PART I U.K.

PRELIMINARY

Status of Northern Ireland

1 Status of Northern Ireland as part of United Kingdom. U.K.

It is hereby declared that Northern Ireland remains part of Her Majesty's dominions and of the United Kingdom, and it is hereby affirmed that in no event will Northern Ireland or any part of it cease to be part of Her Majesty's dominions and of the United Kingdom without the consent of the majority of the people of Northern Ireland voting in a poll held for the purposes of this section in accordance with Schedule 1 to this Act.

Status: Point in time view as at 05/02/1991.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Northern Ireland Constitution Act 1973. (See end of Document for details)

Devolution orders

2 Initial devolution of legislative and executive responsibility. U.K.

- (1) If it appears to the Secretary of State—
- (a) that the Northern Ireland Assembly (in this Act referred to as “the Assembly”) has made satisfactory provision by its standing orders for the purposes mentioned in section 25(2) to (5) below; and
 - (b) that a Northern Ireland Executive can be formed which, having regard to the support it commands in the Assembly and to the electorate on which that support is based, is likely to be widely accepted throughout the community,
- and that having regard to those matters there is a reasonable basis for the establishment in Northern Ireland of government by consent, he shall lay before Parliament the draft of an Order in Council appointing a day for the commencement of Part II of this Act and declaring what matters shall, subject to section 3 below, be transferred matters for the purposes of this Act.
- (2) The matters declared by an Order under this section to be transferred matters shall not include—
- (a) any of the matters specified in Schedule 2 to this Act (in this Act referred to as “excepted matters”); or
 - (b) any of the matters specified in Schedule 3 to this Act.
- (3) If the draft laid before Parliament under subsection (1) above is approved by resolution of each House of Parliament the Secretary of State shall submit it to Her Majesty in Council and Her Majesty in Council may make the Order in terms of the draft.
- (4) On the day appointed by an Order under this section for the commencement of Part II of this Act (in this Act referred to as “the appointed day”) section 1 of the ^{M1}Northern Ireland (Temporary Provisions) Act 1972 shall expire.

Modifications etc. (not altering text)

3 Alterations in devolved responsibilities. U.K.

- (1) If at any time after the appointed day it appears to the Secretary of State—
- (a) that any matter (not being an excepted matter) which is not a transferred matter by virtue of an Order under section 2 above or a previous Order under this section should become a transferred matter; or
 - (b) that any matter which by virtue of any such Order is a transferred matter should cease to be such a matter,
- he may, subject to subsection (2) below, lay before Parliament the draft of an Order in Council declaring that the matter shall be or, as the case may be, shall cease to be a transferred matter with effect from such date as may be specified in the Order.

Status: Point in time view as at 05/02/1991.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Northern Ireland Constitution Act 1973. (See end of Document for details)

- (2) The Secretary of State shall not lay before Parliament the draft of an Order in Council declaring that any matter not specified in Schedule 3 to this Act shall cease to be a transferred matter unless the Assembly has passed a resolution praying that it should cease to be a transferred matter.
- (3) Subsection (3) of section 2 above shall have effect in relation to any draft laid before Parliament under this section as it has effect in relation to a draft laid before Parliament under that section.
- (4) Any matter (not being an excepted matter) which is not for the time being a transferred matter is in this Act referred to as a “reserved matter”.

Modifications etc. (not altering text)

PART II U.K.

LEGISLATIVE POWERS AND EXECUTIVE AUTHORITIES

Legislative powers

4 Measures of Northern Ireland Assembly. U.K.

- (1) Laws may be made for Northern Ireland by Measures of the Assembly (in this Act referred to as “Measures”).
- (2) A Measure shall be enacted by being passed by the Assembly and approved by Her Majesty in Council.
- (3) Subject to section 17 below, a Measure shall have the same force and effect as an Act of the Parliament of the United Kingdom.
- (4) This section does not affect the power of the Parliament of the United Kingdom to make laws for Northern Ireland but, subject to the said section 17, a Measure may amend or repeal any provision made by or under any Act of Parliament in so far as it is part of the law of Northern Ireland.
- (5) It is hereby declared for the avoidance of doubt that a Measure is not invalid by reason of any failure to comply with the provisions of section 5, 6, 14 or 18(2), (5) or (6) below; and no act or omission under any of those provisions shall be called in question in any legal proceedings.

