

Marriage (Scotland) Act 1977

1977 CHAPTER 15

An Act to make new provision for Scotland as respects the law relating to the constitution of marriage, and for connected purposes. [26th May 1977]

Modifications etc. (not altering text)

- C1 Act applied (with modifications) (1.2.2005) by Asylum and Immigration \(Treatment of Claimants, etc.\) Act 2004 \(c. 19\), ss. 22, 48\(3\); S.I. 2004/3398, art. 3

Commencement Information

- II Act partly in force at Royal Assent, see s. 29\(2\); Act wholly in force at 01. 01. 1978.

MINIMUM AGE FOR MARRIAGE

1 Minimum age for marriage.

- (1) No person domiciled in Scotland may marry before he attains the age of 16.
- (2) A marriage solemnised in Scotland between persons either of whom is under the age of 16 shall be void.

FORBIDDEN DEGREES

2 Marriage of related persons.

- (1) [<sup>F1</sup>Subject to [<sup>F2</sup> subsection (1A) ] below,] a marriage between a man and any woman related to him in a degree specified in column 1 of Schedule 1 to this Act, or between a woman and any man related to her in a degree specified in column 2 of that Schedule shall be void if solemnised—
  - (a) in Scotland; or
  - (b) at a time when either party is domiciled in Scotland.

[<sup>F3</sup>(1A) Subsection (1) above does not apply to a marriage between a man and any woman related to him in a degree specified in column 1 of paragraph 2 of Schedule 1 to this

*Changes to legislation: Marriage (Scotland) Act 1977 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 10 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Act, or between a woman and any man related to her in a degree specified in column 2 of that paragraph, if—

- (a) both parties have attained the age of 21 at the time of the marriage; and
- (b) the younger party has not at any time before attaining the age of 18 lived in the same household as the other party and been treated by the other party as a child of his family.

<sup>F4</sup>(1B) . . . . .]

- (2) For the purposes of this section a degree of relationship exists—
  - (a) in the case of a degree specified in paragraph 1 of Schedule 1 to this Act, whether it is of the full blood or the half blood; . . . <sup>F5</sup>
  - (b) . . . . . <sup>F5</sup>
- (3) Where a person is related to another person in a degree not specified in Schedule 1 to this Act that degree of relationship shall not, in Scots law, bar a valid marriage between them; but this subsection is without prejudice to—
  - (a) the effect which a degree of relationship not so specified may have under the provisions of a system of law other than Scots law in a case where such provisions apply as the law of the place of celebration of a marriage or as the law of a person’s domicile; or
  - (b) any rule of law that a marriage may not be contracted between persons either of whom is married to a third person.

<sup>F6</sup>(4) References in this section and in Schedule 1 to this Act to relationships and degrees of relationship shall be construed in accordance with section 1(1) of the Law Reform (Parent and Child) (Scotland) Act 1986.]

<sup>F7</sup>(5) Where the parties to an intended marriage are related in a degree specified in paragraph 2 of Schedule 1 to this Act, either party may (whether or not an objection to the marriage has been submitted in accordance with section 5(1) of this Act) apply to the Court of Session for a declarator that the conditions specified in paragraphs (a) and (b) of subsection (1A) above are fulfilled in relation to the intended marriage.]

(7) Any reference in those provisions to a former wife or former husband of the relevant person includes (respectively) any former husband or former wife of the relevant person.

