

International Carriage of Perishable Foodstuffs Act 1976

1976 CHAPTER 58

General provisions as to regulation of international carriage of perishable foodstuffs

2 Provisions as to examination and testing.

- (1) The Secretary of State may by regulations make provision for the examination and testing of transport equipment by persons authorised in that behalf by the Secretary of State (in this Act referred to as “qualified persons”) for the purpose of ascertaining whether the prescribed standards are complied with; and—
 - (a) for the issue by such persons as may be appointed or authorised in that behalf by the Secretary of State (in this Act referred to as “certifying officers”), where it is found that the standards are complied with, of a certificate certifying that the equipment has been approved for use in the international carriage of perishable foodstuffs as equipment of the class specified in the certificate [^{F1}or of a certification plate];
 - (b) for the refusal by a certifying officer of a certificate [^{F2}or plate] where the transport equipment is found not so to comply;
 - (c) for prescribing marks (in this Act referred to as “designated marks”) to be affixed to transport equipment in respect of which a certificate under this section has been issued.
- (2) A person aggrieved by a decision of a certifying officer under this section may appeal to the Secretary of State who may make such determination as he thinks fit.
- (3) The Secretary of State may—
 - (a) provide and maintain stations where examination and testing under this Act may be carried out;
 - (b) designate premises (in this Act referred to as “designated stations”) where examination and testing under this Act may be carried out;
 - (c) provide and maintain apparatus for the carrying out of examination and testing.
