

Torts (Interference with Goods) Act 1977

1977 CHAPTER 32

Conversion and trespass to goods

11 Minor amendments

- (1) Contributory negligence is no defence in proceedings founded on conversion, or on intentional trespass to goods.
- (2) Receipt of goods by way of pledge is conversion if the delivery of the goods is conversion.
- (3) Denial of title is not of itself conversion.