92 Further transfers of trust property.

- (1) The Secretary of State may, having regard to any change or proposed change in the arrangements for the administration of a hospital [<sup>F6</sup>or other establishment or facility] or in the area or functions of any [<sup>F7</sup>Health Authority or Special Health Authority], by order provide for the transfer of any trust property [<sup>F8</sup>from any relevant health service body to any other relevant health service body].

- (a) a Health Authority;
- (b) a Special Health Authority;
- (c) an NHS trust [<sup>F10</sup>or a Primary Care Trust];
- (d) special trustees; or
- (e) trustees for an NHS trust [<sup>F10</sup>or a Primary Care Trust].]

- (2) If it appears to the Secretary of State at any time that all the functions of any special trustees should be discharged by [<sup>F11</sup>one or more bodies which are relevant health service bodies by virtue of subsection (1A)(a) to (c) above] then, whether or not there has been any such change as is mentioned in subsection (1) above, he may by order provide for the transfer of all trust property from the special trustees to the [<sup>F12</sup>body or, in such proportions as may be specified in the order, to those bodies].

- (3) Before so acting the Secretary of State shall consult the [<sup>F13</sup>special trustees and other bodies]concerned.

- (4) Where by an order under this section, property is transferred to two or more [<sup>F14</sup>bodies], it shall be apportioned by them in such proportions as they may agree or as may in default of agreement be determined by the Secretary of State, and the order may provide for the way in which the property is to be apportioned.

- (5) Where property is so apportioned, the Secretary of State may by order make any consequential amendments of the trust instrument relating to the property.

[<sup>F15</sup>(6) If it appears to the Secretary of State at any time that—

- (a) the functions of any special trustees should be discharged by the trustees for an NHS trust, or
- (b) the functions of the trustees for an NHS trust should be discharged by special trustees, then, whether or not there has been any such change as is mentioned in subsection (1) above, he may, after consulting the special trustees and the trustees for the NHS trust, by order provide for the transfer of all trust property from or to the special trustees to or from the trustees for the NHS trust.]

[<sup>F16</sup>(7) Subsection (6) above applies in relation to a Primary Care Trust as it applies in relation to an NHS trust.]

93 Trust property previously held for general hospital purposes.

- (1) This section applies—
- to property transferred under section 23 of the <sup>M6</sup>National Health Service Reorganisation Act 1973 (winding-up of hospital endowments funds), and
  - to property transferred under section 24 of that Act (transfer of trust property from abolished authorities) which immediately before the day appointed for the purposes of that section was, in accordance with any provision contained in or made under section 7 of the <sup>M7</sup>National Health Service Act 1946, applicable for purposes relating to hospital services or relating to some form of research, and this section continues to apply to the property after any further transfer under section 92 above.

- (2) The person holding the property after the transfer or last transfer shall secure, so far as is reasonably practicable, that the objects of any original endowment and the observance of any conditions attached to that endowment, including in particular conditions intended to preserve the memory of any person or class of persons, are not prejudiced by this Part of this Act, <sup>F17</sup> . . .

In this subsection “original endowment” means a hospital endowment which was transferred under section 7 of that Act of 1946 and from which the property in question is derived.

- (3) Subject to subsection (2) above, the property shall be held on trust for such purposes relating to hospital services (including research), or to any other part of the health service associated with any hospital, as the person holding the property thinks fit.
- (4) Where the person holding the property is a body of special trustees, the power conferred by subsection (3) above shall be exercised as respects the hospitals for which they are appointed.

94 Application of trust property: further provisions.

(1) Any discretion given by a trust instrument to the trustees of property transferred under—

- (a) section 24 of the <sup>M8</sup>National Health Service Reorganisation Act 1973 (transfer of trust property from abolished authorities),
- (b) section 25 of that Act (transfer of trust property held for health services by local health authorities),
- (c) section 92 above,

shall be exercisable by the person to whom the property is so transferred and, subject to section 93 above and the following provisions of this section, the transfer shall not affect the trusts on which property is held.

(2) Where—

- (a) property has been transferred under section 24 of that Act of 1973, and
- (b) any discretion is given by a trust instrument to the trustees to apply the property, or income arising from the property, to such hospital services (including research) as the trustees think fit without any restriction on the kinds of hospital services and without any restriction to one or more specified hospitals, the discretion shall be enlarged so as to allow the application of the property or (as the case may be) of the income arising from the property, to such extent as the trustees think fit, for any other part of the health service associated with any hospital.

(3) Subsection (2) above shall apply on any subsequent transfer of the property under section 92 above.

Modifications etc. (not altering text)

C4 S. 94(1)(3) extended (E.W.) (28.6.1995 for specified purposes and otherwise 1.4.1996) by 1995 c. 17, ss. 4(1)(2), 8(1), Sch. 2 para. 5(3) (with Sch. 2 para. 6)

95 Special trustees for a university or teaching hospital.

- (1) The bodies of trustees (in this Act referred to as special trustees) appointed by the Secretary of State under section 29 of the National Health Service Reorganisation Act 1973 [<sup>F18</sup>or] this section shall (subject to section 92 above) hold and administer the property transferred to them under that Act of 1973.

