
Status: Point in time view as at 01/02/1991.

Changes to legislation: Patents Act 1977, Section 26 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 26 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

Patents Act 1977

1977 CHAPTER 37

PART I U.K.

NEW DOMESTIC LAW

Provisions as to patents after grant

26 Patent not to be impugned for lack of unity. U.K.

No person may in any proceeding object to a patent or to an amendment of a specification of a patent on the ground that the claims contained in the specification of the patent, as they stand or, as the case may be, as proposed to be amended, relate—

- (a) to more than one invention, or
- (b) to a group of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single inventive concept.

Status:

Point in time view as at 01/02/1991.

Changes to legislation:

Patents Act 1977, Section 26 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 26 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations.