

National Health Service (Scotland) Act 1978

1978 CHAPTER 29

PART I

ORGANISATION

Local advisory bodies

7 Local health councils.

- (1) Every Health Board shall, within such period as the Secretary of State may specify, submit to him a scheme for the establishment of a local health council or councils for their area or for such districts covering their whole area as the Board thinks fit; and it shall be the general function of any such council to represent the interests of the public in the health service in the area or district for which they have been established.
- (2) A scheme under subsection (1) shall provide for the appointment . . . ^{F1} by the Health Board, after consultation with such other organisations as may be specified in the scheme, of such number of members as may be so specified.
- (3) The Secretary of State may approve, with or without modifications, any scheme submitted to him under subsection (1), or may refuse to approve it.
- (4) A Health Board may at any time, and if directed by the Secretary of State shall, within such period as he may specify, submit a new scheme under this section, and subsection (3) shall apply to any such new scheme.
- (5) The members of a local health council may appoint one of their own number as the chairman of the council.
- (6) The Secretary of State shall pay to the members of a local health council, and of the committees and sub-committees thereof [^{F2}and of any body established under subsection (9)(g),] such travelling and other allowances, including compensation for 9 Local consultative committees.

- (1) Where, [^{F9}a Health Board is satisfied that a committee formed for its area is representative]—
- of the medical practitioners of that area, or
 - of the dental practitioners of that area, or
 - of the nurses and midwives of that area, or
 - of the pharmacists of that area, or
 - of the ophthalmic [^{F10}and dispensing] opticians of that area,
- the [^{F11}Health Board] shall recognise that committee.
- (2) Any committee so recognised shall be called—
- the area medical committee,
 - the area dental committee,
 - the area nursing and midwifery committee,
 - the area pharmaceutical committee, or
 - the area optical committee,
- as the case may be, for the area concerned.
- (3) Where, [^{F9}a Health Board is satisfied that a committee formed for its area is representative] of any other profession engaged in the provision of care or treatment under this Act, and that it is in the interests of the health service to recognise that committee for the purposes of this Act, [^{F12}the Board] may so recognise it.
- (4) Where, [^{F9}a Health Board is satisfied that a committee formed for its area is representative] of two or more of the professions mentioned in subsection (1) or (3), and that it is in the interests of the health service to recognise that committee for the purposes of this Act, [^{F12}the Board] may so recognise it.
- (5) It shall be the general function of a committee recognised under this section to advise the Health Board for its area on the provision of services under this Act, being services with which that committee is concerned in that area, but, except in so far as regulations
