

Land Compensation Act 1973

1973 CHAPTER 26

PART III

PROVISIONS FOR BENEFIT OF PERSONS DISPLACED FROM LAND

Home loss payments

29 Right to home loss payment where person displaced from dwelling.

- (1) Where a person is displaced from a dwelling on any land in consequence of—
- (a) the compulsory acquisition of an interest in the dwelling;
 - (b) the making . . . ^{F1} or acceptance of a housing order . . . ^{F1} or undertaking in respect of the dwelling. . . ^{F2}
 - (c) where the land has been previously acquired by an authority possessing compulsory purchase powers or appropriated by a local authority and is for the time being held by the authority for the purposes for which it was acquired or appropriated, the carrying out of [^{F3}any improvement to the dwelling or of] redevelopment on the land,
 - [^{F4}(d) the carrying out of any improvement to the dwelling or of redevelopment on the land by a housing association which has previously acquired the land and at the date of the displacement is [^{F5}a registered social landlord within the meaning of the Housing Act 1985 (see section 5(4) and (5) of that Act)];
 - [^{F6}(e) the making of an order for possession on ground 10 or 10A in Part II of Schedule 2 to the Housing Act 1985;] he shall, subject to the provisions of this section and section 32 below, be entitled to receive a payment (hereafter referred to as a “home loss payment”) from
 - [^{F7}(i) where paragraph (a) above applies, the acquiring authority;
 - (ii) where paragraph (b) above applies, the authority who made the order, ^{F8} . . . , accepted the undertaking or served the notice;
 - (iii) where paragraph (c) above applies, the authority carrying out the improvement or redevelopment; ^{F9} . . .

Status: Point in time view as at 31/10/2004.

Changes to legislation: Land Compensation Act 1973, Part III is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 21 June 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

(iv) where paragraph (d) above applies, the housing association carrying out the improvement or redevelopment.]]^{F10}and]

^{F13}[(2) A person shall not be entitled to a home loss payment unless the following conditions have been satisfied throughout the period of one year ending with the date of displacement—

- (a) he has been in occupation of the dwelling, or a substantial part of it, as his only or main residence; and
- (b) he has been in such occupation by virtue of an interest or right to which this section applies, but, if those conditions are satisfied on the date of displacement, a payment (referred to in this section and sections 32 and 33 below as a “ discretionary payment ”) may be made to him of an amount not exceeding the amount to which he would have been entitled if he had satisfied those conditions throughout that period.]

(3) For the purposes of this section a person shall not be treated as displaced from a dwelling in consequence of the compulsory acquisition of an interest therein if he gives up his occupation thereof before the date on which the acquiring authority were authorised to acquire that interest, but, subject to that, it shall not be necessary for the acquiring authority to have required him to give up his occupation of the dwelling.

[^{F14}(3A) For the purposes of this section a person shall not be treated as displaced from a dwelling in consequence of the acceptance of an undertaking, ^{F15} . . . or of the carrying out of any improvement to the dwelling unless he is permanently displaced from it in consequence of the carrying out of the works specified in the undertaking or notice or, as the case may be, of the improvement in question.]

[^{F16}(3B) For the purposes of this section a person must not be treated as displaced from a dwelling in consequence only of the compulsory acquisition of part of a garden or yard or of an outhouse or appurtenance belonging to or usually enjoyed with the building which is occupied or is intended to be occupied as the dwelling.]

(4) This section applies to the following interests and rights—

(a) any interest in the dwelling;

^{F17}[(b) a right to occupy the dwelling—

- (i) as a statutory tenant within the meaning of the Rent (Agriculture) Act 1976 or the Rent Act 1977, or
- (ii) under a contract to which section 19 of the Rent Act 1977 (restricted contracts) applies or would apply if the contract or dwelling were not excluded by section 19(3) to (5) or 144 of that Act]

(c)^{F18}

(d) a right to occupy the dwelling under a contract of employment.

^{F19}[(e) a right to occupy the dwelling under a licence where—

- (i) it is a right to occupy as a protected occupier within the meaning of the Rent (Agriculture) Act 1976,
- (ii) Part IV of the Housing Act 1985 (secure tenancies) applies to the licence, ^{F20} . . .
- (iii) the licence is an assured agricultural occupancy within the meaning of Part I of the Housing Act 1988]]^{F21}, or
- (iv) Chapter 1 of Part V of the Housing Act 1996 (introductory tenancies) applies to the licence.]

