

Judicature (Northern Ireland) Act 1978

1978 CHAPTER 23

PART VII

FUNDS IN COURT

77 Accountant General.

- (1) Such person as the Lord Chancellor may designate shall be the Accountant General of the Supreme Court.
- (2) There shall be maintained in or near the Royal Courts of Justice an office for the business of the Accountant General under this Part.

78 Accounts of funds in court.

- (1) The Accountant General shall—
 - (a) keep proper accounts (including such accounts as may be necessary for carrying into effect orders of the High Court and the county court and for the purposes of this Part and [F¹Part VI of the ^{M1}Administration of Justice Act 1982]) and proper records in relation to the accounts;
 - (b) prepare in respect of each accounting period a statement of accounts in such form as the Treasury may direct.
- (2) The Accountant General shall, on or before 30th November in any year, send to the Comptroller and Auditor General the statement of accounts prepared by him under subsection (1) for the accounting period last ended.
- (3) The Comptroller and Auditor General shall examine, certify and report on the statement of accounts sent to him under subsection (2) and shall lay copies of the statement of accounts and of his report thereon before each House of Parliament.
- (4) In this section “accounting period” means the period of 12 months ending on 31st March in any year except that the first accounting period shall, if the Treasury so directs, be such period shorter or longer than 12 months (but not longer than two years) as is specified in the direction.

79 Accountant General to keep bank account.

- (1) The Accountant General shall maintain an account at the Bank of Ireland or at such other bank or banks as the Lord Chancellor may, with the concurrence of the Treasury, designate and shall pay all sums received by him into that account and all sums payable by him out of it.
- (2) References to the Bank of Ireland in any statutory provision relating to sums in the Supreme Court or the county court shall, when a designation is made under subsection (1), be construed, in connection with the sums to which that provision relates, as references to a bank so designated.

80 Payments and transfers.

- (1) The payment of money into the Supreme Court or the county court shall be effected by paying into an Accountant General's account maintained under section 79.
- (2) The transfer into the Supreme Court or the county court of securities (other than such as are transferable by delivery) shall be effected by transferring them to the Accountant General.
- (3) The deposit in the Supreme Court or the county court of effects and the transfer into court of securities transferable by delivery shall be effected by delivering them to the Accountant General.

81 Investment of funds in court.

Save in a case in which it is provided by an order of the court that it shall not be placed or invested as mentioned in the following provisions of this section, and subject to any provision to the contrary made by rules made under the next following section, a sum of money in the Supreme Court or in the county court—

- (a) may, if the High Court or the county court (as the case may be) so orders, be dealt with in such of the following ways as may be specified in the order, namely:—
 - (i) it may be placed, in accordance with rules so made, to a deposit account or a short-term investment account (that is to say, to an account of one or other of two kinds such that, in the case of an account of either kind, there will, under rules so made, but subject to any exceptions thereby prescribed, fall to accrue on moneys placed thereto interest derived from the transfer to, and investment by, the National Debt Commissioners of the moneys placed to all the accounts of those kinds);
 - (ii) it may be placed to a long-term investment account for transfer, under rules so made, to such one of the funds established by schemes made