The special trustees so appointed are bodies of trustees appointed for the hospital or hospitals which, immediately before the day appointed for the purposes of section 29 of that Act of 1973, were controlled and managed by a University Hospital Management Committee or a Board of Governors, but excluding—

- (a) a body on whose request an order was made under section 24(2) of that Act of 1973;
- (b) a preserved Board within the meaning of section 15(6) of that Act of 1973.
- (2) Special trustees have power to accept, hold and administer any property on trust for all or any purposes relating to hospital services (including research), or to any other part of the health service associated with hospitals, being a trust which is wholly or mainly for hospitals for which the special trustees are appointed.
- (3) The number of trustees for any hospital or hospitals shall be such as the Secretary of State may from time to time determine after consultation with such persons as he considers appropriate.
- (4) The term of office of any special trustee shall be fixed by the Secretary of State but a special trustee may be removed by the Secretary of State at any time during the special trustee's term of office.

96 Trusts: supplementary provisions.

- (1) Any provision in sections 90 to 95 above [<sup>F19</sup>and 96B below] for the transfer of any property includes provision for the transfer of any rights and liabilities arising from that property.

[<sup>F20</sup>(1A) Where any transfer of property by virtue of those sections is of, or includes,—

- (a) land held on lease from a third party, that is to say, a person other than the Secretary of State or a [<sup>F21</sup>Health Authority or Special Health Authority], or
- (b) any other asset leased or hired from a third party or in which a third party has an interest, the transfer shall be binding on the third party notwithstanding that, apart from this subsection, it would have required his consent or concurrence.]

- (2) Nothing in those sections shall affect any power of Her Majesty, the court (as defined in [<sup>F22</sup>the <sup>M9</sup>Charities Act 1993]) or any other person to alter the trusts of any charity.
- (3) Nothing in section 12 of the <sup>M10</sup>Finance Act 1895 (which requires certain Acts and certain instruments relating to the vesting of property by virtue of an Act to be stamped as conveyances on sale) applies to sections 90 to 95 above [and 96B below] or to an order made in pursuance of any of those sections; and stamp duty shall not be payable on such an order.

Finance and Accounts

[ It is the duty of the Secretary of State to pay to each Health Authority sums equal to <sup>F40</sup>(1) their general Part II expenditure.

[ “General Part II expenditure” is expenditure which—

<sup>F41</sup>(2) (a) is attributable to the payment of remuneration to persons providing services in pursuance of Part II; but

(b) does not fall within paragraphs (b) to (d) of subsection (3A).]

(3) It is the duty of the Secretary of State to pay to each Health Authority, in respect of each financial year, sums not exceeding the amount allotted for that year by the Secretary of State to the Authority towards meeting their main expenditure [<sup>F42</sup>in that year].

[ Schedule 12A to this Act (which defines “general Part II expenditure” and “main <sup>F43</sup>(3BB) expenditure” for the purposes of, and supplements, this section and section 97C below) shall have effect]]

[ Where the Secretary of State has made an initial determination of the amount (“the <sup>F44</sup>(3C) initial amount”) to be allotted for any year to a Health Authority under subsection (3) above, he may, if it appears to him that the authority satisfied in any preceding year any objectives notified as objectives to be met by Health Authorities for the purposes of this subsection in performing their functions, increase the initial amount by a further sum.

(3D) In subsection (3C) above, “notified” means specified or referred to in a notice given to Health Authorities by the Secretary of State.

- (3E) In making any increase under subsection (3C) above, the Secretary of State may (whether by directions under subsection (6) below or otherwise) impose any conditions he thinks fit on the application or retention by the authority of the sum in question.
- (3F) Where the Secretary of State has, under subsection (3C) above, increased by any sum the amount to be allotted for any year to a Health Authority and notified the authority of the allotment and it subsequently appears to him that the authority have failed (wholly or in part) to satisfy any conditions imposed in making that increase, he may—
- (a) reduce the allotment made to that authority for that year, or
  - (b) when he has made an initial determination of the amount (“the initial amount”) to be allotted for any subsequent year to the authority under subsection (3) above, reduce the initial amount,
- by an amount not exceeding that sum.]
- (4) It is the duty of the Secretary of State to pay in respect of each financial year to each Special Health Authority sums not exceeding the amount allotted for that year by the Secretary of State to the Special Health Authority towards meeting the expenditure of the Special Health Authority which is attributable to the performance by the Special Health Authority of their functions in that year.
- (5) An amount is allotted to a Health Authority or Special Health Authority for a year under this section when they are notified by the Secretary of State that it is allotted to them for that year; and the Secretary of State may make an allotment under this section increasing or reducing an allotment previously so made.
- (6) The Secretary of State may give directions to a Health Authority or Special Health Authority with respect to—
- (a) the application of sums paid to them under [<sup>F45</sup>this section];
  - (b) the payment of sums by them to the Secretary of State in respect of charges or other sums referable to the valuation or disposal of assets; or
  - (c) the application by them of sums received by them by virtue of section 15(7) (a) of the <sup>M12</sup>National Health Service and Community Care Act 1990.
- <sup>F46</sup>(7) .....
- (8) Where an order establishing a Special Health Authority provides for any expenditure of the Special Health Authority to be met by a Health Authority or by two or more Health Authorities in portions determined by or in accordance with the order, it is the duty of the Health Authority, or each of the Health Authorities, to pay to the Special Health Authority sums equal to, or to the appropriate portion of, that expenditure.
- (9) Sums falling to be paid under this section shall be payable subject to compliance with such conditions as to records, certificates or otherwise as the Secretary of State may determine.]