Status: Point in time view as at 05/02/1991.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Northern Ireland Constitution Act 1973. (See end of Document for details)

5 Secretary of State's consent for proposed Measures dealing with excepted or reserved matters. U.K.

- (1) The consent of the Secretary of State shall be required in accordance with this section in relation to a proposed Measure which contains any provision dealing with an excepted matter or reserved matter; and the Secretary of State shall not give his consent in relation to a proposed Measure which contains any provision dealing with an excepted matter unless he considers that the provision is ancillary to other provisions (whether in that Measure or previously enacted) dealing with reserved matters or transferred matters.
- (2) Every proposed Measure introduced in the Assembly shall be considered by the Clerk to the Assembly on introduction and if—
 - (a) he considers that it contains any provision dealing with an excepted matter or reserved matter; and
 - (b) it has not been endorsed with a statement that the Secretary of State has consented to the Assembly considering the proposed Measure, then, subject to subsection (4) below, the Clerk shall refer the proposed Measure to the Secretary of State and the Assembly shall not proceed with the Measure unless the Secretary of State's consent to the consideration of the Measure by the Assembly is signified or the Assembly is informed that in his opinion the Measure does not contain any such provision as aforesaid.
- (3) Before the Assembly enters on the stage in its proceedings at which a proposed Measure falls finally to be passed or rejected—
 - (a) the Clerk to the Assembly shall again consider the proposed Measure; and
 - (b) if he considers that it contains any provision dealing with an excepted matter or reserved matter he shall, subject to subsection (4) below, refer it to the Secretary of State, and the Assembly shall not enter on that stage unless the Secretary of State's consent to the Measure is signified or the Assembly is informed that in his opinion the Measure does not contain any such provision as aforesaid.
- (4) Neither subsection (2) nor subsection (3) above shall require the Clerk to the Assembly to refer any proposed Measure to the Secretary of State, or preclude the Assembly from proceeding with a proposed Measure, by reason only that it contains a provision which, in the opinion of the Clerk, is ancillary to other provisions (whether in that Measure or previously enacted) dealing with transferred matters only.
- (5) Every proposed Measure passed by the Assembly shall be transmitted to the Secretary of State for submission to Her Majesty in Council but if—
 - (a) he considers that it contains any provision dealing with an excepted matter or reserved matter; and
 - (b) it has not been referred to him under subsection (3) above (whether by virtue of subsection (4) above or otherwise), he shall not submit the Measure to Her Majesty in Council unless he consents to the Measure.
- (6) If the Secretary of State withholds his consent to a proposed Measure passed by the Assembly he shall refer it back to the Assembly for further consideration; and, if it is modified by the Assembly and again transmitted to him, subsection (5) above shall apply to it as if it were a new proposed Measure transmitted to him after being passed by the Assembly.

Status: Point in time view as at 05/02/1991.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Northern Ireland Constitution Act 1973. (See end of Document for details)

- (7) For the purposes of this section a provision is ancillary to other provisions if it is a provision which is necessary or expedient for making those other provisions effective or which provides for the enforcement of those other provisions or which is otherwise incidental to, or consequential on, those provisions; and references in this section to provisions previously enacted are references to provisions contained in, or in any instrument made under, another Measure, an Act of the Parliament of the United Kingdom or an Act of the Parliament of Northern Ireland.

Modifications etc. (not altering text)

C13 S. 5 modified by Northern Ireland Act 1982 \(c. 38, SIF 29:3\), s. 2(5), Sch. 1 para. 4\(1\)

6 Parliamentary control of Measures dealing with excepted or reserved matters.

U.K.

- (1) Subject to the provisions of this section, a proposed Measure to which the Secretary of State has consented under section 5(3) or (5) above shall not be submitted by him to Her Majesty in Council unless he has first laid it before Parliament and either—
- the period of twenty days beginning with the date on which it is laid has expired without notice having been given in either House of a motion praying that the proposed Measure shall not be submitted to Her Majesty in Council for approval; or
 - if notice of such a motion is given within that period the motion has been rejected or withdrawn.
- (2) Subsection (1) above shall not apply to a proposed Measure if the Secretary of State considers that it contains no provision dealing with an excepted matter or reserved matter except a provision which is ancillary (within the meaning of section 5 above) to other provisions dealing with transferred matters only.
- (3) Subsection (1) above shall not apply to a proposed Measure if the Secretary of State considers that by reason of urgency it should be submitted to Her Majesty in Council without first being laid before Parliament.
- (4) Any Measure submitted by virtue of subsection (3) above shall, if approved by Her Majesty in Council, be laid before Parliament by the Secretary of State after approval, and if—
- within the period of twenty days beginning with the date on which it is laid notice is given in either House of a motion praying that the Measure shall cease to have effect; and
 - that motion is carried,
- Her Majesty may by Order in Council repeal that Measure with effect from such date as may be specified in the Order.
- (5) An Order in Council under subsection (4) above may make such consequential or transitional provision in connection with the repeal as appears to Her Majesty to be necessary or expedient.
- (6) Any notice of motion for the purposes of subsection (1) or (4) above must be signed by not less than twenty members of the House in which it is given; and any period mentioned in those subsections shall be computed, in relation to each House, by reference only to days on which that House sits.

