

Prevention of Terrorism (Temporary Provisions) Act 1974

1974 CHAPTER 56

PART II

EXCLUSION ORDERS

5 Powers of removal

Where any person is subject to an exclusion order and notice of the order has been served on him, the Secretary of State may have that person removed from Great Britain if—

- (a) he consents, or
- (b) no representations have been duly made by him under section 4 above, or
- (c) where such representations have been duly made by him, he has been notified of the Secretary of State's decision not to revoke the order.