[<sup>F56</sup>97F Public funding of Local Health Boards

- (1) It is the duty of the National Assembly for Wales, in respect of each financial year, to pay to each Local Health Board—
  - (a) sums equal to their general Part 2 expenditure; and
  - (b) sums not exceeding the amount allotted by the National Assembly for Wales to the Local Health Board for that year towards meeting the Board’s main expenditure in that year.
- (2) In determining the amount to be allotted for any year to a Local Health Board under subsection (1)(b) above (or in varying the amount under subsection (7) below), the National Assembly for Wales may take into account, in whatever way the Assembly thinks appropriate—
  - (a) the Board’s general Part 2 expenditure; and
  - (b) expenditure which would have been the Board’s general Part 2 expenditure but for an order under section 103(1) below, during any period the Assembly thinks appropriate (or such elements of that expenditure as it thinks appropriate).
- (3) Where the National Assembly for Wales has made an initial determination of the amount (“the initial amount”) to be allotted for any year to a Local Health Board under subsection (1)(b) above, the Assembly may increase the initial amount by a further sum if it appears to it that over a period notified to the Board—
  - (a) the Board satisfied any objectives notified to it as objectives to be met in performing its functions; or
  - (b) it performed well against any criteria notified to it as criteria relevant to the satisfactory performance of its functions (whether or not the method of measuring its performance against those criteria was also notified to it).
- (4) In subsection (3) above, “notified” means specified or referred to in a notice given to the Local Health Board by the National Assembly for Wales.
- (5) In making any increase under subsection (3) above, the National Assembly for Wales may (whether by directions under subsection (8) below or otherwise) impose any conditions it thinks fit on the application or retention by the Local Health Board of the sum in question.
- (6) Where the National Assembly for Wales has, under subsection (3) above, increased by any sum the amount to be allotted for any year to a Local Health Board and notified the Board of the allotment and it subsequently appears to the Assembly that the Board has failed (wholly or in part) to satisfy any conditions imposed in making that increase, the Assembly may—
  - (a) reduce the allotment made to the Board for that year; or
  - (b) when the Assembly has made an initial determination of the amount (“the initial amount”) to be allotted for any subsequent year to the Board under subsection (1)(b) above, reduce the initial amount, by any amount not exceeding that sum.

97G Financial duties of Local Health Boards

- (1) It is the duty of every Local Health Board, in respect of each financial year, to perform its functions so as to secure that the expenditure of the Board which is attributable to the performance by the Board of its functions in that year (not including expenditure within subsection (1)(a) of section 97F above) does not exceed the aggregate of—
- (a) the amount allotted to it for that year under subsection (1)(b) of that section;
  - (b) any sums received by it in that year under any provision of this Act (other than sums received by it under that section); and
  - (c) any sums received by it in that year otherwise than under this Act for the purpose of enabling it to defray any such expenditure.
- (2) The National Assembly for Wales may give such directions to a Local Health Board as appear to be requisite to secure that the Board complies with the duty imposed on it by subsection (1) above.
- (3) Directions under subsection (2) may be specific in character.
- (4) To the extent to which—
- (a) any expenditure is defrayed by a Local Health Board as trustee or on behalf of a Local Health Board by special trustees; or
  - (b) any sums are received by a Local Health Board as trustee or under section 96A above,
- that expenditure and, subject to subsection (6) below, those sums shall be disregarded for the purposes of this section.

99 Regulation of financial arrangements.

(1) The Secretary of State may by regulations provide, in the case of all or any of the following bodies—

[<sup>F74</sup>(a) Health Authorities,
(b) Special Health Authorities,]

[<sup>F75</sup>(ba) Primary Care Trusts]
(e) Community Health Councils, and
(f) the Dental Estimates Board, for restricting the making of payments by or on behalf of the body otherwise than on such authorisation and subject to such conditions as may be specified in the regulations.

(2) Such provision may be made subject to such exceptions as may be so specified, and those regulations may contain such other provisions as to the making and carrying out by all or any of those bodies of such arrangements with respect to financial matters as the Secretary of State thinks necessary for the purpose of securing that the affairs of such bodies are conducted, so far as reasonably practicable, in such manner as to prevent financial loss and to ensure and maintain efficiency.

(3) The Secretary of State may give directions to any of those bodies as to any matter with respect to which those regulations may be made; and those directions may be specific in character and shall be—

(a) such as appear to him requisite to secure that the affairs of the body are conducted in such a manner as is mentioned in subsection (2) above,
(b) without prejudice to the operation of any such regulation,
