I1 Act wholly in force at Royal Assent.

1 Police pensions regulations. E+W+S

(1) Regulations to be made by the Secretary of State, with the consent of the Minister for the Civil Service and after consultation with [^{F1}the Police Negotiating Board for the United Kingdom], shall make provision—

- (a) as to the pensions which are to be paid to and in respect of members of police forces, whether as of right or otherwise;
- (b) as to the contributions in respect of pension rights which are to be made by members of police forces; and
- (c) as to the times at which and the circumstances in which members of police forces are or may be required to retire otherwise than on the ground of misconduct.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of the provisions of subsection (1) above, any such regulations shall provide for the payment subject to the regulations—

Status: Point in time view as at 01/02/1991. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Police Pensions Act 1976. (See end of Document for details)

- (a) of pensions to and in respect of persons who cease to be members of a police force after having served for such period as may be prescribed by the regulations;
- (b) of pensions to and in respect of persons who cease to be members of a police force after such shorter period as may be prescribed by the regulations by reason of infirmity of mind or body;
- (c) of pensions to and in respect of persons who cease to be members of a police force by reason of injury received in the execution of their duty;
- (d) of pensions to and in respect of persons who cease to be members of a police force on the ground of age; and
- (e) of pensions in respect of persons who die while serving as members of police forces.

[^{F2}(2A) Without prejudice to the generality of the provisions of subsection (1) above, any such regulations may make provision for the payment and receipt by police authorities of transfer values or of other lump sum payments made for the purpose of creating or restoring pension rights.]

- (3) Regulations made under this section may contain such consequential or incidental provisions as appear to the Secretary of State to be necessary or expedient, including, in particular, provision as to the cases in which pensions are to be—
 - (a) varied, suspended, terminated or forfeited; or
 - (b) applied otherwise than by being paid to the person to whom they were awarded;
 and may provide for a pension to be forfeited wholly or in part and for the forfeiture to be permanent or temporary.
- (4) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (3) above, the provision which may be made by regulations under this section with respect to forfeiture shall include provision by reference not only to the fact that a person to whom a pension has been awarded has committed and been convicted of an offence as specified in the regulations but also to the fact that the offence in question has been certified by a Minister of the Crown either to have been gravely injurious to the State or to be liable to lead to serious loss of confidence in the public service.
- (5) Regulations made under this section may be framed so as to have effect as from a date earlier than the making of the regulations.
- (6) The power to make regulations under this section shall be exercisable by statutory instrument which shall be subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.

2 Application of regulations to existing members. E+W+S

- (1) Any regulations made under section 1 above shall be so framed as to secure, for existing members of police forces, the results—
 - (a) as to compulsory age of retirement, and
 - (b) as to scale of pensions payable under the regulations, specified respectively in subsections (2) and (3) below.
- (2) The result as to compulsory age of retirement referred to in subsection (1) above is that the times at which an existing member of a police force is or may be required under the regulations to retire on the ground of age do not, unless he at any time elects otherwise, differ from those which would have been applicable in his case if the regulations in question had not come into force.
- (3) The result as to scale of pensions referred to in subsection (1) above is that the scale of pensions payable under the regulations to an existing member of a police force who ceases to be a member of that police force either—
 - (a) after having served for any period prescribed by the regulations in question, or
 - (b) by reason of infirmity of mind or body (not being due to injury received in the execution of his duty) after having served for any shorter period so prescribed,is not, unless he elects otherwise within such time and in such manner as may be so prescribed, less favourable than the scale applicable in his case immediately before the coming into force of the regulations.
- (4) Regulations made under section 1 above shall not be invalid by reason that in fact they do not secure the results specified in subsections (2) and (3) above, but if the Secretary of State is satisfied, or it is held by the High Court or by the Court of Session, that any such regulations have failed to secure those results, the Secretary of State shall so soon as may be make under section 1 the necessary amending regulations, and any such amending regulations shall have effect as from the date of the coming into force of the regulations which they amend.
- (5) In this section, “existing member”, in relation to any police force, means a person who is serving in that police force at the date when the regulations in questions come into force.

