall cause to be recorded in the General Register of Sasines a notice stating that the conditions or condition no longer apply, or applies, to that unit of land or that part”
- (c) in paragraph 5 (which requires the owner of a unit of land in certain circumstances to furnish certain information) after the word “land” in the first place where it occurs there shall be inserted the words “or any such other person having an estate or interest in the unit of land as may be agreed between the appropriate Minister, the owner and that other person" and for the words "furnish to him" there shall be substituted the words "or, if the tenant has been informed of such an agreement as aforesaid, by the other person in question, furnish to the owner or, as the case may be, to that other person";

- (d) in paragraph 7(2) (which relates to the maximum additional amount to be payable under paragraph 7(1)(b) where certain conditions are breached) for the words from "not exceed" onwards there shall be substituted the words "not exceed £1500".

- (2) In section 29(3) and in section 48(2) of the ^{M13}Agriculture Act 1967 (which require certain persons to be parties to certain deeds) for the words "are parties to" there shall in each case be substituted the words "have executed"; but—

- (a) in the case of any land in England, Wales or Northern Ireland which is comprised in a settlement or is [^{F19}subject to a trust of land], or
(b) in the case of any land in Scotland [^{F20}which is held by a liferenter], the person having the powers of a tenant for life, [^{F21}the trustees of land], [^{F22}or the liferenter], as the case may be, may execute the deed referred to in the said section 29(3) or 48(2), or give the consent referred to in section 26(7)(a) or 28(6)(a) of that Act, or make the application for ministerial consent referred to in paragraph 6(1) of Schedule 3 to that Act, on behalf of all other persons who are or may become entitled to benefit under the settlement or trust in question or, as the case may be, to a right in [^{F22}the land] as well as on his own behalf, and in that case the deed, consent or application shall not be required to be executed, given or made by any of those other persons.

- (3) The ^{M14}Trusts (Scotland) Act 1921 shall have effect as if among the powers conferred on trustees by section 4 thereof (which relates to the general powers of trustees) there were included a power to execute such a deed, give such a consent or make such an application as is referred to in subsection (2) of this section relating to the trust estate or any part thereof.
