

Consumer Credit Act 1974

1974 CHAPTER 39

PART IX

JUDICIAL CONTROL

[^{F1}Interest

VALID FROM 16/06/2006

[^{F1}130A Interest payable on judgment debts etc.

- (1) If the creditor or owner under a regulated agreement wants to be able to recover from the debtor or hirer post-judgment interest in connection with a sum that is required to be paid under a judgment given in relation to the agreement (the ‘judgment sum’), he—
 - (a) after the giving of that judgment, shall give the debtor or hirer a notice under this section (the ‘first required notice’); and
 - (b) after the giving of the first required notice, shall give the debtor or hirer further notices under this section at intervals of not more than six months.
- (2) The debtor or hirer shall have no liability to pay post-judgment interest in connection with the judgment sum to the extent that the interest is calculated by reference to a period occurring before the day on which he is given the first required notice.
- (3) If the creditor or owner fails to give the debtor or hirer a notice under this section within the period of six months beginning with the day after the day on which such a notice was last given to the debtor or hirer, the debtor or hirer shall have no liability to pay post-judgment interest in connection with the judgment sum to the extent that the interest is calculated by reference to the whole or to a part of the period which—
 - (a) begins immediately after the end of that period of six months; and
 - (b) ends at the end of the day on which the notice is given to the debtor or hirer.

Status: Point in time view as at 06/04/2005. This version of this provision is not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Consumer Credit Act 1974, Section 130A is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 12 June 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (4) The debtor or hirer shall have no liability to pay any sum in connection with the preparation or the giving to him of a notice under this section.
- (5) A notice under this section may be incorporated in a statement or other notice which the creditor or owner gives the debtor or hirer in relation to the agreement by virtue of another provision of this Act.
- (6) Regulations may make provision about the form and content of notices under this section.
- (7) This section does not apply in relation to post-judgment interest which is required to be paid by virtue of any of the following—
 - (a) section 4 of the Administration of Justice (Scotland) Act 1972;
 - (b) Article 127 of the Judgments Enforcement (Northern Ireland) Order 1981;
 - (c) section 74 of the County Courts Act 1984.
- (8) This section does not apply in relation to a non-commercial agreement or to a small agreement.
- (9) In this section ‘post-judgment interest’ means interest to the extent calculated by reference to a period occurring after the giving of the judgment under which the judgment sum is required to be paid.]