Modifications etc. (not altering text)

C4 S. 2(4) amended by Police Pensions Act 1961 (c. 35), s. 1(3)

3 Application of regulations to former members. E+W+S

- (1) Subject to the following provisions of this section, any regulations made under section 1 above may be framed—
 - (a) so as to apply in relation to the pensions which are being paid or may become payable under the regulations to or in respect of persons who, having served as members of police forces, have ceased so to serve or died before the regulations come into force; or
 - (b) so as to require or authorise the payment of pensions to or in respect of such person.
- (2) No provision shall be made by regulations under section 1 above by virtue of subsection (1) above unless any person who is placed in a worse position than he

Status: Point in time view as at 01/02/1991. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Police Pensions Act 1976. (See end of Document for details) would have been in if the provision had not applied in relation to any pension which is being paid or may become payable to him is by the regulations given an opportunity to elect that the provision shall not so apply.

- (3) No provision with respect to the forfeiture of pensions included in regulations made under section 1 above shall apply in relation to pensions granted under any of the enactments, rules and regulations specified in paragraph 3 of Schedule 1 to this Act; and that Schedule shall have effect—
- (a) for the purpose of excluding entirely certain pensions to or in respect of former members of police forces from the operation of regulations made under section 1; and
 - (b) with respect to the forfeiture of pensions so granted and appeals against forfeiture in certain cases.

4 Transfers. E+W+S

- (1) Without prejudice to the generality of section 1 above, regulations made under that section may contain such provision as appears to the Secretary of State to be necessary or expedient in relation to a person who transfers or has transferred from or to service in a police force to or from other service or employment, whether in a police force or not.
- (2) Regulations made by virtue of subsection (1) above may include provisions enabling the other service or employment in question to be reckoned in whole or in part as service in a police force and provisions authorising or requiring payments to be made by or to the person or into or out of the fund out of which a pension may become or might have become payable to or in respect of the person in question as a member of a police force including—
 - (a) payments of contributions;
 - (b) payments of transfer values;
 - (c) payments towards the burden of a pension payable by another person or out of another fund; or
 - (d) other payments directed to the creation or preservation of pension rights of the person in question.
- (3) Regulations made by virtue of subsection (1) above, in so far as they apply in relation to persons who have ceased to be members of a police force before the date on which the regulations come into force,—
 - (a) may authorise, but shall not require, such payments as are mentioned in subsection (2) above; and
 - (b) shall not affect any pension payable to or in respect of any person as a person who ceased to be a member of a police force before that date.

5 Servicemen. E+W+S

- (1) Without prejudice to the generality of section 1 above, regulations made under that section may provide that where a person is a member of a police force immediately before—
 - (a) he undertakes compulsory national service;
 - (b) he undertakes any other service of a description specified in Schedule 1 to the ^{MI}Reserve and Auxiliary Forces (Protection of Civil Interests) Act 1951; or
 - (c) he attends for hourly instruction as defined in section 42 of that Act;

Status: Point in time view as at 01/02/1991. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Police Pensions Act 1976. (See end of Document for details)

the period of that service or attendance and such further period, if any, as may be specified in the regulations may be treated, in such manner, to such extent and on such conditions as to contributions or otherwise as may be so specified, as a period of service as a member of a police force.

(2) A person who, before 5th July 1948, had ceased to be a member of a police force in order to undertake—

(a) any service by virtue of which he was at that date a person to whom section 1 of the ^{M2}Police and Firemen (War Service) Act 1939 applied; or shall, in such circumstances and to such extent as may be provided by regulations made under section 1 above, be treated as if he had been still a member of a police force at that date.

(b) compulsory national service;

(3) In this section, “compulsory national service” means service in any of the armed forces of the Crown undertaken by virtue of an enlistment notice or a training notice served under the National Service Acts 1939 to 1947 or under Part I of the ^{M3}National Service Act 1948 (as the case may require), or work or training in pursuance of an order made or direction given under Part I of the said Act of 1948 as respects a conditionally registered conscientious objector.

6 Appeals. E+W+S

(1) Subject to the following provisions of this section, regulations made under section 1 above shall make provision as to the court or other person by whom appeals are to be heard and determined in the case of any person who is aggrieved—

(a) by the refusal of the police authority to admit a claim to receive as of right a pension, or a larger pension than that granted, under regulations made under that section; or

(b) by the forfeiture of any pension granted to him thereunder.

