

Rent Act 1977

1977 CHAPTER 42

PART IV

REGISTRATION OF RENTS UNDER REGULATED TENANCIES

New basis for administration of rent officer service

64B

- (1) If, with respect to registration areas generally or any particular registration area or areas, it appears to the Secretary of State that it is no longer appropriate for the appointment, remuneration and administration of rent officers to be a function of local authorities, he may by order—
 - (a) provide that no scheme under section 63 above shall be made for the area or areas specified in the order; and
 - (b) make, with respect to the area or areas so specified, such provision as appears to him to be appropriate with respect to the appointment, remuneration and administration of rent officers and the payment of pensions, allowances or gratuities to or in respect of them.
- (2) An order under this section shall make provision for any expenditure attributable to the provisions of the order to be met by the Secretary of State in such manner as may be specified in the order (whether by way of grant, reimbursement or otherwise); and any expenditure incurred by the Secretary of State by virtue of this subsection shall be paid out of money provided by Parliament.
- (3) An order under this section—
 - (a) may contain such incidental, transitional and supplementary provisions as appear to the Secretary of State to be appropriate, including provisions amending this Part of this Act; and
 - (b) shall be made by statutory instrument which shall be subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.

67 Application for registration of rent.

- (1) An application for the registration of a rent for a dwelling-house may be made to the rent officer by the landlord or the tenant, or jointly by the landlord and the tenant, under a regulated tenancy of the dwelling-house.
- ^{F4}(2) Any such application must be in the prescribed form and must—
 - (a) specify the rent which it is sought to register;
 - (b) where the rent includes any sum payable by the tenant to the landlord for services and the application is made by the landlord, specify that sum and be accompanied by details of the expenditure incurred by the landlord in providing those services; and
 - (c) contain such other particulars as may be prescribed.]
- (3) Subject to subsection (4) below [^{F5}and sections 67A and 70A of this Act], where a rent for a dwelling-house has been registered under this Part of this Act, no application by the tenant alone or by the landlord alone for the registration of a different rent for that dwelling-house shall be entertained before the expiry of [^{F6}2 years] from the relevant date (as defined in subsection (5) below) except on the ground that, since that date, there has been such a change in—

- (a) the condition of the dwelling-house (including the making of any improvement therein),
- (b) the terms of the tenancy,
- (c) the quantity, quality or condition of any furniture provided for use under the tenancy (deterioration by fair wear and tear excluded), or
- (d) any other circumstances taken into consideration when the rent was registered or confirmed, as to make the registered rent no longer a fair rent.

[^{F7}(3A) If the dwelling-house forms part of a hereditament in respect of which the landlord or a superior landlord is, or was on the relevant date, liable under Part I of the Local Government Finance Act 1992 to pay council tax, then, in determining for the purposes of subsection (3) above whether since the relevant date there has been such a change falling within paragraph (d) of that subsection as to make the registered rent no longer a fair rent, any change in the amount of council tax payable in respect of the hereditament shall be disregarded unless it is attributable to—

- (a) the fact that the hereditament has become, or has ceased to be, an exempt dwelling,
- (b) an alteration in accordance with regulations under section 24 of the Local Government Finance Act 1992 of the valuation band shown in a valuation list as applicable to the hereditament, or
- (c) the compilation of a new valuation list in consequence of an order of the Secretary of State under section 5(4)(b) of that Act.

(3B) In subsection (3A) above “hereditament” means a dwelling within the meaning of Part I of the Local Government Finance Act 1992 and, subject to that, expressions used in subsection (3A) and in Part I of that Act have the same meaning in that subsection as in that Part.]

(4) Notwithstanding anything in subsection (3) above, an application such as is mentioned in that subsection which is made by the landlord alone and is so made within the last 3 months of the period of [^{F6}2 years] referred to in that subsection may be entertained notwithstanding that that period has not expired.

[^{F8}(5) In this section ^{F9}... “relevant date”, in relation to a rent which has been registered under this Part of this Act, means the date from which the registration took effect or, in the case of a registered rent which has been confirmed, the date from which the confirmation (or, where there have been two or more successive confirmations, the last of them) took effect [^{F10}but for the purposes of this subsection any registration or confirmation by virtue of section 70A of this Act shall be disregarded.]]