Status: Point in time view as at 05/02/1991.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Northern Ireland Constitution Act 1973. (See end of Document for details)

Executive authorities

7 Executive authorities in Northern Ireland. U.K.

- (1) The executive power in Northern Ireland shall continue to be vested in Her Majesty.
- (2) As respects transferred matters the Secretary of State shall, as Her Majesty's principal officer in Northern Ireland, exercise on Her Majesty's behalf such prerogative or other executive powers of Her Majesty in relation to Northern Ireland as may be delegated to him by Her Majesty.
- (3) The powers so delegated shall be exercised through the [^{F1}persons appointed under section 8 below] and the Northern Ireland departments.
- (4)^{F2}
- (5) The Ministries of the Government of Northern Ireland existing on the appointed day shall be the Northern Ireland departments for the purposes of this Act (and shall be known as departments instead of Ministries) but provision may be made by Measure for establishing new Northern Ireland departments or dissolving existing ones.
- (6) The Secretary of State as Her Majesty's principal officer in Northern Ireland, the members of the Northern Ireland Executive, any other persons appointed under section 8 below and the Northern Ireland departments are in this Act referred to as Northern Ireland executive authorities.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Northern Ireland Constitution Act 1973. (See end of Document for details)

- (b) shall be such as will in the opinion of the Secretary of State command widespread acceptance throughout the community.
- (5) Without prejudice to subsection (6) below, two of the persons at any time holding appointments under this section may be persons who were not appointed from among members of the Assembly but not more than one of them shall be the head of a Northern Ireland department.
- (6) If at any time it appears to the Secretary of State that it is not possible to make an appointment which complies with the requirements of subsection (4) above he may make an appointment which does not comply with those requirements but any person so appointed shall not hold office for more than six months.
- (7) Before making any appointment under this section (otherwise than by virtue of subsection (6) above) the Secretary of State shall so far as practicable consult with the parties represented in the Assembly and take into account any proposals submitted to him under section 1 of the ^{M2}Northern Ireland Act 1982.]
- (8) Persons appointed under this section shall hold office at Her Majesty's pleasure; and a person who is required by this section to be appointed from among members of the Assembly shall not continue in office for more than six months after ceasing to be a member of the Assembly.
- (9) A person appointed under this section who is not a member of the Assembly shall be entitled to sit and speak in the Assembly but not to vote.
- (10) Every person appointed under this section shall, on appointment, take the oath or make the affirmation set out in Schedule 4 to this Act.

15 Payment to Northern Ireland of share of United Kingdom taxes. U.K.

- (1) Subject to subsection (4) below, there shall in respect of each year be charged on and paid out of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom into the Consolidated Fund of Northern Ireland a sum equal to the Northern Ireland share of United Kingdom taxes.
- (2) The Northern Ireland share of United Kingdom taxes in respect of each year shall be determined by the Treasury; and that share shall be such amount as, in the opinion of the Treasury, represents the proceeds for that year of the taxes payable into the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom which are properly attributable to Northern Ireland after deducting the cost of collection and other appropriate costs.
- (3) The Treasury may make regulations with respect to the method by which the proceeds of the taxes, and the costs, mentioned in subsection (2) above are to be attributed to Northern Ireland; and any determination under that subsection shall be made in accordance with those regulations.
- (4) The Treasury may by order direct that there shall be deducted from the sum payable under subsection (1) above in respect of any year such sum as may be specified in the order by way of contribution towards the expenses falling on the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom in respect of that year which relate to excepted matters and reserved matters.
- (5) The sums payable under subsection (1) above shall be paid at such times and in such manner as the Treasury may determine, and payments may be made on account of sums subsequently so payable.
- (6) The power to make regulations or orders under this section shall be exercisable by statutory instrument and—
 - (a) any regulations under subsection (3) shall be subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of the House of Commons;
 - (b) no order shall be made under subsection (4) unless a draft of it has been approved by the House of Commons.