(2) No provision made in the regulations by virtue of subsection (1) above shall confer a right of appeal against anything done by the police authority in the exercise of any power which is conferred on them by the regulations and is expressly declared by the regulations to be a power which they are to exercise in their discretion.

(3) The regulations may provide, in relation to questions arising thereunder, for the reference of any such matter as is prescribed, either by the policy authority or by the court, to a medical practitioner whose decision thereon shall, subject to such rights of appeal as may be provided by the regulations to such tribunal as may be constituted thereunder, be final on the matter so referred.

7 Payment of pensions and contributions. E+W+S

(1) Regulations made under section 1 above shall specify the persons by and to whom and the funds into or out of which pensions and contributions in respect of pension rights are to be payable, may provide for the establishment or continuance of special funds for the purpose, and, subject to the provisions of subsection (2) below, may provide for payments of contributions or pensions, and such other payments as are mentioned in section 4(2) above, being made into the Consolidated Fund or out of moneys provided by Parliament.

(2) No regulations made by virtue of this section shall provide for payments into the Consolidated Fund or out of moneys provided by Parliament except in relation to a person who is or has been—

- (a) such a person as is mentioned in section 1(1) of the ^{M4}Police (Overseas Service) Act 1945;
- (b) an officer to whom the ^{M5}Overseas Service Act 1958 applies or applied, whose service as such an officer is or was for the time being service in respect of which the provisions of section 5 of that Act have or had effect;
- (c) an inspector or assistant inspector of constabulary; or
- (d) a person engaged on central service;

or any other person whose salary or remuneration is or was wholly or partly payable out of moneys provided by Parliament or who is or may become entitled to or eligible for a pension so payable.

(3) For the purposes of subsection (2) above regulations shall not be treated as providing for payments out of moneys provided by Parliament by reason only that, as a result of the making of the regulations, an increased sum may be payable out of moneys provided by way of a grant towards the expenses of a police force.

- (a) provide information in connection with the questions specified in subsection (2) below to a prescribed person; and
 - (b) require that person to pay a reasonable fee in respect of any administrative expenses incurred in providing that information.
- (2) The following are the questions mentioned in subsection (1) above—
- (a) whether an individual who has opted or transferred out has suffered loss as a result of a contravention which is actionable under section 62 of the ^{M6}Financial Services Act 1986 (actions for damages in respect of contravention of rules etc. made under the Act), and
 - (b) if so, what payment would need to be made in respect of that individual to the police authority concerned to restore the position to what it would have been if that individual had not opted or transferred out.
- (3) Where—
- (a) an individual who has opted or transferred out becomes entitled to make contributions to a police authority in respect of police pension rights, or
 - (b) a payment is made to a police authority in respect of such an individual for the purpose mentioned in subsection (2)(b) above,
- the police authority may require a prescribed person to pay a reasonable fee in respect of any administrative expenses incurred in connection with that entitlement or payment.
- (4) For the purposes of this section, an individual shall be taken to have opted or transferred out if—
- (a) for any period during which he is a member of a police force, he does not make contributions in respect of police pension rights but instead makes contributions to a personal pension scheme; or
 - (b) a transfer value is paid in respect of the individual by a police authority to a personal pension scheme.
- (5) In this section—
- “personal pension scheme” has the meaning given by section 1 of the ^{M7}Pension Schemes Act 1993;
- “police pension rights” means pensions rights under regulations made under section 1 above;
- “prescribed” means prescribed by regulations made under this section.
- (6) The power to make regulations under this section shall be exercisable by statutory instrument which shall be subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.]

9 Assignment etc. of pension to be void. E+W+S

Every assignment of or charge on a pension granted under the regulations made under section 1 above, and every agreement to assign or charge such a pension shall, except so far as it is made for the benefit of a dependant of the pensioner, be void; and on the bankruptcy of the pensioner such a pension shall not pass to any trustee or other person acting on behalf of the creditors.

10 Obtaining pension by self-inflicted injury etc. E+W+S

If any person obtains or attempts to obtain for himself or any other person any pension under any regulations made under section 1 above by maiming or injuring himself, or causing himself to be maimed or injured, or otherwise producing disease or infirmity, he shall be liable—

- (a) on conviction on indictment, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years; or
- (b) on summary conviction, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three months or to a fine not exceeding £25.