^{F11}(6)

(7) ^{F9}... The provisions of Part I of Schedule 11 to this Act [^{F12}as modified by the Regulated Tenancies (Procedure) Regulations 1980][^{F13}and by the Rent Assessment Committees (England and Wales) (Amendment) Regulations 1981] shall have effect with respect to the procedure to be followed on applications for the registration of rents.

[^{F14}67A Application before 1st April 1994 for interim increase of rent in certain cases where landlord liable for council tax

- (1) Subject to subsection (4) below, an application under this section for the registration under section 70A of this Act of an increased rent for a dwelling-house may be made by the landlord or the tenant, or jointly by the landlord and the tenant, under a regulated tenancy of the dwelling-house in any case where—
 - (a) under Part I of the Local Government Finance Act 1992 the landlord or a superior landlord is liable to pay council tax in respect of a dwelling (within the meaning of that Part of that Act) which includes the dwelling-house,
 - (b) under the terms of the tenancy (or an agreement collateral to the tenancy) the tenant is liable to make payments to the landlord in respect of council tax,
 - (c) the case falls within subsection (2) or subsection (3) below, and
 - (d) no previous application has been made under this section in relation to the dwelling-house.
- (2) The case falls within this subsection if—
 - (a) a rent has been registered under this Part of this Act before 1st April 1993,
 - (b) the period of two years from the relevant date has not yet expired, and
 - (c) since the relevant date there has been no such change in circumstances of a kind mentioned in paragraphs (a) to (d) of section 67(3) of this Act (other than circumstances relating to council tax) as to make the registered rent no longer a fair rent.
- (3) The case falls within this subsection if an application under section 67 of this Act has been made before 1st April 1993 but has not been disposed of before that date.
- (4) No application may be made under this section after 31st March 1994.
- (5) Any such application must be in the prescribed form and must—
 - (a) specify the rent which it is sought to register to take into account the tenant’s liability to make payments to the landlord in respect of council tax; and
 - (b) contain such other particulars as may be prescribed.
- (6) The provisions of Part I of Schedule 11 to this Act (as modified by the Regulated Tenancies (Procedure) Regulations 1980 and by the Rent Assessment Committees (England and Wales) (Amendment) Regulations 1981) shall have effect with respect to the procedure to be followed on applications for the registration of rents.

70 Determination of fair rent.

(1) In determining, for the purposes of this Part of this Act, what rent is or would be a fair rent under a regulated tenancy of a dwelling-house, regard shall be had to all the circumstances (other than personal circumstances) and in particular to—

- (a) the age, character, locality and state of repair of the dwelling-house, . . . ^{F16}
- (b) if any furniture is provided for use under the tenancy, the quantity, quality and condition of the furniture [^{F17}, and]

[^{F17}(c) any premium, or sum in the nature of a premium, which has been or may be lawfully required or received on the grant, renewal, continuance or assignment of the tenancy.]

(2) For the purposes of the determination it shall be assumed that the number of persons seeking to become tenants of similar dwelling-houses in the locality on the terms (other than those relating to rent) of the regulated tenancy is not substantially greater than the number of such dwelling-houses in the locality which are available for letting on such terms.

(3) There shall be disregarded—

- (a) any disrepair or other defect attributable to a failure by the tenant under the regulated tenancy or any predecessor in title of his to comply with any terms thereof;
- (b) any improvement carried out, otherwise than in pursuance of the terms of the tenancy, by the tenant under the regulated tenancy or any predecessor in title of his;

(c) ^{F18}

(e) if any furniture is provided for use under the regulated tenancy, any improvement to the furniture by the tenant under the regulated tenancy or any predecessor in title of his or, as the case may be, any deterioration in the condition of the furniture due to any ill-treatment by the tenant, any person residing or lodging with him, or any sub-tenant of his.

^{F19}[(3A) In any case where under Part I of the Local Government Finance Act 1992 the landlord or a superior landlord is liable to pay council tax in respect of a hereditament (“the relevant hereditament”) of which the dwelling-house forms part, regard shall also be

- (a) for the financial year in which that application was made, and
- (b) for the category of dwellings within which the relevant hereditament fell on that date, but any discount or other reduction affecting the amount of council tax payable shall be disregarded.

(3B) In subsection (3A) above—

- (a) “hereditament” means a dwelling within the meaning of Part I of the Local Government Finance Act 1992,
- (b) “billing authority” has the same meaning as in that Part of that Act, and
- (c) “category of dwellings” has the same meaning as in section 30(1) and (2) of that Act.]

