

Restrictive Trade Practices Act 1976 (repealed 1.3.2000)

1976 CHAPTER 34

PART I

REGISTRATION AND JUDICIAL INVESTIGATION OF RESTRICTIVE AGREEMENTS

1 Registration of agreements and Court's jurisdiction.

- (1) Every agreement to which this Act applies by virtue of—
- section 6 below (restrictive agreements as to goods);
  - an order under section 7 below (information agreements as to goods);
  - an order under section 11 below (restrictive agreements as to services);
  - an order under section 12 below (information agreements as to services);
- is subject to registration under this Act.
- (2) The Director General of Fair Trading (“the Director”) continues charged with the duty—
- of compiling and maintaining a register of agreements subject to registration under this Act;
  - of entering or filing in the register such particulars as may be prescribed by regulations made under section 27 below of any such agreement, being—
    - particulars duly furnished to him under this Act by parties to the agreement; or
    - documents or information obtained by him under this Act;
  - of taking proceedings before the Restrictive Practices Court (“the Court”) in respect of the agreements of which particulars are from time to time entered or filed in the register; but this paragraph is subject to—
    - such directions as may be given by the Secretary of State as to the order in which those proceedings are to be taken;
    - section 21 below (Director's duties as to proceedings for investigation).