PRELIMINARIES TO REGULAR MARRIAGE

3 Notice of intention to marry.

- (1) Subject to subsections (2) to (4) below, each of the parties to a marriage intended to be solemnised in Scotland shall submit to the district registrar a notice, in the prescribed form, of intention to marry (in this Act referred to as a “marriage notice”) [<sup>F12</sup>and] the prescribed fee, his birth certificate and—
  - (a) if he has previously been married and the marriage has been dissolved, a copy of the decree of divorce, dissolution or annulment;
  - [<sup>F13</sup>(aa) if he has previously been in civil partnership and the civil partnership has been dissolved, a copy of the decree of dissolution or annulment;]
  - (b) in the case of a widow or widower, the death certificate of the former spouse;
  - (c) in any case where a certificate is required under subsection (5) below, that certificate.
  - [<sup>F14</sup>(d) where he is related to the other party in a degree specified in paragraph 2 of Schedule 1 to this Act, a declaration in the prescribed form stating—
    - (i) the degree of relationship; and
    - (ii) that the younger party has not at any time before attaining the age of 18 lived in the same household as the other party and been treated by the other party as a child of his family.]
- (2) If a party is unable to submit his birth certificate or any document referred to in paragraph (a) [<sup>F15</sup>, (aa)] or (b) of subsection (1) above, he may in lieu thereof make a declaration stating that for reasons specified in that declaration it is impracticable for him to submit that certificate or document; and he shall provide the district registrar with such—
  - (a) information in respect of the matters to which such certificate or document would have related; and
  - (b) documentary evidence in support of that information, as the district registrar may require.

Changes to legislation: Marriage (Scotland) Act 1977 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 10 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (3) If any document submitted under subsection (1) above is written in a language other than English, the party submitting it shall [<sup>F16</sup>also submit] a translation of it in English certified by the translator as a correct translation.
- [<sup>F17</sup>(3A) A person submitting a notice under subsection (1) above shall make and attest in the prescribed manner the necessary declaration (the form for which shall be included in any form prescribed for the notice).
- (3B) The necessary declaration is a declaration that the person submitting the notice believes that the parties to the marriage are eligible to be married to each other.]
- (4) Where a party to a marriage intended to be solemnised in Scotland is residing in another part of the United Kingdom, he may submit to the district registrar a valid certificate for marriage (in this Act referred to as an “approved certificate”) issued in that other part; and where that party so submits an approved certificate, he need not, unless the Registrar General so directs, comply with the other provisions of this section.
- (5) A party to a marriage intended to be solemnised in Scotland who is not domiciled in any part of the United Kingdom is required, if practicable, to submit under subsection (1)(c) above a certificate, issued by a competent authority in the state in which the party is domiciled, to the effect that he is not known to be subject to any legal incapacity (in terms of the law of that state) which would prevent his marrying:
- Provided that such a party—
- (i) may, where under the law of the state in which he is domiciled his personal law is that of another foreign state, submit in lieu of the said certificate a like certificate issued by a competent authority in that other state;
  - (ii) need not submit a certificate under paragraph (c) of subsection (1) above [<sup>F18</sup>(a)] if he has been resident in the United Kingdom for a period of 2 or more years immediately before the date on which he submits a marriage notice under that subsection in respect of the said marriage [<sup>F19</sup>or (b) if no such certificate has been issued only by reason of the fact that the validity of a divorce or annulment granted by a court of civil jurisdiction in Scotland or entitled to recognition in Scotland under section 44 or 45 of the Family Law Act 1986 is not recognised in the state in which the certificate would otherwise have been issued.]
- [<sup>F20</sup>(6) In this section, “the district registrar” means—
- (a) where the marriage is to be solemnised in a registration district, the district registrar for that district;
  - (b) where the marriage is to be solemnised in Scottish waters—
    - (i) in the case where the marriage is to be solemnised by an approved celebrant, the district registrar for any registration district;
    - (ii) in the case where the marriage is to be solemnised by an authorised registrar, the district registrar for the registration district of the proposed authorised registrar.]