Status: Point in time view as at 31/10/2004.

Changes to legislation: Land Compensation Act 1973, Part III is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 21 June 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

^{F22}(5)

(6) Where an authority possessing compulsory purchase powers acquire the interest of any person in a dwelling by agreement, then, in relation to any other person who is displaced from the dwelling in consequence of the acquisition, subsections (1) to (4) above shall have effect as if the acquisition were compulsory and the authority (if not authorised to acquire the interest compulsorily) had been so authorised on the date of the agreement.

[^{F23}(7) In this section “ a housing order or undertaking ” means–

- (a) a demolition or closing order, or an obstructive building order, under Part IX of the Housing Act 1985 (slum clearance);
- (b) a closing order under section 368(4) of that Act (closing of multi-occupied house with inadequate means of escape from fire);
- (c) an undertaking accepted under section. . . ^{F24} 368 of that Act. . .]^{F24}

[^{F25}(7A) In this section—

“ improvement ” includes alteration and enlargement; and “ redevelopment ” includes a change of use.]

(8) Where an interest in a dwelling is vested in trustees (other than a sole tenant for life within the meaning of the ^{M1}Settled Land Act 1925) and a person beneficially entitled (whether directly or derivatively) under the trusts is entitled or permitted by reason of his interest to occupy the dwelling, he shall be treated for the purposes of this section as occupying it by virtue of an interest in the dwelling.

. . . ^{F1}

(9) This section applies if the date of displacement is on or after 17th October 1972.

[^{F29}30 Amount of home loss payment in England and Wales.

- (1) In the case of a person who on the date of displacement is occupying, or is treated for the purposes of section 29 above as occupying, the dwelling by virtue of an interest in it which is an owner's interest, the amount of the home loss payment shall be 10 per cent. of the market value of his interest in the dwelling or, as the case may be, the interest in the dwelling vested in trustees, subject to a maximum of £15,000 and a minimum of £1,500.
- (2) In any other case, the amount of the home loss payment shall be £1,500.
- (3) For the purposes of this section and section 32 below the market value of an interest in a dwelling—
- in a case where the interest is compulsorily acquired, is the amount assessed for the purposes of the acquisition as the value of the interest; and
 - in any other case, is the amount which, if the interest were being compulsorily acquired in pursuance of a notice to treat served on the date of displacement, would be assessed for the purposes of the acquisition as the value of the interest,
- and any dispute as to the amount referred to in paragraph (b) above shall be determined by the Lands Tribunal.
- (4) In determining for the purposes of this section and section 32 below the market value of an interest in a dwelling, the dwelling shall be taken to include any garden, yard, outhouses and appurtenances belonging to or usually enjoyed with that dwelling.
- (5) The Secretary of State may from time to time by regulations prescribe a different maximum or minimum for the purposes of subsection (1) above and a different amount for the purposes of subsection (2) above.
- (6) The power to make regulations under subsection (5) above shall be exercisable by statutory instrument which shall be subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.
- (7) In this section “ owner's interest ” means the interest of a person who is an owner as defined in section 7 of the ^{M2} Acquisition of Land Act 1981.]