(4) In this section “improvement” includes the replacement of any fixture or fitting.

[^{F20}(4A) In this section “premium” has the same meaning as in Part IX of this Act, and “sum in the nature of a premium” means—

- (a) any such loan as is mentioned in section 119 or 120 of this Act,
- (b) any such excess over the reasonable price of furniture as is mentioned in section 123 of this Act, and
- (c) any such advance payment of rent as is mentioned in section 126 of this Act.]

71 Amount to be registered as rent.

- (1) The amount to be registered as the rent of any dwelling-house shall include any sums payable by the tenant to the landlord [^{F23}in respect of council tax or]for the use of furniture or for services, whether or not those sums are separate from the sums payable for the occupation of the dwelling-house or are payable under separate agreements.
- (2) Where any rates in respect of a dwelling-house are borne by the landlord or a superior landlord, the amount to be registered under this Part of this Act as the rent of the dwelling-house shall be the same as if the rates were not so borne; but the fact that they are so borne shall be noted on the register.
- (3) Where subsection (2) above applies, the amount of the rates for any rental period, ascertained in accordance with Schedule 5 to this Act—
 - (a) shall, subject to paragraphs 1(4) and 4(3) of Schedule 9 to this Act, be added to the limit imposed by section 44(1) of this Act . . . ^{F24}; and
 - (b) if the rental period is a statutory period, as defined in section 61 of this Act, shall be recoverable, without service of any notice of increase, in addition to the sums recoverable from the tenant apart from this subsection.
- (4) Where, under a regulated tenancy, the sums payable by the tenant to the landlord include any sums varying according to the cost from time to time of—
 - (a) any services provided by the landlord or a superior landlord, or
 - (b) any works of maintenance or repair carried out by the landlord or a superior landlord, the amount to be registered under this Part of this Act as rent may, if the rent officer is satisfied or, as the case may be, the [^{F25}appropriate tribunal] are satisfied, that the terms as to the variation are reasonable, be entered as an amount variable in accordance with those terms.

73 Cancellation of registration of rent.

- (1) An application may be made in accordance with this section for the cancellation of the registration of a rent for a dwelling-house where—
- (a) a rent agreement as respects the dwelling-house takes effect, or is to take effect, after the expiration of a period of [^{F33}3 years] beginning with the relevant date (as defined in section 67(5) of this Act), and
 - (b) the period for which the tenancy has effect cannot end, or be brought to an end by the landlord (except for non-payment of rent or a breach of the terms of the tenancy), earlier than 12 months after the date of the application, and
 - (c) the application is made jointly by the landlord and the tenant under the agreement.

[^{F34}(1A) Such an application may also be made where—

- (a) not less than two years have elapsed since the relevant date (as defined in section 67(5) of this Act); and
- (b) the dwelling-house is not for the time being subject to a regulated tenancy; and
- (c) the application is made by the person who would be the landlord if the dwelling-house were let on such a tenancy.]

- (2) The rent agreement may be one providing that the agreement does not take effect unless the application for cancellation of registration is granted.

[^{F35}(3) An application under this section must—

- (a) be in the form prescribed for the application concerned and contain the prescribed particulars; and
- (b) be accompanied, in the case of an application under subsection (1) above, by a copy of the rent agreement.]

- (4) If [^{F36}the application is made under subsection (1) above and] the rent officer is satisfied that the rent, or the highest rent, payable under the rent agreement does not exceed a fair rent for the dwelling-house, he shall cancel the registration [^{F37}and he shall also cancel the registration if the application is made under subsection (1A) above].

- (5) Where [^{F38}the application is made under subsection (1) above and] under the terms of the rent agreement the sums payable by the tenant to the landlord include any sums varying according to the cost from time to time of any services provided by the landlord or a superior landlord, or of any works of maintenance or repair carried out by the landlord or a superior landlord, the rent officer shall not cancel the registration unless he is satisfied that those terms are reasonable.

- (6) [^{F39}A cancellation made in pursuance of an application under subsection (1) above] shall not take effect until the date when the agreement takes effect; and if the cancellation is registered before that date, the date on which it is to take effect shall be noted on the register.

- (7) The cancellation of the registration shall be without prejudice to a further registration of a rent at any time after cancellation.
