Act amended (E.W.N.I.) (1.9.2001) by 2001 c. 17, s. 57\(2\) (with ss. 56, 63\(2\), 78); S.I. 2001/2161, art. 2 (subject to art. 3)

1 Meaning of “rape” etc.

(1) For the purposes of section 1 of the ^{M1}Sexual Offences Act 1956 (which relates to rape) a man commits rape if—

- (a) he has unlawful sexual intercourse with a woman who at the time of the intercourse does not consent to it; and
- (b) at that time he knows that she does not consent to the intercourse or he is reckless as to whether she consents to it; and references to rape in other enactments (including the following provisions of this Act) shall be construed accordingly.

(2) It is hereby declared that if at a trial for a rape offence the jury has to consider whether a man believed that a woman was consenting to sexual intercourse, the presence or absence of reasonable grounds for such a belief is a matter to which the jury is to have regard, in conjunction with any other relevant matters, in considering whether he so believed.

2 Restrictions on evidence at trials for rape, etc.

- (1) If at a trial any person is for the time being charged with a rape offence to which he pleads not guilty, then, except with the leave of the judge, no evidence and no question in cross-examination shall be adduced or asked at the trial, by or on behalf of any defendant at the trial, about any sexual experience of a complainant with a person other than that defendant.
- (2) The judge shall not give leave in pursuance of the preceding subsection for any evidence or question except on an application made to him in the absence of the jury by or on behalf of a defendant; and on such an application the judge shall give leave if and only if he is satisfied that it would be unfair to that defendant to refuse to allow the evidence to be adduced or the question to be asked.
- (3) In subsection (1) of this section “complainant” means a woman upon whom, in a charge for a rape offence to which the trial in question relates, it is alleged that rape was committed, attempted or proposed.
- (4) Nothing in this section authorises evidence to be adduced or a question to be asked which cannot be adduced or asked apart from this section.

3 Application of s. 2 to committal proceedings, courts-martial and summary trials.

- (1) Where a magistrates’ court inquires into a rape offence as examining justices, then, except with the consent of the court, evidence shall not be adduced and a question shall not be asked at the inquiry which, if the inquiry were a trial at which a person is charged as mentioned in subsection (1) of the preceding section and each of the accused at the inquiry were charged at the trial with the offences of which he is accused at the inquiry, could not be adduced or asked without leave in pursuance of that section.
- (2) On an application for consent in pursuance of the preceding subsection for any evidence or question the court shall—
 - (a) refuse the consent unless the court is satisfied that leave in respect of the evidence or question would be likely to be given at a relevant trial; and
 - (b) give the consent if the court is so satisfied.
- (3) Where a person charged with a rape offence is tried for that offence either by court-martial or summarily before a magistrates’ court in pursuance of [F1section 24(1) of the Magistrates’ Courts Act 1980] (which provides for the summary trial in certain cases of persons under the age of 17 who are charged with indictable offences) the preceding section shall have effect in relation to the trial as if—
 - (a) the words “in the absence of the jury” in subsection (2) were omitted [F2or (in the case of a trial by court-martial for which a judge advocate is appointed) were substituted by the words “in the absence of the court”]; and
 - (b) for any reference to the judge there were substituted—
 - (i) in the case of a trial by court-martial for which a judge advocate is appointed, a reference to the judge advocate, and
 - (ii) in any other case, a reference to the court.