4 Marriage notice book and list of intended marriages.

- (1) On receipt of a marriage notice or an approved certificate in respect of a party to an intended marriage, the district registrar shall forthwith enter such particulars, extracted from such notice or certificate, as may be prescribed, together with the date of receipt by him of such notice or certificate, in a book (in this Act referred to as “the marriage notice book”) supplied to him for that purpose by the Registrar General.
- [<sup>F21</sup>(2) The district registrar shall maintain a list of the intended marriages in respect of which he has received a marriage notice or an approved certificate (the “district list”).
- (2A) Subject to subsection (2B) below, the district list shall be displayed in a conspicuous place at the registration office.
- (2B) If the registration office comprises more than one set of premises, it shall be sufficient for the purpose of subsection (2A) above if the district registrar displays the list in a conspicuous place at the principal premises only.
- (2C) The district registrar shall, as soon as practicable after he has received a marriage notice or an approved certificate in relation to an intended marriage—
- make an entry in the district list containing the relevant particulars of the marriage; and
  - provide (in such form and by such means as the Registrar General thinks fit) the relevant particulars of the marriage to the Registrar General.
- (2D) The Registrar General shall maintain a list of proposed marriages in Scotland (the “Scottish list”).

*Changes to legislation: Marriage (Scotland) Act 1977 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 10 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. - (2E) The Registrar General shall make the Scottish list available for public inspection (at such locations, by such means and in such forms as the Registrar General thinks fit).
- (2F) The Registrar General shall, as soon as practicable after the relevant particulars of a marriage are provided to him under subsection (2C)(b) above, make an entry in the Scottish list containing those particulars.
- (2G) An entry in a district list or the Scottish list shall remain in that list until the proposed date of the marriage to which it relates has elapsed.]
- (3) Any person claiming that he may have reason to submit an objection to an intended marriage, or to the issue of a certificate under section 7 of this Act to a party to such marriage, may, free of charge and at any time when the registration office is open for public business, inspect any entry relating to the marriage in the marriage notice book.
- [<sup>F22</sup>(4) For the purpose of this section, the relevant particulars of a marriage are such particulars, extracted from the marriage notice book, as may be prescribed.]
- [<sup>F23</sup>(5) In this section and sections 5 and 6 of this Act, “the district registrar” means—
- (a) where the marriage is to be solemnised in a registration district, the district registrar for that district;
  - (b) where the marriage is to be solemnised in Scottish waters—
    - (i) in the case where the marriage is to be solemnised by an approved celebrant, the district registrar to whom the marriage notices or approved certificates in respect of the marriage were submitted;
    - (ii) in the case where the marriage is to be solemnised by an authorised registrar, the district registrar for the registration district of the proposed authorised registrar.]

Textual Amendments

- F21 S. 4(2)-(2G) substituted for s. 4(2) (1.10.2006 for specified purposes, 1.1.2007 in so far as not already in force) by Local Electoral Administration and Registration Services \(Scotland\) Act 2006 \(asp 14\), ss. 49\(a\), 63\(2\); S.S.I. 2006/469, art. 2, schs. 1, 2 (with art. 4)

5 Objections to marriage.

- (1) Any person may at any time before the solemnisation of a marriage in Scotland submit an objection in writing thereto to the district registrar:

Provided that where the objection is on the ground mentioned in subsection (4)(d) below, it shall [<sup>F24</sup>not be treated as submitted until there has also been produced to the registrar] a supporting certificate [<sup>F25</sup>attested in the prescribed manner] by a registered medical practitioner.

- [<sup>F26</sup>(1A) For the purpose of subsection (1) above, an objection which is submitted to the registrar by electronic means is to be treated as in writing if it is received in a form which is legible and capable of being used for subsequent reference.]

Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)*

- (2) Where the district registrar receives an objection in accordance with subsection (1) above he shall—
- (a) in any case where he is satisfied that the objection relates to no more than a misdescription or inaccuracy in the marriage notice or approved certificate, notify the parties to the marriage of the nature of the objection and make such enquiries into the matter mentioned in it as he thinks fit; and thereafter he shall, subject to the approval of the Registrar General, make any necessary correction to any document relating to the marriage;
  - (b) in any other case—
    - (i) forthwith notify the Registrar General of the objection;
    - (ii) pending consideration of the objection by the Registrar General, suspend the completion or issue of the Marriage Schedule in respect of the marriage;
    - (iii) where, in the case of a marriage to be solemnised by an approved celebrant, the Marriage Schedule has already been issued to the parties, if possible notify that celebrant of the objection and advise him not to solemnise the marriage pending the said consideration.
- (3) <sup>[F27]</sup>Subject to subsection (3A) below,] if the Registrar General is satisfied, on consideration of an objection of which he has received notification under subsection (2)(b)(i) above, that—
- (a) there is a legal impediment to the marriage, he shall direct the district registrar to take all reasonable steps to ensure that the marriage does not take place and shall notify, or direct the district registrar to notify, the parties to the intended marriage accordingly;
  - (b) there is no legal impediment to the marriage, he shall inform the district registrar to that effect.

- (a) an objection of which the Registrar General has received notification under subsection (2)(b)(i) above is on the ground that—
    - (i) the parties are related in a degree specified in paragraph 2 of Schedule 1 to this Act; and
    - (ii) the conditions specified in paragraphs (a) and (b) of section 2(1A) of this Act are not satisfied; and
  - (b) an extract decree of declarator that those conditions are satisfied, granted on an application under section 2(5) of this Act, is produced to the Registrar General, the Registrar General shall inform the district registrar that there is no legal impediment to the marriage on that ground.]
- (4) For the purposes of <sup>[F29]</sup>this section] and section 6 of this Act, there is a legal impediment to a marriage where—
- (a) that marriage would be void by virtue of section 2(1) of this Act;
  - (b) one of the parties is, or both are, already married <sup>[F30]</sup>or in civil partnership] ;
  - (c) one or both of the parties will be under the age of 16 on the date of solemnisation of the intended marriage;
  - (d) one or both of the parties is or are incapable of understanding the nature of a marriage ceremony or of consenting to marriage;
  - (e) both parties are of the same sex; or

6 The Marriage Schedule.

- (1) Where the district registrar has received a marriage notice or approved certificate in respect of each of the parties to a marriage intended to be solemnised in Scotland and is satisfied that there is no legal impediment to the marriage or, as the case may be, is informed by the Registrar General under section 5(3)(b) [<sup>F31</sup>or (3A)] of this Act that there is no such legal impediment, he shall, subject to subsection (2) below, complete a Marriage Schedule in the prescribed form.
- (2) If a period of more than 3 months has elapsed since the date of receipt (as entered by the district registrar in the marriage notice book) of a marriage notice or an approved certificate in respect of a party to the marriage, the Registrar General may direct that the district registrar shall not complete the Marriage Schedule unless that party submits a new marriage notice or approved certificate to the district registrar.
- (3) Subject to subsection (4) below, in the case of a marriage to be solemnised by an approved celebrant, the Marriage Schedule completed in accordance with subsection (1) above shall be issued by the district registrar at the registration office to one or both of the parties to the intended marriage.
- (4) The district registrar shall not issue a Marriage Schedule under subsection (3) above—

- (a) within 14 days of the date of receipt (as entered by him in the marriage notice book) of a marriage notice in respect of the marriage to which the Marriage Schedule relates, except where—
    - (i) He has received a written request from one or both of the parties for the issue of the Marriage Schedule on a specified date within the said 14 days stating the reason for the request; and
    - (ii) he has been authorised to issue the Marriage Schedule on that specified date by the Registrar General;
  - (b) on a date earlier than 7 days before the date of the intended marriage unless he has been authorised to issue the Marriage Schedule on that earlier date by the Registrar General.
- [<sup>F32</sup>(4A) For the purpose of subsection (4)(a)(i) above, a request which is made by electronic means is to be treated as being written if it is received in a form which is legible and capable of being used for subsequent reference.]
- (5) Subject to subsections (6) and (7) below and section [<sup>F33</sup>23A] of this Act, a religious marriage may be solemnised only on the date and at the place specified in the Marriage Schedule.
  - (6) Subject to subsection (7) below, if, for any reason, the marriage cannot be solemnised on the date or at the place so specified and a new date or place is fixed for the marriage, the district registrar shall—
    - (a) issue another Marriage Schedule under subsection (3) above, in lieu of that already issued, specifying that new date or place; or
    - (b) substitute, or direct the approved celebrant to substitute, that new date or place in the Marriage Schedule already issued.
  - (7) Subsection (6) above shall not apply in a case where the new date fixed for the marriage is more than 3 months after the date for the marriage as specified in the Marriage Schedule already issued or where the new place so fixed is in a different registration district [<sup>F34</sup>, is in Scottish waters instead of a registration district or is in a registration district instead of Scottish waters], but in such a case the Registrar General may, according to the circumstances, direct—
    - (a) the district registrar <sup>F35</sup>... to proceed as in paragraph (a) or (b) (whichever the Registrar General considers the more appropriate) of subsection (6) above; or
    - (b) each party to the marriage to submit to the said district registrar a new marriage notice or approved certificate.

