

Social Security Act 1973

1973 CHAPTER 38

PART II

OCCUPATIONAL PENSION SCHEMES

Miscellaneous

70 Legal restrictions of doubtful application.

- (1) This section has effect for the removal of doubt as to the application, or possible application, of certain enactments in relation to occupational pension schemes.
- (2) Nothing in the Truck Acts 1831 to 1940, or the Truck Acts (Northern Ireland) 1831 to 1940, the Hosiery Manufacture (Wages) Act 1874 or the Stannaries Act 1887 has, or ever has had, effect so as to prevent the deduction from a person's earnings, on their payment to him, of his contributions to an occupational pension scheme, or of sums to be applied for the purpose of acquiring rights under such a scheme, whether for himself or for his widow or dependants.
- (3) An occupational pension scheme is not, nor ever has been, a shop club or thrift fund for the purposes of the Shop Clubs Act 1902.
