

Sex Discrimination Act 1975

1975 CHAPTER 65

PART II

DISCRIMINATION IN THE EMPLOYMENT FIELD

Special cases

21 Mineworkers

(1) The following shall be substituted for section 124(1) of the Mines and Quarries Act 1954 (which provides that no female shall be employed below ground at a mine)—

“(1) No female shall be employed in a job the duties of which ordinarily require the employee to spend a significant proportion of his time below ground at a mine which is being worked”

(2) Throughout the Coal Mines Regulation Act 1908, for " workman " or " man " there is substituted " worker ", and for "workmen" or "men" there is substituted " workers " .