32 Supplementary provisions about home loss payments.

- [^{F31}(1) No home loss payment or discretionary payment shall be made except on a claim in writing made by the claimant giving such particulars as the authority responsible for making the payment may reasonably require for the purpose of determining whether the payment should be made and, if so, its amount.
- (2) Where a person is entitled to a home loss payment, the payment shall be made on or before the latest of the following dates—
- (a) the date of displacement;
 - (b) the last day of the period of three months beginning with the making of the claim; and
 - (c) where the amount of the payment is to be determined in accordance with section 30(1) above, the day on which the market value of the interest in question is agreed or finally determined.
- (2A) Where the amount of the payment is to be determined in accordance with section 30(1) above—
- (a) the acquiring authority may at any time make a payment in advance; and
 - (b) if, on the later of the dates referred to in subsection (2)(a) and (b) above, the market value of the interest in question has not been agreed or finally determined, the acquiring authority shall make a payment in advance (where they have not already done so).
- (2B) The amount of the payment in advance shall be the lesser of—
- (a) the maximum amount for the purposes of section 30(1) above,
 - (b) 10 per cent. of the amount agreed to be the market value of the interest in question or, if there is no such agreement, 10 per cent. of the acquiring authority's estimate of that amount.
- (2C) Where the amount of a payment in advance differs from the amount of the home loss payment, the shortfall or excess shall be paid by or, as the case may be, repaid to the acquiring authority when the market value of the interest in question is agreed or finally determined.
- (3) Where the claimant has satisfied, throughout any period, the conditions mentioned in section 29(2) above, that period shall be treated for the purposes of that subsection as including any immediately preceding period throughout which—
- (a) he has resided in the dwelling as his only or main residence but without satisfying those conditions, and
 - (b) another person or other persons have satisfied those conditions, and references in this subsection and subsection (3A) below to a dwelling include a reference to a substantial part of it.

- (3A) Where the claimant has satisfied, throughout any period, the conditions mentioned in section 29(2) above, that period (or that period as extended under subsection (3) above) shall be treated for the purposes of section 29(2) above as including any immediately preceding period, or successive periods, throughout which he satisfied the conditions mentioned in section 29(2) above in relation to another dwelling or, as the case may be, other dwellings (applying subsection (3) above to determine the length of any period or periods).]
- (4) [^{F32}Where a person (“the deceased”) entitled to a home loss payment dies without having claimed it, a claim to the payment may be made], by any person, not being a minor, who—
- (a) throughout a period of not less than [^{F33}one year] ending with the date of displacement of the deceased, has resided in the dwelling, or a substantial part of it, as his only or main residence; and
 - (b) is entitled to benefit by virtue of testamentary dispositions taking effect on, or the law of intestate succession or the right of survivorship between joint tenants as applied to, the death of the deceased.
- (5) Where the claimant has successively been in occupation of or resided in different dwellings in the same building, being dwellings consisting of a room or rooms not constructed or structurally adapted for use as a separate dwelling, section 29(2) above and subsections [^{F34}(3) to (4)] above shall have effect as if those dwellings were the same dwelling.
- (6) Where there are two or more persons entitled to make a claim to a home loss payment in respect of the same dwelling (whether by virtue of joint occupation or of subsection (4) above) the payment to be made on each claim shall be equal to the whole amount of the home loss payment divided by the number of such persons.
- (7) Where an interest in a dwelling is acquired by agreement by an authority possessing compulsory purchase powers, the authority may, in connection with the acquisition, make to the person from whom the interest is acquired a payment corresponding to any home loss payment [^{F35}or discretionary payment] which they would be required [^{F35}or authorised] to make to him if the acquisition were compulsory and the authority had been authorised to acquire that interest before he gave up occupation of the dwelling.

^{F44}[(4) Section 30 above shall have effect as if the references to a person occupying a dwelling by virtue of an interest in it and to his interest in the dwelling were to a person occupying a caravan site by virtue of an interest in it and to that interest.]

(5) Section 32 above shall have effect—

^{F45}[(a) as if in subsections (3) and (3A) the references to a dwelling were to a caravan site;]

(b) as if in subsection (4) for the words “resided in the dwelling, or a substantial part of it” there were substituted the words “resided in a caravan on the caravan site”; and

(c) as if for subsection (5) there were substituted—

“(5) Where any land comprises two or more caravan sites and the claimant has successively been in occupation of or resided in a caravan on different caravan sites on that land, section 29(2) above and subsections [^{F46}(3) to (4)] above shall have effect as if those sites were the same site.”

(6) Sections 29 to 32 above shall have effect as if in any provision not modified as aforesaid for any reference to a dwelling or land there were substituted a reference to a caravan site.

(7) In this section “caravan site” means land on which a caravan is stationed for the purpose of human habitation and land which is used in conjunction with land on which a caravan is so stationed.

38 Amount of disturbance payment.

- (1) The amount of a disturbance payment shall be equal to—
- (a) the reasonable expenses of the person entitled to the payment in removing from the land from which he is displaced; and
 - (b) if he was carrying on a trade or business on that land, the loss he will sustain by reason of the disturbance of that trade or business consequent upon his having to quit the land.