11 Interpretation. E+W+S

- (1) This Act shall have effect as if any reference (however expressed) to membership of a police force or to service or employment in a police force included a reference to—
 - (a) service as an officer to whom the ^{M8}Overseas Service Act 1958 applies, being service in respect of which the provisions of section 5 of that Act have effect;
 - (b) service as an inspector or assistant inspector of constabulary appointed on or after 1st August 1964; and
 - (c) central service in respect of which the provisions of section 43 of the ^{M9}Police Act 1964 or (as the case may be) of section 38 of the ^{M10}Police (Scotland) Act 1967 have effect.
- (2) In this Act “police authority” means any police authority within the meaning of the Police Act 1964 or the Police (Scotland) Act 1967, except that—
 - (a) in relation to any regulations made under the ^{M11}Police (Overseas Service) Act 1945 and any service such as is mentioned in subsection (1)(a) above, it means the Secretary of State or the Minister of Overseas Development; and
 - (b) in relation to any service such as is mentioned in subsection (1)(b) or (c) above, it means the Secretary of State.
- (3) In this Act, except so far as the context otherwise requires, “police force” means any police force within the meaning of the Police Act 1964 or the Police (Scotland) Act 1967, and, in respect of—
 - (a) any person such as is mentioned in section 1(1) of the Police (Overseas Service) Act 1945; and
 - (b) any person engaged or employed in any service such as is mentioned in subsection (1)(a), (b) or (c) above;

Status: Point in time view as at 01/02/1991. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Police Pensions Act 1976. (See end of Document for details) any body in which that person is serving.

(4) This Act shall have effect—

- (a) as if commissioners and assistant commissioners of the metropolitan police force and commissioners of the City of London police force were members of those forces respectively; and
- (b) in relation to any person who on 5th July 1948 was or had been the surgeon of the City of London police force or a clerk or other person employed in or in connection with that force, as if such surgeons, clerks or other persons employed in or in connection with that force were members of that force; and references in this Act to membership of a police force shall be construed accordingly.

(5) Except so far as the context otherwise requires, in this Act—

“central service” has the meaning given in section 43(5) of the ^{M12}Police Act 1964 or section 38(5) of the ^{M13}Police (Scotland) Act 1967 (as the case may require);

“injury” includes disease;

“pension”, in relation to a person, means a pension, whether contributory or not, of any kind whatsoever payable to or in respect of him, and includes a lump sum or a gratuity so payable and a return of contributions; and “pension rights” includes, in relation to any person, all forms of right to, or eligibility for, the present or future payment of a pension to or in respect of that person.

- (a) is convicted of any offence and is sentenced to preventive detention or corrective training or to imprisonment for a term exceeding twelve months; or
 - (b) enters into or continues to carry on any business, occupation or employment which is illegal, or in which the grantee has made use of the fact of former employment in a police force in a manner which is discreditable or improper; or
 - (c) supplies to any person or publishes in a manner which is discreditable or improper any information which the grantee had obtained in the course of employment in a police force; or
 - (d) solicits or, without the consent of the police authority, accepts directly or indirectly any testimonial or gift having any pecuniary value on retirement from the police force or otherwise in connection with his service in a police force; or
 - (e) enters into or continues in any business, occupation or employment as a private detective, after the police authority have given him notice in writing requiring him on any reasonable grounds not to do so.
- (3) A pension shall not be forfeited under sub-paragraph (2)(b) above unless reasonable warning has previously been given in writing by the police authority.
- (4) A forfeiture under this paragraph may affect the pension wholly or in part, and may be permanent or temporary as the police authority may determine.
- (5) Without prejudice to the validity of any forfeiture before the passing of this Act, a pension to which this paragraph applies shall not be capable of being forfeited otherwise than in accordance with the provisions of this paragraph.
- (6) This paragraph shall apply in relation to the rules and regulations specified in sub-paragraph (2) of paragraph 3 below (which reproduces so far as relevant Part II of Schedule 1 to the ^{M21}Police Pensions Act 1948) as it applies in relation to the enactments specified in sub-paragraph (1) of that paragraph, subject, however, to any necessary adaptations.