7 Marriage outside Scotland where a party resides in Scotland.

(1) Where a person residing in Scotland is a party to a marriage intended to be solemnised in—

- (a) England or Wales with a party residing in England or Wales and desires; or
- (b) any country, territory or place outside Great Britain, and, for the purpose of complying with the law in force in that country, territory or place, is required to obtain from a competent authority in Scotland, a certificate in respect of his legal capacity to marry, he may submit, in the form and with the fee and documents specified in section 3(1) [<sup>F36</sup>(a), (b) and (d)] of this Act, notice of intention to marry to the district registrar for the district in which he resides (the said registrar being in this section referred to as the “appropriate registrar”) as if it were intended that the marriage should be solemnised in that district, and sections 3(2) and (3) and 4 of this Act shall apply accordingly.

(2) The appropriate registrar shall, if satisfied (after consultation, if the appropriate registrar considers it necessary, with the Registrar General) that a person who has by virtue of subsection (1) above submitted a marriage notice to him is not subject to any legal incapacity (in terms of Scots law) which would prevent his marrying, issue to that person a certificate in the prescribed form that he is not known to be subject to any such incapacity:

Provided that the certificate shall not be issued earlier than 14 days after the date of receipt (as entered by the appropriate registrar in the marriage notice book) of the marriage notice.

(3) Any person may, at any time before a certificate is issued under subsection (2) above, submit to the appropriate registrar an objection in writing to such issue; and the objection shall be taken into account by the appropriate registrar in deciding whether, in respect of the person to whom the certificate would be issued, he is satisfied as mentioned in the said subsection (2).

[<sup>F37</sup>(4) For the purpose of subsection (3) above, an objection which is submitted by electronic means is to be treated as in writing if it is received in a form which is legible and capable of being used for subsequent reference.]

RELIGIOUS MARRIAGES

9 Registration of nominated persons as celebrants.

- (1) A religious body, not being—
- (a) the Church of Scotland; or
  - (b) prescribed by virtue of section 8(1)(a)(ii) of this Act,
- may nominate to the Registrar General any of its members who it desires should be registered under this section as empowered to solemnise marriages
- F39 .....
- (2) The Registrar General shall reject a nomination made under subsection (1) above if in his opinion—
- (a) the nominating body is not a religious body; or
  - (b) the marriage ceremony used by that body is not of an appropriate form; or
  - (c) the nominee is not a fit and proper person to solemnise a marriage; or
  - (d) there are already registered under this section sufficient members of the same religious body as the nominee to meet the needs of that body.
- (3) For the purposes of subsection (2)(b) above, a marriage ceremony is of an appropriate form if it includes, and is in no way inconsistent with—
- (a) a declaration by the parties, in the presence of each other, the celebrant and two witnesses, that they accept each other as husband and wife; and
  - (b) a declaration by the celebrant, after the declaration mentioned in paragraph (a) of this subsection, that the parties are then husband and wife,
- and the Registrar General may, before deciding whether to accept or reject a nomination, require the nominating body to produce to him in writing the form of words used at its marriage ceremonies.