- (2) In estimating the loss of any person for the purposes of subsection (1)(b) above, regard shall be had to the period for which the land occupied by him may reasonably have been expected to be available for the purposes of his trade or business and to the availability of other land suitable for that purpose.

This subsection has effect subject to section 46(7) below.

- (3) Where the displacement is from a dwelling in respect of which structural modifications have been made for meeting the special needs of a disabled person (whether or not the person entitled to the disturbance payment) then, if—
- (a) a local authority having functions under section 29 of the ^{M7}National Assistance Act 1948, ^{F66}, provided assistance, or
 - (b) such an authority would, if an application had been made, have provided assistance, for making those modifications, the amount of the disturbance payment shall include an amount equal to any reasonable expenses incurred by the person entitled to the payment in making, in respect of a dwelling to which the disabled person removes, comparable modifications which are reasonably required for meeting the disabled person's special needs.

41 Power of relevant authority to make advances repayable on maturity to displaced residential owner-occupiers.

- (1) Where a person displaced from a dwelling in consequence of any of the matters mentioned in subsection (1)(a), (b) or (c) of section 39 above—
 - (a) is an owner-occupier of the dwelling; and
 - (b) wishes to acquire or construct another dwelling in substitution for that from which he is displaced, the relevant authority for the purposes of that section may advance money to him for the purpose of enabling him to acquire or construct the other dwelling.
- (2) The power conferred by this section shall be exercisable subject to such conditions as may be approved by the Secretary of State and the following provisions shall apply with respect to any advance made in the exercise of that power.
- (3) The advance shall be made—
 - (a) on terms providing for the payment of the principal—
 - (i) at the end of a fixed period, with or without a provision allowing the authority to extend that period; or
 - (ii) upon notice given by the authority, subject, in either case, to a provision for earlier repayment on the happening of a specified event;
 - (b) on such other terms as the authority may think fit having regard to all the circumstances.
- (4) An advance for the construction of a dwelling may be made by instalments from time to time as the works of construction progress.
- (5) The principal of the advance, together with interest thereon, shall be secured by a mortgage of the borrower’s interest in the dwelling, and the amount of the principal shall not exceed the value which, in accordance with a valuation duly made on behalf of the relevant authority, it is estimated that the borrower’s interest will bear or, as the case may be, will bear when the dwelling has been constructed.
- (6) Before advancing money under this section the relevant authority shall satisfy themselves that the dwelling to be acquired is or will be made, or that the dwelling to be constructed will on completion be, in all respects fit for human habitation.
- (7) While the payment of the principal of an advance made by a local authority under this section is not required in accordance with the terms of the advance, the local authority may suspend, with respect to so much of any sum borrowed by them as is referable to the advance or with respect to any sum paid in respect of the advance out of their Consolidated Loans Fund, any periodical provision for repayment that may be required by any enactment or by any scheme (whether made under section 55 of the ^{M9}Local Government Act 1958 or under any local enactment) by which the Fund was established.

43 Power of relevant authority to defray expenses in connection with acquisition of new dwellings.

- (1) Where a person displaced from a dwelling in consequence of [^{F92}any of the events specified in paragraphs (a) to (d) of section 39(1)above]—
- (a) has no interest in the dwelling or no greater interest therein than as tenant for a year or from year to year; and
 - (b) wishes to acquire another dwelling in substitution for that from which he is displaced,
- [^{F92}then, according to the nature of the event in consequence of which he was displaced, the acquiring authority, the authority who made the order, passed the resolution, accepted the undertaking or served the notice or the authority carrying out the improvement or redevelopment] may pay any reasonable expenses incurred by him in connection with the acquisition, other than the purchase price.
- (2) No payment shall be made under this section in respect of expenses incurred by any person in connection with the acquisition of a dwelling unless the dwelling is acquired not later than one year after the displacement and is reasonably comparable with that from which he is displaced.
- (3) For the purposes of subsection (2) above a dwelling acquired pursuant to a contract shall be treated as acquired when the contract is made.
- (4) Subsections (3) [^{F93}(6) and (6A)] of section 39 above shall have effect in relation to subsection (1) above and to [^{F93}any provision of subsection (1)] of that section as applied thereby.