16 Grants to Northern Ireland out of moneys provided by Parliament. U.K.

- (1) The Secretary of State may from time to time pay out of moneys provided by Parliament into the Consolidated Fund of Northern Ireland such sums by way of grant as he may with the consent of the Treasury determine and may, in connection with any such payment, impose such conditions as he may with the like consent determine.
- (2) No further payments shall be made under section 26(7) of the ^{M4}Finance Act 1967 or under or by virtue of section 67 of the ^{M5}Finance Act 1971 (payments towards certain expenditure in Northern Ireland).

PART III U.K.

PREVENTION OF RELIGIOUS AND POLITICAL DISCRIMINATION

Modifications etc. (not altering text)

- C17 Pt. III (ss. 17-23) modified (N.I.) (1.7.1992) by Social Security Administration \(Northern Ireland\) Act 1992 \(c. 8\), ss. 167\(2\), 168\(4\) (with ss. 153\(5\), 161, Sch. 6 para. 1\(7\))
- C18 Pt. III (ss. 17-23) modified (N.I.) (7.2.1994) by 1993 c. 49, ss. 176\(8\), 186\(2\)

17 Discrimination in legislation. U.K.

- (1) Any Measure, any Act of the Parliament of Northern Ireland and any relevant subordinate instrument shall, to the extent that it discriminates against any person or class of persons on the ground of religious belief or political opinion, be void.
- (2) In this section “relevant subordinate instrument” means an instrument of a legislative character (including a byelaw) made (whether before or after the coming into force of this section) under any Act of the Parliament of the United Kingdom or the Parliament of Northern Ireland or under any Measure and extending only to Northern Ireland or a part of Northern Ireland.

18 Special procedure for determining validity of legislation. U.K.

- (1) If it appears to the Secretary of State to be expedient in the public interest that steps should be taken for the speedy decision of any question whether a provision of a Measure, Act of the Parliament of Northern Ireland or relevant subordinate instrument within the meaning of section 17 above is void by virtue of that section, he may recommend to Her Majesty that the question be referred for decision to the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council.
- (2) If it appears to the Secretary of State that a proposed Measure transmitted to him after being passed by the Assembly contains a provision which, if the Measure were enacted, might be void by virtue of the said section 17 he shall refer it back to the Assembly for further consideration; and if—
 - (a) it is again transmitted to him with or without modification; and
 - (b) it still appears to him to contain such a provision as aforesaid,he shall recommend to Her Majesty that the question whether that provision would be void by virtue of the said section 17 be referred for decision to the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council.
- (3) For the purposes of their consideration of any question referred to them under this section the Judicial Committee may hear any person who appears to them to be interested in the determination of that question.
- (4) The decision of the Judicial Committee under this section as to the validity of any provision shall be stated in open court and shall be binding in all subsequent legal proceedings.

Status: Point in time view as at 05/02/1991.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Northern Ireland Constitution Act 1973. (See end of Document for details)

- (5) Where the Judicial Committee decide that a provision in a proposed Measure would be void the Secretary of State shall not submit the proposed Measure for the approval of Her Majesty in Council; and where they decide that such a provision would not be void their decision shall be taken as applying also to that provision if contained in the Measure when enacted.
- (6) Subsection (6) of section 5 above shall apply where the Secretary of State is precluded by subsection (5) above from submitting a proposed Measure for approval as it applies where he withholds his consent under that section and as if the reference to subsection (5) of that section included a reference to subsections (2) and (5) above.
- (7) This section is without prejudice to any power of Her Majesty to refer to the Judicial Committee any questions other than those mentioned in this section.