- (4) Where the Registrar General accepts a nomination made to him under subsection (1) above, he—
- (a) shall determine the period during which the nominee shall be empowered to solemnise marriages, being a period of not more than 3 years; and
  - (b) may determine that the nominee shall be empowered to solemnise marriages only in such area as the Registrar General may specify,
- and may make his acceptance subject to such other conditions as he thinks fit:

Provided that nothing in paragraph (a) above shall preclude the Registrar General from accepting a further nomination of that nominee, in accordance with this section, to take effect at any time after the end of the period determined by the Registrar General under the said paragraph (a).

- (5) The Registrar General shall—
- (a) where he accepts a nomination made to him under subsection (1) above—
    - (i) so inform the nominee and the nominating body, specifying the period during which the acceptance shall have effect and any condition to which the acceptance is subject;
    - (ii) enter the name of the nominee, the nominating body and such other particulars as he deems appropriate in a register which he shall establish and maintain and which shall be made available for public inspection at all reasonable times without charge;
  - (b) where he rejects the nomination, by notice in writing inform the nominating body of the reasons for that rejection.

[<sup>F40</sup>(5A) For the purpose of subsection (5)(b) above, notice which is given by electronic means is to be treated as in writing if it is received in a form which is legible and capable of being used for subsequent reference.]

- (6) The nominating body may, if aggrieved by a rejection under this section, within 28 days of receiving notice of that rejection, appeal to the Secretary of State, and on any such appeal the Secretary of State may direct the Registrar General to accept the nomination or may confirm its rejection and shall inform the nominating body of his direction or confirmation, as the case may be, and the reason for it; and such direction or confirmation shall be final:

Provided that if a reason given for a confirmation of the rejection of a nomination is that the nominating body is not a religious body, that body may, within 42 days of receiving notice of the confirmation, appeal against the confirmation to the Court of Session and seek the determination of that court as to whether the body is a religious body; and if—

- (a) the court determine that the nominating body is a religious body; and
- (b) the said reason was the only reason given for the confirmation, that determination shall be given effect to by the Registrar General as if it were a direction under this subsection to accept the nomination.

10 Removal of celebrant's name from register.

- (1) Subject to the provisions of this section, the Registrar General may remove the name of a person registered under section 9 of this Act from the register on the ground that—
- that person has requested that his name should be so removed; or
  - the body which nominated that person under section 9(1) of this Act no longer desires that he should be so registered; or
  - the marriage ceremony used by the said body is no longer of an appropriate form within the meaning of section 9(3) of this Act; or
  - that person—
    - has, while registered as an approved celebrant, been convicted of an offence under this Act; or
    - has, for the purpose of profit or gain, been carrying on a business of solemnising marriages; or
    - is not a fit and proper person to solemnise marriages; or
    - for any other reason, should not be so registered.

- (2) The Registrar General shall not remove the name of a person from the register on any ground mentioned in subsection (1)(d) above unless he has given to that person at least 21 days notice in writing of his intention to do so.

[<sup>F41</sup>(2A) For the purpose of subsection (2) above, notice which is given by electronic means is to be treated as in writing if it is received in a form which is legible and capable of being used for subsequent reference.]

- (3) The Registrar General shall—
- in the notice given under subsection (2) above, specify the ground of removal and call upon the said person to show cause, within the period specified in the notice, why his name should not be removed from the register; and
  - consider any representations made to him within the said period by that person.

- (4) Where a person's name has been removed from the register on any of the grounds mentioned in paragraphs (c) and (d) of subsection (1) above, that person or the body which nominated him under section 9(1) of this Act may, if aggrieved by the removal, within 28 days of receiving notice of the removal appeal to the Secretary of State, and on any such appeal the Secretary of State may give such direction as he thinks proper to the Registrar General as to the removal from, or restoration to, the register of that name; and such direction shall be final.

