Educational trusts

1 General provisions as to educational trusts.

- (1) There shall cease to have effect—
  - (a) section 2 of the <sup>M1</sup>Charities Act 1960 (by which, as originally enacted, the powers of the Charity Commissioners were made exercisable concurrently by the Minister of Education); and
  - (b) the Endowed Schools Acts 1869 to 1948 (which made provision for the modernisation of educational trusts by schemes settled and approved in accordance with those Acts).

Status: Point in time view as at 01/11/1996.
Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Education Act 1973. (See end of Document for details)

<sup>F1</sup>(2) .....

- (3) In connection with the operation of this section there shall have effect the transitional and other consequential or supplementary provisions contained in Schedule 1 to this Act.
- (4) The enactments mentioned in Schedule 2 to this Act (which includes in Part I certain enactments already spent or otherwise no longer required apart from the foregoing provisions of this section) are hereby repealed to the extent specified in column 3 of the Schedule.
- (5) Subsection (1)(a) above and Part III of Schedule 2 to this Act shall not come into force until such date as may be appointed by order made by statutory instrument by the Secretary of State.

Textual Amendments

F1 S. 1(2) repealed (1.11.1996) by 1996 c. 56, ss. 582(2), 583(2), Sch. 38 Pt.I (with ss. 1(4), 561, 562, Sch. 39)

3 Supplementation by Secretary of State, in special cases, of certain awards by local education authority.

- (1) The Secretary of State may by regulations make provision for the payment by him, to persons on whom awards have been bestowed by a local education authority under section 1 of the <sup>M2</sup>Education Act 1962 (awards for first degree university courses and comparable courses in the United Kingdom), of an allowance in respect of a wife, husband or child for the purpose of enabling those persons to take advantage without hardship of their awards in cases where, in accordance with the regulations having effect under that section, account may not be taken of the wife, husband or child in determining the payments to be made by the authority in pursuance of the award.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/11/1996.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Education Act 1973. (See end of Document for details)

- (2) The amount of an allowance payable by virtue of this section to the holder of an award in respect of a wife, husband or child shall not exceed the amount by which the payments to be made by the local education authority in pursuance of the award would have been increased if the case had fallen within the provision made with respect to a wife, husband or child by the regulations having effect under section 1 of the <sup>M3</sup>Education Act 1962.
- (3) Regulations under this section may make different provision for different cases; and the power of the Secretary of State to make regulations under this section shall be exercisable by statutory instrument which shall be subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.
- (4) Any expenses incurred by the Secretary of State in the payment of allowances under this section shall be defrayed out of moneys provided by Parliament.
- (5) In this section references to a person's child include that person's stepchild or illegitimate child . . . <sup>F3</sup>

SCHEDULES

SCHEDULE 1

TRANSITIONAL AND SUPPLEMENTARY PROVISIONS AS TO CHARITIES ETC.

- 1 <sup>F6</sup>(1) . . . . .
- (2) Section 210(3) of the <sup>M4</sup>Local Government Act 1972 (which makes special provision for certain charitable property to vest in local education authorities, if it is held for purposes of a charity registered in a part of the charities register maintained by the Secretary of State by virtue of section 2 of the <sup>M5</sup>Charities Act 1960) shall have effect, unless the appointed day is later than the end of March 1974, as if the reference to a charity registered in a part of the register which is maintained by the Secretary of State were a reference to a charity so registered immediately before the appointed day.
- <sup>F6</sup>(3) . . . . .
- (4) The repeal by this Act of section 2(1) of the <sup>M6</sup>Charities Act 1960 shall not affect the operation of section 2(1)—
- (a) in conferring on the Charity Commissioners functions belonging at the passing of that Act to the Minister of Education; or
  - (b) in extending to the Charity Commissioners references to the Secretary of State for Education and Science or the Secretary of State for Wales (or references having effect as if either of them were mentioned) so as to enable the Commissioners to discharge any such functions as aforesaid or to act under or for the purposes of the trusts of a charity;
- but on the appointed day any functions so conferred and any reference so extended shall, subject to sub-paragraph (5) below, cease to be functions of or to extend to either Secretary of State.
- [<sup>F7</sup>(5) Where it appears to the Secretary of State that any reference, which in accordance with sub-paragraph (4) above ceased on the appointed day to extend to the Secretary of State for Education and Science or the Secretary of State for Wales, was not related (or not wholly related) to the functions ceasing to belong to that Minister by the repeal of section 2(1) of the Charities Act 1960, he may by order exclude the operation of that sub-paragraph in relation to the reference and make such modifications of the relevant instrument as appear to him appropriate in the circumstances.]
- (6) The repeal of section 2(1) of the <sup>M7</sup>Charities Act 1960 shall not affect the validity of anything done (or having effect as if done) before the appointed day by or in relation to the Secretary of State for Education and Science or the Secretary of State for Wales, and anything so done (or having effect as if so done) in so far as it could by virtue of section 2(1) have been done by or in relation to the Charity Commissioners shall thereafter have effect as if done by or in relation to them.
- (7) In this paragraph “appointed day” means the day appointed under section 1(5) of this Act.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/11/1996.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Education Act 1973. (See end of Document for details)