19 Discrimination by public authorities. U.K.

- (1) [^{F6}Subject to subsection (4) below] it shall be unlawful for a Minister of the Crown, a member of the Northern Ireland Executive or other person appointed under section 8 above, the Post Office and any authority or body listed in Schedule 2 to the ^{M6}Parliamentary Commissioner Act 1967, Schedule 1 to the ^{M7}Parliamentary Commissioner Act (Northern Ireland) 1969 or Schedule 1 to the ^{M8}Commissioner for Complaints Act (Northern Ireland) 1969 to discriminate, or aid, induce or incite another to discriminate, in the discharge of functions relating to Northern Ireland against any person or class of persons on the ground of religious belief or political opinion.
- (2) The obligation to comply with subsection (1) above is a duty owed to any person who may be adversely affected by a contravention of that subsection, and any breach of that duty is actionable in Northern Ireland accordingly.
- (3) Without prejudice to the right of any person apart from this subsection to claim an injunction restraining another from continuing or repeating any act which is unlawful by virtue of subsection (1) above, the plaintiff may in an action in respect of an act alleged to be unlawful as aforesaid claim any such injunction as is mentioned below on the grounds—
 - (a) that the act was done by the defendant and was unlawful as aforesaid;
 - (b) that the defendant had previously done such unlawful acts of the same kind as, or of a similar kind to, that act; and
 - (c) that he is likely, unless restrained by order of the court, to do further acts of the same or of a similar kind;

23 Interpretation and supplemental. U.K.

- (1) For the purposes of this Part of this Act a Measure, an Act of the Parliament of Northern Ireland or any other instrument discriminates against any person or class of persons if it treats that person or that class less favourably in any circumstances than other persons are treated in those circumstances by the law for the time being in force in Northern Ireland.
- (2) For those purposes a person discriminates against another person or a class of persons if he treats that other person or that class less favourably in any circumstances than he treats or would treat other persons in those circumstances.
- (3) No Measure, Act of the Parliament of Northern Ireland or other instrument and no act done by any person shall be treated for the purposes of this Act as discriminating if the instrument has the effect, or, as the case may be, the act is done for the purpose, of safeguarding national security or protecting public safety or public order.
- (4) A certificate purporting to be signed by or on behalf of the Secretary of State and certifying that an act specified in the certificate was done for the purpose of safeguarding national security shall be conclusive evidence that it was done for that purpose.
- (5) No provision of this Part of this Act shall affect the operation before the coming into force of that provision of any Measure, Act of the Parliament of Northern Ireland or other instrument.

PART IV U.K.

THE NORTHERN IRELAND ASSEMBLY

24 Presiding officer and Clerk of the Assembly. U.K.

- (1) The Assembly elected under the ^{M15}Northern Ireland Assembly Act 1973, and every Assembly subsequently elected, shall as its first business elect one of its members to be the presiding officer of the Assembly.
- (2) The person so elected shall hold office until the dissolution of the Assembly unless he previously resigns or ceases to be a member of the Assembly or is removed from office by resolution of the Assembly; and if the presiding officer vacates his office before the expiration of his term of office the Assembly shall elect another person to fill his place for the remainder of that term.
- (3) There shall be a Clerk to the Assembly appointed by Her Majesty on the recommendation of the Secretary of State.
- (4) The Clerk to the Assembly shall, with the consent of the Ministry of Finance for Northern Ireland as to numbers, appoint such other officers and servants of the Assembly as he considers requisite.
- (5) The remuneration of the Clerk to the Assembly shall be such as may be determined by the Ministry of Finance for Northern Ireland; and the remuneration and conditions of service of the other officers and servants of the Assembly shall be such as may be determined by the Clerk to the Assembly with the consent of that Ministry.
- (6) The remuneration of the Clerk to the Assembly shall be charged on and paid out of the Consolidated Fund of Northern Ireland and the remuneration of the other officers and servants of the Assembly shall be defrayed out of moneys appropriated by Measure.
- (7) The Clerk to the Assembly shall act as presiding officer while that office is vacant pending an election under subsection (1) or (2) above.
- (8) Any functions of the Clerk to the Assembly (including functions under section 5 above or under subsection (7) above) may, if the office of Clerk is vacant or the Clerk is for any reason unable to act, be discharged by any other officer for the time being discharging the duties of the Clerk.

39 Power to legislate by Order in Council for purposes consequential on this Act or on Orders under s. 3. U.K.

- (1) Her Majesty may by Order in Council make such provision, including provision amending the law of any part of the United Kingdom, as appears to Her Majesty to be necessary or expedient in consequence of, or for giving full effect to, this Act or any Order under section 3 above; and, without prejudice to the generality of that power, provision may in particular be made by any such Order for any of the matters mentioned in subsections (2) to (7) below.