- (5) Where a person has received a notice in pursuance of subsection (2) above, he shall not solemnise a marriage unless and until his name is restored to the register or, as the case may be, the Registrar General has decided not to remove his name from the register.

(1) The Scottish Ministers may by regulations make provision for or in connection with the approval by local authorities

[ of places in their areas in which civil marriages may be solemnised.<sup>F58</sup>; or

(b) of vessels on or in which, while they are in Scottish waters, their authorised registrars may solemnise marriages.]

(2) Regulations under subsection (1) above may in particular include provision as to—

(a) the kinds of place [<sup>F60</sup>or vessel] in respect of which approvals may be granted;

(b) the procedure to be followed in relation to applications for approval;

(c) the considerations to be taken into account by a local authority in determining whether to approve any places [<sup>F61</sup>or vessels];

(d) the duration and renewal of approvals;

(e) the conditions that shall or may be imposed by a local authority on granting or renewing an approval;

(f) the determination and charging by local authorities of fees in respect of—

(i) applications for the approval of places [<sup>F62</sup>or vessels] ;

(ii) the renewal of approvals; and

(iii) the attendance by authorised registrars at places approved under the regulations;

(g) the circumstances in which a local authority shall or may revoke or suspend an approval or vary any of the conditions imposed in relation to an approval;

(h) the notification to the Registrar General of all approvals granted, renewed, revoked, suspended or varied;

(i) the notification to the district registrar for the district in which a place approved under the regulations is situated of all approvals relating to such a place which are granted, renewed, revoked, suspended or varied;

(j) the keeping by the Registrar General, district registrars and local authorities of registers of places [<sup>F63</sup>and vessels] approved under the regulations; and

(k) the issue by the Registrar General of guidance supplementing the provision made by the regulations.

(3) A person who has made an application under regulations made under subsection (1) above may appeal, by summary application, to the sheriff against any decision made by a local authority in relation to the application (including any decision to revoke or suspend, or to vary any of the conditions imposed in relation to, an approval granted in pursuance of that application).

(4) An appeal under subsection (3) above may be made only on one or more of the following grounds—

(a) that the local authority's decision was based on an error of law;

19 Marriage ceremony and registration of marriage.

- (1) An authorised registrar shall not solemnise a marriage within 14 days of the date of receipt (as entered in the marriage notice book) of a marriage notice in respect of that marriage, unless—
- (a) he has received a written request from one or both of the parties to solemnise the marriage on a specified earlier date stating the reason for the request, and
  - (b) he has been authorised to solemnise the marriage on that earlier date by the Registrar General.

[<sup>F65</sup>(1A) For the purpose of subsection (1) above, a request which is made by electronic means is to be treated as written if it is received in a form which is legible and capable of being used for subsequent reference.]

- (2) A marriage shall not be solemnised by an authorised registrar unless—
- (a) he has available to him at the time of the ceremony a Marriage Schedule, in respect of the marriage, completed in accordance with this Act and the prescribed fee for the marriage has been paid;
  - (b) both parties to the marriage are present; and
  - (c) two persons professing to be 16 years of age or over are present as witnesses.

(3) Immediately after the solemnisation of the marriage the Marriage Schedule shall be signed by the parties contracting the marriage, by both witnesses present thereat and by the authorised registrar who solemnised it.

(4) As soon as possible after the Marriage Schedule has been signed in accordance with subsection (3) above—

[<sup>F66</sup>(a) in a case where the marriage has been solemnised by the authorised registrar—

- (i) in his registration office;
- (ii) in any such place as is mentioned in section 18(3) of this Act;
- (iii) at an approved place in his district; or
- (iv) in or on an approved vessel in Scottish waters,

20 Second marriage ceremony.

- (1) Where two persons have gone through a marriage ceremony with each other outside the United Kingdom, whether before or after the commencement of this Act, but they are not, or are unable to prove that they are, validly married to each other in Scots law, an authorised registrar, on an application made to him by those persons, may, subject to the approval of the Registrar General and to subsection (2) below, solemnise their marriage as if they had not already gone through a marriage ceremony with each other.
- (2) Sections 3 to 6 and 18 and 19 of this Act shall apply for the purpose of solemnising a marriage under this section except that—
- there shall be submitted to the authorised registrar a statutory declaration by both parties—
    - stating that they have previously gone through a marriage ceremony with each other; and
    - specifying the date and place at which, and the circumstances in which, they went through that ceremony;
  - section 5(4)(b) of this Act shall not apply in respect of the parties already being married to each other;
  - the Marriage Schedule shall contain such modifications as the Registrar General may direct to indicate that the parties have previously gone through a marriage ceremony with each other; and
  - after the Marriage Schedule has been signed in accordance with section 19(3) of this Act, the authorised registrar shall make an endorsement on it in the following terms—

“The ceremony of marriage between the parties mentioned in this Schedule was performed in pursuance of section 20 of the Marriage (Scotland) Act 1977, following a statutory declaration by them that they had gone through a ceremony of marriage with each other on the day of 19 , at

20A Grounds on which marriage void

- (1) Where subsection (2) or (3) applies in relation to a marriage solemnised in Scotland, the marriage shall be void.
- (2) This subsection applies if at the time of the marriage ceremony a party to the marriage who was capable of consenting to the marriage purported to give consent but did so by reason only of duress or error.
- (3) This subsection applies if at the time of the marriage ceremony a party to the marriage was incapable of—
  - (a) understanding the nature of marriage; and
  - (b) consenting to the marriage.
- (4) If a party to a marriage purported to give consent to the marriage other than by reason only of duress or error, the marriage shall not be void by reason only of that party's having tacitly withheld consent to the marriage at the time when it was solemnised.
- (5) In this section “error” means—
  - (a) error as to the nature of the ceremony; or
  - (b) a mistaken belief held by a person (“A”) that the other party at the ceremony with whom A purported to enter into a marriage was the person whom A had agreed to marry.]

IRREGULAR MARRIAGES

21 Registration of irregular marriages.

Where decree of declarator establishing—

- (a) a marriage by cohabitation with habit and repute; or
- (b) a marriage contracted before 1st July 1940 by declaration de praesentior by promise subsequente copula, has been granted in the Court of Session, the principal clerk of Session shall forthwith cause the decree, the names, designations and addresses of the parties, and the date, as determined by the Court, on which the marriage was constituted to be intimated to the Registrar General, and on receipt of such intimation the Registrar General shall cause the marriage to be registered.

GENERAL

22 Interpreters at marriage ceremony.

- (1) Where the person by whom a marriage is to be solemnised under this Act considers that it is necessary or desirable, he may use the services of an interpreter (not being a party or a witness to the marriage) at the marriage ceremony.
- (2) The interpreter shall—
  - (a) before the marriage ceremony, sign a written statement that he understands, and is able to converse in, any language in respect of which he is to act as interpreter at that ceremony; and
  - (b) immediately after the marriage ceremony, furnish the person solemnising the marriage with a certificate written in English and signed by the interpreter that he has faithfully acted as interpreter at that ceremony.

(3) Any fee for the services of the interpreter shall be paid by the parties to the marriage.

23 Cancellation of entry in register of marriages.

If a marriage in respect of which an entry has been made in a register of marriages is found or declared to be void, the Registrar General shall direct the cancellation of the entry.

- (1) Subject to sections 1 and 2 of and without prejudice to section 24(1) of this Act, where the particulars of any marriage at the ceremony in respect of which both parties were present are entered in a register of marriages by or at the behest of an appropriate registrar, the validity of that marriage shall not be questioned, in any legal proceedings whatsoever, on the ground of failure to comply with a requirement or restriction imposed by, under or by virtue of this Act.
- (2) In subsection (1) above, “appropriate registrar” means—
  - (a)
  - (b) in any other case, a district registrar.]