Status: Point in time view as at 05/02/1991.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Northern Ireland Constitution Act 1973. (See end of Document for details)

- (2) Provision may be made for transferring, with effect from the appointed day, any functions which immediately before that day are (or but for the ^{M28}Northern Ireland (Temporary Provisions) Act 1972 or section 32 or 37 above would be) exercisable by any existing Northern Ireland authority—
 - (a) in so far as those functions appear to Her Majesty to be concerned with an excepted matter or reserved matter, to a United Kingdom authority;
 - (b) in so far as they appear to Her Majesty to be concerned with a transferred matter, to a new Northern Ireland authority.
- (3) Provision may be made, with effect from the appointed day, for anything which immediately before that day would, apart from the said Act of 1972 or section 31 above, fall to be done by or to the Parliament of Northern Ireland or either House of that Parliament in connection with any matter (other than the passing of Acts of that Parliament) to be done instead by or to—
 - (a) in so far as that matter appears to Her Majesty to be an excepted matter or reserved matter, the Parliament of the United Kingdom or either House of that Parliament;
 - (b) in so far as that matter appears to Her Majesty to be a transferred matter, the Assembly.
- (4) Provision may be made for transferring, with effect from any date specified in an Order under section 3 above, any functions which immediately before that date are exercisable by a United Kingdom authority or a new or existing Northern Ireland authority—
 - (a) in so far as they appear to Her Majesty to be concerned with a matter which on that date becomes a transferred matter, to a new or existing Northern Ireland authority;
 - (b) in so far as they appear to Her Majesty to be concerned with a matter which on that date ceases to be a transferred matter, to a United Kingdom authority.
- (5) Provision may be made, with effect from any date specified in an Order under the said section 3, for anything which immediately before that date falls to be done by or to the Parliament of the United Kingdom or either House of that Parliament or by the Assembly in connection with any matter (other than the passing of Acts of Parliament or Measures) to be done instead by or to—
 - (a) in so far as that matter appears to Her Majesty to be a matter which on that date becomes a transferred matter, the Assembly;
 - (b) in so far as that matter appears to Her Majesty to be a matter which on that date ceases to be a transferred matter, the Parliament of the United Kingdom or either House of that Parliament.
- (6) Provision may be made for any sums to be charged on and payable out of, or payable into, the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom or the Consolidated Fund of Northern Ireland or for any sums to be paid out of moneys provided by Parliament or out of moneys appropriated by Measure.
- (7) Provision may be made, to such extent as may appear to Her Majesty to be necessary or expedient in consequence of, or for giving full effect to, this Act or any Order under section 3 above—
 - (a) for transferring or apportioning any property, rights or liabilities;
 - (b) for substituting any authority for any other authority in any charter, contract or other document or in any legal proceedings;

40 General adaptation of references to institutions and offices abolished by this Act. U.K.

- (1) Schedule 5 to this Act shall have effect as from the appointed day for adapting references in existing statutory provisions to institutions and offices which cease to exist by virtue of this Act.
- (2) Where an existing statutory provision refers (otherwise than for the purpose of extending or restricting the powers of the Parliament of Northern Ireland) to the matters in respect of which that Parliament has or does not have power to make laws, that provision shall be construed as referring to the matters in respect of which that Parliament would or would not have had power to make laws if this Act had not been passed.
- (3) In this Section “existing statutory provision” means any provision contained in an Act of the Parliament of Northern Ireland or in an Act of the Parliament of the United Kingdom passed before the appointed day or in the Session in which the appointed day falls and any provision contained in an instrument made before the appointed day under any such Act.
- (4) Subsection (1) above applies also in relation to any charter, contract or other document (not being a statutory provision) made before the appointed day.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Northern Ireland Constitution Act 1973. (See end of Document for details)

- (5) This section and Schedule 5 have effect subject to any provision made by or under this Act or by Measure, and modify references only so far as their context and the nature of the provision or document in question admit.

41 Repeals. U.K.

- (1) The enactments specified in Schedule 6 to this Act are hereby repealed to the extent specified in the third column of that Schedule—
- in the case of the enactments in Part I of that Schedule, as from the passing of this Act;
 - in the case of those in Part II, as from the appointed day.
- (2) Without prejudice to the generality of the powers conferred by section 39 above, an Order in Council under that section may repeal or revoke any existing statutory provision (as defined in section 40 above) which appears to Her Majesty to be unnecessary in consequence of, or inconsistent with, any provision of this Act.

Modifications etc. (not altering text)
